This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. MONUMENTA TYPOGRAPHICA.

A Catalogue of Books produced by the earliest typographers in all countries, arranged so as to illustrate the history of the origin and development of the Art of Printing; as well as the publications of the famous Aldine, Giunta, and Elzevir Presses; preceded by some examples of præ-typographical Printing.

I. XYLOGRAPHY, BLOCKBOOKS; and Early Metal Engravings with Inscriptions.

Xylography,—a term denoting that phase of wood-engraving in which certain inscriptions or portions of text were cut upon the block in addition to the pictorial design,—must have come into existence about the end of the fourteenth century. It seems to have reached its most flourishing period about the year 1450, and to have been chiefly cultivated in the Rhine-lands. It had probably a continued existence in Germany and Holland till near 1480: we find a belated Italian specimen in 1509.

35943 BECKER (Rud. Zach.) Holzschnitte alter deutscher Meister . . Gravures en bois des anciens Maitres allemands tirées des planches originales recueillies par Jean Albert de Derschau, avec un discours sur la nature et l'histoire de la Gravure en bois, 3 parts in 1 vol. imp. folio, 213 engravings, some very large and folded, printed from the original blocks of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries; hf. red morocco extra, £16. 16*s*

Gotha, 1808-16

An incomparably precious collection, including several xylographic impressions and rude engravings which belong to the very beginning of the fifteenth century; and ranging onward to the finest achievements of the great artists of the sixteenth century. As all these are from the original wood blocks, Derschau's collection must rank infinitely higher than all the books of modern facsimiles or imitations.

35944 DESIGNS FROM METAL PLATES, printed at Hildesheim about A.D. 1400, and illuminated by a contemporary hand; contained in the following MS.:

PSALTERIUM CUM CANTICIS ET PRECIBUS (AD USUM DIOCESEOS HILDESHEIMENSIS), 12mo. MS. on vellum written on 266 leaves, with 9 Miniature-Initials and 2 larger separate Miniatures printed from soft metal and then coloured and gilt by the scribe; one of these miniatures bearing the words Ave Maria impressed in pale ink; PURPLE morocco, gilt edges, with chased silver-gilt clasp; lettered Breviarium Romanum, £45.

(Hildesheim about A.D. 1400)

The MS. and its general features speak for themselves as to the date of this volume; the place is indicated by the names of St. Gotthard and St. Bernhard, Bishops of Hildesheim in the eleventh century, which appear in red letter in the calendar, and which are also in the Litany. There are other names of less prominence which also indicate the region in which the book was executed; and on the final blank leaves there are some prayers (now nearly effaced) in a fifteenth-century hand, the language of which is low Saxon, approximating to the Westphalian dialect. As a specimen, the following few fragmentary words will serve,—"Help mi leue herre so da . . . an myne leuende dat ik diner heligē gesellē mute . . . also dine . . sellescap besitte." These additions are in the same hand as the vellum leaves inserted here and there giving the music of the services, and were written about 1450.

35945 GESCHIEDENIS VAN HET HEYLIGHE CRUYS; or the History of the Holy Cross, reproduced in facsimile from the original edition printed by J. Veldener in 1483, text and engravings by J. Ph. Berjeau, sm. 4to. (published at £1. 5*s*), bds. 20*s* 1863

Introduction, 12 pp. History of the Holy Cross, text (in modern type) with illustrative extracts from the Golden Legend and ancient French MSS. 60 pp. The facsimile, 64 woodcuts on 33 leaves, with text at foot.

The lost blockbook which Veldener utilized by cutting the eleven blocks (bearing 64 designs) into 64 separate pieces, and then printing them as a book with a Dutch text (instead of the original Latin) at the foot of each picture must have been Dutch and probably thirty years older than the date of Veldener's production at Culenborch in 1483.

35945*ARS MORIENDI (editio princeps, circ. 1450) a reproduction of the copy in the British Museum, edited by W. Harry Rylands, with an introduction by George Bullen, 4to. pp. viii and 22, followed by a perfect facsimile of the unique blockbook consisting of 11 pp. of illustrations and 13 pp. of text printed in brown ink; cloth, 14*s* Holbein Society, 1881

The original was bought for the British Museum at Weigel's sale for the sum of £1072. It is the only extant copy of the first xylographic edition of the Ars Moriendi, and is perhaps artistically the finest of all the block-books. Mr. Weigel and Mr. Buller agree in referring it to Cologne about 1450; there can be no doubt about the place of impression, but the date may turn out to be a little later.

35946 SPECULUM HUMANÆ SALVATIONIS: le plus ancien Monument de la Xylographie et de la Typographie réunies, reproduit en facsimile avec introduction historique et bibliographique, par J. P. Berjeau, impl. 4to. including facsimiles of the 116 woodcuts (published at £4. 4*s*), cloth, £2. 10*s* 1861

Title and Introduction, 72 pp. The Speculum in modern type, 32 pp. The Speculum, in facsimile, 63 leaves printed on one side, and including distinct designs, on Dutch-made paper of precisely the same texture as the original. Only 155 copies were printed, and the block print.

"This block-book, supposed to have been executed about 1435, is of the greatest interest in the history of the origin of typography, as well as of popular education. It is a Pictorial Scripture History, that is to say a picture of a certain subject from the Old or New Testament is given, with a more or less brief account in black letter underneath it, of the personages or scener intended. Each page has a double subject. As regards the drawing we hold it to be, though rude, very artistic. There is a decided character and an expression in the figures that are almost worthy of Albert Dürer. Nothing is feeble, though much is quaint. The draperies are simple and effective, and there is no crowding of figures, but a judicious grouping of from two to five personages in each, with backgrounds of trees, hills or houses, as in the works of the early Masters."—See Home and Foreign Review, April, 1863.

35947 BIBLIA PAUPERUM. A beautiful MANUSCRIPT Facsimile of the Biblia Pauperum, with all the Illustrations, carefully executed by Leclabart, roy. 4to. modern invented title, and 40 leaves of facsimile; bound in bright old French red morocco, gilt edges, by Derome, £8. 8*s* (? 1450-1770)

This, like the famous Speculum, is doubtless of Dutch origin and not much earlier than the middle of the fifteenth century. The facsimile is apparently made from the edition which usually ranks as second.

35948 LIFE OF CHRIST in engraved designs, by BARTHOLOMEUS, a Suabian artist: A VALUABLE SERIES OF SIX UNIQUE EARLY ENGRAVINGS executed about the year 1470, in the style known in England as "dotted plates," in France as "la manière criblée," and in Germany as "Schrottblätter;"—partly tinted, neatly mounted on cardboard, and bound in a volume, 4to. morocco extra, £105.

The second of these remarkable engravings is that which gives the artist's name. He was perhaps Bartholomeus Zeitblom of Ulm, described by Nagler as "einer der Hauptmeister der Schwäbischen Schule," who was at work as early as 1468, but who is best known as a painter, about 1490.

1. Christ and the Woman of Samaria. Around the border of the well, his words are given as an inscription (white on black ground) "Wyp gip mir drinck."

2. The Raising of Lazarus. At the bottom, on a black ground, is the inscription in white "Bartholomeus," which can only mean the name of the artist.

3. Christ riding on an ass into Jerusalem.

4. Expulsion of the money-changers from the Temple.

The above four are smaller than the following two, being impressed in pairs on the single leaves; but all are of one time and from one hand.

5. The Flagellation. Christ attached to a column in the middle, and so placed that his body is full in front of the spectator. There are three scourgers: one on the left strikes Him with a bundle of twigs, one on the right clutches Him by the hair and flogs Him with a whip. The third, kneeling in front, is fastening his rods with a thong.

6. Christ appears to Magdalen in the garden. She kneels, [illegible] of ointment in her right hand, its cover in her left

35949 MIRABILIA ROMÆ. Item in dem puechlein stet geschrieben wei Rome gepauet ward . . . 12mo. a German Block Book, being a Hand Book for the Pilgrims at Rome in the XVth Century, with descriptions of the Relics kept in the Churches, and of the Indulgences given by the Priests of the various Churches, facsimile reprint, cloth, uncut, 9s About 1480 (about 1870)

Only 12 copies were reprinted in facsimile by M. Berjeau, for subscribers.

Opera di Giouāniandrea Vauassore ditto Vadaynino: Stampata nouamēte nella inclita citta di Vinegia Laus Deo. [circa 1510]

Contains: A to G, in eights, and H (7 leaves, of which the last contains on the reverse a woodcut of the Virgin and Child).

The excessive rarity of a complete copy of the OPERA NOVA, the sole Block-Book in Italian known, has led bibliographers into some confusion in their descriptions of the volume. The fact is there were about three distinct issues.

35951 DUTUIT (Eugène) Manuel de l'amateur des Estampes, Vols. I, IV, V (all published as yet), roy. 8vo. and a quarto portfolio of "Planches Xylographiques," with numerous facsimiles from the Block-books; bds. uncut, £5. Paris, 1881-84

Mr. Henry Bradshaw's copy,* £9. Leipsig, 1866

II. TYPOGRAPHY.

1. GERMANY,

including Switzerland, Lorraine and Alsace.

(1450) Maintz.

Johann Guttenberg (? 1450)
Johann Fust (? 1455)
and Peter Schöffer of Gernsheim (1457-1502).

As Moses the scheme of the ark, and Solomon that of the temple
Did not achieve without (the aid of) clever constructors;
So One who is greater far than Solomon, now renewing
A greater grace of his church, renews Bezeleël and Hiram.
Lo! He who deigns to draw forth men that excel in science,
Has given these masters twain, unpeered in the art of engraving,
Two Johns who both derived from the town of Maintz their being,
Illustrious First-producers of books that were stamped with letters:
With whom did Peter come to the sepulchre they were bound for.
—Later to run was he, but first to enter within it,
Excelling them both as he did in the fine perception of type-form
Wherewith the Sole Giver of light and genius had endowed him.
Every nation with him may find its fashion of letter
For with all manner of types truly is he the foremost.
'Tis almost past belief how high are the money-wages
He hires the doctors withal, who read and correct his copy
With him is the master Francis, well-skilled in composing the type-rows,
Whose finely symmetrical press-work throughout all the world is renownëd;
And me likewise to him no pitiful pittance has bonded
But only the public weal, the vantage of all earth-dwellers.
Thus O! would all setters of type and all proof-readers endeavour
To clear and purge (like us) their models of text from blemish

Doubtless the Hall of Learning would crown them with rays of glory
Since 'tis by them a thousand Chairs with books are instructed!

These rude verses (of which several faulty translations have appeared) are found at the end of "Justiniani Institutiones," printed by Schoeffer in 1468. They were written, as is evident, by Johann Brunnen (Joannes Fons, Joannes de Fonte), the corrector and reader of Schöffer's press, who also wrote the metrical Latin Grammar which Schöffer had printed in 1466. They contain a brief notice of five persons who continuously formed or worked the first printing-establishment in the world; namely, and in this succession, John the first of Maintz, John the second (Fust), Peter (Schöffer), Francis the compositor, and (John Brunnen) the reader. Therefore the fact, on which Mr. Hessels dwells, that Schöffer's house was not the identical building in which Guttenberg had first worked, was manifestly one of no importance in the eyes of Brunnen, and consequently the words in his Grammar (second edition, 1468) me domus genuit unde caragma venit are simply a loose form of expression, on which no argument can be based.—The above testimony as to the inventor of printing only needs to be supplemented and completed by the letter of Fichet to Gaguin which forms a preliminary to the edition of Gasparinus Pergamensis printed at Paris in 1470. There it is stated by the Prior of the Sorbonne that "John who styles himself Gutenberg and who dwells near Maintz" had invented the art of reproducing books by little metal types of letters, according to the information given him by the three Germans who had come to Paris to introduce the same art into that city.—The next special evidence on this point appeared in 1474 in the Chronicle published by Lignamine at Rome in 1474; and a confirmation from Mentz itself, from the Schoeffer press in 1505, will be found in the German Livy described infra.

(Johann Gutenberg alone.)

In spite of the extraordinary interest which attaches to the Mazarine Bible, Schoeffer's Psalter, and the Durandus—the Catholicon is not excelled by any of them as an important document in the early history of Printing. Those three works may have all been produced in one establishment by Peter Schoeffer between 1455 and 1459, as Mr. Hessels concludes; this can only be considered the production of the other printer, the "John of Mentz called Gutenberg" whom we have long heard of as the inventor of the Art.

The language of the colophon in the Catholicon, so far as it relates to the new art and the glory of the city of Mentz, is strikingly more emphatic, more original, and more stamped with the tokens of priority than any of the similar statements made in Schoeffer's colophons.

This is one of the ten recorded copies—this and another being the only two which are not yet locked up in the great libraries. It is a volume of considerable importance for the history of typography, seeing that it is in the exact type of the famous Catholicon and that only three books altogether (besides the Catholicon) can be so specified.

The second book printed with a date; the grandest work ever produced by typography; and one of the rarest of the early monuments of Printing.

In the two Psalters (one dated 1457, the other as above 1459) Schoeffer achieved a work which amply justified the boast translated on a preceding page. In Jackson and Chatto's Wood-Engraving (p. 201) it is very justly stated that "the large initial letters engraved on wood and printed in red and blue ink, are the most beautiful specimens of this kind of ornament which the united efforts of the wood engraver and the pressman have produced. They have been imitated in modern times, but not excelled. As they are the first letters in point of time printed with two colours so are they likely to continue the first in point of excellence."—In designating the above volume as the grandest work ever produced by typography, I naturally treat the two Psalters of 1457 and 1459 as substantially the same book; of which there are now in existence 21 copies all varying from each other like different editions, but of which nine have a colophon dated 1457 and twelve a colophon dated 1459. In the copies with the latter date, the Athanasian Creed is given, which does not appear in those of 1457, and the colophon affords a variation in the name and description of one of the printers. In the 1457 colophon, he is simply Petrū Schoffer de Gernszheim, in that of 1459 he is (as he probably considered more correct) Petrū Schoifher de gerns'heym clericū.

The above copy is not only splendidly fine in preservation; it is also perfect. Most copies appear to be imperfect, as are the British Museum copy, and the Windsor copy, of the 1457

Psalter.—The Mazarine Bible is comparatively a common book by the side of the Psalter; several copies of the former have been sold during the last twenty years, while this is the only copy of the Psalter which has turned up for the better part of a century. The great public libraries have absorbed nearly all that remain of the few copies originally printed by Schöffer. It is probable that he never produced more than fourteen or fifteen examples of each of the two kinds.—The two Psalters are differentiated thus,—that one is the service-book of the Church of Maintz, and the other the service-book of the Benedictine monastery of St. James at Maintz; the varying use being shown in the prayers which succeed the Psalter.

Peter Schoeffer alone (1466-1502).

VERY RARE. A curious circumstance in the printing of this book is not noticed by Panzer, Hain, and Brunet; which perhaps indicates that all copies are not like the present. After the fortieth folio which ends the fifth sheet, a single leaf is inserted, printed in a larger type than the rest of the book, for the purpose of supplying an omission made by the compositor. This additional leaf cannot have been added in all the copies, many of which had no doubt been distributed before the error was discovered. Signatures are added to the sheets in red ink by a contemporary hand; the inserted leaf is thus marked f 1, and sheet f consequently consists of nine leaves.

The text occupies two columns in the middle of each page; and the gloss of Joannes Andreæ is in smallar type in an inner and an outer column. A Schoeffer on vellum is always a desirable acquisition.

35962 TURRECREMATA (Johannis de) Expositio Psalmorum, sm. folio, printed in the same Gothic type as the Valerius Maximus, but having the first words of each Psalm in large missal-characters, the initials painted in, the colophon printed in red ink; old English blue morocco gilt, from the Sunderland library, £7. 10*s*

This is an interesting issue of a rare volume. Only two copies of Schöffer's Breslau Missal of 1499 are recorded by Mr. Weale, and they both vary from this in having the use specified. The date also would seem to be given in a different form, as Mr. Weale gives it "28 Sept.", the same day being indicated in a variant method in the above copy.

Mentz, Joannes Schoeffer, 1523

This volume is one of the documents upon which the history of Printing is based. The dedication to the Emperor Maximilian ends with the following statement relating to Mentz:—

In which town, also, the wondrous art of Printing was originally invented, firstly by the ingenious Johann Guttenbergk, 1450 years as it is counted from the birth of our lord Christ; and thereafter improved and made permanent by the diligence, cost, and labour of John Faust and Peter Schöffer at Mentz, etc.

This statement, emanating perhaps from Ivo Wittig, but evidently sanctioned if not composed by the printer, has a distinct value, as showing that, in 1505, Johann Schöffer, the son of Peter Schöffer and the grandson of Fust, was not under the influence of any family tradition which could invalidate the priority of Guttenberg. It was first printed in that year, 1505, a fact which must not be forgotten in connexion with the appearance of quite dissimilar statements in other Schöffer-books from 1515 onwards.

Johann Mentelin (1460–76).

35969 JOANNES CHRYSOSTOMOS. Traductio libror' Sancti Iohannis crisostomi Super Matheum e greco ī latinū edita a Georio (sic) trapezontio . . . s. l. & a. sed typis J. Mentelin, about 1465—AUGUSTINUS (S.) DE ARTE PRÆDICANDI, stated in Preface to have been committed "Johanni Mentelin," for publication (Argent. about 1465)—2 vols. in 1, sm. folio, very fine copies, in russia extra, leather joints, gilt edges, by Roger Payne, both works excessively rare, £36. (? 1465)

These two works are partly in the peculiar backward-leaning semi-Gothic in which the Latin Bible was printed by Mentelin, which bears in one copy a rubrication dated 1460-61.

The two preliminary leaves of the Augustine are a notice by the editor concerning his labours to obtain a corrected text of a treatise so useful to the men of his own order—he was a Dominican or preaching monk. He had examined all the copies that were to be found in Heidelberg, Speyer, Worms, and Strassburg, so as to make his own a perfect model of correctness; and next came the duty of multiplying examples for his fellow monks. Wherefore, since I judged that by no other mode or means could this be effected, I persuaded in every way the discreet man John Mentelin, citizen of Strassburg, master of the printing art, that he should take upon himself the burden and labour of multiplying this little book by the method of Printing, with my copy held before his eyes. Such are his words turned into English, and this sentence has served to identify several noteless books as printed by Mentelin.

An identical statement, but with the name altered to Johann Fust, appears in the edition printed at Mentz by the latter in 1465, usually hitherto considered to be the first; but Mr. Madden has conclusively settled the question of priority in favour of Mentelin.

Excessively rare, and by many considered the first edition, as Lord Spencer's copy bears an inscription by the illuminator, J. Bämler, dating his work 1468.

The text is in the same type as the two-volume Latin Bible of 1460; the commentary is in the type which Mentelin used for his German Bible.

35971 HIERONYMUS. Fol. 1 reverse: (I)NCIPIUNT CAPITULA LIBRI EPISTOLARŪ SANCTI IHERONIMI. Folio 3: Amasus eps. fratri & cōpresbro iheroīo . . . folio, semi-Gothic letter, 223 leaves, double columns, 50 lines per column; fine copy in blue morocco extra, gilt edges, by Mackenzie, £16.

Sine notâ (typis Mentelianis, circa A.D. 1468)

This very rare book is in the same type as the Latin Bible printed by Mentelin before 1460, and is known for certain to have been produced before 1469. There is a copy in the Bibliothèque Nationale, which was bound in that year by Johann Rychenbach, of Geyslingen; and the volume must therefore have been produced by Mentelin some time between 1459 and 1469, but probably nearer to the latter date—say 1467 or 1468. A consideration of the text appears to show that it preceded the edition of Rome, 1468.

s. n. (Mentelin, circ. 1469)

This is not in the same type as any of the before-mentioned volumes by Mentelin, but Panzer states that the Roman headings are in the same type as was used by the printer for his headings in the one volume of Vincentius Bellovacensis which bears his name.

Remarkable for the words of the colophon "Per venerabilem phie. magistrū ac etiā inclite Argentinensʒ. ciuitatis ciuē bene meritū dnm Heinricū Eggesteyn hui' artis peritissimū ut innumera antehac diuini humaniqʒ iuris per ipsū testantur volumina. summa cū maturitate ac diligentia impressus est. Anno dni. M.cccc.lxxi. xi. Kl. decembris." The Gratian which he printed in the same year, and probably about the same time, although it bears no month-date to resolve the question of anteriority, does not contain the noteworthy statement about the innumerable volumes that the typographer had already produced before 1471.

Sine notâ (Argentorati, H. Eggesteyn, circa 1470)

This extremely rare volume is very curious for having the folios numbered in the centre of the front margins in Arabic numerals. Brunet is possibly wrong in asserting that the Sermo ad Populum printed by Therhoernen at Cologne, in 1470, is "le premier livre dont les pages soient chiffrées," but as there is no certain date to be assigned to our Adrianus Carthusiensis, we cannot assume its anteriority. The only item of information towards approximating the year of impression is that Ther Hoernen's edition, printed in February 1471, was reprinted from Eggesteyn's.

Brunet speaks of a leaf of Register at the beginning which is not in this copy nor in any other which I know, and which would alter the number of leaves to 395 instead of 394 as he specifies them, since the blank leaf at end is part of the final sheet. This copy is in such fine original condition that it is easy to collate the book by its sheets, the MS. signatures appended by the printer being still visible for the purpose of verifying the completeness of the book.

The binding is of the same age as the book; but the lettering-p the back was added in the last century.

with 18 woodcuts—3 vols. in 1, 4to. fine clean copies in the original oak boards covered with stamped leather, £20. Strassburg, 1500

The present edition of the first and second pieces of this volume was unknown to Graesse, who mentions the Strasburg edition of 1509 only, and there is no doubt but that it is of great rarity; the third piece is mentioned under St. Katherine.

The woodcuts, which are twenty-nine in number, are very superior in execution to those usually met with in similar books of the period; they are all coloured by a contemporary hand so skilfully as not to detract from their value.

The vellum leaves which form guards to the volume are portion of a life of the martyr Tranquillinus from a MS. of the eleventh century.

The translator's preface assures us that this legal contest had never really taken place. The plot of the drama or story is that Lucifer considered himself defrauded by the Crucifixion, of his rightful ownership in a great number of souls, and therefore instituted the process which is described here.

A valuable edition. The title is within a fine ornamental woodcut border, which is printed in a brown chiaroscuro tint, and presents a very early example of this style of printing. There are in all forty-seven maps, the first of which is printed in five colours, and the others more or less tinted by hand The 29th map is entitled, "Orbis typus universalis juxta Hydrographorum traditionem;" in this are marked the islands of "Isabella" and "Spagnolla" and a part of the mainland of the continent of America. The 30th map, entitled "TABULA TERRE NOVE," is the famous map known as the "Carte de l'Amiral," which along with the Orbis Typus that precedes it, was undoubtedly the work of Amerigo Vespucci, in 1504, when he had just quitted his employment as captain or vice-admiral in the Portuguese service, and was looking for the same position in that of Spain.

Joānes Knoblouchus, Argen. 1507

"Ce mince volume contient 25 grandes gravures qui portent le monogramme V + G, qui est celui d'un artiste strasbourgeois, élève de Martin Schön, qu'on avait confondu à tort avec Urse Graf, mais que M. Passavant a signalé, t. II, p. 140. On croyait autrefois à Bâle qu'il se nommait Urse Gamberlein."—(Didot, Cat. rais., n° 167.)

Later researches have however established the fact that these engravings are the production of Urs Graf, who was then working in Zürich or Basel.

Many such works as this, creditable alike typographically and artistically, were produced in Strassburg while Alsatia was still an independent princedom of the Empire, but from the time when it lost its German nationality—till now—it seems also to have lost its vitality as a home of art and literature.

Straszburg, Jacob Frölich, 1545

This is a translation of the Directorium Humanæ Vitæ of John of Capua. The names found in the original Kalila and Dimna have been transformed (through the deficiencies of Oriental alphabets) from Nushirvan to Anastres Tassri and from Bidpai to Sendebar. The similarity of many of the stories to those in the "Seven Wise Masters" which is properly called the book of Sindabad, and this corruption of the name of Bidpai (which is easily accounted for in the transit from Arabic or Persian through Hebrew to Latin Letters) have frequently caused the two books to be confounded.

The printer of the R-Bible (1466–75).

36019 CATHOLICON. Fol. 1: Incipit summa que vocatur catholicon edita a fratre iohanne de ianua ordīs fratr' pdicator', large folio, semi-Gothic letter, with capitals which are for the most part Roman and include the peculiar R; the second and third leaf wanting; in double columns, 67 lines per column; the initials painted; splendid copy in crimson morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bozérian, £18. S. n. (circ. 1466)

This is perhaps the second work produced by the printer whose peculiar letter R has occasioned so much discussion. The water-mark is sometimes the bull's head, sometimes the rose, and sometimes different from both of these but not made out.—It is quite certain that Mentelin was not the printer, but it is still possible that the volume may have been printed at Strassburg, although the tendency is growing to accept Mr. Madden's theory that the Brothers of Common Life at Cologne produced all the R-books.

36020 MAGNI (Jacobi) de Parisius, ordinis heremitar' sancti Augu Zophilogium, sm. folio, Roman letter, 219 leaves, the last two blank, 35 lines per page; with autograph signature and manuscript index of "Fr. Henricus de Liechtstal," a contemporary of the printer, fine copy, with painted initials (the first historiated with the author's portrait), in brown morocco extra, borders of gold, gilt edges, £7. Sine nota (? Coloniæ, about 1466)

This book is the original of the "Book of Gode Maners" which was printed by Caxton in 1487, in a version made by himself from the French translation of the text. The proper name of Jacobus Magnus was Jacques Legrand; he was a native of Toulouse. The manuscript index referred to above is on 8 leaves of the same paper as was used by the printer. Fr. Heinricus of Liechstal must therefore have lived in the neighbourhood of the place of impression.

There are manuscript signatures, apparently by the printer himself.

Madden holds that the R-books were printed by Jenson at the Monastery of Weidenbach between 1462 and 1469, in which latter year he went to Venice. They are both on the same paper, of which the water-mark is the Gothic p surmounted by a star; which indicates the vicinity of the Low Countries.

36022 ÆNEAS SYLVIUS. Epistole Enee siluii Poete lauriati Incipiunt feliciter, sm. folio, Roman letter, 215 leaves, 37 lines per page, old red morocco, with ornamental gilt borders, from the Sunderland library, £6. S.n. (circ. 1472)

THE MOST ANCIENT EDITION KNOWN OF THESE EPISTLES, usually supposed to have been printed by Mentelin of Strasburg about 1472. There are MS. signatures, probably of the same date as the impression.—On the blank leaf at the beginning is a contemporary signature or note "Per Hans vo stutg"—which might tempt a reader to regard it as the printer's name.—This book is evidently of later date than the two preceding volumes, and indicates a greater technical skill in the printer. Strange to say, the paper-mark throughout is the Cross-keys.

Arnold Ter Hoernen (1470–83).

36023 THOMAS AQUINAS (S.) It is a rare circumstance to find a book with Ther Hoernen's name and the date both indicated. Out of 51 impressions, only eight are thus marked, and most of the eight belong to the later productions of his press. The above belongs to the work of his first year.

This contemporary Chronicle of the first Crusade is a book of permanent interest and value. The author mentions himself in the Apologeticus Sermo on page 8—from which we learn that he composed his work in the cloister of some monastery of St. Remigius in the bishopric of Rheims, and that his name was Robertus. He accompanied Godfrey to the Holy Land, and in this work describes as an eye-witness the events of the years 1095-99.

With signatures a-f in eights, g and h six leaves each (the last a blank). —This edition is described in the Bibl. Spencer. I 353; by Brunet II 31; and by Panzer IV 112; but none of these bibliographers divined who was the typographer. Graesse however guessed rightly: the book is in exactly the same type as the Æneas Sylvius and the Ovidii Vetula which follow.—At the end of the Rhetorica in this volume, two letters of Æneas Sylvius are printed; one of which, addressed to Heinrich Count of Lupffen, contains an interesting sketch of the various kinds of book-collectors. The real object of the letter was to obtain a loan of the MSS. of Terence, of Ovid de Arte Amandi, Amoris remedio, and Tristia, and of Hieronymus in Epistolis, which Count Lupffen possessed; as Æneas Sylvius was desirous of re-perusing those old friends now that Easter is nigh and that I shall be able to feed on meat and get rid of fish, potherbs, and oil.

To this printer belongs the distinction of having been the first to use printed signatures (in his edition of Nider, Preceptorium divine legis, 1472).

This rare and curious volume is a history of the martyrdom of the family of the Maccabees and their mother, which is fully represented in the curious woodcuts with which the book is illustrated. The last three represent the finding of the martyrs' bones and their preservation in the College of the Maccabees at Cologne.

[Ulmæ, per L. Hohenwang, circa 1469]

This rare volume has been shown very clearly to be one of the earliest books printed in Ulm at the press of L. Hohenwang, about 1470, by Dr. Hassler, in his very careful and elaborate treatise on the subject.

36048 [LUCIANI ASINUS, Latine interpretatus per Poggium.] Poggius plurimā salutem dicit Cosmo de medicis . . . sm. folio, Gothic letter, 15 leaves, 33 or 34 lines to a full page, with 8 large woodcuts; old blue morocco extra, from the Sunderland library, £100.

[Ulmæ] Ex officina et ductu ludovici hohenwanng de Elchmgen (sic), s. a. [cir. 1472]

EXCESSIVELY RARE. Its rarity may be imagined from the fact that Hassler, the special bibliographer of the early press at Ulm, cites it with hesitation, on the authority of Panzer, and no one else appears to have seen it until now.

Besides the eight woodcuts referred to above (one of which is a repetition) there are two ornamental woodcut initials. The book is without catchwords, foliation, and signatures.

Johann Zainer (1469–84).

The Latin text and the German translation were probably issued at almost the same time. There are no woodcuts in the Latin, which may mark perhaps a slight anteriority. The translator into German was probably Johann Zainer himself.

Finis diuersarum fabularum, sm. folio, Gothic letter of two sizes, 114 leaves, 42 lines per full page; with numerous woodcuts and woodcut initials, and arabesque border to the first two pages which face each other; blue morocco extra, richly gilt, gilt edges, by Lortic, very fine copy, with rough margins, £100.

Sine nota (cir. 1475)

The first leaf is blank on the obverse, and bears the woodcut of "Esopus" on the reverse. The signatures are a-q, of which a, c, e, g, i, l, n, p, q, are in quires of eight leaves, the others in quires of six. This edition is described only by Dibdin, and the continuator of Brunet; and is referred by the latter to an Augsburg press, about 1472. There is an arabesque border of leaves and flowers enclosing the portrait of Æsop on leaf 1, and the first page of text on leaf 2.

Perhaps printed by Johann Zainer, but not in the same type as any of the three preceding articles. For the contents, see post. an undated edition described under the heading of Nürnberg, Koberger.

36053 JOANNES PRESBYTER. DE RITU ET MORIBUS INDORUM. Prespiter Johānes . . . amico suo Emanueli Rome gubernatori salute . . . sm. 4to. vellum, £10. Sine nota (? Ulm, Zainer, 1475)

The celebrated letter to the Byzantine Emperor Manuel, which reached Europe at the end of the twelfth century. A rare edition, containing 9 leaves (sign. a), 31 lines to a full page; the first page surrounded by a woodcut border, similar in character to what appears on the preceding Esopus, and the Petrarch which bears the name of Johann Zainer.

Leonard Holl (1482).

36054 PTOLEMÆI COSMOGRAPHIA (Latine reddita à Jac. Angelo) beatissimo patri Pavlo secvndo pontifici maximo (inscripsit) DONIS NICOLAVS Germanvs, folio, First Edition of the Ulm Ptolemy, splendidly printed in a semi-Gothic character, with fine woodcut initials, and the complete set of 31 maps, in contemporary colouring, a few of the leaves mended, and the leaf of colophon missing; calf, £10. (Ulme per Leonardum Hol, 1482)

The world-map is marked "Insculptum est per Iohannē Schnitzer de Armszheim," who was probably the engraver of all the maps.

Das hat gedruckt Cunrad Dinckmut zu Ulm . . . M.cccc.lxxxv. . . (1485)

This is the famous and world-wide story of Kalila and Dimna; known in mediæval Latin as the Directorium Humanæ Vitæ.

36056 CRONIGK (VON SCHWABEN), sm. folio, original edition, with numerous full-page woodcuts, illustrating scenes in Suabian history; slightly wormed; bound in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, £25. getruckt von Cunrad Dinckmut zu Vlm, 1486

The annals of this chronicle end with the sack of Mentz in 1462. The woodcuts are remarkable as rare examples of a little known school; they were probably designed and executed by Dinkmut himself, who had been an engraver before he became a typographer. He published a second edition in the same year as this, omitting however all the woodcuts but one.

The detailed list of relics makes it plain that Andechs was more fortunate than the rest of the world in the number and the value of its sacred memorials.

A very curious book of Latin poetical exercises, two of which are invocations to the Virgin against the French pox.—The Death-Dance pictures have a particular interest as being produced in the native city of Hans Holbein when he was just eight years of age, and his father had not yet left Augsburg for Basel.

The only known copy of an almost unknown book—one of the earliest treatises—on the curious science of Chiromancy which has been revived by modern dilettanti. Dr. Haas or Haase is unrecorded in the Gelehrten-lexicon; although in the picture on this title of the book he is represented as wearing a doctor's gown and hat, and his escutcheon is suspended above his head.

36087 BIBLIA LATINA. INCIPIT EPISTOLA SANCTI IHERONIMI AD PAULINUM . . . stout folio, Gothic letter, 468 leaves, in double columns, 48 lines per full column; woodcut initials, coloured; slightly wormed in the margins; altogether a very large and fine copy in the original binding of oaken boards covered with stamped leather, £36. Sine nota [Basileæ, Bernardus Richel, circa 1472]

VERY RARE. One of the grandest typographical productions of the fifteenth century, well and regularly printed on very thick and strong paper. The number of leaves is 468, inclusive of one blank leaf at the beginning, and the book is divided into two exactly even sections or volumes of 234 leaves each (not, as Brunet says, 233 and 235). This edition may have preceded the issue of the Rodt-Richel Bible in two volumes, which is usually ascribed to 1473, for the following reason. The second volume of that book (printed by Richel to complete the unfinished work of Rodt), corresponds in contents and in types exactly to the second volume of this, but consists of 216 leaves with 48 lines per column; while Vol. II of the Richel Bible consists of 234 leaves with 48 lines per column. As we know very well that, amongst all the early printers, a greater compression of type and a diminished number of pages were always distinguishing marks of reimpression, there arises a strong probability that the Richel Bible is older than the second volume of the Rodt-Richel Bible. It is true that the date 1475 is added in some copies at the end of the Apocalypse in the Richel Bible: a circumstance to which many parallels can be found in ancient as well as modern days, when publishers reissued the unsold copies of their books.—Altogether, the conclusion we may draw is this, that Rodt and Richel were two rival printers in Basel, about the year 1470; that each was producing a Bible; that Rodt died when he had only printed his first volume; that Richel produced his complete Bible about 1472 (reissued later with the date 1475 added); and that he took up Rodt's stock and completed Rodt's Bible by reprinting his own second volume in a more compressed form about 1475. This is contrary to the usual opinion of the bibliographers, who hold that Richel was Rodt's partner, that he printed Vol. II of the Rodt-Richel Bible in 1473; and that he produced his own Bible (the present article) about 1475.

The first Bible in which marginal references or concordances are introduced.

Sine notâ (? Basileæ, M. Wensler, circ. 1473)

This rare and splendid edition is printed in the larger type ascribed to Wensler by Braun. One of the recorded copies bears an inscription which proves that the book was published before 1474. If Wensler, and not Richel, was the printer, it is probably the first book from his press.—A number of MS. Sermons and Homilies in a contemporary hand are prefixed in the volume.

The date of this edition is usually read as 1516. It may be read however either as the 14 February, 1500, or the 1 March, 1516; and the former is certainly the correct one, as it will be shown below that the edition dated 1515 is infallibly later than this.

On the title of this edition we find that the error (common to all the preceeding) of dividing martyrio and coronatur is corrected for the first time.

36101 ETTERLYN (Peterman) KRONICA VON DER LOBLICHEN EYDTGNOSCHAFT Irharkömen vnd sust seltzam strittenn vnd geschichten, sm. folio, numerous fine large woodcuts by two different artists, the title-leaf mended; bound in smooth green morocco extra, gilt edges, £5. Basel . . Tusent Funffhundert vnnd Siben . . with an escutcheon bearing the initials MF (Michael Furter, 1507)

The legend of St. Meinrad, with which the Chronicle begins is illustrated in an older and ruder style than that of the engravings which represent the legend of William Tell. The same difference between the two hands is remarkable throughout the book; the later being one of the vigorous artists of the new school that may be said to have begun with Dürer. In this book the Tell story appeared for the first time in print.

Basileae apvd Io. Frobenivm, M.D.XVII

A witty book on the anomalies and vagaries of orthography, orthoepy, and etymology, the varying practices of learned men, the assumptions of ignorant pretenders, and generally on the state of classical learning throughout Europe, with amusing anecdotes interspersed ; amongst which will be found the laughable story of the Frenchman who said "Nos Galli non cúramus de quantítate syllábarum." On the subject of Music, Pace held that all the knowledge of the ancients had been thrown into the shade by the English musicians of his own time who were true masters of the science of harmony. The book is bound up with "Palladii Fusci Patavini de situ orae Illyrici . . ; Antonius Bladus, Romæ, 1540."

[Basileæ] J. B. [Bergman de Olpe], 1494

This little volume was an appropriate conjunctive record of the two great contemporary events on which the greatness and glory of Spain were founded—namely, the destruction of the Moorish power by the capture of Granada, and the discovery of the New World by Columbus,—both signalising the year 1492. The first work is a dramatic representation of the siege, written by Carolus Verardus, one of the Pope's chamberlains, and produced on a private stage in the palace of Cardinal Riario immediately after the announcement in Rome of the triumph of Ferdinand and Isabel. The other, which is the Latin version of the famous letter of Columbus dated from Lisbon on the 14th of March, 1493, on his return from his first voyage to the Indies, had already been printed several times in separate form in 1493.

There is a preliminary poem addressed to King Ferdinand by Sebastian Brant on the conquest of Granada, in which the following lines occur—

O patria, o fœlix Germania, si tibi reges
Aut fortuna pares aut deus ipse daret,
Credo equidem cunctus nostri sub legibus orbis
Jamdudum foret, et clymmata cuncta soli.

—but he proceeds to soften the implied charge against the Emperor Maximilian.

VERY RARE. The text is a reproduction of the Low German Passional, printed at Lübeck in 1492, but with an entirely new series of woodcuts. It is extremely curious that the great publisher of Basel should have published a Low German translation of the Aurea Legenda rather than one of the High German texts which were so plentiful.

36115 ——— the same, sm. 4to. red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £7. 10*s* 1521

This is not an extract as has been supposed, but is the entire fourth Decade, printed now for the first time, and containing the history of the New World from 1516 to 1520, in which the discovery and conquest of Mexico are recorded. It was evidently made from a surreptitious copy of the MS., but its existence nevertheless falsifies the statement made in the heading of the fourth Decade (in the edition of 1530, Alcala) "nunc primum nata et excusa."

Anno . . millesimo quadringētesimo septuagēsimo tercio . . p. industriosos impssorie artes Mgros iohēm sensenschmid de egra, et henricū Kefer de magūtia Nurmberge vrbis ciues (1473)

The only volume which bears the name of Kefer, the first printer of Nürnberg. His associates, Sensenschmidt and Frisner, were less chary or less modest.

36125 BIBLIA LATINA. Quia vestigia seqmur Joann. An. Epi. Aleriensis . . . 2 vols. large folio, Gothic type, double columns, 60 lines per column, a few leaves mended and nine leaves wanting; in the original oak boards covered with vellum, £10.

Hoc opus Biblie effigiatum est ī nuremberga . . iussu Andree Frisner Bunsidelensis . . et Joannis sensenschmit . . . M.cccc.lxxv . . (1475)

A magnificent example of early typography, and also a very rare book. The text and preliminaries were reprinted from the Bible produced by Schweinheim and Pannartz at Rome in 1471, and thus it is the second edition of the Roman Vulgate. The initials are printed in red ink, as also are the headings and the colophon with the escutcheons which form the printers' mark.

Anton Koburger (1471–1513).

36126 (HONORIUS AUGUSTODUNENSIS) Cristianus ad solitariū quendam de ymagine mundi. s. l. et typ. n. (Anton Koburger, 1472)

Bound up with HIERONYMI (Sancti) liber de viris illustribus, Gothic letter, 37 leaves, 35 lines per page, sine nota, in the types of Günter Zainer, about 1470.—Anton Koburger, who commenced to print probably in 1471, was one of the princes of typography. He has rarely been excelled, if equalled, in the grandeur of his operations, and the number, beauty, and sumptuousness of his impressions.

36128 BIBLIA LATINA, Koburger's second edition, 2 vols. in 1, folio, gothic letter, double columns, 51 lines per column, fine large and clean copy in the original boards, rebacked, £5.

Anno incarnatōnis dn̄ice. Millesimoquadringentesimoseptuagesimoseptimo . . . In regia ciuitate Nurnbergn̄ p. Antonium Coburger . . . (1477)

36129 ——— another copy, UNIQUE in the following respects: ten leaves are prefixed which contain a set of genealogical tables from Adam to Christ with many woodcuts; and forty-two leaves added at end containing the Table of Hebrew names interpreted, in double columns with 58 lines per column; in the original wooden boards, covered with pigskin, armed with brass knobs and clasp, £100. 1477

The additional forty leaves at end are in the type which was used by Sensenschmidt and Frisner, but are differently composed from the corresponding matter in the only Bible which they printed—see above, the Table in that being arranged in 30 leaves, treble columns, 67 lines per column. As for the ten woodcut leaves at the beginning, they seem to be bodily extracted from the Rudimentum Novitiorum printed at Lübeck in 1475. It is singular that these additions should be found in a copy of Koburger's Bible which is evidently in the original binding of the publisher's house.

36130 BIBLIA LATINA, Koburger's third edition, 2 vols. in 1, folio, Gothic letter, double columns, 51 lines per column, the initials painted in, the first page illuminated with an elegant border decoration executed about 1480; beautiful copy in old French citron morocco extra, gilt edges (by Padeloup), £50.

Nurnberg, Ant. Coburger, 1478

36131 ESOPUS.—(On recto of second leaf:) Vita Esopi fabulatoris clarissimi e greco latina per Rinucium fa | cta ad reuerendissimū Patrem dominū Anthoniū tituli sancti Chry.| sogoni presbiterum Cardinalem—(At end, on reverse of 114th leaf:). . . lusus Finis diuersarum fabularum, folio, Gothic letter, woodcut portrait of Esopus on title, and numerous woodcuts throughout the volume, superbly large and fine copy, in old English calf, £80.

S. n. (? Ant. Koburger, circ. 1476)

A HITHERTO UNDESCRIBED EDITION, of which only one other copy is known. The letter-press looks like the work of Koburger; but the chiaroscuro woodcut initials are identical with those used at a later date by Michel Furtter in Basel.—There are 114 leaves, with signatures a to q: in quires of eight and of six leaves (a, c, e, g, i, l, n, p, q, in eights; the rest in sixes). The portrait of Æsop is on the front of the first leaf; the reverse is blank. The first line on the second leaf ends with the words "Rinucium fa," and the last line ends "Qui dum men." The last line of the last page is "lusus Finis diversarum fabularum."

On leaf m 3 there is an English memorandum in MS. on the margin which runs thus, "scabro. a worme engendred in a deade horse," in a handwriting of about the middle or earlier part of the sixteenth century, and shows how long the volume had been in this country. The binding dates from about the beginning of the last century.

This edition, and the other undated one described under the heading of Ulm, contain exactly the same matter, namely: 1. Aesop's Life; 2. Aesopian Fables in verse and in prose; 3. Extravagantes; 4. Fabulæ novæ; 5. Fabellæ Aviani; 6. Collectæ (Stories from Poggio, Petrus Alphonsus, etc.).

36134 ——— the same, a very fine large copy in bds. (size 17½ ins. by 12¼ ins.), £18. 1493

Of the four blank leaves, one is in the unfoliated supplement "de Sarmatia." The other three are foliated 259, 260, 261, and were left blank so that posterity, down to the end of the sixth age of the world, might be able to add notes and remarks.

36135 BRIGITTA. Reuelationes sancte Birgitte [editæ ad instantiam Floriani Waldauf de Waldenstain], sm. folio, with several large and fine wood engravings, which are ascribed to Albert Dürer, old calf gilt, silk linings, gilt edges, £7. 10*s*

This is a grand volume with its treble variety of missal type, the large woodcut on the last page, and some leaves of MS. added at beginning and end.

Georg Stüchs (1484–1517).

36139 MISSALE ROMANUM. Fol. 7: Incipit ordo missalis s'm consuetudinem romane curie . . . sm. 4to. printed on vellum, in red and black Gothic letter, double columns, 30 lines per column, wanting two leaves in the middle and the last two leaves; in the old boards covered with parchment, £16.

(Nurmberge, per Georgium Stuchs de Sultzbach, 1484)

VERY RARE. The book is composed of 32 quires, in eights except the first quire (the Kalendar) which is in six. Thus a complete copy should contain 254 leaves (the present copy has 250), as the Villafranca catalogue states, not 256 as stated by Mr. Weale. The specification of eight preliminary leaves by Mr. Weale is an obvious error, since he records the Villafranca copies, which have only six, as perfect.

. . . in impiali Nurenbergen . . . impressum . . . M.CCCCC.vii . . . (1507)

Probably printed by Georg Stüchs. The woodcuts are extraordinary works of art, considering that Scheufelin was not more than eighteen years of age at the date of their publication.

36141 GRUNPECKH (Josephus). This rare German volume is a translation of the famous Vicenza Paesi novamente ritrovati, and is, according to Humboldt, preferable as a text to the Latin translation known as the Itinerarium Portugallensium.

Hieronymus Hölzel (1496–1525).

36143 PINTER (Ulrich) DER BESCHLOSSEN GART DES ROSENKRĀTZ MARIE, 2 vols. folio, an immense number of large and small woodcuts by Hans Scheuffelein and Caspar Rosenthaler; in the original wooden boards, covered with stamped leather, £25.

Nürmberk, durch doctor Vlrichen Pinter . . . M. fünff hondert vnd fünff jar (1505)

EXCESSIVELY RARE and very little known. The second volume is wanting in most copies. Next to Dürer's works, the Beschlossen Gart (in which even his collaboration may be detected) is the chief monument of the art of wood-engraving in Germany in the early part of the sixteenth century.

The work is a curious miscellany of mystical theology; supposed to contain everything necessary for the study and guidance of the Rosenkrantz or Rosary Brethren—associations of devotees who attributed their foundation to St. Dominic.

Johann Weyssenburger (1503-13).

36144 LOCHER (Jacobus) Continentur. In hoc opusculo a Jacobo Locher Philomuso facili Syntaxi concinnato. Vitiosa sterilis Mule ad musam . . . Comparatio. Numberge per dominum Ioannem Veissenburger, 1506

A number of latin pieces in verse, full of coarse satire and abuse; but illustrated with woodcuts which, in their style and spirit, draw the book into close connexion with the Ship of Fools.

36145 HROSVITA. OPERA HROSVITE ILLVSTRIS VIRGINIS ET MONIALIS GERMANE GENTE SAXONICA ORTE NVPER A CONRADO CELTE INVENTA . . . Comedie sex in emulatiõem Therencii . . . P.* 1501

The letters A. P. which appear at the end of the two works here recorded, appear to stand for ædibus Pirckheimerianis. The palace of the Nürnberg patrician Bilibald Pirckheimer, Dürer's friend and patron, was made the club and printing-house of the new publishing society, called the Sodalitas Literaria, founded at Worms, and also named Celtica Sodalitas, after Konrad Celtes, he being supposed to be the greatest genius of the club, and to have deserved so well by his discovery of Hrosvita. It consisted of thirteen members, including Pirckheimer, the Abbat Johann Tritheimer, Johann Dalburg, Bishop of Worms, and others.

Albert Dürer (1510-27).

36152 DÜRER (Albert) THE LITTLE PASSION. (Passio Christi ab Alberto Durer Nurenbergensi effigiata . . .) sm. 4to. the artist's own original edition of the 34 fine woodcuts, printed on one side of the paper only, as first issued by him, before the addition of the title-leaf and the text, in the original stamped hogskin binding, rebacked, £60. 1510

A very precious copy, the engravings printed on the two inner-faces of each folded leaf, the backs being left blank, and thus showing not only how the impressions were worked by Dürer, but also that the first or title-leaf (containing the seated and weeping figure of Christ) usually found in copies was not portion of the original designs, but added as an afterthought, in the first instance without, and finally with a text. (A facsimile of the title-leaf belonging to that third issue is added here so as to serve as a frontispiece, but it is not really necessary.) The impressions are wonderfully fine and clear;—

in fact, it would be impossible to find another copy like this. One circumstance to be remarked is, that in the picture of the expulsion from Paradise, the backbone of Eve is indicated by a vertical line which is cut by short cross-strokes. This very rare state is held by Nagler and others to prove that the block was engraved a second time, the original one (as printed here) having been lost, or for some reason rejected; as the cross-hatching does not appear in any issue subsequent to this first, from the edition with text of 1510 down to our own time. In the above volume two engravings by Wolfgang Hauber or Huber (about 1520) are added which represent the Circumcision and the Presentation in the Temple, two subjects not treated by Dürer in his pictures of the Little Passion.

36153 ——— THE LITTLE PASSION. PASSIO CHRISTI ab Alberto Durer norimbergensi effigiata, the set of 36 small 4to. leaves engraved with subjects of the life of Christ, without the original frontispiece for which a re-issue bearing the title "FIGVRÆ | PASSIONIS DOMINI | NOSTRI IESV CHRISTI" has been substituted; a genuine set of Dürer's second issue of these engravings, with the exception of the leaf of title, mounted on 4to. paper, £16.

Nurnbergæ, 1511

36154 ——— THE LARGE PASSION. PASSIO DOMINI NOSTRI JESU . . . per fratrem Chelidonium collecta. cum figuris Alberti Dureri Norici Pictoris, 12 large folio-sized engravings on wood, with printed text on the back, mounted on paper of a much larger size, £25. Nurnberge per Albertum Durer . . (1511)

A good copy of the second issue. The first issue, which had no text on the back, is no longer attainable.

Impressum Nurnberge per Albertum Durer pictorem. Anno christiano Millesimo quingentesimo vndecimo (1511)

36156 ——— another set of the same engravings,—three of them being of the same issue as the preceding, i.e. with Latin text on the back, one other a late impression without text, and the other 16 engravings of the EARLIEST issue, and without text, beautiful impressions, cut round and mounted in a folio volume, red morocco gilt, £20. (?1510)

Nurnberge per Albertum Durer Pictorem, 1511

The text is on the reverse of the engravings, in Latin, double columns.

This grand work of the great Nürnberg artist is of a very high degree of rarity. The original of Dürer's Apocalypse has been seen by but few collectors, although it is a magnificent specimen of his powers.

36158 ——— THE TRIUMPHAL CAR. Currus hic triumphalis ad honorem Inuictissimi ac gloriosissimi Principis diui Maximiliani Cæsaris semper Augusti concinnatus, ac per Albertum Dürer deliniatus est . . . a single large wood engraving 91 inches by 17½, printed on eight sheets of paper, large folio, £20.

Impressus per Albertum Durer. Anno M.D.XXIII—

Venetiis, Jacobus Chinig, 1588

These are fine impressions from the original blocks which had been purchased in Nürnberg by Chinig or Koenig from Dürer's inheritors.

The Emperor is represented seated in a magnificent car, drawn by twelve horses and accompanied by several allegorical female figures.

"Ce morceau est un chef-d'œuvre de l'art de la gravure en bois, et le plus beau de tous ceux de ce genre que l'on ait d'Albert Dürer. Le dessein correct et plein de goût ne laisse aucun doute que Dürer ne l'ait tracé lui-même sur les planches. Il faut en même temps admirer le talent rare du graveur qui l'a exécuté en bois, et qui (suivant Neudorffer) est Jerôme Resch." Bartsch, Peintre Graveur, Vol. III, p. 154.

Gedruckt zu Nürenberg . . Anno. M.CCCCC.XXvii (1527)

A beautifully printed volume. The large folding woodcut of a Siege, which is not an integral part of the book, is excessively rare. Some critics are inclined to deny that it is by Dürer, although it bears his monogram and the date 1527.

36161 ——— the same, a still larger and finer copy, in superb condition, bound in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Riviere, a grand and magnificent volume, £185. 1517

First and rarest edition of this famous metrical Romance of Chivalry written by Pfintzing to record the chivalrous deeds of his Sovereign Maximilian the First, who himself is supposed to have furnished the materials to be turned into rhyme.

The rarity of this first edition is little suspected by most people, but is plainly proved by the fact that the Holbein Society was obliged to use the Augspurg edition of 1519 as the original of the facsimile reproduction.

36162 SCHAEUFELEIN. La Danse des Noces, par Hans Scheufelein, reproduite par J. Schratt, avec une Notice Biographique, folio, 21 large and most admirably designed wood-engravings, each containing large full-length figures, cloth, 20*s* Paris, 1865

Very few copies were produced of this highly interesting Wedding-Dance designed by the artist of the celebrated Tewrdannck of 1517. The originals are supposed to have been executed about 1530, probably at Nürnberg, since the costumes depicted are chiefly of that city; but they might with equal justice be referred to an earlier date. The male and female costume is represented with great spirit, and deserves the best attention of art students.

Fol.* 1: (C) Vm cepissent monasteria construi . . . At end: Explicit Liber Barlaam et Josaphat, sm. folio, Gothic letter, 77 printed leaves, 36 lines per page; French red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Derome, from the Crevenna and Wodhull libraries, £10.
S. n. (Spiræ, circ. 1473)

This extremely rare book was produced by the first printer of Speyer, not earlier than 1473, as is manifest from the use of printed signatures in the volume (a—k). It seems certain that he was not Peter Drach who is usually styled the prototypographer of that city.

Peter Drach (1477-1517).

36168 AQUILA (Petri de) Quæstiones in quatuor Libros Sententiarum, Joannis Scoti. Folio 1: Petri de Aquila sectatoris nobilis-

Hunc studiose tibi gaudet cudisse libellum Spirensis ciuis Drach Petrus arte sua. 1480

A finely printed volume, the first page of which is an address to the reader regarding the corrupt state of the text in the existing MSS. It serves as a title, and bears, like the colophon, the date of 1480.

36169 BREYDENBACH. Fol. 1: Reverendissimo in xpo patri & dno Bertholdo sancte Maguntiñ. sedis Archiepo . . . Bernard' de Breydenbach . . . In fine: Sanctarū peregrinationū in montē Syon ad venerandū christi sepulchruꝫ in Hierusalē. atqꝫ in montē Synai ad diuam virginē & martyrem Katherinā opusculū hoc contentiuū . . sm. folio, Gothic letter, quite perfect, with all the engravings in their entirety; green morocco extra, gilt edges, £15. per Petrum drach ciuē Spirensem . . M.cccc.ij . . (1502)

Without a special experience of this book, in its various editions, no one could appreciate its extraordinary rarity in a perfect state. The folding illustrations are ordinarily defective in some point or other; the view of Venice almost certainly truncated at one or the other end; and, as for the map of the Holy Land, to have seen it in its full length (49 inches by 11½) is a chance that but few collectors have enjoyed.

Sine nota (Eustadii, Michael Reyser, circ. 1473)

Probably the first edition of the celebrated Vision of Hell. At least, it is the earliest known appearance of the book in print.

Conrad Fyner (1472-77).

36171 CÆSAR. Fol. 1: (C)ay Iuly cesaris dictatoris exordia . . . Fol. 82*a*: Explicit Liber. (i.e. Iulii Celsi de vita Cæsaris) Deo Gracias. &c. Sine loco et typ. nom. [Esslingen, Conrad Fyner], 1473

A very rare edition, printed in small gothic letters, without marks of any kind. It bears no name of printer, nor place of impression: but was produced by Conrad Fyner at the first press of Esslingen.

The excessive rarity of this edition is best shown by the citation which M. Deschamps gives from the preface to the Delphin edition of Cæsar. There the editor states that although he had sedulously inquired for it in all the most eminent libraries of his time, he was unable to find a copy.

36172 GERSON. Fol. 1: Incipit tractatus venerandi mgr̄i. Beschem . . sm. folio, Gothic letter, in two sizes, 49 leaves; bds. £9. Eszlingen, Conrad Fyner, 1475

The second book in which Hebrew types were used. They appear on leaf 45 in a large alphabet for learners. The book consists of selections from the scriptures which are given in Hebrew and in Latin, the Hebrew being transliterated in the larger Gothic type above referred to. (The first Hebrew book had been printed at Reggio a few months earlier.)

36174 SCHWARTZ (Peter) Stella Messiæ. Fol. 1: blank on obverse, a large woodcut on reverse. Fol. 2: (I)N aller übung der vernuft ist die czu preysen . . Fol. 322: Das buch hat gedrückt vnd volendt Conradus feyner von Gerhausen in der keyserlichn̄ stat Eszling . . (Esslingen, 1477)

Peter Schwartz is the same as the Peter Niger mentioned above. This German book is a new work on the same subject as the former Latin one, and the quotation and transliteration of Hebrew texts is much more ample here.

Lucas Brandis (1475-99).

This curious Chronicle was the first book printed at Lubeck and is extremely rare.

36176 JOSEPHUS, Latinè. Fol. 1: Incipit prologus sancti Ieronimi in Iosephum . . Fol. 2 verso: Flauij iosephi hystoriar' antiquitatis iudaice liber primus incipit . . 2 vols. folio, Gothic letter, 396 printed leaves (not 395), double columns, 48 lines per column, printed in the same type as the Rudimentum, with grand arabesque woodcut borders on two pages, large woodcut initials enclosing figures at the beginnings of the various books, and with alternately printed and painted initials to the chapters; the page-headings in large open capitals; fine copy in old calf gilt, £36.

On title: Lübeck by Ludowich Dietz, M.D.XXXIII—At end: ym Dusent vyff hundert vnde veer vnde dörtigesten yare . . (1533-34)

The sides are stamped with an inscription of ownership "Ioannes Tideman —Anno Domini 1591," and a loose leaf is inserted in the book recording the presentation of the volume from Johann Tideman to his cousin Paul Bungen at Frankfurt in 1606.

First Edition of Luther's Bible, in Low German, translated from the original (completed in 1532) by Bugenhagen and Johann Hoddersen. The woodcuts are of magnificent size and execution—the Hauptwerk, as Nagler calls them, of Altdorffer's artistic career.

(Conrad Feyner zu Vrach, 1481)

This is only the Summer teil, and has no colophon.

We learn from Hain's description of the Winter theil the printer's name and the date.—Fyner's chief house was at Esslingen, but he printed a few books in Urach during 1481 and perhaps 1482.

Logus dedicavit;" in a blue morocco case,* £150.

Viennae Pannoniae Hieronymus Victor Silesius excudebat Mense Maio M.D.XXIX (1529)

UNIQUE. It is an article of extraordinary interest, an edition de luxe of which Viennese typography might be proud. Printed, illuminated, and bound in Vienna for the King, who was afterwards the Emperor Ferdinand I, it ought to be preserved and treasured in the Austrian imperial library.

(Munich, or Ingolstadt, 1516)

The title bears portraits of the two ducal brothers, Ludwig and Wilhelm, by whom the Law was promulgated. Towards the end there are twelve fine large woodcuts of the various fish caught in the Danube, designed of natural dimensions so as to show the sizes under which the fishers were forbidden to take them.

(M. Deschamps, in the Dictionnaire de Géographie, does not seem to be aware that Hans Schawer printed a typographical edition of the German Mirabilia Romæ at Munich in 1482.)

One of the rarest books printed at Hagenau. When copies do occur, they are almost always imperfect and in very bad condition. Panzer imagined that this edition was the first (it is really the third), and considered it a highly important and remarkable book, as a collection of the oldest German poetry.

(1492) Tzenna or Zinna.

36198 NOUUM BEATE MARIE VIRGIS PSALTERIUM de dulcissimis noue legis mirabilib' dīni amoris refertis nouit' ad tci oteritōz ofectū [a Hermanno Nitzschewitz], sm. 4to. Gothic type, with a large number of elaborate and curious woodcut illustrations, and full woodcut borders; very fine copy in brown morocco super extra, gilt edges, by Chambolle-Duru, £96.

Anno Nonagesimo secūdo . . . ad impmēdum omissum Nūc et in Tzenna . . . impressum (1492)

The above indication of place and date are extracted from the prologue.

A volume described as "D'UNE RARETÉ EXTRÊME" by Brunet, who further observes, "mais ce qui le rend surtout remarquable, c'est l'excessive absurdité des gravures faites cependant Cæsareo Sumptu." The work was probably printed for imperial presents only, and the impression limited to very few copies, the expense having been defrayed by the Emperor Frederick III and his son (afterwards Emperor) Maximilian, whose figures (kneeling) are introduced in every border.

The absurdity spoken of in the Manuel is simply in the boldness of conception which marks the artist's work. The blood of the Crucified is seen flowing from his wounds into a barrel, from which it spurts out in several jets upon good men standing round, or falls into a fountain from which monks take it up in pails. It is upon symbolism of this kind that Brunet bases his charge of absurdity.

The monastery of Tzenna was east of Magdeburg and north of Leipzig. The woodcuts are, as Didot has remarked, of more archaic type than the contemporary productionsof Nürnberg, as indeed might be expected, South Germany being far in advance of the North in artistic cultivation.

36199 STOEFFLER (Ioannis) Calendarivm Romanvm magnum, sm. folio, Roman letter, with the exception of Gothic headings; printed in red and black, with numerous diagrams representing eclipses of the moon, and a couple of woodcuts to every page of the Calendar; in the original oak boards, £3. 16*s*

Oppenheym per Jacobum Köbel, 1518

The number of diagrams, and elaborate tables printed in red and black, the woodcuts and the general apparatus make this a book of imposing character.

36200 TRITEMIUS. Clavis Polygraphiae Ioannis Tritemii Abbatis diui Iacobi Herbipolensis quondam Spanhemiensis . . . 6 parts in 1 vol. small folio (4to.), vellum, 32*s*

[St. Dié] Vrbs Deodate tuo clarescens nomine . . . pressit . . . Finitū vii. kl. Maij Anno supra sesquimillesimum. vij [25 April, 1507]

FIRST EDITION of the work by Martin Walzemüller or Waldseemüller (calling himself Hylacomylus), in which the name of America was suggested as the one by which the New World should in future be known. This is on folio a5, and consists of the following statement: "alia quarta pars [mundi] per Americum Vesputium ut in sequentibus audietur inventa est quam non video cur quis jure vetet ab Americo inventore sagacis ingenii viro Amerigen quasi Americi terram sive AMERICAM dicendam." The world has adopted the suggestion of Waldseemüller, although the fame of Columbus was injured by the appellation, and nothing can now avail to change it.

There is a promise, in the verses which form the colophon, of a large harvest of books from the press, but it was falsified by time. So far as is known only another book was printed.

(1508) Zürich.

One of the most magnificent artistic productions of the sixteenth century. As a book with illustrations it may be compared with the Nürnberg Chronicle (which was probably in the mind of the publisher), but the designs in this volume are for the most part of high artistic character.—On folio 23 of the first part we find the following statement—"Sonderlich ist die edel kunst der Buchtruckerey . . bey den Teutschen zu Meyntz und Straaszburg, durch Johann Faustium im jar Christi 1446 erfunden und aufbracht, durch welche kunst alle gute Bücher der alten widerum erneuwert, ans liecht gebracht, auch in Teutschen landen so vil edler und guter ingenia erweckt und zu der geschrifft gezogen sind." An engraving of Scheffer's press, and four men at work, accompanies this statement.

36207 M. (H.) Hienach volget das ernnstlich vnd gewalltig erobern der löblichen vnnd reychen hochberümbten vñ vesten statt Pressa . . . sm. 4to. Gothic letter, 8 leaves, 33 lines per page, with woodcut on the title, bds. £5. S. n. (? Berne, 1512)

Although placed under Bern, these two books may have been printed elsewhere. They are in identical type.—The author of the second piece was at the storming of Brescia on the 19th of February, 1512, and wrote this Zeytung in Bern five days later for the information of his lord Wolf von Ahaym, Ritter zu Wildenaw, Landhofmeister of Bavaria.—No press is known to have been established in Bern for some twenty years after that date; but it is remarkable that the type of these two books is, notwithstanding their date, extremely rude and archaic, betraying the hand of a new and provincial printer. There is sufficient prima facie evidence for supposing these books to be the first fruits of the press in Bern.

36208 BOCCACCIO. Ioannis Boccatii de Certaldo insigne opvs de Claris Mulieribus, sm. folio, Roman letter, 15 fine woodcuts by I. K. including the curious Labour of Pope Joan; old calf gilt, £5. Bernæ Helvet. per Mathiam Apiarium, M.D.XXXIX

The printer, Mathias Bienenvater, or Apiarius, is the man usually supposed to have founded the first press in Bern about 1525.

36209 Ein fast Kurtzwylig Fasznachtspil, so zu Bern uff de Herrenfassnacht in dem M.D.XXII. jar vou burgerszsönen offentlich gemacht ist darin die warheit in schimpffe wyss vom Papst vnd syner priesterschafft gemeldet vnd angezeigt würt. Item ein ander spil . . . 12mo. fine copy, red morocco extra, gilt edges, £8. 8*s* Bern by Matthia Apiario im 1540

The two pieces in this rare little volume appear to be Carnival revel dramas enacted at Bern in 1522, and are, as might be expected from the date, directed against the Pope and the Church of Rome. They are written throughout in rhyming verse, and there were between eighty and ninety personages engaged in the representation.

36211 DAS NEW TESTAMENT DEUTZSCH, Vuittemberg. sm. folio, First Edition of Luther's Testament and first printed portion of his German Bible, with fine woodcut initials and numerous full-page woodcut illustrations to the Apocalypse, by Lukas Cranach and Hans Burgmair; folios b1 and b6 in the Apocalypse wanting; hf. bd. £24. (Melchior Lotter, September 1522)

Excessively rare. This was the first appearance of Luther's Bible in the language of which it is the foundation and the earliest monument. Having completed his version of the New Testament during his seclusion in the Wartburg, he took the MS. on his return to the world in March, 1522, to Melchior Lotther in Wittenberg, by whom the impression was brought to an end in the September of the same year, but who did not venture, notwithstanding that he was in comparative safety there, to put his name to it as printer. By this book the struggle of the Reformation was turned into a triumph, the political supremacy of the Popes was broken, and the modern literature of Germany was called into existence; and in this book our English Bible was conceived. It is thus one of the great works of the world; an object of never-ending admiration and respect. But its rarity is nearly equal to its extraordinary merit; this and one other are the only copies I have ever had, and there was none in the grand "Caxton Exhibition" of Bibles.

36211 Das Ollde Testament dudesch, Mart. Luth. Wittemberch MDXXV, 12mo. Gothic letter, woodcuts, in the original stamped pigskin with clasps, £7.

On fol. 2: Gedrucket Nickel Schyrlentz. Anno &c. MDXXV (1525)

This is Luther's Pentateuch translated into the Low Saxon dialect of Pomerania, probably by his friend Bugenhagen.

Wittemberg, durch Georgen Rhaw M.D.XXIX (1529)

First edition of one of Luther's more important works.

Wittemberg durch Hans Weissen, 1534

36214 Das Newe Testament Mar Luters Wittemberg M.D.XXX. 12mo. Gothic letter, numerous woodcuts after Lukas Cranach, coloured, and all the chapter initials illuminated;—six leaves wanting (b8, Aa 3-6, Bb 8); green morocco extra, gilt edges, £4.
Gedruckt zu Wittemberg durch Hans Lufft (1530)

The preliminary notice on the back of the title runs thus—"Ich bitte alle meine Freunde und Feinde, meine Meister, Drucker, und Leser, wolten dis New Testament lassen mein sein; haben sie aber Mangel dran das sie selbs ein eigens für sich machen, Ich weis wol was ich mache, sehe auch wol was ander machen. Aber dis Testament sol des Luthers deudsch Testament sein..."

36216 LUTHER (and others) [Melanchthon, Unterricht der Visitatoren an die Pfarherren] mit Luthers' Vorrede, *no title, Wittemb. Zu Worms truckts Sebastianus Wagner, 1539

The engravings are by a Strassburg artist, and were first produced in 1512 in that city. They are the finest artistic work which the Strassburg school had produced.—The poem itself is a Metrical Romance, of great rarity, written by Hermann von Sachsenheym, who also makes himself the hero. He wrote about 1450. The poem is in smooth and fluent couplets of eight syllables from beginning to end; and combines allegorical, fantastic, and satirical features, like some French productions of the same time. The Mörin, a little dark woman, accuses the young knight of falsehood to her lady, Queen Venus. There is plenty of dialogue, but little incident.

On title: Francoforti, Apud Christianum Egenolphum.
At end: Getruckt zu Franckfurt, am Meyn, Bei Christian Egenolf. M. D. L.

This is called Scheufelein's Little Passion, and bears his mark on the title (the shovel bearing the initials I S in a monogram).—In 1543 Egenolf described himself, and in 1555 was described by his heirs, as the first printer of Frankfurt (in 1530).

36222 CATECHISMUS Für die gemeine Pfarrherr vnd Prediger D. Mart. Luther, sm. folio, Gothic letter, 26 fine large woodcuts by Hans Burgmair; blue morocco extra, gilt edges, £10.

Franckfurt am Mayn, durch Dauid Schöffel. M.D.LV.

The beautiful designs in this rare volume give it a sort of monumental interest: they were the first sustained efforts of the genius of Jost Amman, who was only sixteen years of age when the book appeared.

36224 HUTTEN (Ulrich von) Hoc in volvmine haec continentvr . . . At end: Hoc Vlrichi de Hvtten Equit. Ger. Invectivarvm cvm aliis qvibvsdam in tyrannvm VVirtenpergensem opus . . sm. 4to. woodcuts, £2. 8*s*

Excvsvm in arce Stekelberk An. M.D.XIX. (1519)

Remarkable as an early instance of the practice of private printing. The woodcuts are a picture of the murder of Hutten's cousin by the Duke of Würtemberg (which led to these invectives against the tyrant), and a portrait of Hutten himself.—One of the letters in this collection is addressed to his friend Fridrich Fischer, whom he asks to get a wife for him—"graceful, young, well brought up, cheerful, modest, patient; endowed with enough, not too much; for I do not seek riches; and as to her family, I deem her sufficiently noble who shall wed Hutten."

A modern German writer has shown that this book was probably printed by Schöffer at Maintz, and the imprint fictitious.

Siemern, in verlegung Hieronimi Rodlers, 1530

A magnificent book, with regard to its typographical execution and illustration. It was realty a livre de luxe, printed in very large and beautiful type, apparently identical with that in which the Thewrdank was printed, and is upon fine paper; very unlike the later editions in these two respects.

A remarkable volume, unnoticed by any bibliographer. All the capitals, except Q, are Gothic; the d, v, b, amongst the small letters, are also Gothic; all the others are Roman type of clumsy and irregular shape, evidently one of the first typographical experiments of the kind. There are no signatures numerals, or catchwords. Some contemporary glosses, in German, are written between the lines.

36232 ALBERTUS MAGNUS. Fol. 2: Incipit prologus in compendium theolyice veritatis. . . . Fol. 129*b*: Explicit liber vltimus huius compendij. Explicit Registrum Deo gratias, sm. folio, Gothic letter, 142 leaves, 41 lines per page; bds. vellum back, 36*s* Sine nota (about 1474)

Perhaps printed at Speyer.—There are three blank leaves: 1, 130, 131 The first 129 leaves are foliated (with the following errors: 1 is not numbered, 2 and 3 are numbered 1 and 2, 8 is unnumbered, 9-25 are numbered 8-24; the total result being to make the numeration of 26-129 correct)—and this book must therefore be considered one of the earliest examples of that practice. There are no signatures or catchwords. Of the type, it may be remarked that the b and the p are but little different, and that each of them inclines forward out of the perpendicular.

Sina nota (about 1480)

The first leaf is a blank. The signatures are in eights, except the last, which is in four leaves. The type is of the Venetian kind commonly used in Nürnberg, Basel, Strassburg, Cologne, and Speyer, about 1480.

The book is excessively rare; so much indeed that Brunet doubted if it were really the well-known treatise of Jacobo de Cessoli, or not.

Finely printed in a clear Gothic type, which resembles a kind used by Coburger in Nürnberg, Furter in Basel, and Drach at Speyer.

36235 BIBLIA PAUPERUM. Fol. 1: (T)anta pollet excellentia pdicatiõis officiũ . . . Fol. 3: Incipit preclarũ op' qd biblia paupum appellat putile omnib' predicatoribus, sm. 4to. Gothic letter, 102 leaves, double columns, 39 lines per column, with signatures a-n in eights, except the last sheet which is in four leaves; wooden boards partly covered with leather, £4.

Sine nota (circ. 1485)

The first two leaves (which are without signature) contain a preface and an index of the chapters.—The colophon attributes the authorship or compilation of the book to St. Bonaventura.

36236 SPECULUM STULTORUM. At end: Explicit speculum stultorum. Quisquis theologus, quisquis legista peritus . . . small 4to. Gothic letter, 58 leaves, 36 lines per page; fine copy in French green morocco extra, gilt edges, in the style of Derome le jeune, £4. 4*s* S. n. (perhaps at Cologne, about 1488)

There are signatures a-g in eights, except g which has ten leaves. The first leaf after the title begins thus: Incipit epistola veteris vigelli ad vuilhelmum amicum suum secretum continens integumentum speculi stultorum ad eundem directi et inferius scripti.—This satirical poem by Nigel Wircker is one of the most important literary works produced in England in the Middle Ages (before A.D. 1200).—The edition might possibly be referred to a Low Country press.

36237 BREYDENBACH. Title: Dis buch ist innhaltend die heiligẽ reysen gein Iherusalem zu dem heiligen grab vnd furbasz zu der hochgelobten jungfrowen vnd merteryn sant katheryn, sm. folio, Gothic letter, 49 and 48 lines per page, perfect with all the large folding woodcut views, etc. very fine copy in old Dutch calf, EXTREMELY RARE, £28. s. l. & a. (? Strassburg, about 1489)

The designer of the woodcuts in this work, who was Erhart Reuwich of Utrecht, has been described as deserving to rank with the very foremost of the time. In point of fact, the illustrations to Breydenbach formed a new epoch in the history of the Art of wood-engraving and book-illustration, and the engraver, whose name is unfortunately unknown, deserves no less credit than the designer.

The original Mentz blocks seem to have passed into the hands of the printer of this volume, with the exception only of the frontispiece; and from him they must have been immediately transferred to Peter Drach at Speyer.

The type in this work is almost identical with the founts used by Prüsz in 1507 and Schwan in 1524, at Strassburg.

2. LOW COUNTRIES.

(1473) Louvain.

Johann Veldener (1473-77).

36251 THOMAS AQUINAS. Incipit tractatus beati thome de diuinis moribus, small 4to. slightly stained, Gothic type, 16 leaves, 27 lines to each full page, calf gilt, £5.
Sine notâ (Lovanii, J. Veldener, 1473)

Fifteen leaves, in small Gothic characters, twenty-seven long lines to a full page.

This book and three or four more in the same type were formerly described (in Brunet and elsewhere) as printed by Veldener at Cologne about 1470. Holtrop has proved that he produced them at Louvain.

36252 FASCICULUS TEMPORUM. Fol. 1: Tabula breuis & vtilis sup libello quodā q̄ dicit' fasciculus tēpor' . . Fol. 10: . . . Fasciculus tpm om̄s antiquor' cronicas ꝑplectens incipit feliciter, small folio, Gothic letter, 72 leaves with 15 woodcuts (one of Christ, and fourteen of cities, etc.) and many diagrams to illustrate the chronological succession of historical events; red morocco extra, £16. Impressa ē hec ꝑsens cronica que fasciculus tpm dicit' in florēntissima vniūsitate louaniēsi . . ꝑ me iohannē veldener . . . M.cccc.lxxvi . . . (1476)

Amongst the pictures in this curious book we find one of the Rainbow, and views of Rome and of Cologne. On the last leaf, just above the year 1454, and between the narrations of two facts which occurred in 1457, there is a statement "Artifices mira celeritate subtiliores solito fiunt. Et impressores librorum multiplicantur in terra." This was written by the author, Werner Rolevink, a Carthusian monk at Cologne, in or before 1474; in which year Ther Hoerner printed the first edition from the author's own first fair copy of his work. Rolevink (born in 1425) had lived as a monk in Cologne from about 1447, and, from the nature of his studies, must have been personally acquainted with Zell, and whoever else introduced printing into Cologne. His acquaintance with that art and its history cannot have begun later than 1462-3; consequently, the assertion above quoted has much greater force than a mere obiter dictum. Yet, up to 1457, we only know positively of the three

Mainz printers.—Veldener reprinted Ther Hoernen's text; having, as even his types testify, close business-relations with Cologne, although he never printed there as an independent typographer

Johann of Westphalia (1474–96).

36253 CRESCENTIIS (Petrus de). Fol. 1: In nomine sancte et indiuidue trinitatis Amen .... Incipit liber ruraliū cōmodorū . a Petro de crescentiis ciue bonon . . sm. folio, Gothic letter, 196 leaves, double columns, 42 lines per page, the initials painted in red by the rubricator; green vellum gilt, with the arms of Gondi de Retz on the back and those of Mr. Wodhull on the sides, £10. 10*s*

Colophon (printed in red): Presens opus ruraliū comodorum Petri de crescentiis . quodam industrioso caracterisandi stilo: nouissime omnipotentis dei suffragio adinuēto . extitit hac littera vera modernata . abscisa . & formata: impressum . p Ioannem de vvestfalia Paderbornēn dyocesis . In alma ac florētissima vniuersitate Louaniēsi residentē . Anno incarnationis dominice . M°.cccc°.lxiiii° . mensis Decembris die nona (1474)

The first book produced by this great printer at Louvain, where the art had been introduced one year earlier by Veldener. The rubricator's inscription is so interesting that it deserves citation: Rubrice per me facte sunt et complete anno 1477 mensis Junii 21 in quo anno villa Attrebatensis (i.e. Arras) a Francorum rege Ludovico obsessa eidem regi in manus reddita est. B. V. Sauary.

36254 AENEAS SYLVIUS. Enee Silvii . . . rervm familiarivm incipiunt epistole peramene, sm. folio, Roman letter, 303 leaves, 31 lines per page; very fine large copy, old calf neat, £10.

Pii Secundi . . Familiares epistole date ad amicos ī quadruplici uite eius statu finiunt per me Ioānē de uuestfalia In alma uniuersitate louaniēsi cōmorātē . . M.CCCC.LXXXIII (1483)

The signatures are all in the front margins, and printed at right angles to the lines (i.e. run down the page instead of across, except the first, which runs up). These seem to have been added after the book was printed.

36255 AILLY (Pierre d') Fol. 1 verso: Ymago mundi Incipit . . Fol. 7 verso: Petrus de Alyaco . . Tractatus de ymagine mundi . Epilogus mappe mundi . Tractatus de legibus & sectis . . . Preter hos aūt opuscula quedam auditoris eius magistri Ioānis Gersonis adiunximus . . sm. folio, Gothic letter, 172 leaves of which 2 are wholly blank, 41 lines per full page; with diagrams; bound, £7. 10*s* S. n. (Johannes de Westphalia, circa 1483)

A very rare work of mediæval geography.—The signatures run as follows:—a—k in eights (of which a—d 1 are printed sidewise in the same manner as the signatures of the Aeneas Sylvius) and l four leaves; aa—ii in eights, and kk 10 leaves. All these signatures must have been added after the printing of the book, as the original manuscript signatures in red ink are still visible on many of the leaves.—A MS. inscription on the first blank page records the possession by the Carthusians of Bruges, to whom it was given by their confrère Martinus le Bulletur, who had enriched their library with many and various volumes (about 1485).

36256 OPUSCULA VARIA. Fol. 1: [Antonii de Butrio] Speculum de confessione . . Fol. 28: Opusculum quod speculū aureū . . . Fol. 44: Incipit tractatus artis bene moriendi . . . Fol. 54: Domini hugonis . . speculuꝫ ecclesie . . Fol. 51: Finit speculū ecclesie . Impressum Louanii per me Ioannē de westafalia . small folio, Gothic letter, 169 leaves (of which the 153*rd and the last are blank*), double columns, 41 lines per column; with signatures; calf neat, gilt edges, £5. (circa 1483)

36257 BOETIUS. Fol. 1: Incipit tabula super libris Boetij de cōsolacione philosophie scdm ordinē alphabeti. Fol. 8: Boecii Romani & oratoris celeberrimi libri de consolatione philosophie. & cōmentarius eximii preclariqȝ doctoris sancti Thome super eosdem . . Gothic letter of two sizes (distinguishing the text and the commentary), 115 leaves, (of which the last is a blank) . . per me Iohānes de westfalia in alma Louaniēsi vniuersitate . . Anno gratie Millesimoquadringētesimooctuagesimoquarto (1484)—[BOETHIUS VEL THOMAS CANTIPRATENSIS] (O)Sculetur me osculo oris sui . . Gothic letter of two sizes, 67 leaves (of which the first is blank) . . In domo magistri Iohannis de westfalia . . Millesimo quadringētesimooctuagesimoquinto (1485)—2 vols. in 1, sm. folio, fine copies in the original stamped leather, £12. 1484-85

36258 [SALICETO (Nicolai de)] Fol. 1: Tabula alphabetica in libr' subsequētes Anthidotariū aīe appellatū . . Fol. 5: Incipit liber aureus qui antidotarius animar' dictus est, sm. folio, Gothic letter, 290 leaves, double columns, 42 lines per column; fine copy in maroon morocco extra, gilt edges, £4. 4*s*

. . in alma vniuersitate louaniēsi in domo Iohānis de westfalia (circ. 1485)

Louanii ī domo Iohānis de westfalia . . MCCCClxxxv . . (1485)

A contemporary inscription on the first page runs thus "Ista pars sanctorum sequentium est pro conventu M . . . . (defaced) juxta Embricam." The words after conventu are almost effaced, but it is plain that the book was meant for a convent in Emmerich. Underneath, in a hand of almost the same date, are the words "Datur nunc pro conventu fratrum Minorum de observantia in Dursten."

Ludovicus de Raveschot (1488).

xylographic intitulation in five lines); fine copy in russia neat, from the Syston library, excessively rare, £24.

Impressum In alma vniuersitate Louaniensi Per me lodouicum de rauescot (1488)

The date is found in the heading of the Prologus "Prologus in opus sequens qd est de anno die et feria dominice passionis. editum in vniuersitate generalis studij louaniens' Anno incarnationis dni. M:cccc:lxxxviii:"

This and one other book were the only productions of the printer. The present volume is a fine example of careful and elegant typography.

Thierry Martens (1492–1528).

36261 MORE (Sir Thomas) Libellus vere aureus nec minvs salvtaris qvam festiuus de optimo reip. statu, deq3 noua Insula Vtopia authore clarissimo viro Thoma Moro . . . cura M. Petri Aegidii Antuerpiēsis, & arte Theodorici Martini Alustensis . . nunc primum accuratissime editus, sm. 4to. Editio Princeps, Roman letter, 54 leaves, 36 lines per page, woodcut of Utopia on the back of the title; crimson morocco extra, from the Boutourlin library, £8. 8*s* Printer's mark on last leaf, with his name: Theodric' Martini (1516)

The date is obtained from the preliminary pieces. The first edition of a book which has attained to so great a celebrity is always interesting. The second edition (Basel, 1518) is much more common, and is frequently regarded erroneously as the princeps.

Other Printers.

Lovanii, Anton. Maria Bergaigne, 1550

One of the earliest of the long line of books printed in the Low Countries by refugee English Catholics.

Louaine, by Iohn Lyon. 1580

The book was of course intended for circulation in England. "Thomas Hide, Priest" may not be the author's name; it ought perhaps to be read as Thomas Hide-priest, a pseudonym.

William Caxton (1474–76 and Colard Mansion (1474–84).

36264 LES QUATRE DERRENIERES CHOSES. Fol. 1: Ce present traictie est diuise in quatre parties principales . . . Fol. 3: Cy commence la premiere partie des quatre derrenieres choses . . sm. folio, Gothic letter, printed in red and black; two leaves (67 and 72) supplied in facsimile, the book being otherwise perfect and in fine and large condition with rough leaves; in original binding, and enclosed in red morocco case, £500. Sine nota (W. Caxton, 1474)

Only one other copy known which is in the British Museum, and which has one leaf in facsimile.

(1476) Bruxelles.

The Brothers of Common Life (1476-87).

Bruxellis (per Fratres vitæ communis), 1478-79

At the end of each volume there are several examples of the French language as used in the documents and proceedings upon which Carlerius had been appointed to deliver juridical opinions. As a specimen I cite a couple of lines:—"Pour che q nous auons goy lonch tamps de pluseurs heritages." "Le quelle feme apres che q elle nous eult vendu led' fiefs se ochist, soit sceu se a prinche doibt aptenir led' fiefs." The long enjoyment referred to in the first extract appears as longhe gooanche.

36266 JOANNIS SARISBURIENSIS POLYCRATICUS. Fol. 1 verso: (H)ic liber ītitulatur de nug' curialiu' & vestigijs ph'or' cui' Iohannes Salesberiensis Carnotēsis epūs fuit actor . . . Fol. 2: Tabula libri policratici . . . Fol. 33: Eutheticus Iohannis episcopi Carnoteñ In policraticon . . . Fol. 38: Policratici de curialium nugis & vestigijs philosophorum . . . sm. folio, Gothic letter, 249 leaves (of which the 32*nd and* 37*th are blank*), double columns, 40 lines per column; a wormhole in the inner margin of the first ten leaves; but altogether a fine copy in limp vellum, with the lower margins of the leaves uncut and exhibiting the pristine MS. signatures, £18.

S. a. (Bruxellis, Fratres vitæ communis, circ. 1479)

A MS. note on the first page indicates ownership by the Monks of the Holy Cross at Utrecht in the sixteenth century.

36267 PETRI BLESENSIS EPISTOLÆ. Fol. 1: Incipit tabula eplar' Magistri petri Blesensis bathoniensis archidyaconi . . Fol. 9: Incipiūt epistole magistri Petri Blesensis . . . sm. folio, Gothic letter, 207 leaves, double columns; fine copy in citron morocco gilt, on thick wooden boards, £7. 10*s*

S. n. (Bruxellis, Fratres vitæ communis, circ. 1480)

A MS. note pasted on at the beginning states that "Iste liber pertinet Cruciferis Tr'ecteñ. et fuit mutuatus Dno. Abbati Stabulen . . . trajecti anno 83, etc."—written before 1490.

Richard Paffroet (1477–1500).

36268 SABUNDE (Raymond de). Fol. 1 : amor est pmū donū. & res data est tm̄ signū amoris . . . Fol. 8 : Incipit theologia naturalis siue liber creaturar' specialit' de homine & de natura eius inquātum homo . . . ɔposit' a venerabili viro mgro Raymūdo de Sabūde . . . sm. folio, Gothic letter, 256 leaves (of which the first is a blank), double columns, 39 lines per column; hf. vellum, £2. 10*s* Explicit liber creaturar' seu nature siue de hoīe . . . Impssus Dauētrie p me Rychardū paffroed. (circ. 1480)

The text and colophon end on the obverse of the last leaf. On the reverse nothing is printed but the words Theologia naturalis, as a sort of final intitulation.—On the blank first page, in a handwriting contemporary with the book, there is a record of ownership by the monastery of Regular Canons at Aachen, to whom it had been presented by Wilhelm Lentz.

36269 GUILHELMUS DE GOUDA. Title: Officū misse. Fol. 2: Tractatus de expositiōe misse Edit' a fratre guilhelmo de gouda . . . sm. 4to. Gothic letter, 30 leaves (the last a blank and the first containing nothing but the two words of intitulation), 28 lines per page; bound up with the other pieces described below, in contemporary wooden boards covered with stamped leather, £4. 10*s* Impressū dauatrie in impressura platee episcopi (Paffroed circa 1485)

The following are the titles of the works bound up with the preceding Officium Missæ:—1. Collectura insignis duar' passionum domini nostri . . . Gothic letter 68 leaves (the last blank), S. n.—2. Libellus de regimine rusticor' . . . Gothic letter, 62 leaves (first and last blank), 30 lines per page, Louanii, Iohan. de Westfalia (circ. 1485)—3. Speculum Peccatoris, MS. neatly written about 1485.—The inside leaves of the binding are portions of a lectionary of the eleventh century on vellum.

Anno dñi. M.cccc.xcv* (1495)

The fly-leaves are from various vellum MSS. and include four pages of a metrical Latin glossary transcribed in the fourteenth century.—On the title-page of the book are two notes of ownership written by successive nun-librarians of a Convent of Mary Magdalen, in the sixteenth century. The printed book-plate of the Prince of Nassau-Dillenburg's library (about 1720) is pasted on the back of the title.

Jacob of Breda (1485–1519).

S. n. (Goudæ, Gheraert Leeu, 1479-80)

No copy is known in the Dutch libraries; it is described in Mr. Campbell's Annales from one in the University library. The book was unknown to Brunet and his continuator.

31274 DIALOGUS CREATURARUM. Fol. 1: (P)refacio ī librū qui dicit' dyalog' creaturarū moralizat' omni materie morali iocūdo et edificatiuo modo applicabilis Incipit feliciter . . . Fol. 10: Dyalogus creaturarū optime moralizatus . . . sm. folio, First Edition, Gothic letter, 102 leaves, 34 lines per full page, with 124 curious woodcuts, the first page of text decorated with a woodcut border and initial; hf. bd. with the arms and ex libris of the Bunau library on the sides, £20.

In this copy four leaves are supplied in a hand contemporaneous with the book and containing neat drawings.

36275 ——— the same, sm. folio, perfect; a little wormed, otherwise a fine large copy in old calf, £40. 1480

The signatures of Thomas Ireland, Nicholas Stokesley, Bartholomew Kirkbye, and Robert Thacker, all written in this volume between 1490 and 1570, attest its early arrival in England. There are a few English glosses in the writing of the earliest owner, Thomas Ireland.

36275 ——— the same, perfect; a very large and fine copy, bound up with the GESTA ROMANORUM of the same printer, 2 vols. in 1, sm. folio, in the original boards covered with leather, £63. 1480

The description of the Gesta is as follows:—Fol. 1: Ex gestis romanorum hystorie notabiles . . . Colophon: Presens hoc opus ex gestis romanorū qd fertur recollectorium . . . in gouda . . . per Gerardum leeu . . . Anno . . . millesimo quadringentesimo octuagesimo . . . (1480), with the same woodcut border on the first page, and the same printer's mark on the last page as are found in the Dialogus; 142 leaves, double columns, 37 lines per column (there ought to be 143 leaves, but the last leaf of table is missing).

With an inscription "Pertinet in Steyn prope Goudam" first written early in the sixteenth century, and repested elsewhere at a later date.

Voleyndet ter goude in hollant by my Gherit leew . . M.cccc ende. lxxxiiii (1484)

The last book printed by Gerard Leeu in Gouda. He started a new press in Antwerp this very year.—The painted initials and the coloured woodcuts, which are of excellent design and finish, give a grand air to this volume.

te delf in hollāt Int iaer ons heeren dusent vier hondert ende tachtich . . (1480)

The colophon is followed by the two shields which the printer Jacob Jacobsson used for his mark.—This is the first edition of the Dutch Psalter, that book not having been included in the Bible published by the same printer in 1477.

36280 TURRECREMATA. Fol. 1: Tractatus de venerabili sacramentō (sic) Incipit plog' tractatuli ꝑpilati ī basilia p frēm iōhēȝ de turre cremata . . —— 2 vols. in 1, sm. 4to. old calf gilt, £15. 1486

Both these books were printed by Jacob Jacobsson. The second work is a Dutch translation of the well known Quatuor Novissima.

Peter van Os (1483–1510).

36282 CANTIPRATENSIS (Thomas). DIT IS DER BIEN BOECK, sm. folio, Gothic letter, woodcuts on the title including an impression from one of the wood-blocks used in the xylographic Biblia Pauperum; 187 printed leaves, double columns, 36 lines per full column; wooden boards, covered with leather, £10. 10*s*

. . bi mij Peter van os prenter tot swolle . . Mcccc.lxxxviij (1488)

A painted border encircles the title-page. On the reverse, the following inscription appears: "Dit bien boecht hoert tot sante maria in naseret eñ is een conuent boecht." This was written by some nun soon after the date of the book.

36283 ——— another copy of the same work, sm. folio, brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £12. 1488

With a slip of paper pasted on the first page of text, and bearing the name of Sust. Magriete vgoes (i.e. Sister Margaret Van Goes, about 1500).

The blockprint on the title has considerable interest as placing beyond discussion the fact that the Biblia Pauperum was a Dutch work. That it was anterior to the Mazarine Bible we may assume without going back so far as Holtrop to about 1410-20. As for Weigel's assumption that its date was not far from 1470, it is invalidated by the peculiar affectation of exact deductions from doubtful premisses, which marks his work.

36284 HORATIUS DE ARTE POETICA, sm. 4to. Gothic letter, 16 leaves, 18 lines per page; with woodcut on the title, apparently intended to represent Horace; several small wormholes through the leaves but the book in sound condition otherwise; calf gilt, from the Sunderland library, £20.

Impensis Petri Os de Breda (circ. 1498)

Unique. The type is apparently identical with that which was used by Snellaert at Delft in 1495 and 1497 (Alphab. divini amoris and Sinte Barbara), and also with the type used in the imprint of Aristoteles de Moribus by Peter van Os or his son in 1500; but its clear-cut unworn condition shows that the Horace was anterior to the latter book.

Mathias van der Goes (1482–91).

(Antv. G. Leeu, circ. 1485)

This copy belonged to Thomas Aleyne, John Barrett, and John Skelhorne successively between the years 1490 and 1570. A MS. map is rudely drawn on the blank portion of folio 3*b*, probably by John Barrett, about 1520, in the style of the most ancient maps.—The book is marked with signatures A-H printed on the inner part of the lower margins.

36288 ——— another copy, sm. 4to. red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Mackenzie, £8. 8*s* (Antv. Leeu, circ. 1485)

36289 SUCHEN (Ludolphus de) Fol. 1: Registrum in librum ludolphi de itinere ad t'ram sanctam . . . Fol. 3: Prologus in libr' dñi ludolphi de suchen . de t'ra sācta et itinere iherosolimitano . . sm. 4to. Gothic letter, 54 leaves (signatures aa-ff in eights and ȝ in six leaves), 33 lines per page; fine copy in blue morocco extra, gilt edges, £8. 8*s* (Antv. G. Leeu, circ. 1485)

This book and the Mandeville, along with a Marco Polo not in this catalogue, were all printed by the one printer, and intended, as the signatures betray, to form three successive portions of a Collection of Voyages. It is now generally agreed by the standard authors that Leeu printed them at Antwerp, but it is hard to reconcile this assumption with the specific words of the colophon to Mandeville—"Quod opus ubi inceptū simul et cōpletū sit ipa elementa seu singularū seorsū caracteres lrārum, quibus impressū vides venetica monstrant manifeste." How can Venetian types make manifest that a book is printed anywhere rather than at Venice?

36290 LUDOLPHUS DE SAXONIA, TBOECK VANDEN LEUEN ONS HEEREN IHESU CHRISTI, sm. folio, Gothic letter, 306 leaves, double columns, 43 lines per page; with 147 large woodcuts, many of them xylographic, and numerous woodcut initials; fine copy in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, £30.

Tantwerpen bij mij Gheraert de leeu . . MCCCClxxxvij . . (1487)

First edition of the Dutch text; and also first edition of the remarkable engravings with which the book is so richly illustrated.—They are wholly uncoloured.—The copy in the Royal Library at the Hague must be imperfect, as it is described by Holtrop as having only 304 leaves, and Mr. Campbell again in his Annales has described the book very elaborately as containing 304 leaves (probably having only seen the same copy as Holtrop). The 306 leaves in my copy are all printed on.

Rolant van den Dorp (1494–1500).

36291 DIE . ALDER . EXCELLĒSTE CRONYKE . VĀ BRABANT, sm. folio, Gothic letter, double columns, 40 lines per column, numerous large woodcuts; a used copy mended and wanting a sheet (Ⓒ); boards covered with leather, £10.

The woodcuts here are not the same as those in Geraert Leeu's edition, but are much ruder and more archaic in style.

Jan Doesborch (1490–1520?).

—— English works printed by him; see post in English division.

Thantwerpen, Willem Vorsterman, 1532

Substantially in agreement with Luther's German version, notwithstanding which Vorstermann obtained the imperial license to print. It was however afterwards recalled, and the copies destroyed when found. Most of those which are now extant are imperfect.

Jan van Liesvelt (1526–44).

Tantwerpen By my Hansken van Liesuelt, 1538

This Bible was prohibited by authority, and the printer Jacob von Liesvelt was put to death. The above issue of 1538 bears the name of Hansken (Little Jack) who may have been the son of Jacob.

Martin Keyser or L'Empereur (1525- . .) and Simon Cocq (1511–36).

36297 LA SAÏNCTE BIBLE, en Francoys, translatee selon la pure et entiere traduction de sainct Hierome, conferee et entierement reuisitee . . . 2 vols. in 1, sm. folio, Gothic letter, double columns, ff. (xx) ccccix, (viii) and xcix; with a great number of excellent woodcuts, calf, £12.

36298 La saincte Bible, en Francoys, sm. folio, perfect with the blank leaf between folios 258-259, a very fine large copy in vellum, £20.

The first complete edition of Le Fèvre d'Etaples' French version of the Bible. Its separate parts had already been printed in small size and in various places between 1523 and 1528; but in this volume they were united for the first time in a single book. Although Lempereur obtained the license of the Emperor and the Inquisition for this impression of the Scriptures, "que il ayt puis na gueres fait translater," it was not long before it underwent the usual fate of vernacular Bibles on the Continent. Hence its rarity at the present time. There is no small interest in comparing this with the English Bible which was printed in the same city five years later.

36299 LE NOUUEAU TESTAMENT, auquel est demonstre Iesu Christi sauueur du monde estre venu: annonce de Dieu a noz Peres anciens . . . 12mo. Gothic letter, title and calendar printed in red and black, many small woodcuts in the text; leaves (viii), ccclxviii, and (xx), ruled with red ink lines throughout; fine copy in vellum, £10. Anuers par Martin Lempereur . . M.D.XXXI (1531)

Amongst the three Franciscan letters from Mexico, the one from Peter of Ghent, dated Mexico, 1529, is of the highest interest, and was here printed for the first time.

Jehan Grapheus (1520-36).

36304 LE NOUUEAU TESTAMENT de nostre saulueur Iesu Christ trāslate selon le vray text en franchois, 12mo. Gothic letter, ff. 354 and (xviii) including the second last leaf which is blank and the last leaf with the printer's mark; calf, from the library of the Duke of Sussex, £10. Anuers par Iehan Grapheus, 1532
This is a rare reimpression of Le Fevre's Testament as it had been issued by Lempereur.

Jan Steels (1533-. .).

36305 SEPULVEDA (Lorenço de). Romances Nueuamente sacados de historias antiguas dela cronica de España compuestos por Lorenço de Sepulueda. large copy in green morocco extra, gilt gaufré edges, by Mackenzie, EXTREMELY RARE, from the Beckford library, Hamilton Palace, £28. En Anuers, Iuan Steelsio, 1551

There was no copy in the Salvá collection. The number of Romances is 136, eight of which were omitted in the edition of 1566.

36306 LE NOUUEAU TESTAMENT, auquel est demonstre Iesu Christ sauueur du monde estre venu annonce de Dieu, 16mo. Roman letter, the title and calendar printed in red and black Gothic letter; in the original stamped calf binding, mended, gilt edges, £4. Anuers par Iehan Steelsius, 1538

A rare and pretty edition of the version of Le Fevre d'Etaples.

It is well known that a variation exists with regard to the titles of this edition. In the present there is no printed title, but there is a second engraved one in which there is a figure of Bellona, whose shield held forward serves as a cadre for the title "La Pharsale de Lucain," engraved by H. de Brugge.

36392 CLAPMARII (Arn.) De Arcanis Rerum Publicarum Libri sex iteratò illustrati a Ioan Arn. Corvino J. C. Accessit V. Cl. Chr. Besoldi De eadem materia discursus, Nec non Arnoldi Clapmarii Et aliorum conclusiones de Iure Publico, 12mo. 132 mill., with engraved title, fine copy in red morocco, gilt edges, £2. 12*s* 6*d* Amsterodami, Apud Ludovicum Elzevirium, 1644

36393 GROTII (H.) et aliorum Dissertationes de Studiis instituendis, 16mo. 125 mill., red morocco, gilt edges, by Roger Payne, from the Syston Park library, £9. ib. 1645

This is a genuine Elzevier, with six preliminary leaves (not four) comprising the title. From Willems, who assigns only four preliminary leaves to the genuine book, one might conclude that this was an imitation by Blaeu; but it is decidedly from the press of Ludovicus Elzevir.

36418 SENECÆ (L. Annæi) Opera, quæ extant, Integris Justi Lipsii, J. Fred. Gronovii, & selectis Variorum Commentariis illustrata, etc., 3 vols. in 5, sm. 8vo. 186 mill., engraved title, fine copy in red morocco extra, doublé with red leather, gilt edges, by Boyet, £25. ib. apud Danielem Elsevirium, 1672

"Ce Sénèque, qui fait partie de la collection des variorum, est tres estimé, et on le recherche d'autant plus qu'il n'a jamais été réimprimé." —Willems.

A splendid specimen of Boyet's binding. The full lining or doublure is a feature of considerable rarity in books bound at that time (about 1690), being only found in volumes which were esteemed to be of the highest value and worthy of the decorator's best efforts.

Printed in Leyden, by the widow and heirs of Jean Elzevier, for Daniel. "Cette édition des Confessions de St. Augustin, la seule que les Elzevier aient donnée de ce livre, est jolie et très recherchée."—Willems.

EXTREMELY RARE. Only 48 copies printed. This copy contains the two leaves of Dedication to Louis XIV, and the two leaves of the notice "Lectori," which has the usual modifications in the text, but with the fleuron aux roses trémières not au buffle. Willems notices these modifications, but says that they are always accompanied by the fleuron au buffle, the notice without the modifications having the fleuron aux roses trémières.

Amsterdam, chés Jaques le Curieux, 1666

This amusing little book is dedicated "A tres-vilains, tres-sales, tres-lourds, tres-mal-propres, et tres-ignorants Messieurs Boüeurs et Cureurs des canaux d'Amsterdam." The poem is a burlesque of the manners and customs of the inhabitants of Amsterdam.

36434 RABELAIS. Les Œuvres de M. Francois Rabelais, 2 vols. bound in 3, 12mo. UNIQUE COPY, ILLUSTRATED by a former owner with 14 humourous "Figures Drolatiques," engraved on wood, after Dutch painters, and 103 very clever pencil drawings, after Hollar's designs in imitation of Leonardo Da Vinci; 140½ mill.; French red morocco extra, joints, gilt edges, £9. 9*s* a la Sphère, 1669

This edition has the "Clef de Rabelais," which is not to be found in that of 1663, nor in those of 1666, 1675, and 1691.—The date of 1659 on the first title is merely a typographical error for 1669, as the second title gives it. Brunet considers that the work was printed at Brussels.

Tantwerpen alder naest den groten mortier . M.CCCC.v . . (1505)

First edition of the first Dutch translation of a famous work. It is little known and only three or four copies are supposed to be now extant. The copy in the British Museum is imperfect.

Wittenberg: Hans Lufft.

Gedruckt zu Wittemberg: Durch Hans Lufft. M.D.XLI. (1541)

This is the second volume of Luther's definitive edition of his German Bible—the most intrinsically valuable of all the editions.

Johann Kraft.

36443 BIBLIA GERMANICO-LATINA (Luther's Uebersetzung) uff Churfürstlichen Sechsischen Befehl gedruckt (mit Vorwort von Paul Eber), 10 vols. sm. 4to. numerous spirited woodcuts, probably by Tobias Stimmer or Jost Amman; in the original calf gilt binding, bearing the initials "G. M. N. 1581," and the portraits of Luther on the upper, of Melanchthon on the lower side, painted in the sunk centre compartments of each volume, £60.

Witteberg, 1574

This may be called the Electoral Edition, and was evidently produced as a grand and sumptuous work—perhaps only intended for presents. Its rarity is shown by the fact that there was no copy in the Caxton Exhibition.

36444 Histoire de l'Invention de l'Imprimerie: Album Typographique, folio, facsimiles from the Mazarine Bible, and the Indulgences, examples of the early printers' materials and tools, portrait of Gutenberg, etc. bds. 15*s* Paris, 1840

Conrad Schweinheim & Arnold Pannartz (1465–67).

36461 LACTANTIUS. [Leaf 1 :] Lactantii Firmiani de diuinis institutiōibus aduersus gentes rubrice p̄mi libri incipiūt, folio, Editio Princeps, with the two rare leaves of errata, a splendid copy, large and clean, with 9 exquisitely illuminated initials, the rest being painted in red and blue, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, EXTREMELY RARE, £225.

Lactantii Firmiani de diuinis institutionibus aduersus gentes libri septem . necnō eiusdē ad Donatū de ira dei liber unus . unacū libro de opificio hōis ad Demetrianū finiunt. Sub ānο M.CCCC.LXV. . . . In uenerabili monasterio Sublacensi . Deo gratias. (1465)

36462 LACTANTIUS, folio, Editio Princeps, with the errata, very fine copy in red morocco super extra, rich gold tooling, gilt edges, from the Beckford library, £250. 1465

This is not only THE FIRST EDITION OF THE BOOK, but is also THE FIRST DATED BOOK which issued from THE FIRST ITALIAN PRESS, and THE FIRST BOOK IN WHICH GREEK CHARACTERS APPEARED.

This copy was bound for Count Dmitri Buturlin and formed part of his second collection. It has a special interest as containing an inscription by the rubricator, who gives his name as Nico. W.—Who was he ?—a German monk in the monastery, or a German workman from Maintz associated with Schweinheim ? There is so little known concerning the first Italian press at Subbiaco that even this little item has its value. A certain Nicolas Wolff Alamannus had a printing press at Lyons from 1498 to 1503, and Jodocus Badius was, at least for part of that time, his press-corrector. It is not improbable that he had himself occupied a similar office at Subbiaco, and written the inscription above referred to.

The discovery in the Klemm Museum at Dresden of a copy of the Cicero de Oratore (also printed at Subbiaco in 1465) bearing a dated MS. inscription by a reader, which would lead to the presumption that the Lactantius was posterior to the Cicero, has not induced me to cancel the recognized claim of the former. The list of books printed by Schweinheim and Pannartz which they caused to be prepared in 1472 specified Lactantius immediately after the Donatus pro puerulis which was their first effort.

(1467) Conrad Sweynheym (1467-74) and Arnold Pannartz (1467-76).

36463 LACTANTIUS. Lactantii Firmiani de diuinis institutiōibus aduersus gentes rubrice primi libri incipiūt, folio, fine large copy, with 9 initial letters illuminated in gold and colours, with contemporary MS. notes, blue morocco, gold line tooling, gilt edges, by Roger Payne, EXTREMELY RARE, £42.

(Romæ, per Sweynheym et Pannartz) In domo Petri de Maximo, 1468

SECOND EDITION, and, according to Brunet, quite as rare as the First. It is the First Edition of Lactantius printed in Rome, and the Greek quotations appear completely in it for the first time. The names of the printers are contained in the following three hexameter lines before the date: Hoc Conradus opus suueynheym ordine miro | Arnoldusq: simul pannartz una ede colendi | Gente theotonica: rome expediere sodales. The Sunderland copy sold for £41.

36464 AUGUSTINUS (S. Aurelius) de Civitate Dei, thick folio, beautiful large clean copy, in old russia extra, Harleian gold tooling, £40. Romæ, Sweynheym et Pannartz, 1468

The last four lines of the book are: Hoc Conradus opus suueynheym ordine miro | Arnoldusq. simul pannartz una ede colendi | Gente theotonica: rome expediere sodales. | In domo Petri de Maximo. 1468.

This SECOND EDITION is, according to Brunet, QUITE AS RARE AS THE FIRST, and is one of the earliest books printed at Rome.

The above is a magnificent copy, measuring 15½ by 10⅞ in., that is a trifle less than the Sunderland copy, which I sold for £140. The first leaf has been slightly torn, and a portion of three or four letters destroyed, but this is absolutely the only defect. My copy from the Sunderland Library was so tall that the original MS. signatures of the sheets remained, and I was thus enabled to give the following collation, viz. a, 16 leaves (the first and last blank); b-n in sheets of ten leaves; o, in twelve; p-z, and two succeeding sheets, in tens; two further sheets, eight leaves each (the two final leaves being blank)—making in all 274 leaves, including 4 blanks. This collation is verified by the present copy, which also has the original MS. catchwords—an exceedingly rare circumstance in these old volumes, which are generally cut down by successive binders, and only to be found in the very finest specimens.

On the first leaf is written "Rdus in Christo pr̄. Dn̄s. Nicolaus ex Comitib̄s. Sc̄ti Domini Ciuis & Ep̄us [Episcopus] Lucensis dono dicauit hūc Codicem Bibliothē ꝑtus [conventus] scti Petri Cælicolæ [some words erased] 1491."

36465 APULEIUS. Lucii Apuleii platonici madaurēsis philosophi metamorphoseos liber: ac nōnulla alia opuscula eiusdem: necnon epitoma Alcinoi in disciplinarū Platonis desinunt, sm. folio, First Edition, fine large and clean copy, vellum, from the Hamilton Palace library, £50.

Rome [per Sweynheym et Pannartz] in domo Petri de Maximo, 1469

VERY RARE. One of the rarest of the first editions of Classical Authors, only 275 copies having been printed. The Sunderland copy fetched £64, the La Valliere 1520 fr., and the Sykes copy, which sold for £29. 18*s* 6*d*, was resold in the Syston Park sale for £43.

"Première édition, très-rare, et qui a le mérite d'offrir un texte exempt des corrections hasardées que présentent la plupart des autres éditions anciennes du même livre."—Brunet.

36466 AULI GELLII Noctes Atticæ, ex recognitione Joannis Andreæ, sm. folio, First Edition, very fine and large copy in blue morocco extra, leather joints, silk linings, vellum fly-leaves, gilt edges, by Bozerian jeune, £80. Romæ, [per Sweynheym et Pannartz] in domo Petri de Maximis, 1469

EXCEEDINGLY RARE. Only 275 copies were printed. It contains very early specimens of Greek printing, the passages in that language being all printed in Greek type.

36467 CÆSARIS Opera, sm. folio, First Edition, ruled with red lines, the front margins mended, and the first and last two leaves in consequence slightly damaged, red morocco, gilt edges, VERY RARE, £20. Anno Christi. M.CCCC.lxix . . . Rome in domo Petri de Maximis [Per Pannartz et Sweynheym.]

The Paris copy sold for £53, the La Vallière for 1260 francs, the Sunderland for £195, the Osterley Park (wanting two leaves and with 11 damaged) for £35. 10*s*, and Mr. Wodhull's copy, which cost him £42, for £48.

36468 (QUINTILIANI Institutiones Oratoriæ). [Leaf 1:] Ioannis Andree Episcopi Aleriēn . . . in Quintiliani recognitionem Epistola, folio, fine tall copy, blue morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, EXCEEDINGLY RARE, £45. Romæ, Sweynheim et Pannartz (1470)

This is a remarkably fine tall and clean copy. The first page of the text is surrounded by a beautiful border painted in gold and colours, the first initial letter is also illuminated, and the rest painted in blue and red.

The printers' names appear as usual in the eight-line colophon at the end. The epistle at the beginning is dated 1470, so the book must have been printed about that time.

"Edition plus rare encore que la précédente (Editio Princeps)."—Brunet.

36469 CICERO. M. Tul. Ciceronis. ad. M. Brutum & ceteros epistole (ad Quintum Fratrem, ad Octavium et ad Atticum), folio, very fine large copy, with initial letter, border and coat of arms on the first page illuminated in gold and colours, red morocco extra, gilt edges, £52. 10*s* Impressū Rome opus In domo Petri & Frācisci de Maxīs. iuxta campū Flore. p̄sidentibus magistris Cōrado Sueynheym & Arnoldo Panartz, 1470

FIRST EDITION. EXCESSIVELY RARE. This copy contains 199 printed leaves, as Brunet and Hain say; not 198, which is the number given by Dibdin and Van Praet. It is said that only 275 copies of this volume were printed. The Duke of Roxburghe's copy sold for £189, and was resold for £91 at Sir M. Sykes sale.

36470 AUGUSTINUS de Civitate Dei, folio, with elegant painted border in the interlaced style on the first page of text, and large illuminated initials, a very fine large and clean copy, old calf, £16. Romæ, Sweynheym et Pannartz, 1470

This third edition printed by Sweynheym and Pannartz is almost as rare as the first or second. The colophon is in the usual eight lines, followed by the date:

"Aspicis illustris lector. quicunq; libellos
Si cupis artificum nomina nosse: lege.
Aspera ridebis cognomina teutona: forsan
Mitiget ars musis inscia uerba uirum.
Cōradus sueynheym: Arnoldus pānartzq; magistri
Rome impresserunt talia multa simul
Petrus cum fratre Francisco Maximus ambo
Huic operi aptatam contribuere domum."

The Sunderland copy sold for £37, and the Syston Park copy for £21. 10*s*.

36471 CALPHURNII (C.) carmē bucolicū incipit feliciter (Carmina XI), FIRST EDITION, (sine nota sed Romæ per Sweynheym et Pannartz, 1471)—SILII ITALICI Punicorum Liber primus incipit (libri XVII), FIRST EDITION, Romæ, Sweynheym et Pannartz, 1471—2 vols. in 1, sm. folio, fine large and clean copies, with painted initials, in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Derome, £25. 1471

Both these works, which were evidently printed at the same time, are exceedingly rare. For beauty and elegance they are unsurpassed by any of the works ever published by Sweynheym and Pannartz. Only 275 copies were printed.

After the date at the end of the Silius Italicus are the following eight lines: Aspicis illustris lector quicunq. libellos | Si cupis artificum nomina nosse: lege. | Aspera ridebis cognomina Teutona: forsan | Mitiget ars musis inscia uerba uirum | Cōradus suueynheym: Arnoldus pānartzq. magistri | Rome impresserunt talia multa simul. | Petrus cum fratre Francisco Maximus ambo | Huic operi aptatam contribuere domum.

This copy sold in the La Vallière sale for 1160 fr., and in 1791 was purchased in the Paris sale by Mr. Wodhull for £36. 15*s*. Pinelli's copy sold for £48., and that of Leon d'Ourches for 901 fr.

36472 CICERONIS ORATIONES, Editio Princeps, stout folio, vellum, RARE, £10. 10*s* Romæ, Sweynheim et Pannartz, 1471

This edition is more complete and certainly not less rare than that of Valdarfer, printed at Venice in the same year, with which this disputes priority. Leaves 333-9 are inlaid, and the first and last leaves mended, otherwise this is a fine tall copy. Thorpe's copy fetched £52. 10*s*.

The volume ends with the usual colophon of eight lines, with the date at the end.

36473 STATIUS. επωπιδων Hoc volvmine Domitivs (Calderinus) inservit Syluarum Statii Papinii libros quinq. a se emendatos: Commentarios: quos in Syluas composuit: Commentariolos in Sappo Ouidii quos edidit: Propertii loca obscuriora a se elucubrata . . . sm. folio, large copy in old red morocco extra, gilt edges, £12. *Impressit. Impressit Rome ingeniosus vir Arnoldus Pannartz. natione Germanus. in domo clari civis Petri de Max. 1476

One of the latest and scarcest productions of the famous first press of Rome, from which Schweinheim had already seceded. Soon after the date of this volume, both partners were in the grave.

PTOLEMÆUS—see post. under Arnoldus Buckink (1478).

Ulrich Hahn, of Vienna, or Udalricus Gallus (1467-78), with Simon Nicolai, of Lucca (1471-74).

Contains 70 leaves, the last being blank, printed in a small neat semi-gothic type, without marks.

36478 PLUTARCHI. Vitæ Parallelæ, a diversis interpretibus Latinæ factæ, a J. A. Campano collectæ et editæ, 2 vols. large folio, with bordered initial to each volume finely illuminated in gold and colours, and painted initials, very large copy, with contemporary MS. notes on margins, a few leaves mended, and in one instance two or three letters supplied in MS. facsimile, russia, £12. 12*s* [Romæ] Udalricus Gallus (circa 1470)

FIRST EDITION of this translation. EXTREMELY RARE. This copy contains: Vol. I, 293 printed leaves and 2 blanks; Vol. II, 299 leaves and 5 blanks; thus agreeing with Dibdin's description and also with the Wodhull copy. This copy sold for £16. 5*s* 6*d* in Sir M. Sykes' sale.

36479 TORTELLII ARETINI (Joannis) Commentariorum Grāmaticorum. de. Orthogphia dictionū E grecis Tractarum. Libri, folio, very fine large copy, with two beautiful bordered initial letters, illuminated in gold and colours, red morocco extra, £12. 12*s*

Insculptum est Rome in domo de taliacoxis Sub iussu Vlrici Galli Teutonici: Et Simonis Nicolai Lucensis, 1471

VERY RARE. Disputes the precedence with Jenson's Venice edition of the same year, some bibliographers stating this to be the First Edition and others Jenson's.

36480 AUGUSTINUS DE CIVITATE DEI, folio, all the large initials illuminated, and an elegant border in the interlaced style painted on the first leaf of text, the last few folios slightly wormed and discoloured, otherwise a fine copy in vellum, £4.

Printed in the same character as Johan Gensberg used for his Roman edition (1474) of Calderinus' Commentary on Martial.

The volume consists of 41 leaves, of 30 lines to a page

Georg Sachsel and Barthol. Golsch (1474).

36488 VARRO (M. T.) De Lingua Latina, sm. folio, citron morocco extra, £7. 10*s* Sine notâ (circa 1474)

Very rare. It contains 58 leaves, with 35 lines to a page. The type is similar to that used by Sachsel and Golsch in their Ammianus Marcellinus, Paradoxa, and Aurelius Victor. Only five works are known which can be attributed to those printers.

36488*MODESTVS. In hoc volumine continetur. [Modestus] de Re Militari . [Pomponius Lætus] De Magistratibus Vrbis . . sm. 4to. calf, £3. 15*s* Sine nota (c. 1474)

This edition consists of 30 leaves, without marks, of 26 or 27 lines to a page. Varying conjectures as to the printer have been formed by Hain, Dibdin, and in the La Vallière catalogue; but Brunet refers the volume to the press of Sachsel and Golsch.

Johann Schurener of Bopardia (1474–78).

36489 PLINIVS. C. Plinii secundi Veronensis Oratoris clarissimi et Consularis Epistolarum Liber . . sm. 4to. old English citron morocco gilt, £4. S. n. (c. 1474)

A very rare edition, without marks; 140 leaves (not 141, as Brunet gives it) with 29 lines per page. The type is that of Schurener.

Simon Nicolai de Luca alone (1474-79).

36490 ALBERTUS MAGNUS de Animalibus, sm. folio, lít. goth. FIRST EDITION, fine copy, the first page richly decorated with initial letter and floriated border finely illuminated in gold and colours, with the small initials prettily drawn in colours, green morocco extra, gilt edges, £16. 16*s* Hoc presens Alberti magni . . . opus impressum Rome [per Simonem Nicolai de Luca], 1478

So rare that the Mantua edition of 1479 was formerly regarded as the first.

Bartholomew Guldinbeck (1475-81).

36490*ÆNEAS SYLVIUS. Tractatus . . . de curialium miseria . . . 22 leaves without marks (sine loco), 1475—Incipit tractatulus de duob' se inuicē diligōtibus (de duobus amantibus) . . . 40 leaves without marks (sine nota)—Epistola . . . de amoris remedio incipit . . . 6 leaves without marks (sine nota)—3 vols. in 1, sm. 4to. calf, from the Sunderland library, £4. 1475

These three very rare pieces were printed by Barth. Guldinbeck, at Rome.

Wolf Hahn, or Lupus Gallus (1476).

36491 TURRECREMATA (Joannes Cardinalis de) vulgo Torquemada. Expositio brevis et utilis super toto Psalterio, sm. folio, with illuminated initial letter, fine copy in calf extra, gilt edges, £6. Rome . . . per magistrum Lupum gallum frēm mgr̄i Vdalrici galli de Bienna, 1476

Very rare. Brunet erroneously ascribes this edition to Ulrich Hahn.

Arnoldus Buckinck (1478).

Arnoldvs Bvckinck e Germania Rome tabvlis aeneis in pictvris formatvm impressit . . M.CCCC.LXXVIII. . . .

The second leaf of text has been supplied in photo-lithographic facsimile, so skilfully done as to defy detection by all save experts, the blank leaf before the maps having been used for the reproduction. The first leaf is neatly mended, and a few of the maps are mended in the lower margins, and in one or two instances a line or a few letters restored.

This first illustrated edition of Ptolemy's Geography, and also the first dated instance of maps engraved on copper. The work contains a double series of maps, firstly the reproduction of the old Greek ones which belong properly to the text, and next a set of modern maps which represent the geographical knowledge of the time, and which constitute the importance of the volume as the first dated General Atlas.

The binding of this volume cost over £20.

Consists of 63 leaves. The woodcut on the reverse of leaf 36 has at the bottom the words "MAR" and "DE AMSTDAM" in black letters on white scrolls, and "ER" immediately beneath the latter in white letters on a black ground, showing that Martin of Amsterdam, one of the printers, was also the engraver. On the woodcut on the reverse of leaf 25 also, there is a shield with the initials of both printers "I" and "M" interlaced, in both large and small letters.

Ferdinand Columbus's copy; with his MS. note on the last page "Este libro costo en Roma . . . . . perfeti . . tobre di 1515. [Esta registrado 2428]" The words within square brackets refer to his having inserted the title in his catalogue.

Of this excessively rare book, only some three or four copies are in existence: its chief importance consists in its being the first printed record of Cabral's discovery of Brazil in 1500. The special object of the letter was to describe Cabral's two expeditions to India in 1500-1504, but his accidental crossing of the Atlantic at the outset, and the setting up of Portuguese crosses on the Terra de santa croce was a fact of such signal importance that the first printed account of it becomes a book of permanent value.

VERY RARE. Sold at the Duke of Grafton's sale for £53; Dr. Heath's for £68. 5*s*; Heber's for £25. 10*s*.

The text of the Iliad and Odyssey is included.

The first edition is among the most splendid monuments in the world of Greek erudition and of Greek Printing. M. Renouard well observes in the opening of his description of it:—"Trésor d'érudition grecque, espèce de sanctuaire dans lequel n'ont accès que ceux qui déjà ont fait progrès dans l'étude des anciens Classiques."—Bibl. d'un Amateur, Vol. 2, p. 138.

36527 ——— the same, 8vo. very fine large copy, red morocco, gilt edges, £3. 3*s* 1518

FIRST EDITION: EXTREMELY RARE. Sir Mark Sykes' two copies sold for £9. 9*s* and £5. 2*s* 6*d*.

Some Latin verses on the back of the title are in capital letters, evidently from Alopa's fount. Lascaris was appointed head of the Gymnasium for printing Greek texts, by Leo X, but the press only produced two (or perhaps three) works in 1517-18. It seems to have been distinct from that of Kalliergi.

Ludovicus Vicentinus (1524-27), and Lautitius Perusinus (1524-25).

36528 CORYCIANA [i.e. Carmina diversorum in laudem Jani Corycii, collecta a Blossio Palladio], sm. 4to. ruled with red lines, contemporary Venetian morocco, the sides covered with tooling in the Grolier manner, having on one side the initials I. L. N. (J. Laurent. Nucleus) and on the other "CORYCIANA," gilt and gauffred edges, rare, £12. Impressum Rome apud Ludouicum Vincentinum & Lautitium Perusinum. 1524

A large and fine copy, but for a stain in the top margins of the first few leaves. Printed in italic type. Contains A-Z, and AA-MM in fours.

The I. L. N. are evidently the initials of the original owner, whose name, with a memorandum of the cost of the book, appears on the fly-leaf, thus—"Jo. Laurentii Nuclei denar. 8."

It is interesting to compare this binding with that which Grolier gave to his copy of the same work (see Gustave Brunet, La Reliure ancienne et moderne). They were apparently done by the same hand, but in two different styles. The only interlacement here is that of the two intersecting triangles which form a centrepiece for the name, and all the rest of the ornament is in graceful arabesques, tooled à filets pleins. The effect is brilliant and very pleasing; and the whole binding is in wonderfully fine and fresh condition.

This is the original publisher's second edition of the first published narrative concerning the first circumnavigation of the globe. Mr. Harrisse has erroneously given the first place to the Cologne reprint of January 1523(-24) and the second to Calvus' original edition of November, 1523, taking the ambiguous date as his criterion.

This copy is of the genuine original issue, and has all the lines which were suppressed by the author as inimical to the Church, and which are found in very few copies of the book. Like all the first editions of Trissino's works it contains the Greek letters ω an ε to express the close o and e.

THE FIRST BOOK PRINTED IN VENICE, and the First Book bearing the name of John of Spira.

The excessively rare First Edition of the two published in this year. It has the metrical colophon:

Primus in Adriaca formis impressit aenis
Vrbe Libros Spira genitus de stirpe Iohannes
In reliquis sit quanta uides spes lector habenda
Quom Labor hic primus calami superauerit artem.
M.CCCC.LXVIIII.

The Brienne-Laire copy sold for 2000 francs.

36540 CICERONIS. EPISTOLÆ ad Familiares, folio, very fine large copy, old blue morocco gilt, from the Sunderland library, £90.

(Venetiis, JOHANNES DE SPIRA), 1469

This is the second and rarer edition of the Epistolia, printed by John of Speier. From the colophon, which we give below, it would appear that the printer only worked off 300 copies of each edition. This copy contains 135 leaves, as described by Dibdin, Hain and Brunet. The first page is RICHLY PAINTED AND ILLUMINATED; as are also all the initials. The headings of the Epistles are written in blue and red. The colophon reads as follows:—

Hesperie quondam Germanus quosq3 libellos
Abstulit: En plures ipse daturus adest.
Nanq3 uir ingenio mirandus & arte Ioannes
Excribi docuit clarius ere libros.
Spira fauet Venetis: quarto nam mense peregit
Hoc tercentenum bis Ciceronis opus.
M.CCCC.LXVIIII.

36541 AUGUSTINUS (S. Aurelius) de Civitate Dei, thick folio, fine large copy, with the large initials drawn in colours, and the small written in blue and red, old red morocco extra, Harleian gold tooling, gilt edges, £32. Venetiis, Joannes et Vindelinus de Spira, 1470

At the end are these seven lines, with the date underneath: Qui docuit Venetos ex cribi posse Ioannes | mense fere trino Centena uolumina plini | Et totidem Magni Ciceronis Spira libellos: | Ceperat Aureli: subita sed morte perēptus | Non potuit Ceptum Venetis finire uolumen | Vindelinus adest eiusdem frater: & arte | Non minor: hadriacaque morabitur urbe. | 1470.

On the last leaf of this copy is a MS. note to the effect that it was given by Peter Montagnana to the Canons Regular of the Monastery of Padua, in 1478. The Sunderland copy sold for £42.

The impression of this volume was not quite finished when John of Speyer died; his brother Wendelin completed it in 1470.

Windelin of Speyer (1470-77).

36542 TACITI (Cornelii) Annalium et Historiarum libri superstites; Libellus aureus, de Situ, Moribus et Populis Germaniæ, et Dialogus de Oratoribus claris, sm. folio, Editio Princeps, with a few contemporary MS. notes, fine copy in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Lortic, from the Didot library, exceedingly rare, £48.

[Venetiis] pressit [Vindelinus de] Spira premens : artis gloria prima sue. [1470]

This work is described, in the four verses which serve as colophon, as printed by Spira, and as the "prima gloria artis suæ," which prove that, as it is the first fruit of the independent press of Wendelin of Speyer, it is not later than the year 1470. The Libri copy fetched £48. This is the first book printed with catchwords.

36543 LIVII Historiarum Romanarnm Decades, cum Epistola Andreæ Episcopi Aleriensis, in 3 vols. folio, slightly wormed, else very fine large copy, in old calf, £52. (Venetiis) Vindelinus de Spira, 1470

This is a very fine copy in all respects, except for a few worm-holes, which are indeed very slight and only in a few leaves at the beginning and end of each volume. The first page of text in each volume is surrounded by an illuminated border in gold and colours, and has a heading of three lines written in gold; and the initial letters of each book are artistically drawn in gold and colours.—It is generally unknown that John of Speyer printed the first volume of a Livy in 1469 with the date. When Windelin completed this edition in 3 vols. (of which Vol. I exactly corresponds except in date with the 1469 book) he did not think it necessary to specify his brother's name although he had done so in the instance of Augustinus.

36544 LIVII Historiarum Romanarum Decades, stout folio, the 199th printed leaf wanting, a very fine large and sound copy, but a few leaves at the beginning and end very slightly wormed, red morocco, gilt edges, £20. 1470

THE FIRST COMPLETED EDITION OF LIVY WITH A DATE. VERY RARE.

The Pinelli copy sold for £54. 12*s*, and the imperfect copy above £32. 12*s* in Sir Mark Sykes' sale.

After the date there are 46 verses, of which the 7th and 8th run thus:

"Et Vindelino debebis tu quoqz : formis Egregie impressit has modo qui decadas."

"Cette édition est prodigieusement rare, et tres recherchée; l'execution en est magnifique, et on la regarde comme un chef-d'œuvre de l'excellent imprimeur qui l'a mise en jour."—De Bure.

"This is the most splendid monument of the press of Vindelin de Spira."—Dibdin.

The colophon is an enthusiastic eulogy upon Vindelin, as superior to the great painters and sculptors of old, not because he produced many volumes, but because (as in this instance) he gave to the world perpulchra simul optimaque. And in truth it was no small glory to have printed a first edition of the Latin Epic—a work ranking among the few great monuments of literature which are likely to survive the destruction of successive empires and the devastating influence of social and physical revolutions. Who would not be proud to possess the Virgil of 1470, the Dante of 1472, the Homer of 1488? The Virgil is the rarest, as well as (typographically) the first, member of that noble company; and one may be forgiven a little enthusiasm in sight of this glorious illuminated copy of the Editio Princeps printed on vellum.—Panzer styles it Editio Princeps secunda, and Brunet agrees with him in the opinion that an undated edition produced by Schweinheim and Pannartz at Rome preceded that of Vindelin. The probability is on their side, but there is absolute certainty in the fact that Vindelin printed from a MS. and recorded the date of his labour; while the two candidates for anteriority depend upon circumstantial evidence and pure conjecture.

36547 ——— the same, sm. folio, a sound copy, with many capital letters beautifully illuminated in gold and coloure, russia gilt, gilt edges, Didot's copy, £15. 15*s* 1470

VERY RARE. Each of these copies contains the very rare two leaves containing the Versus XII Sapientum. The date at the end of the Somnium Scipionis is followed by these two hexameter lines: E spira nato Ciceronis opuscula quinque | Hec Vindelino formis impressa fuere.

The rarest of all the editiones principes of Italian literature. The total number of copies in existence may be counted on one's fingers, and most of them are imperfect. This one was imperfect when in Consul Smith's possession, but Crevenna was fortunate enough to obtain the missing leaves rrom another copy. They have since been fastened in, and are inlaid to the size of the rest of the book.

Mr. Roscoe paid £94. 10*s* for his imperfect copy; and no perfect one has been sold for more than half a century.

"An exceedingly precious volume; among the most beautiful, as well as the rarest, of those executed by Vindelin de Spira."—Dibdin.

Under the date the six following lines of colophon appear:

250 *

"Que fuerāt multis quōdam confusa tenebris
Petrarce laure metra sacrata sue
Christophori et feruens pariter cyllenia cura
Transcripsit nitido lucidiora die.
Vtqz superueniens nequeat corrumpere tēpus
En Vindelinus enea plura dedit."

36550 MARTIALIS Epigrammata, sm. folio, PROBABLY THE FIRST EDITION, the margins of a number of leaves repaired, and some leaves inlaid, ruled with red lines, red morocco, gilt edges, by Mrs. Weir, £36. (Venetiis) Vindelinus de Spira [1470-1472]

A MOST RARE and very finely printed edition. Whether it was issued subsequently to that of Ferrara, 1471, or not, it is certainly the FIRST COMPLETE EDITION, since that of Gallus does not contain the "Liber Spectaculorum." The volume ends on the reverse of the 181 leaf with these words: Raphael Zouenzonius Ister. Vindelino spyrēsi ob | eius incredibilem imprimendi solertiam. D. D. | Consumatissimus ille martialis | Impressus digitis uindelianis, etc. I sold a copy last year for £90.

Loquitur lector ad Vindelinum spirensem Artificem qui Epistolas Beati Cipriani reddit in lucem, 1471

Very rare. The La Vallière copy sold for 250 fr., the Sunderland copy £11, and Mr. Wodhull gave £6. 6*s* for this in 1791.

Venetiis, Vindelin de Spira, 1471

EXCESSIVELY RARE. The First Edition of this Latin version. The volume is divided into two parts which, in this copy, have been transposed by the binder. The second part is entitled the "Apophthegmata laconica," and at its end is the following inscription :—

"M.CCCC.LXXI.
Impressum formis iustoque nitore coruscans
Hoc Vindelinus condidit artis opus."

The volume contains 77 printed leaves, of 32 lines to a page, without numbers, signatures or catchwords. This copy was sold for £13. 13*s* at the Sykes Sale.

36553 VALERII MAXIMI Dicta et Facta Memorabilia, folio, fine tall clean copy, with fine illuminated capital to the first page, old English red morocco extra, with broad dentelle borders and centre ornaments, EXCEEDINGLY RARE, £30.

(Venetiis) Vindelinus de Spira, 1471

36554 ——— the same, folio, fine and very large copy, with fine illuminated border, and initial letter containing the arms of the original owner (a boar sable on a field or), in old French red morocco extra, £36. 1471

After the date are these two lines: Impressum formis iustoq. nitore coruscans | Hoc Vindelinus condidit artis opus.

If not the FIRST, then the SECOND EDITION WITH A DATE. Though it is usual to give precedence to the Mainz edition of Schœffer printed in July of the same year, Dr. Dibdin declares that "the point of chronological priority, is yet, however, fairly sub judice."

36555 MARTIALIS. M. Valerij Martialis Epigrāmatō Liber p̄m'. (cum Vita Martialis in commentarios quos Domitius Calderinus edidit), small 4to. a very fine and remarkably large copy, with numerous uncut leaves, hf. bd., £2. 8*s* (sine nota)

AN EXTREMELY RARE edition, printed in Gothic Letter, on 180 unnumbered leaves of 32 lines to a page. The signatures run from a to s in tens.

Printed by VINDELIN OF SPIRA in the same type as his Dante of 1477.

36556 CICERO. De Natura Deorum libri III; de Divinatione lib. II; de Fato; de Legibus; Academic. Quæstionum liber secundus; Modestus de Disciplina Militari; et M. T. Ciceronis Vita ex dictis Plutarchi, sm. folio, old red morocco gilt, from the Sunderland library, £24. Venetiis, Vindelinus de Spira, 1471

This very early edition of great rarity is one of the finest specimens of Vindelin's press. It contains 186 leaves, including 2 blank ones (folios 151 and 152), not 187 as Brunet says. Dibdin gives the number as 185, but his copy had only one blank leaf.

The date is on the fourth preliminary leaf, after the twenty-four verses of Severus Cornelius. The volume ends with six verses beginning thus: Spyra tuum nomen toto celebrabitur orbe: | Que Vindelini diceris esse Parens. | Ordine qui tanto Ciceronis opuscula magni | Imprimit, etc.

36557 STRABO. [Folio 4, reverse:] Strabonis Cappadocis seu Gnosii Amasini scriptoris celeberrimi de situ orbis liber primus (libri XVII). [Last leaf:] Strabonis Geographi Europe a Guarino Veronensi translate, large folio, FIRST EDITION WITH A DATE, very large copy, but slightly stained and wormed, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Derome, from the library of the Duc de Brancas, with his bookplate, RARE, £5. (Venetiis) Vindelinus de Spira, 1472

Vindelin's name appears in the verse colophon beneath the date.

"Orbis noscere lector uniuersi
Si tractus cupis: hos emas libellos
Strabonis: tibi nomine dicatos
Zeni presulis optimi sacriqz.
Quo nil doctius Eruditiusqz
Nunc antenorei uident penates:
Impressos digitis uidelianis."

"A magnificent specimen of the press of Vindelin de Spira."—Dibdin.

36558 PLAUTUS. Plautine uiginti Comoedie: lingue Latine delicie: magna ex parte emendate per Georgium Alexandrinum (Merulam), thick folio, Editio Princeps, large copy, beautifully clean, vellum, VERY RARE, from the Sunderland library, £100. Impresse fuere opera & impendio Ioannis de Colonia Agripinensi; etq. Vindelini de Spira. Venetiis. 1472

A very clean, sound and desirable copy. Many of the initials are painted in the most artistic manner, and the titles of the plays are written in red on the top margins. On the last leaf there is a contemporary MS. note to the effect that this volume was presented to the Monastery of St. John Baptist de Viridaria at Padua by Petrus Montagnana, in 1478.

36559 PLAUTI Comœdiæ, folio, Editio Princeps, small wormhole through first few leaves, fine large copy in olive morocco extra, leather joints, gilt edges, by C. Lewis, with arms of Sir M. Sykes in gold on sides, £60. 1472

36560 BOCCACCIO. Genealogie deorum gentilium . . secundum Iohannem Boccatiũ de certaldo liber primus incipit feliciter [libri XV], margin of first leaf painted blue, Venetiis impressum (per Vindellinum) anno salutis. 1472 . . — Ioannis Boccaccii de Certaldo: de montibus: syluis: fontibus: lacubus: fluminibus: stagnis: seu paludib': de nomĩbus maris: liber ĩcipit feliciter. two leaves supplied in very neat contemporary MS., Io. Boccatii . . opus diligentissime ĩpressum finit. Venetiis [per Vindelinum de Spira] Idus Iañ. cccc.lxxiii (1473)—2 vols. in 1, thick folio, First Editions, with MS. notes, said to be in Melanchthon's writing, and the autograph of Henry, Lord Stafford, son of Edward, last Earl of Buckingham of the Stafford line (beheaded 1521), large copies, vellum, with an elaborate pen-and-ink drawing on the back, VERY RARE, £3. 10*s* 1472-73

These two early sixteenth-century inscriptions appear amongst those of other owners on the reverse of the last leaf: "Henry bolloke ys the owner of thys boke wytnes Henry Stafford," and "thys ys Harry Stafford boke dono magistri bullok": and this on the first leaf, "Me dedit Slithurste Nobilissimus Domin' Staffordus."

Before the colophon of the Genealogiæ Deorum come a number of verses, of which these are the two last lines: "Hec Vindellinus signis qui impressit ahenis | Se tibi cõmendat familiamqz suam." No printer's name appears in the "De montibus, etc." but it is usually found at the end of the "Genealogiæ," and there is no doubt about the type being Vindelin's.

Nicolas Jenson (1470-88).

36561 IUSTINI Historici in Pompeii Trogi Historias, sm. folio, Editio Princeps, slightly wormed in a few leaves, otherwise a fine large copy, with the border and initial letter of the first page illuminated in gold and colours, and the smaller initials drawn in red and blue, old English red morocco, Harleian gold tooling, gilt edges, £12.

Me gallus veneta Ienson Nicolaus in urbe Formauit, 1470

VERY RARE. The La Vallière copy sold for 680 frs., the Scherer for 452 frs., Pinelli's for £18. 17*s.* 6*d*, and the Paris copy for £31. 10*s.*

"The collector of the early pieces of the celebrated printer of this Edition need not lament the want of any other specimen of his press, if he be fortunate enough to possess the present rare and very beautiful production of it."—Dibdin.

36562 CICERO. M. Tullii Ciceronis Epistolarum Familiarium liber primus incipit (libri XVI), sm. folio, old English red morocco extra, from the Sunderland library, £15.

Opus præclarissimum a Nicolao Ienson Gallico impressum (Venetiis) 1471

A rare edition, "described in glowing terms by Crevenna." The present is a very fine large copy, with the initials painted in red and blue.

Venetiis, Nicolaus Ienson, 1471

This second edition is described by Brunet as "édit. magnifiquement exécutée. et presque aussi rare que la précédente [the first]."

The Sunderland copy, as fine as this, but certainly not finer, and in an inferior binding, fetched £68.

36564 SUETONIUS. Caii Suetonii Tranquilli de Vita. XII. Caesarum liber primus divus Iulius Caesar incipit foeliciter (libri XII), sm. folio, the margin of first leaf mended, fine large copy in old red morocco, gilt edges, £15. 15*s* (Venetiis), Nicolaus Jenson, 1471

VERY RARE. The Sunderland copy sold for £27, and the Beckford for £13 13.

36565 [CORNELIUS NEPOS.] Aemilii Probi viri clarissimi de vita excellentivm liber incipit feliciter, sm. folio, First Edition, a very large copy, slightly wormed in the margins, in old yellow morocco, from the Sunderland library, £24.

per M. Nicolavm Ienson Venetiis opvs foeliciter impressvm est anno a Christi incarnatione. M.CCCC.LXXI. VIII. Idvs Martias.

The EXTREMELY RARE FIRST EDITION of this work, wrongly attributed to Æmilius Probus.

36566 (QUINTILIANI Institutionum Oratoriarum libri XII.) [At end:] Qvintilianvm eloqventiae fontem ab ervditissimo Omnibono Leoniceno emendatvm, thick folio, fine large copy in old red morocco gilt, from the Sunderland library, £30.

M. Nicolavs Ienson Gallicvs viventibvs posterisqve miro impressit artificio (Venetiis), 1471

A fine and rare edition. The blank spaces for the Greek passages have in many instances been filled in by hand, and there are many MS. notes in the margins. The first page of text and all the large initials are finely illuminated.

"Edition belle et rare."—Brunet,

26567 ARETINI (Leonardi) de Bello Italico adversus Gotthos, sm. folio, fine large copy in blue morocco extra, gilt edges, by Derome, with the Wodhull arms on side, £6. 6*s*

Gallicus hunc librum impressit nicolaus ienson (Romœ), 1471

RARE. Mr. Beckford's copy sold for £14. 10*s*.

"Edition encore rare et recherchée."—Brunet.

Venetiis, Nic. Jenson, 1471

On the reverse of leaf 44 the following colophon appears: Finit Antidotarium Nicolai impressum Venetiis per Nicolaum Ienson Gallicum. 1471; then follows on leaf 45 Tractatulus Quid pro Quo, which occupies 6 leaves; on leaf 51 we read Incipiunt Sinonima; and on the reverse of the 68th and last leaf appears the final colophon: Finis Antidotarii Nicolai: et quorundam aliorum tractatuum impressorum Venetiis per Nicolaum Ienson Gallicum. 1471.

36569 CICERO. Marci Tullii Ciceronis Tusculanarum Quaestionum liber primus (libri V), small folio, some leaves mended, red morocco extra, leather joints, gilt edges, £8. 10*s*

Venetiis, N. Jenson, 1472

Rare. The Libri copy sold for £10. 15*s*.

"Edition belle et rare."—Brunet.

36570 MACROBII Opera, sm. folio, Editio Princeps, large copy in red morocco extra, gilt edges, £18.

Venetiis opera et impensa Nicolai Ienson Gallici, 1472

EXTREMELY RARE. This edition contains the first printed texts of part of Homer and Lucretius. The La Valliere copy sold for 726 frs., the Pinelli for £33. 12*s*, the Sunderland for £30. 10*s*, and this, 28 April, 1881, for £28.

"Une des plus difficiles à trouver de la classe des premières impressions."

De Bure.

36571 MACROBII Opera, sm. folio, with valuable contemporary MS. notes, fitted into a splendid Canevari binding, somewhat faded by time, but rich to an unexampled degree in geometrical and arabesque ornament, in gold and silver, and with painted compartments, forming a mosaic of harmonious colouring, the well-known Canevari medallion stamped as a centrepiece on the sides; and mosaic ornaments between the bands on the back, in a green morocco case, £150.

Venetiis opera impensa Nicolai Ienson Gallici. 1472

Venetiis per Nicolaum Ienson Gallicum, 1473

36573 ——— the same, sm. folio, very fine large and clean copy, with rough leaves, with the three blank leaves, old blue morocco extra, gilt edges, £10. 1473

If not the FIRST EDITION, at least the FIRST WITH A DATE. VERY RARE. The second copy fetched £17. 10*s* at the Sunderland sale.

"No less estimable from its rarity than from its great intrinsic value." Dibdin.

36574 DIOGENIS (Laertii) Vitæ et Sententiæ Eorum qui in Philosophia propati fuerunt in Latinum translatæ a Fratre Ambrosio ex recensione Benedicti Brognoli, sm. folio, with the autograph and MS. notes of "Hieronymi Gigli Lucensis, 1477," very fine large copy, with elegant illuminated border and initial historiated with portrait, and with the arms of the Zeni, blue morocco extra, gilt edges, VERY RARE, £15. 15*s*

Impressum Venetiis per Nicolaum Ienson gallicum, 1475

FIRST EDITION, though there is another, without date, which some bibliographers, without any proof, consider to be anterior to this.

"It is a most beautiful production, and may be justly deemed one of the finest specimens of the typographical art of Jenson, and its rarity is equal to its beauty."—Moss.

Dibdin after noting the rarity of this magnificent volume says, "Its beauty is greater than its rarity;" and afterwards he declares it to be "one of the most beautiful volumes printed in the XVth century."

36575 AUGUSTINI (S.). Aurelii Augustii opus de civitate dei feliciter explicit, sm. folio, in double columns, large and good copy, in old calf, £15. 15*s*

Venetiis ab egregio & diligenti magistro Nicolai Ienson, 1475

Collation: Index 14 ll.; text 286 leaves, without foliation, catchwords and signatures.

36576 ——— the same, small folio, magnificently printed on vellum, with an exquisitely illuminated first page, and the initials throughout painted and gilt, old crimson morocco gilt, gilt and gauffred edges, £1200.

Venet. NIC. JENSON, 1475

PROBABLY THE MOST BEAUTIFUL VOLUME THAT EVER ENRICHED LORD SUNDERLAND'S LIBRARY. Whether considered as a faultless specimen of printing upon the finest vellum, or as a book decorated with exquisite illumination, it is one of the most glorious volumes ever produced by the taste and skill of the wonderful craftsmen of the fifteenth century.

36577 VIRGIL. P. V. Maronis Opera foeliciter finiunt, sm. folio, old calf, with Sunderland arms on sides, £18. 18*s*
Venetiis, Nicolaus Jenson, 1475

This edition contains 272 ll. without marks. It is profusely annotated throughout in a nearly contemporary handwriting. Pinelli's copy sold for £15, Brienne-Laire's for 500 frs., and Chardin's for 400 frs.

36578 [AURELIUS VICTOR] Plinius Primus de Praeclare Gestis Romanorum, sm. 4to. fine copy in old green morocco extra, gilt edges, £3. 3*s* sine nota, per Nicolaum Jensonn, c. 1475

VERY RARE. This edition was unknown to Dibdin, and there is no mention made of it in the Spencer Catalogue. The present copy is from the library of Sir M. M. Sykes, who has written inside "Liber eximiæ raritatis." The volume contains 34 leaves, of 24 lines to a page, without numbers, signatures, or catchwords.

36579 BIBLIA LATINA, small folio, fine copy, ruled, with border and historiated initial illuminated in gold and colours, as usual wanting the leaf containing "Registrum," red morocco, gilt edges, by Derome, £20. Biblia impressa Venetiis opera atqꝫ impensa Nicolai Jenson Gallici, 1476

A perfect copy consists of 469 leaves (not 470 as Brunet states on Hain's authority). This contains 468 leaves, including the 339th, which is blank.

36580 PLINIUS. Historia Natvrale di. C. Plinio Secondo tradvcta di lingva Latina in Fiorentina per Christophoro Landino Fiorentino . . . folio, very large fine and clean copy, broken sheepskin binding, from the Sunderland library, £10.
Opvs Nicolai Iansonis Gallici impressvm anno salvtis M.CCCCLXXVI. Venetiis. (1476).

The FIRST EDITION OF LANDINO'S ITALIAN VERSION of Pliny, as that of 1473, mentioned by some bibliographers, never existed. The volume consists of 413 leaves and 3 blanks.
"Edition magnifique."—Brunet.

(Venetiis) Nicolaus Ienson Gallicus (s. a. sed circa 1476)

with exquisite borders, historiated initials and numerous capital letters all beautifully illuminated in gold and colours, with the arms of a Cardinal in the lower margin; from the Beckford library, Hamilton Palace, old French red morocco extra, leather joints, silk linings, gilt edges, lettered "Manuscri." £300.

Hui' opis corrector extitit Georgi' d' spatharijs . . . ipssor uero Nicolaus ienson gallicus: hac nra tpestate impssor. prīceps; Qd' qdē op' īpressū in florētissima urbe uenetiar. est. 1478

This, as an artistic monument, is equal to a fine illuminated MS. The borders and figures, and painted ornaments are extremely elegant, and include some work in fine camaieu-rouge. Among the animal-figures, there is one of an elephant, and another of a bear walking off with a man and his spear over his shoulder. There are MS. additions, evidently made for the Cardinal, on the blank-leaves of the book, to supply certain offices not included in the original impression.

This Breviary on vellum belongs to the most magnificent productions of the Jenson press.

36583 GREGORIUS IX. Noua decretalium compilatio gregorii. VIIII. large folio, fine copy, with 5 elegant Miniatures and initial letters illuminated in gold and colours, russia, with Wodhull arms in gold on side, £8. 10*s impressa uenetiis impensa atq; industria singulari Nicolai Ienson gallici,* 1479

Christoph Valdarfer of Regensburg (1470-71).

. . Christophorus. Vallarfer . . Venetum perfecit in urbe . . M.CCCC.LXXI. LODO. CARBO (1471)

Dr. Dibdin, in Bibl. Spenc. says, "This impression is executed in a brilliant style of typography, and may be called one of the most magnificent productions of the Venetian press." To the same printer we are indebted for the famous first edition of the "Decameron," which was printed in the same year as the above work. The name of Valdarfer's corrector, Lodovico Carbone, is found at the end of the fourteen verses that embody the colophon composed by himself.

The monuments of Valdarfer's establishment in Venice are few and very rare. He migrated to Milan eventually (before 1474), and there won his full celebrity as a great printer.

Johann of Cologne (1471-72); with Johann Manthen (1473-87).

36585 CICERO. M. T. Ciceronis de finibus bonor. & malor. L. primus

Venetiis. 1471. . . Ioanne ex Colonia Agrippinensi sumptu ministrante Impressum.

FIRST EDITION WITH A DATE. EXTREMELY RARE. Contains 89 printed leaves, and 4 blank. The Syston Park copy, with the arms of Prince Eugene, sold for £42, Sir M. Sykes' for £14, and the Duke of Grafton's for £13. 13*s*.

(Per Johannem de Colonia) 1472. Nicolao Trono Principe Venetiis.

VERY RARE. The First Edition of any of the works of Statius with a date. It is uncertain whether this is the First or Second Edition of any portion of Statius. The only edition which can precede it is that of the Thebais and Achilleis without date, or name of printer or place. There is another edition of the Achilleis with this date, but Dibdin is decidedly of the opinion that it should be placed after this. Heber's copy sold for £6. 2*s* 6*d*.

36587 (POMPEIUS FESTUS de Verborum Significatione), sm. 4to. fine copy, vellum, rare, £2.

Festi Pōpei liber poptime emēdat' explet' ē: ac īpēs. Iohānis de Colonia nec nō Iohānis māthē de Gherrezē . . 1474.

Venetiis ductu & expēsis Iohannis de Colonia agripinesi ac Iohānis māthen de Gherresthē, 1474

From the Sunderland Sale, in which it fetched £11. 5*s*. The colophon and date appear on the last leaf but eight.

(sine nota, sed 1474)

RARE. Contains 85 leaves, one of which is blank, of 29 lines to a page, with signatures (a and a-k), but no other marks. Copies are sometimes found bound up at the end of the Pompeius Festus of these printers, and, as the type and the arrangement of the pages is similar, it is most probable that this is also one of their productions.

36590 MARTIALIS (M. Valerii) Epigrammatum opus, sm. folio, a few leaves very slightly wormed, but very large copy, old red morocco gilt, from the Sunderland library, RARE, £18.

iprēssi sūt opere & impensa Iohannis dē colonia: & Iohannis manthē de ghersem qui una Veneciis fideliter Viuunt. 1475

The SECOND EDITION of the COLLECTED WORKS of these FOUR POETS, and of GREAT RARITY. It commences on the verso of leaf 1 with the life of Tibullus, followed by his poems, which end on the verso of the thirty-first leaf (a thirty-second blank one having been cut away by the binder). A leaf follows, containing on its verso a brief summary of the life of Catullus, occupying 11 lines only. The poems of Catullus then begin on the recto of the next leaf and occupy 34 ll.; next comes a blank leaf; on the verso of the next is the life of Propertius, followed on the recto of the succeeding leaf by his poems, which occupy 59 ll.; at the end of Propertius is the imprint. Statius follows, and occupies the remaining 59 ll., with a blank one at the end. The total number of leaves in a complete copy is therefore 188 (including three blank ones), and not 182 as Brunet says. The three leaves containing the lives of Catullus, Tibullus, and Propertius are often wanting, as they must have been to the copy described by Brunet. There are some remains of signatures in the Propertius in this copy, but none in the other books.

36593 ——— the same, sm. folio, old red morocco with ornamental gilt borders and panels, gilt edges, £3. 10*s* 1477

36594 ——— the same, sm. folio, very fine, large and clean copy, in the original binding, rebacked, but the stamped leather sides in good preservation, rare, £4. 10*s* 1477

The following work is also in the same volume with the last copy: Georgii Merulae Alexandrini antiquitatis vicecomitem (Mediolanensium) liber primus (libri X). It contains 8 preliminary leaves (of which the first is blank) and 138 numbered leaves. The last two preliminary leaves contain a letter from the printer Alexander Minutianus (of Milan), but there is no further indication of the place or time of impression.

No more than the first part of the Æneas Sylvius was ever published. Santander calls it "édition très belle et la première."

36595 PLATINAE Historici Liber de Vita Christi: ac Pontificum Omnium: qui hactenus ducenti et vigintiduo fuere, sm. folio, very fine large clean copy, red morocco extra, with gold border on sides, and centre ornament, £6. 10*s*

īpēsa Iohānis de Colonia agripinēsi et̄q. socii Iohānis mathen de gheretzem, 1479

FIRST EDITION. VERY RARE. In this original edition the text differs in some curious points from that of the post-Reformation impressions, as, for example, in the life of Cletus, the third occupant of the see of Rome, it says in this edition, "uxorem habuit in Bithynia," but in later editions was altered to "uxorem non habuit in Bithynia."

"One of the earliest specimens of John de Colonia's new fount of letter, when he ceased to use the types of Vindelin de Spira."—Dibdin.

Contains A-P in eights (the first leaf being blank), but there is no signature E, and D contains twelve leaves.

The following work of Savonarola is bound in the same volume: "Prediche utilissime per la quadragesima del reuerēdo padre frate hieronymo Sauonarola . . sopra Ezechiel propheta: & etiam sopra lo sacro Euangelio (At end:) Stampata in Venetia per Bernardino Benalio. 1517." There is a woodcut on the title, surrounded by an elegant border; but the book is unfortunately imperfect, several leaves being missing or defective.

Unknown Printer.

[sine nota, sed Venetiis, circa 1480]

A very fine copy of this rare geographical work, written in verse, and described by Dr. Dibdin as "one of the rarest volumes of early Italian poetry." The first five pages are occupied by a metrical introduction. On the sixth the first sonnet begins, which is devoted to the Island of Cerigo, opposite to it is given a woodcut map, then follow the sonnets on Crete, Rhodes, etc., in due succession. The maps are simple outlines, without any names of places, which in this copy are inserted in MS. in a 15th-century hand. The subject of the last sonnet is Cyprus, the concluding leaf being the map of that island.

The present copy accords exactly with the description given by Brunet. It consists of fifty-six leaves, without either pagination or signatures. The author gives his name on the fifth page thus—

"Per aprobar questa opereta fata
per me bartolomeo da li soneti intendo de monstrar con veri effeti
quanto che londa egiea abia cerchatta . . ."

A copy sold in the Beckford Sale, Part I, for £29.

36598 CICERONIS Orationes, sm. folio, slightly wormed, otherwise a fine large copy, with the bookplate of "Philippus Wilhelmus, Comes de Boienburg," and his autograph "Boinebourg," red morocco extra, leather joints, gilt edges, £8. 10*s*

(At the end are four lines, ending thus) Ambergau natus ahenis Impressit formis. Ecce magister Adam [Venetiis] 1472

VERY RARE. Talleyrand's copy sold for £13. 13*s*, and the Sunderland for £18.

This edition is celebrated as having been formerly attributed to an unknown early press at Ammergau. Van Praet and Brunet both seem to consider that it was printed in Germany, but it is difficult for any one who inspects the volume to refer it elsewhere than to Venice.

(Venetiis). M.CCCC.LXXIII. Leonhardus Aurl

This work is in the same types as the Cicero of Adam of Ammergau, and he may therefore have been the printer, Aurl only the corrector. At the end of the book, just before the date and the printer's name, there stand these four verses upon the printer and his art, containing a ludicrous piece of profanity :—

" Artis hic : & fidei splendet mirabile numen :
Quod fama auctores : auget honore deos.
Quid magis artificem peteret Dux : christus : & auctor?
Tres facit æternos ingeniosa manus."

They were written by Cornazano in praise of Jenson, and consisted of eight lines; but the intermediate four in which that typographer's name was specified in the book in which they first appeared in 1470 were omitted by Aurl in reprinting them.

nota, sed Venetiis, 1476)—2 vols. in 1, sm. folio, somewhat wormed in the original boards, covered with stamped leather, £12. 12*s* 1476

Two very remarkable and curious specimens of Early Printing. The title of the Kalendar, which consists of twelve lines of elegiacs, is surrounded with a very elegant woodcut border, at bottom of which are the names of those who assisted in printing the book: Bernardus Pictor de Augusta—Petrus Loslein de Langencen—Erhardus Ratdolt de Augusta—with the date. The body of the book, in black and red, is embellished with many fine initials composed of branches and leaves gracefully entwined, and at the end is a volvelle within a woodcut border and a couple of diagrams. The whole forms a volume of charming character. 32 leaves, without marks.

At the end of sheet a of the De Sphera, some matter had been left out by the compositor, and to supply it a separate leaf was printed. It is not wholly filled up, and a notice—Nichil deficit—was printed in the blank space. Signatures a (9 leaves) and b (6 ll.).

Erdhard Ratdolt of Augsburg alone (1478-85).

36624 MATARATIJ (Francisci) . . . de componendis versibus hexametro & Pentametro opusculum, sm. 4to. with fine woodcut initials, a large copy with Count Boutourlin's bookplate, red morocco extra, 25*s* Erhardus ratdolt Augustensis probatissimus librarie artis exactor summa confecit diligentia. 1468 [1478]

This book is particularly curious on account of the date, which must, however, have been intended for 1478.

36625 (CHYROMANTIA). Ex diuina philosophor. academia coltecta (sic): chyromantica scientia naturalis ad dei laudem finit [at end], sm. 4to. with 21 woodcuts of Psalmistry, clean copy, vellum, £7. 10*s* Impressum Venetiis per magistrum Erhardum ratdolt de Augusta [s. a. sed circa 1480]

Erhardus ratdolt augustensis. 1482. impressit Venetiis

The first edition of these curious works. The Oratoriæ Institutiones contains A-E in eights (except E in six), the first leaf being blank. The Ars Tulliano more Epistolandi contains a (8 leaves) and b (6 leaves). And the Ars Memoriæ, a treatise on mnemonics, and the most remarkable of the three pieces, contains c and d in eights (the last leaf being blank). This last includes ten pages of most curious woodcuts, representing an alphabet and a chess-board amongst other things.

Marcellus, the Archbishop of Corfu, published this valuable work as his own, dedicating it to Leo X. It was soon found out to be really an unpublished one by Piccolomini, the editor of the first Pontifical (1485), and thereupon the Pope decreed the suppression of all the copies. They have consequently become very rare.

36636 BOCCACCIO. Il Decamerone di M. Giovanni Boccaccio, sm. 4to. a fine & py in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £28. Vinegia, per Gregorio de Gregori, 1516

VERY RARE. Col. Stanley's copy fetched £33; the Marquis of Blandford's, £22. 11*s*.

Niccolo Delfino was the editor of this book; the first Boccaccio in quarto size, and the first critical edition of the text. It was used as the basis of all succeeding editions.

36641 PHILOSTRATO de l'amorose fadige di Troilo, etc. sm. 4to. old calf, £2. 5*s* Maestro Luca (Venet. circ. 1480)

FIRST EDITION. "This is doubtless a very rare book," says Dibdin in his description of the Spencer copy (VI, p. 50). The word Finis on the last page is followed by a bastard-sonnet, which eulogizes all the arts so as to arrive at that of typography :—

meritan glimpressori un nobil segio tra quali maestro Luca porta il vanto . . .

This poem on the loves of Troilus and Chryseis was written by Boccaccio when his lady-love left Naples ; and the amorous scenes described so warmly and so sweetly were probably pictures from his own career. The name of Chryseis is here transformed to Griseida ; in Shakespeare's play it became Cressida.

Stampata in Venetia per Bernadin Venetian di Vidali habita in la cōtra de san Giulian Del. 1517

Some of the cuts are of remarkably elegant design, and it is evident that the artist had his training in the school that produced the famous Poliphilo, Ovid, and Æsop. The book was bound by Padeloup about 1750.

Manfredo di Monferrato (1481–1515).

Venetiis in Edibus Petri Liechtenstein Coloniensis Germani, 1506

Of this excessively rare edition only three or four other copies are known. Like most early Bibles, the present copy has several leaves mended, but is evidently otherwise perfect, and probably stands alone in this respect.

Lichtenstein's Bohemian Bible is even scarcer than the Illyrian Preces and the Breviarum Croaticum twice printed by Andreas Asulanus in the same city. Consult Ungar, and the various notices by the Bibliographers Le Long, Goetze, Clement, Videkind, Kleich, and Elsner, who all speak unequivocally of its rarity and value.

Ungar has remarked as curious that this edition was not suppressed or censured by the Church on its appearance, in spite of an objectionable woodcut which might have betrayed its heretical origin. This is the engraving to the sixth chapter of the Apocalypse, in which the Pope appears lying in hell.

36675 PTOLEMÆUS. Sacratissime Astronomie Ptholemei Liber diuersarū rerum: Quem scrisit (sic) ad Heristhonem filium suū: tractans compendiose de diuersis rebus: . . sm. 4to. Gothic Letter, fine clean copy, calf, 28*s*

nuouamente stampato in Vinegia per Nicolo d'Aristotile detto Zopino. 1531

Consists of 22 leaves, with signatures A(1)-XI. The first two leaves contain the title and dedication. On the woodcut at the bottom of the title there is a monogram composed of the following initials in Roman characters: —T. H. M. and P.

36708 GUAZZO. Astolfo Borioso di Messer Marco Guazzo . . . (in ottava rima, parte prima), with large woodcut on title and many in the text, Impresso in Venetia per Nicolo d'Aristotile Ferrarese detto il Zoppino. 1539—Di Astolfo Borioso la seconda parte di Marco Guazzo . . . with woodcut border to title, and numerous woodcuts, ib. 1533—2 vols. in 1, sm. 4to. fine copy, brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by C. Lewis, £12. 10*s* 1533-39

A very rare metrical romance. It follows out of the argument of the story of Charlemagne and his peers, and is written in imitation of the Orlando Furioso. Astolfo the Vainglorious was King of the Lombards.

Peru, ouer del Cusco . . . [da Francesco de Xerez]—the three parts in 1 vol. sm. 4to. with the rare genuine map of "Isola Spagnvola," and a facsimile of the unique map of the East Indies, vellum, £15.

In Vinegia (printer's name not specified), MDXXXIIII (1534)

36710 ——— the same, a fine copy in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £21. 1534

EXCESSIVELY RARE, the three parts being scarcely ever found together. The first part is dateless, but the year 1534 appears on the titles and in the colophons of the second and third.

The small map is the earliest we have of St. Domingo, and is very rare indeed, being one of the only two copies known.

The facsimile of the large map is taken from the unique copy in the Lenox Library.

On the last leaf of the Libro secondo there is a notice of this large general map ("tavola vniuersale del paese di tutte le Indie occidentali") and of two other smaller ones ("insieme con le tauole particulari cauate da due carte da nauicare di Spagnuoli"), one of which belonged to Peter Martyr and was drawn by Nuño Garzia de Toreno, of Seville, and the other by another Seville pilot. We have above a facsimile of the large map, taken as stated from Mr. Lenox's copy, and the genuine map of Spagnuola, another copy of which was also in Mr. Lenox's possession, but the third map has not yet been discovered.

The printer was probably Niccolo Zoppino, to judge from a comparison of the types with those which he used in books that bear his name.

36711 IL VIAGGIO FATTO DA GLI SPAGNIVOLI A TORNO A' L MONDO, sm. 4to. hf. bd. £25. MDXXXVI (1536)

EXCESSIVELY RARE. In this instance, also, neither the place nor the printer's name is specified, but the book comes evidently from the same press as the Summario, and was probably intended to be a fourth part or supplement of that collection. It comprises the two accounts of Magellan's voyage, by Maximilian of Transilvania and Antonio Pigafetta; which are preceded by a remarkable preface "al Lettore" in which the editor (who does not give his name) shows himself to have been perfectly acquainted with the progress of discovery and research in the west, and to have understood the real importance of the events then taking place, better than most of his contemporaries. This preface only occupies five pages, but it is indeed a noteworthy review of all the latest advances.

Bernardino de Viano de Lexona Vercellese (1513–36).

36712 CORTES. La Preclara Narratione di Ferdinando Cortese della Nuoua Hispagna del Mare Oceano, al Sacratissimo, et Inuictissimo Carlo di Romani Imperatore sempre Augusto Re Dhispagna, & cio che siegue, nellāno del Signore. M.D.XX. trasmessa . . . small 4to. very fine copy of this rare book, with the excessively rare folding woodcut map of the town of Temixtitan; the title within a pretty woodcut border and untouched by the binder's knife; on the verso of the last leaf is the printer's mark, an elephant supporting a castle, the recto of the leaf being blank; a few letters of sheet N supplied in beautiful facsimile; beautifully bound in red morocco super extra, gilt edges, by Chambolle-Duru, £65.

Stampata in Venetia per Bernardino de Viano de Lexona Vercellese. Ad instantia de Baptista de Pederzani Brixiani. 1524

36713 ——— the same, sm. 4to. with the last leaf of printer's mark, but the map in facsimile, the top corners of the margins of a few

leaves at the end mended, the last leaf but one a little injured, otherwise a very good copy, russia gilt, leather joints, gilt edges, by Kalthoeber, RARE, £10. 1524

Cortes' Second Letter, translated from the Latin of Petrus Savorgnanus by Nicolo Liburnio. This volume is of rare occurrence even when more or less incomplete, but it is extremely difficult to find it with the large folding map and with the woodcut border of the title-page not cut into by the binder's knife. It is said, indeed, that only one or two copies are known to exist with the map. One fetched over 2000 francs at the Court Sale in Paris, 1884.

The Da Sabbio family (1516–60).

36714 AUREA HISTORIA de vita & miraculis domini nostri Jesu Christi, 12mo. with woodcut border to title, printed in large Missal type, calf extra, gilt edges, extremely rare, £11. 10*s*

Venetiis per Joānem Antonium & Fratres: de Sabio [circa 1516]

The following work is bound up in the same volume:—[Begins] "Infrascripte sunt peregrinationes totius terre sancte . . . ," [and ends] "Finiunt Indulgētie. & peregrinationes terre sācte hierusalem Venetiis [circa 1520] mpresse (sic).

36715 HOMER. Ὅμηρου Ἰλιάς, μεταθληθεῖσα πάλαι εἰς κοινὴν γλῶσσαν . . . παρὰ Νικολάου τοῦ Λουκάνου . . . 8vo. the Iliad in Romaic verse, with numerous woodcuts, beautiful copy in red morocco extra, broad borders of gold, gilt edges by Derome, from the Beckford library, Hamilton Palace, £60.

Venetia, Stefano da Sabio, 1526

EXCESSIVELY RARE ORIGINAL EDITION, important as an early literary monument of the modern Greek language. The text is preceded by a Glossary of difficult Homeric words retained in the paraphrase; many of which are very simple indeed. When the paraphrase was made is not mentioned, but Nicolaus Lucanus was probably a contemporary of the printer.

The binding is not marked with the owner's arms, but his bookplate is inside engraved with his arms and the initials B. C. D. L. (Brancas, Comte de Lauraguais). There is also an inscription, "Bib. de La Vallière," which shows that the Lauraguais' collection passed into the hands of the Duc de la Vallière.

36719 ——— the same, sm. folio, brown morocco extra, gilt edges, £25.

There was no copy of this rare and beautiful edition in Salvá's collection, although he described it carefully as one which he had seen and of which he extolled the value. There is no better testimony than this fact to the scarcity and worth of the volume. It was edited by Francisco Delicado or Delgado.

36721 ——— the same, sm. 4to. fine large copy in old blue morocco gilt, £8. 8*s* 1535

VERY RARE. COLLATION: Title, with large woodcut of imperial arms; second leaf, containing a more ample title, with the translator's name and arms on the back, dedication, 2 leaves; text, 58 leaves, bearing signature a to f in eight, and g ten leaves.

The statement clearly made on the second title concerning the translator and the original work disposes of the confusion of Brunet with regard to the authorship, and of Harrisse on the subject of the translator, concerning whose birthplace he quotes hesitatingly the conflicting statements of Ternaux and Alcedo. It proves the book to be a version of the Spanish one printed at Seville by Perez (in 1534), and that the translator was a native of Tudela in Navarre.

The words Libro primo seem to indicate that Stefano da Sabio intended to bring out an American collection to rival the Summario in three parts which had appeared the year before in Venice. But nothing was ever produced in continuation of the Xerez.

36722 XEREZ, Libro primo de la conqvista del Perv, 1535—Libro secondo delle Indie occidentali (Svmmario de la natvrale et general historia de l'Indie occidentali, composta da Gonzalo ferdinando del Ouiedo . . tradotto . . in Italiano), with a full-page woodcut of a hammock, Stampato in Vinegia, 1534—2 vols. in 1, sm. 4to. a few leaves wormed, old calf gilt, with the arms of the Archbishop of Reims on the sides in gold, from the Drake library, VERY RARE, £18. 18*s* 1534-35

36755 ZENO. Dei Commentarii del Viaggio in Persia di M. Caterino Zeno il K. . . . libri dve . Et dello scoprimento dell' Isole Frislanda, Eslanda, Engrouelanda, Estotilanda, & Icaria, fatto sotto il Polo Artico, da due fratelli zeni, M. Nicolò il K. e M. Antonio . Libro Vno . . . 12mo. with the ORIGINAL MAP, fine copy in French red morocco extra, gilt top, uncut, by Hardy, £21.

In Venetia Per Francesco Marcolini . 1558

The Beckford copy fetched £50; the Duke of Hamilton's £38. The chief value of this little volume lies in its map, which professedly originates with the record of the voyage of the brothers Zeno in 1380-90. The controversy which has long raged with regard to the genuineness of the map (in which Greenland is better designed than in any map printed before 1558) is still unended, and Baron Nordenskjold has added his celebrated name to the number of the disputants. Mr. Major has pretty nearly settled the matter of the text, and assigned their proper local relation to the chief circumstances of the narrative, but the history of the enigmatical map has still to be traced. The Zeno who gave it to the world in 1558 states that he produced it from the old MS. chart left by his ancestor, and it is evident from the configuration of Greenland that he possessed better sources of knowledge than any of his contemporaries. The lands which appear on the left margin of the map (broken by the border of the engraving), lie south-west of Greenland, and are marked Estotiland (Labrador) and Drogeo (which is either the south-east corner of Labrador, or else Newfoundland).

Other Printers.

36756 ROSARIO DELLA GLORIOSA VERGINE MARIA Di nuouo Stampato [per ALBERTO DA CASTELLO], con nuoue & belle Figure adornato, 12mo. with nearly 200 wood-engravings and a woodcut border to every page, water-stained, old smooth morocco binding, a few wormholes through the leather, the sides and back covered with interlaced designs combining several geometrical figures, all in broad silver lines edged with gold, the three interlaced crescents of DIANE DE POITIERS forming a centrepiece, the inscription "Io. GROLIERII ET AMICORUM" added in the bottom of an outer gold border on the upper side; in a red morocco case, £50.

(Without mark, but Venice, about 1530)

The extraordinary combination of these two names is only to be accounted for by supposing that, between the years 1559 and 1565, Diane (who had had the binding done for her after the death of Henri II) either sent the book as a present to Grolier, or else turned it out of her library, and that it was then acquired by him.

36757 [TANSILLO (Luigi).] Stanze di Cvltvra sopra gli Horti de le Donne, stampate nvovamente, et historiate, 18mo. with 4 woodcuts, olive morocco extra, by J. Mackenzie, £4. 4*s* [Venice] 1538

In Vinegia, nella Bottega d'Erasmo di Vincenzo Valgrisi: 1549

36761 MASHAL HA-KADMUNI, by Isaac ben Salomon Sahula, edited by Meir ben Jacob Franzoni: a work consisting of proverbial phrases in rhyme, illustrated by prose fables, all in Hebrew, sm. 4to. numerous woodcuts of talking animals and other facetious designs, somewhat in the style of Æsop and the Septem Sapientes; bound in hogskin, stamped with portraits and arabesques in compartments, and the arms of Saxony, VERY RARE; from the Sunderland library, £4. 4*s* s. n. (Venice, about 1550)

Bound along with three other rare Hebrew pieces: Shevile Amunah, Trent, 1559; Shaar-ha-Shamayim, by Gerson ben Solomon, Vinet. 1547; Evronoth, a Hebrew Calendar, Trent, 1561.

The names of the printers are not indicated in any of these pieces.

Impresso in Venetia per Gioanne Padoano. 1552

This edition is mentioned neither by Haym nor by Brunet. The volume consists of title, 194 leaves, and 1 leaf with the printer's device.

This famous and popular poem was constructed by Pulci from the older chronicles and romances of Roland and the peers of Charlemagne, while frequenting the court of the magnificent Lorenzo. The first edition appeared in 1481. It is generally recognized in modern times as a burlesque upon the romance of chivalry, but it was not so considered in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries.

36763 LA GLORIA ET L' HONORE DE PONTI TAGLIATI, E PONTI IN AERE . . sm. 4to. with 29 woodcuts of exquisite Lace Designs, vellum, UNIQUE, £40.

In Venetia per Mathio Pagan in Frezatia al segno della Fede. 1558

Consists of 16 leaves (numbered from signature A (I)-VIII), of which the first leaf contains the title, surrounded by a woodcut border, and the dedication.

36764 [TANSILLO (Luigi)] Stanze Amorose, sopra gli Horti delle donne & in lode della menta. La Caccia d'amore del Bernia. Quarantadui Stanze in materia d'amore . . 12mo. with woodcuts, fine copy in citron morocco extra, joints, silk linings, gilt edges, with C. Hering's ticket, £5. 5*s* In Venetia, 1574

The first poem in the volume is the well-known work "IL VENDEMMIATORE," which was naturally placed in the Index as an infamous and dangerous production. It is a light and elegantly written poem on a subject which is banished from the domain of all honest literature.

Mr. Cheney's copy (sold by me to him six or seven years ago for £45) was resold on the 29th June of this year for £119, to the great benefit of his estate. The owners of property thus brought to auction must appreciate the plan pursued by some book-buyers, of entrusting their commissions, not to men whose competition they are interested in removing, but to agents who merely execute orders.

36810 ——— the same, sm. folio, very fine large and clean copy, but with a small wormhole through the first few leaves, blue morocco extra, gilt edges, by Derome, with Aldine anchor in gold on sides, £10. 1503 worked for Henri II, Diane, and Catherine, gilt edges, the sides and back ornamented with a beautiful pattern of scroll-work decoration, à fers azurés; from the Sunderland library, in red morocco cases, £650.

(Venet. Aldus, 1504)

Here we have the rare combination of a book in every way valuable, with a binding of the most precious character. The owner of the first Aldine Homer on vellum can put himself on a level as a collector with Lord Spencer and the Duke of Devonshire; but it is not likely that any of the four copies described by Renouard (Royal Library B.M., Pius VI, Althorpe, Chatsworth) can vie with the Sunderland copy in its exterior. This is probably one of the last grand works executed by the great artists who disappeared from the capital of France when the Huguenot persecutions began which culminated at St. Bartholomew. It was executed about 1560-65.

36811 IOANNIS GRAMMATICI in Posteriora resolutoria Aristotelis Comentaria, Græce, sm. folio, fine copy in old Venetian brown morocco, with gold tooling, and impressions of 2 very elegant medals (representing a Battle of Cavalry, and Orpheus Charming the Wild Beasts) impressed as centre ornaments on sides, and back ornamented with golden fleur-de-lis, painted Grecian border on edges, £100.

Venetiis, apud Aldum, 1504

A most beautiful specimen of Venetian bookbinding.

36812 DEMOSTHENIS orationes duæ & sexaginta. Libanii sophistæ in eas ipsas orationes argumenta. Vita Demosthenis per Libanium. Eiusdem uita per Plutarchum, Græce, thick sm. folio, THICK PAPER, the top corners of some leaves stained, but otherwise a very fine large copy, contemporary stamped pigskin, with clasps, £5.

Venetiis in ædib. Aldi . . 1504

This and the Sunderland copy of this second issue of the Aldine 1504 edition are both printed on fine and stout paper,—hitherto supposed to be one of the points distinguishing it from the first issue. This second issue, though said to be the less rare, contains a corrected and far better text.

The Sunderland copy fetched £25. 10*s*.

Venetiis in ædib. Aldi, et Andreæ Asulani Soceri, 1513

FIRST EDITION of all the pieces except the Callimachus. This edition is remarkable for the manner in which the signatures are marked, i.e. by numbers, not letters. The pages too are all numbered in the right-hand corner. The Sunderland copy fetched £9, and the Syston Park £11.

36832 ——— the same, 12mo. very fine copy, ruled with red lines, in orange morocco extra, silk linings, gilt edges, with anchor in gold on sides, £20. 1514

There are two editions of this Virgil dated 1514. Both the above copies are of the very rare FIRST EDITION, with the 4 pages of Errata.

36833 VIRGILIUS. [Opera edente Aldo] sm. 8vo. (12mo.), old red morocco extra, gilt edges, from the Sunderland library, in a blue morocco case, £125.

Venetiis in aedibus Aldi et Andreae Soceri, 1514

PRINTED UPON VELLUM, of VERY GREAT RARITY, since Brunet does not record a copy. This is the first of the editions with the same date issued by Aldus, and contains 220 numb. ll. (the last erroneously numb. 120); leaf with imprint; 2 ll. of errata; and one with anchor. Height 154 mill.

The gold tooling on the sides is formed by a double row of three-line fillets with angle ornaments; the back is fully gilt with curves, culots, and dots à petits fers. The binding was done about 1650, by one of Le Gascon's successors or imitators.

Venetiis in aedibvs Aldi, etc. 1515

36835 ——— the same, sm. 4to. very large copy, red morocco extra, gilt edges, with anchor on sides, £3. 3*s* 1515

VERY RARE, and the only edition of this grammar.

36836 AULI GELLII Noctium Atticarum libri undeviginti, stout sm. 8vo. fine copy in red morocco, gilt gaufré edges, with anchor on sides, £2. 10*s* Venetiis in œdibus Aldi, etc. 1515

36837 ——— the same, sm. 8vo. with stamp on title, and a few old MS. notes in margins, old Venetian black morocco, lettered GELLII on obverse and NOCTES on reverse of cover, £3. 10*s* 1515

36838 BEMBO. Gli Asolani di Messer Pietro Bembo, sm. 8vo. with the dedication to Lucretia Borgia, red morocco extra, gilt edges, with anchor on sides, £2. 10*s*
Impressi in Vinegia nelle Case d'Aldo Romano, etc. 1515

36839 ——— the same, sm. 8vo. with the dedication, fine large and clean copy, in the original Venetian binding, rather damaged, £3. 1515

36840 ——— the same, sm. 8vo. with the dedication, very fine large copy, in red morocco extra, gilt edges, £3. 10*s* 1515

Impresso in Vinegia nelle Case d'Aldo, etc. 1515

36842 ——— the same, 12mo. woodcuts, fine and very large copy in old calf, gilt edges, £15. 15*s* 1515

This volume has been rebacked with surprising dexterity, but the original sides are still there with gilt tooling at the corners and in the centre. The binding, as well as the book, is Aldine; very slightly ornamental, but dignified and elegant in its simplicity.

36843 ERASMUS. Pacis Querela. De regno administrando. Institutio Principis Christiani. Panegyricus ad Philippum & carmen. Item ex Plutarcho. De discriminatione adulatoris, etc. Venetiis in œdibus Aldi, etc. 1518—Erasmi Reterodami Opusculum, cui titulus est Moria, id est Stultitia, quæ pro concione loquitur, id. 1515—2 vols. in 1, 12mo. original stamped binding, edges gilt and goffered, and bearing a cipher which seems to be composed of the letters in the word France, £20. 1515-18

The binder's initials, P. V., appear amongst the arabesque of the stamped work. On the blank page following the dedication, there is an ornamental escutcheon painted de gueules, au chevron d'or, accompagné de trois trèfles de même, deux en chef un en pointe, supported by two figures of female angels, winged like peacocks, and having their sex strongly indicated. They are accompanied by a cipher which seems to consist of the letters in the word France. The back, which had been plain, was tooled and gilt about the beginning of last century for the Abbé de Fourcy, whose book-plate is in the volume.

Of the first of these two books Renouard uses the words "livre très-rare," and of the second, "l'une des plus rares des éditions Aldines."

36844 LUCRETIUS, 12mo. THICK PAPER, fine large copy in red morocco extra, vellum fly-leaves, gilt edges, VERY RARE, £12.

Venetiis in ædibus Aldi, etc. 1515

Lyons and other Counterfeits of Aldine Editions.

36972 VERGILIUS, 12mo. the Aldine Counterfeit, with facsimiles of the title and last leaf of the real Aldine Edition, probably to pass it off for the original, the book being perfect without the imprint, red morocco extra, gilt edges, with Aldine anchor in gold on sides, £15. 15*s* (Lugduni, 1501)

This volume was the first issued by the Lyonese Forgers in imitation of the Aldine type, and is certainly as rare as the original of 1501. Bishop Butler's copy sold for £22.

36973 CICERO. M. T. C. Epistolæ Familiares, stout 12mo. PRINTED ON VELLUM, in original vellum binding, UNCUT, EXCESSIVELY RARE IN THIS STATE, £30. s. n. (Lugduni circa 1502)

The counterfeit of the Aldine edition of 1502. Renouard only knew of two copies printed on vellum. This copy sold for £56 at the Sunderland sale.

36974 PHILOSTRATUS de Vita Apollonii Tyanei scriptor luculentus a Philippo Beroaldo castigatus, 12mo. fine copy in green morocco extra, doublé with citron morocco, leather joints, vellum fly-leaves, by Bozerian le jeune, very rare, £5. s. n. (Lugduni circa 1505)

This volume is not a copy of any Aldine edition, though pri..ted in the pseudo-Aldine type.

36975 PONTANI Opera. Vrania, siue de Stellis libri quinq3, etc. 12mo. maroon morocco, gilt edges, £1. 8*s* s. n.

Exact copy of the Aldine edition of 1513.

36976 PETRARCHA. Le Cose Vvlgari di Messer Francesco Petrarcha, Aldine Counterfeit, ruled with red lines (sine nota)—Hecatomphila. De Misser Leon Battista Alberto, Hecatomphila che ne insegnia l'ingeniosa arte d'Amore . . . title within woodcut border, Stampata in Vineggia per Marchio Sessa . . . 1534—2 vols. in 1, 12mo. old red morocco gilt, gilt edges, £3. 3*s* 1534

The Petrarch is one of the Lyons counterfeits, and according to Renouard the first of them. The pages are unnumbered, the volume containing signatures a-y in eights, z 4 leaves (the last blank), and A 8 leaves (the last blank).

36979 ARETINI (Leonardi) de Bello Italico adversus Gothos, FIRST EDITION, with the autograph of "Jacques Le Chandelier, 1550," VERY RARE

Hunc libellum Emilianus de Vrsinis Eulginas & Iohannes Numeister theutunicus : eiusq. sotii feliciter impresserunt. Fulginei in domo eiusdē Emiliani anno domini millesimoquadringētesimoseptuagesimo feliciter. (1470)

JUSTINIANUS. Bernardi Iustiniani, Leonardi oratoris filii, Legati Veneti Oratio habita apud Sixtum quartum Pontificem maximum, VERY RARE Acta Rome . . . 1471 . . . Et impresse sunt in domo Nobiliuiri Iohannis philippi de Lignamine . Siculus (sic), etc. —— 2 vols. in 1, 4to. very fine copies, from the library of Girardot de Prefond, with his Museum ticket in letters of gold on red morocco pasted inside the covers, red morocco super extra, with broad dentelle borders of gold, silk linings, gilt edges, a beautiful specimen of binding, by Derome, £70. 1470-71

The Aretinus, besides being the FIRST EDITION, is also the FIRST BOOK PRINTED AT FOLIGNO. Johan Numeister is stated to have been Gutenberg's partner, when the latter printed the celebrated Catholicon de Janua in 1460, at his second press. The last but one word of text is in this copy erroneously printed hnius for huius. This misprint was corrected in a second issue.

The Justinianus is an exceedingly rare piece (consisting of only 9 leaves), barely mentioned in a note by Brunet, who evidently never met with it. It is unknown to Hain. Lignamine had only started printing in the previous year.

S. n. (Milan, Antonio Zaroto, 1472-73)

Without signatures, catchwords, or foliation. The date at the end of the Partitiones is undoubtedly the date of the printing. The type is identical in each of these two Ciceronian pieces, and also identical with that of the Mombritius following. In the Topica, and in the Mombritius, however, there are more signs of wear and less clearness of impression than in the Partitiones, so that we may assign them to a date at least one year later.

Fontana, the editor, was one of Zarotto's partners during the years 1472-3-4.

Impssum Ml'i per Antoniū Zarotum Parmensem (circ. 1473-4)

Without signatures, catchwords, and foliation. There is an inscription of dedication on the first page to Sancta Maria coronata for the use of Frater Bonus of Milan from Frater Paulinus of Milan Vicar General. This Frater Paulinus was one of the most distinguished Augustinian monks of his time: he was called to Rome some years later and died there in 1481.

36982 JUSTINI Historici Clarissimi in Trogi Pompeii Historias Libri XLIIII, sm. folio, remarkably fine large copy, russia extra, gilt edges, £8. 8*s* (Mediolani) Ant. Zarothus, 1474

Very rare edition. The verse colophon in four lines runs thus:

Historias veteres peregrinaque gesta reuoluo
Iustinus. lege me. sum trogus ipse brevis.
Quem manus Antoni Zarotho sanguine creti
Impressit sollers: insubribusque dedit.

36983 (VIRGILII Opera.) [leaf 1:] P. Virgilii Maronis Partheniæ Mantuani Bucolicon liber . . . sm. folio, old red morocco, with ornamental gilt borders, from the Sunderland library, 36*s* (Mediolani, Ant. Zarothus, 1475)

Only a portion of this extremely rare edition, consisting of leaves 1 to 162; wanting therefore the 19 leaves at the end containing the Opuscula and Priapeia. Several leaves are mended and defective.

An unknown printer of this city produced in the same year an edition of Servius' commentary on Virgil.

36984 CAESARIS Commentarii cum A. Hurtii aut Opii Supplemento, ex recensione Petri Justini Philelphi cum Indice Raymundi Marliani, folio, some leaves wormed, but a fine large copy, old English red morocco extra, £15.

36987 AMBROSIUS. Sancti Ambrosii Episcopi Mediolanensis de Officiis liber primus (libri III, cum Vita, etc.), sm. 4to. large and sound copy, but the last few leaves a little stained, old English blue morocco extra, £15.

Impressus mediolani p. Christofor. Valdarfer Ratisponensem, 1474

This is the first edition with a date, and also the first book printed by Valdarfer at Milan after his removal from Venice.

The proper collation of this very rare book will be found in the Dictionnaire Géographique annexed to Brunet. Brunet himself was wrong in thinking it should comprise 130 leaves; it contains properly 128. The colophon, with date and printer's name, is found on the reverse of fol. 98.

36988 [BANDELIS (Vincentii de)] Libellus Recollectorius Auctoritatum de Veritate Conceptiones Beatæ Virginis Gloriosæ, 4to. fine large copy, with painted initial letter, blue morocco, gilt edges, by Mrs. Weir, very rare, £12. 12*s*

Impresit (sic), 4to. lit. goth. old blue morocco gilt, from the Sunderland library, £12. Mediolani, CHRISTOFFORUS (VALDARFER), 1486

Unknown Printer (? 1475).

36993 TACITI Opera, cura Francisci Puteolani, sm. folio, fine copy in old calf, £6. 6*s* (sine nota, sed circa 1475)

36994 ——— another copy in vellum, gilt edges, £7. (? 1475)

The work is supposed to have been printed at Milan (probably by Valdarfer) as Puteolanus resided in that city, and in his dedication expressly asserts "nostris impressoribus tradidimus." It contains 187 leaves, of which 2 are blank. The life of Agricola, which occupies the last 11 leaves, is the First Edition of that work.

Unknown Printer (1475).

36995 SERVII HONORATII Commentarii in VIRGILII Opera, cum Vita Virgilii, sm. folio, a few leaves wormed, the first leaf defective, and the last four mended, old red morocco, with ornamental gilt borders, gilt edges, from the Sunderland library, very rare, £7. 7*s* Mediolani, 1475

This edition is remarkable for its catchwords, which are placed on the verso of some leaves, some in the centre of the lower margin, and others at right angles to the end of the last line. The name of the printer has not yet been ascertained. The type is not that of Ant. Zarot, to whom Panzer ascribes this edition.

Unknown Printer (? 1475-78).

36996 MOMBRITII (Bononi) Sanctuarium sive Vitæ Sanctorum, 2 vols. folio, very fine large clean copy, vellum, £3. 5*s*

(sine nota, sed Mediolani circa 1475)

RARE. These beautiful volumes are printed with the same type as the Statius edited by Mombritius and printed at Milan, and as the Dictys Cretensis of 1477.—It has been variously attributed to Zarotto and to Lavagna.

Dibdin describes this as exhibiting "the most capricious and puzzling arrangement of signatures" of all the books he had ever collated. His collation of it is very defective. Brunet omits to mention that one of the leaves is blank. In this copy Vol. I contains 344 leaves, and 1 blank leaf, which last is omitted from the collation below; and Vol. II contains 363 leaves.

Collation: Table to Vol. I (3 leaves); Table to Vol. II (2 leaves). Besides these five leaves there are signatures a-v, and as each letter recurs several times, we give a full description. There are 8 signature a's, 10 b's, 9 c's, 4 d's, 4 e's, 3 F's, 2 f's, 4 g's, 2 h's, 4 I's, 2 L's, 11 m's, 4 n's, 7 p's [simple p occurring twice], 1 r, 8 s's, 1 T, 3 t's and 2 V's. All of these are in eights, except: (1) a, which is in 9 leaves; 8 a, 10 ll.; 9 c, 7 ll.; 4 d, 7 ll.; 4 e, 1 l.; 3 F, 6 ll.; 2 f, 6 ll.; (1) h, 9 ll.; 2 L, 10 ll.; 11 m, 10 ll.; 4 n, 4 ll.; (1) p, 5 ll.; r, 10 ll.; (1) T, 11 ll.; 2 t, 6 ll.; 3 t, 5 ll.; 2 V, 10 leaves.

Filippo di Lavagna (1475-89).

Impssum (Mediolani) p. Magistrū Philippum de lauagnia i.cccc.lxxv (1475)

RARE. Contains: 174 leaves of Text without numbers, signatures, o catchwords (of which the 100th is blank, and not in this copy); and 2 leaves containing the Register at the end.

At the bottom of the reverse of leaf 74 appears "Explicit doctrina beati Hieronimi ex suis operibus egregie dineruata et cetera;" and on the opposite page "Incipit Testamētum beati Hieronomi." On leaf 100 the Epistolæ begins.

The book dated 1469 and printed by Lavagna, which has usually been considered the first typographical production of Milan, is now rejected as having a considerable error in its date.

36998 HORATII Opera, sm. folio, old English red morocco extra, from the Sunderland library, £31. 10*s*

opa & impensis Philippi de Lauagnia Ciuis mediolanensis, 1476

A very rare edition. On the margin of the first page is a water-colour drawing of a tree, bearing the motto "Sine fronde tamen vivam;" beneath this is a coat of arms.

36999 PLINIUS. Caii Plinii Secundi Nouicomensis Oratoris facundissimi epistolarum Liber Primus incipit (libri VIII), small folio, old blue morocco gilt, from the Sunderland library, £7. 10*s*

Mediolani per Philippum Lauagniam Mediolani ciuem, 1478

A fine, large and clean copy of this rare edition. The first initial illuminated, and the others painted in blue and red.

37000 LUCANUS. M. Annei Lvcani Pharsaliae Liber primus (Libri X), (acc. Pomponii Infortunati Lucani Vita), sm. folio, large copy, old English red morocco, rare, £10. 10*s*

Opus impressum Mediolani impensis Philippi Lauagniæ Anno 1477 . . .

D. Iunii Iuuenalis: & A. Persii Flacci satyras impressit Philippus Lauagnius mediolanensis . . 1478 .

Contains: a to g in eights, and h (10 leaves), and one separate leaf with Register.

Unknown Printer (1475-78).

37002 PHILELPHI (Francisci) . . . Mediolanense Conuiuium primum (et Secundum), sm. 4to. old red morocco, from Croft's library, rare, £2. 15*s* (sine nota)

Printed at Milan, probably in 1477 or 1478.

There are two epistles to Philelphus: one from Leonardus Justinianus, dated "Ex Venetiis, Mccccxliii;" the other from Jo. Franciscus Marlianus, dated "Ex Ticino, MccccLxxvii."—The former was portion of the codex which Marlianus read, and from which this impression was taken with Marlianus' own epistle prefixed.

The volume contains: a to l in eights, m (4 leaves), and A (4 leaves)—or 96 unnumbered leaves, of 28 lines to a page. The signatures are very irregularly placed, being sometimes in the bottom margin, at others in the side.

Brunet describes the book as printed about 1498,—simply a typographical error for 1478; but Graesse has, as in most cases, faithfully followed him.

Joannes Bonus (1475).

37003 AUGUSTINUS. AVRELII AVGVSTINI DEVOTISSIMVS CONFESSIONVM LIBER INCIPIT (libri XIII), sm. 4to. finely printed in a thin-faced Roman letter, old calf gilt, £12. Mediolani, 1475

FIRST EDITION WITH A DATE; so rare that although it is mentioned by Brunet and his continuator, no collation is given by them, the book itself never apparently having come into their hands. The volume consists of 164 leaves without marks. The Roman type is of very primitive character and full of contractions. Even the proper form of the printer's name, as given in the metrical colophon, is uncertain. He was an Augustinian monk who had printed a book at Savona in 1474, and had been obliged by the plague to quit his convent there and settle at Milan. He is thought to have been identical with Johannes Wurster of Kempen, who was printing at Mantua in 1472, but this is apparently not correct.—The metrical colophon runs as follows:—

"Q. lætum augustina ferat confessio fœtum
Præsens fratre refert pagina pressa suo.
Theutonicis delatus enim bonus ære Iohannes
Hoc mediolani fertile pressit opus.
ANNO INCARNATIONIS DOMINI
XII KALENDAS AVGVSTI:"

37004 BOCCACCIO. COMINCIA EL NIMPHALE FIESOLANO DAMORE COMPOSTO PER LO EXCELLENTE HVOMO MESSER GIOVANNI BOCCACCI . . . sm. 4to. 80 leaves, three stanzas of ottava rima on each page; fine copy in crimson morocco extra, gilt edges, by Hardy-Mennil, £32.
(Mediolani, circa 1475)

With register at end; but without numeration, catchwords, and signatures. The types are those of Ioannes Bonus, and the book may have preceded the Augustinus above described.—The edition has not hitherto been known to the authorities: it is true that this apparently unique copy was described in the Didot sale catalogue, but no conjecture of place, date, or printer was given there.

Bonaccursio of Pisa (1475).

37005 [PLAUTINA DICTA, collecta a Bono Accursio], sm. 4to. fine large clean copy in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by C. Lewis, VERY RARE, £4. 4*s* (sine nota, circa 1475-76)

37006 ——— the same, small 4to. a wormhole through the upper margin of the first twenty leaves; otherwise a fine copy with broad margins, old calf, £2. 8*s* (? 1475-76)

This is in the same time as the Latin portion of the Psalter of 1481.

Greek Press.

Bonaccursius of Pisa (1476-81).

37007 LASCARIS. Compendium Octo Orationis Partium et aliorum quorundam Necessariorum, editum a Constantino Lascari Byzantio, Græce et Latine, sm. folio, fine large and clean copy, red morocco extra, gilt edges, £18.

Hoc diuinum opus impressum est Mediolani . . . 1480.
& interpretatum per . . . Iohannem (Crastonum) monachum Placentinum.

SECOND EDITION. VERY RARE. No copy was in the Sunderland, Beckford or Hamilton libraries, or in any of the great libraries lately sold, except the Syston Park, from which this comes.

37008 (PSALTERIUM, Græce et Latine, ex recensione Joannis [Crastoni] Placentini.) David Prophetae et Regis Melos, sm. folio, FIRST EDITION, a very large copy, purple morocco, inside borders, gilt edges, RARE, £10. Impressum Mediolani Anno Mcccc.Lxxxi die . . . xv. Septembris. (1481)

First Edition of the Greek Psalter, and of any part of the Bible in Greek. The third book printed in Greek.

Some copies have the words "impensa BONACCURSI PISANI in the colophon in addition to those given above.

Dr. Askew's copy sold for £16. 16*s*, and this in Sir M. Sykes' sale for £22. 1*s*.

The Psalter and the Lascaris are both in the same Greek type.

Dominico da Vespola (1476-78).

EDITIO PRINCEPS. VERY RARE. Sir M. Sykes' copy sold for £28. 8s. "Première édition assez belle et fort rare."—Brunet.

On the last leaf we find the mark of Ulrich Scinzenzeler, which goes far to prove that he was the Henricus Germanus whose name appears in the colophon as printer.

37012 CHALCONDYLÆ (Demetrii) Erotemata Synoptica octo Partium Orationis; Manuel Moscopulus de Prosodia; et, Gregorius Corinthius de Dialectis, Græce, small folio, FIRST EDITION, very fine large clean copy, in purple morocco extra, leather joints, gilt edges, with Sir M. Sykes' arms on sides, £7. 7s

FIRST EDITION. VERY RARE. By a mistake of the binder the Chalcondylas has been placed at the end of the volume, instead of at the beginning.

Collation: Chalcondylas, α-η in eights, and θ in fours, of which the last blank; Moscopulus, α-η in eights, and θ and ι in sixes; Corinthius α-γ in eights, except β in six. This copy sold for £20. 9s 6d in Sir M. Sykes' sale, and Pinelli's for £19. 8s 6d. "We are about to describe a volume of such uncommon rarity, that the late Rev. T. Crofts imagined there were not three copies of it in existence."—Dibdin.

The Isocrates and the Chalcondylas are both in the same type; which differs in size from that used in the Psalter and Lascaris of the preceding subdivision.

T., purple morocco, gilt edges, £15. 15*s*

Impressum Mediolani per Lazarum de Turate . . . 1502

The unknown engraver B. T. may not be Benvenuto Tisio Garofalo of Florence, who, although only twenty-one years of age at the date of this book, was already a skilled engraver. The moral precepts are illustrated by stories, so that the book may be attached to the class of Novelle. The woodcuts, being executed for the stories, lend an additional interest to this edition.

Gian Giacomo di Legnano and his brothers (1503-33).

Operi suprema manus imposita est kalendis quintilibus. Ludouico galliar. rege huius urbis iclite sceptra regēte . . . 1508 (Mediolani)

The Beckford copy fetched £78.

This work is a translation into Latin by Archangelus Madrignanus, a Cistercian monk, of the famous first edition (Vicenza, 1507) of the "Paesi novamente retrovati, et Novo Mondo da Alberico Vesputio Florentino intitulato," and ends like the first issue of its original with chap. 142. The value of the leaves of Index in the Itinerariaum Portugallensium, and the necessity of possessing them, must be estimated from the fact that they give an analysis of the contents together with the names of the discoverers, while the text of the book runs on from chapter to chapter without distinction.

37031 ITINERARIUM PORTUGALLENSIUM, the two rare and important leaves of Index in photo-lithographic facsimile, 21*s* 1508 (1886)

The Itinerarium Portugallensium bears no printer's name, but was evidently produced by or for the Brothers di Legnano, being in the same type, style, and size, as the Varthema of 1511. They probably intended to publish a Collection of Voyages in Latin, and made a good beginning with the two works referred to.

Operi suprema manus imposita est auspiciis . . . Bernardini Carnaial hispani. Epi sabinen . . .

The book has no name of place of printing or date, but the preface is dated "Mediolani octauo calen. Iunias. M.D.xi." The mark, and name of "Io. Iacomo·e frat.' de Legnano" appear above the intitulation on the title-page. "I ivre peu commun et fort recherché."—Brunet.

Zanotto de Castellion (1506–21).

37033 [SPIRITO (Lorenzo)] LIBRO DE LA VENTURA OVERO DE LE SORTE, Perche Si troua le infra scripta rasone a trare con gli dadi che sono nella presente roda chiamata roda della uentura . . . sm folio, full of fine woodcut figures and borders in the grand Italian style, very fine copy in olive morocco extra, gilt edges, by Lortic, £30.

Stampato in millão per Zanoto de castellion Fatto ale spese de Iohāne Iacobo de Legnão & fratelli. Nel 1508

The artist's name is unknown, but he must be held to rank among the best designers of his time. There is a freedom and boldness in his drawing, and a mastery of composition, which are seldom found in union with the apparent roughness of execution, and the absence of finish in the typographical adjuncts. His groups of bambini are very much like those in the Poliphilo, and quite as charmingly delineated. The book is a fortune-telling encyclopædia, and the pages are full of little figures of dice or dominoes, with references below to the grandly-bordered circles on the pages in which further references are made to the woodcuts of the prophets where responses appear.

Jacobus Ferrarius (1508–9).

37034 FULGOSI (Baptistæ) de dictis factisqꝫ memorabilibus collectanea: a Camillo Gilino latina facta, sm. folio, FIRST EDITION, fine large copy, ruled with red lines, red morocco extra, gilt edges, RARE, £6. 6*s* Jacobus Ferrarius, Mediolani, 1509

The Invention of Typography by "Gutembergus Argentinensis" is here related, with an insinuation that the inventor had been directly inspired by God. By this wonderful art, says Fulgosus, the great writers of ancient days may be said to have begun their existence in 1440.

The discovery by Christopher Columbus, a Genoese, of a way to the Indies shorter than any known before, is also recorded (although with the mistake that the voyage had been accomplished in thirty-one days). Fulgosus says that this new method was shorter, easier, and far preferable to the long and dangerous voyage along the Coast of Africa and through the Southern (Indian) Ocean, by which others (Vasco de Gama and the Portuguese) had sought the same regions. In spite of its errors, this constitutes an interesting and very early notice of the two most important voyages in the long annals of Geographical Discovery.

37040 EPISTOLE magni Turci (Muhammedis secundi) a Laudiuio eqte hierosolymitano edite, in ciuitate Neapolis impresse per Arnaldū de Bruxella, 1473—Nicolaus Sagundinus ad Iohannem filium. de epistolari dicendi genere, sine ulla nota—2 vols. in 1, sm. 4to. beautiful large clean copies, in old red morocco with Harleian gold tooling, gilt edges, £8. 1473

Both books are EXCESSIVELY RARE; the second unknown to Brunet.

The Sagundinus contains 11 leaves, 24 lines to a page, without numbers, signatures or catchwords. Dibdin was of the opinion that the printer of this excessively rare piece was not Arnoldus de Bruxella, as the Duke of Cassano thought, but perhaps I. P. de Lignamine. The type is certainly utterly unlike that of the Epistolæ Magni Turci above, which bears the name of Arn. de Bruxella. Panzer, who evidently never saw either of these works, describes them as one book on the authority of Cl. Morelli. He afterwards, however, contradicted that view on the authority of Cl. Giustiniani, who says that they were neither printed together, nor by the same printer.

37041 SILVATICI (Mathei) Liber Cibalis et Medicinalis Pandectarum, thick folio, FIRST EDITION, very fine large clean copy, from Colbert's library, in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Padeloup, with the arms of the Duc de Brancas in gold on sides, VERY RARE, £10. 10*s* Neapoli (Arnoldus de Bruxella) 1474

The colophon says: Explicit. liber Pandectarum. Quem Angelus Cato Supinas de Beneuēto Philosophus & medicus magna cū diligētia z emēdate imprimendū curauit in . . . ciuitate Neapoli . . . 1474:

"The name of Arnoldus de Bruxella is assigned by Panzer as that of the printer of this truly magnificent volume. It is indeed very rarely that we discover a nobler production of any press in the XVth century."—Dibdin.

Mathias Moravus de Olmütz (1475-91).

Neapoli, Mathias Moravus, 1475

37043 ——— the same, folio, very tall copy in green morocco extra, gilt edges, with arms on sides, £28. 1475

This excessively rare volume is the most important production of the early press at Naples (except only the Horace of 1474, of which but one copy is known). It is, moreover, the first book printed in Naples by the famous printer Matthew of Olmuetz, all of whose impressions are very rare.

Fetched, La Vallière, 800 fr.; Libri, £35. 10*s*.

The colophon at the end of the first part runs thus: "est impressum hoc opus in ciuitate Neapolis . . . M.lxxiiiii . . .;" and after it come the following verses:

"Iam pœne abstulerat Senecæ monumēta uetustas
Vixq3 erat hæc ullus cui bene nota forent
Tam bona: sed docti Mathiæ scripta moraui
Artificis: non est passa perire manus

Bononie impressum anno. [typis Balth. Azzoguidis], 1472

This very early specimen from the press of Bologna's prototypographer is the second mentioned by Panzer under the name of that town. It contains 95 leaves, 34 lines to a page, without signatures or catchwords.

37052 PETRARCHA. Gli TRIONFI, CON LA EXPOSITIONE DI BERNARDO GLICINO (Lapini), folio, with illuminated initials, lower margins of some leaves mended, last line of the colophon and of another leaf injured, old red morocco, with broad gilt ornamental borders, bound for Lord Sunderland, £25.

Bononiæ impressum 1475 . . die. xxvii. mensis Aprilis.

First edition with Glicino's Commentary. There is a beautiful painted border on the first page, with a portrait of Petrarch in the first initial, and in the bottom margin three circular frames, two of them painted with figures of hares, the arms of the original owner in the third. On the bottom of the third page there is another painting—of Petrarch in the middle and the figure of a peacock at each side.

37053 OVIDII Opera, 2 vols. sm. folio, with illuminated initial and arms on first page, fine large and clean copy, old calf, from the Sunderland library, £68.

Both works are amongst the earliest productions of the celebrated presses from which they emanated. The second book is a curious collection of nice law-points, quibbles and quillets, and hints for sharp practice.

The Barbatius contains 31 leaves, in double columns, without marks. The Cepolla contains 49 leaves, in double columns, with 53 lines to a page, without marks, the last leaf containing merely the register and colophon (printed in red).

estampada en Ferrara a costa y despesa de Jeronimo de Vargas Español: en primero de Março de. 1553

EXCESSIVELY RARE. It is the edition of the Bible in Spanish (or Judeo-Spanish) commonly known as the "Jews' Bible" or the "Ferrara Bible," and contains just so much of the sacred text as is contained in all Hebrew editions. It commences with the title, which is within a curious woodcut border, and on its reverse the dedication epistle of Jeronimo de Vargas and Duarte Pinel to the Duke of Ferrara; then "al lector" 2 pp.; Table 6 ll.; text 400 numb. leaves. Then follows "TABLA DE LAS HAPHTAROTH DE TODO EL ANO," 2 ll. (WANTING IN NEARLY ALL COPIES). The volume concludes with the register and imprint (1 leaf). The title and some half-dozen leaves are wormed; but the body of the book is in excellent condition.

The preface implies that the translation into Spanish was made for the first time in the preparation of this Bible, and the editor (in the dedication signed by J. de Vargas and Duarte Pinel, it is called nuestra traducion which they wished sacar a luz) in his address to the reader states that he had caused the Bible to be translated by several learned men. He excuses the barbarous style of the language on the ground that the ancient sententious language of the Spanish Jews had been used for the purpose of obtaining greater closeness to the original. All this makes it probable that the translation was really an old one, in use in Spain amongst the Jews for centuries before, and that it was merely sacada a luz in 1553, so that (as the editor says) Spain should not be the only country without a vernacular Bible—that is, in Castilian, for he mentions the fact that the Scriptures had been printed in Catalan. In the well-known passage in Isaiah, in the phrase "the maid shall conceive and bring forth a son," the word for maid is moça, which is considered to indicate the use of the Jews, while in other copies the corresponding word is virgen, so as to suit Christian tastes.

Tarvisii, G. F., 1475

AN EXCESSIVELY RARE tract consisting of 9 leaves. After the word Finis on the last leaf comes the colophon, thus: "Laus Deo. M.CCCC.LXXV. xii Aprilis. G. Tarvisii. F." The initials evidently standing for Gerardus de Flandria Brunet merely knew of the existence of this volume, but could not quote a single copy.

A very rare edition of the "Plautina Dicta," without date, printer's name, or name of place, is bound up in the same volume. Panzer imagined that it came from Gerard de Flandria's press. This is very unlikely, the type being utterly different. Probably he also saw a copy with the "Mirabilia Rome" bound up at the end.

37084 LAUDIVIUS Eques Hierosolymitanus. [At end:] EPISTOLAE MAGNI TVRCI (Muhammedis II) finivnt: a Lavdino eqvite Hierosolimitano editae: (accedit De Hermafrodita per. d. An. Panormitanum. 1477

The Epistolæ Magni Turci is very rare. It consists of 22 leaves numbered in Roman numerals. This is a very early example of foliation. On the obverse of leaf 20, immediately before the word Finis and the printer's initials (G. F. T.), are ten verses headed "De Hermofrodita per. d. An. Parnormitanum. Carmen Decasticon." Dibdin styles this "an elegant little impression."

The Plinii Liber Illustrium Virorum consists of 25 leaves, without mark. Just before the colophon there are two verses, the last two of which run: "Si petis artificem : quis sit : patriamqz requiris. | Iacobi Andreas : & Catharum Patria."

37093 FICINUS. Marsilii Ficini Florentini liber de cristiana religione ad laurentium medicem, small 4to. calf, £3. (absque nota)

EDITIO PRINCEPS: RARE. Supposed to have been printed at Florence by the Cennini, the prototypographers of Florence, in 1474. Only one book is known dated from that singular press which holds the credit of an independent practice of typography not derived from German workmen or teachers.—The Ficinus is printed in Roman letter, without marks, on 135 ll. (the 2 ll. of table wanting to this copy). The work was written in 1474, as appears from a statement on folio 21.

"Première edition, belle et rare."—Brunet.

37094 FICINO (Marsilio). Libro di Marsilio Ficino Fiorentino Della Christiana Religione . . . 4to. large and fine copy in old calf gilt, £4. 4*s* (Sine nota, sed Florentiæ, circa 1474-5)

This Italian translation is excessively rare. It contains 114 ll., 2 being occupied by the table, and 1 blank.

It has been stated that the types used in this volume were the same as Niccoli di Lorenzo used in the Vita di Colombini, but it is almost certain from close inspection that it was printed with the same types as the Latin original (supposed to have been printed by the Cennini, the prototypographers of Florence), or, as seems more probable, with a clearer and sharper fount produced from the same matrices.

37096 BERLINGHIERI (Francesco) In questo volume si contengono SEPTE GIORNATE DELLA GEOGRAPHIA di Francesco Berlingeri, large folio, 33 MAPS ENGRAVED ON COPPER, very fine large copy, quite perfect, in red morocco super-extra, gilt edges, by Trautz-Bauzonnet, £36. Firenze, Nicolo Todescho (circa 1478-80)

37097 ——— the same, large folio, wanting the map of Palestine, and the last leaf with the Register, bound in oaken boards, partly covered with hogskin, £12. (1478-80)

The maps afford curious indications, so far as they vary from the old

Ptolemæan series, of the knowledge of Eastern geography possessed by Europeans in the fifteenth century.

Francesco Berlinghieri, a Florentine, contributed greatly to the study of Geography by this popular work in Italian verse. It bears no date, but must have been published about the same time as the Roman Ptolemy of 1478, since the Duke of Urbino, to whom it is dedicated, died in 1482. Indeed it is more than probable that the work of Berlinghieri is entitled to claim precedence before the Ptolemy (has the first collection of Maps printed from copper-plates), as the two sets of engravings are very much alike, but the Roman book exhibits a very superior technical finish which evinces the improvement of a later hand. In some respects the Berlinghieri approximates nearer to geographical correctness.

Florentiæ, per Antonium Miscominum, 1482

UNIQUE. THE FIRST EDITION OF HORACE WITH THIS CELEBRATED COMMENTARY, and one of the finest Italian typographical monuments of the fifteenth century. We can trace no record of another copy on vellum, and Brunet knew only of this copy by report. It commences with the Ode of Politian to Horace on the verso of the first leaf: on the opposite leaf begins the Proemium, which, together with the "Tabula Vocabulorum," occupies 5 leaves. The text then commences and is numbered fols. i-cclxiv, after which come 2 leaves not numbered. Fol. lxxiv is numb. lxiv; cxxxxiv is numb. cxxxiv. Measures 11¼ by 8 in. On the first leaf is written "Hic liber est mei Bartolomei Tom," in a contemporary handwriting.

Impressum Florentie Per Antonium Miscominum, 1482

EDITIO PRINCEPS: rare. It contains 318 leaves in all (including 1 blank) instead of 316, as Brunet says. The Register which occupies the last leaf must have been wanting to his copy.

Ficinus was certainly more a pagan than a Christian, although he also wrote a work on the Christian religion. The story runs that he appeared after his death to his friend and fellow-Platonist, Mercati, to bear testimony to the truth of his arguments for the immortality of the soul.

Nerlii Fratres (1488).

37101 HOMERI OPERA, GRÆCE, 2 vols. folio, FIRST EDITION, the two Latin leaves of printer's advertisement absent at the beginning, but altogether a most desirable copy, very fine and very large, the Iliad in old olive morocco, and the Odyssey, which is even larger, in red morocco, gilt edges, £100.

Florentiæ, Sumptibus Bernardi et Nerii Nerliorum, 1488

The first edition of Homer must undoubtedly be the foundation stone of a classical library, but owing to all copies being secured for public libraries, its rarity is continually on the increase.

The Wodhull copy fetched £200.

The two following notes are on the fly-leaf of the Odyssey in the above copy:—

"This is the largest and finest copy I ever saw. April 4, 1852. Henry G. Bohn."

"H. & B. (Second Duke of Hamilton), 1852—Le plus parfait exemplaire possible—achetez l'Iliad à quelque prix que ce soit, si vous pouvez un exemplaire pareil."

The Iliad measures $12\frac{3}{4} \times 9$ in.; the Odyssey $13\frac{3}{8} \times 9\frac{3}{8}$ in.

"The first, and the most beautiful, of all the publications printed in capital letters, which came from the press of Laurentius de Alopa."—Dibdin.

The last seven leaves, containing the Latin letter addressed by Lascaris to Pietro de Medicis, who fled from Florence when the French entered Tuscany, are only to be found in the very few copies which had been distributed before that event took place. It was then completely suppressed.

The Sunderland copy fetched £51.

37104 CALLIMACHUS. ΚΑΛΛΙΜΑΧΟΥ ΚΥΡΗΝΑΙΟΥ ΥΜΝΟΙ, Græce, sm. 4to. the Greek Text without the Scholia, fine large copy, green morocco extra, gilt edges, by C. Lewis, EXCESSIVELY RARE, £25. sine nota, sed Florentiæ per Laur. Franc. de Alopa, circa 1494

EDITIO PRINCEPS. PRINTED THROUGHOUT IN CAPITAL LETTERS. The rarest of the five Greek books printed in this manner during the 15th century. The 10 leaves containing the Scholia are almost always wanting. The Roxburghe copy with the Scholia sold for £60, Renouard's for £85, and the Sunderland £49.

"On the rarity, beauty, and value of this edition, a considerable sized volume might easily be written . . . If any one of my readers should have the good fortune to meet with a copy for sale, I advise him to procure it by all means, for he who is possessed of this edition is possessed of one of the greatest treasures bibliography can boast of."—Moss.

" A vrai dire, nous préférons surtout les gravures exécutées entre 1492 et 1498. L'expression des visages y est plus sérieuse, plus intense, plus naïve. N'est-ce pas d'ailleurs l'époque où l'école florentine a toute sa grâce, toute son élégance, toute sa saveur ? "—M. Gruyer, Les illustrations des Ecrits de Savonarole.

Remarkably in contrast to his turbulent eloquence, is the feeling for the beautiful in nature, and the appreciation of it as an exponent to his arguments, so frequently met with in his sermons; they abound with passages of great ideality and refinement of poetical expression in their figurative blending of art with religion.—British Museum Early Italian Prints, by Richard Fisher, p. 149.

In Fiorenza Nella Stamperia de i Giunti (Filippo & Jacopo) 1573

This celebrated volume, in spite of the alterations in certain places, remains in all other respects the best edition of Boccaccio. The changes are not such as it might be expected the censorship of morals would dictate, but only in such small matters concerning religion as the substitution of un giardino di damigelle for un monasterio di donne.

37158 MISSALE MŌASTICŪ S'M CŌSUETUDINĒ ORDINIS UALLISUMBROSE, stout folio, printed on Vellum, numerous large and beautiful woodcuts, many of them richly illuminated by a contemporary colourist, who has also in some places added painted arabesque borders, the margins of a dozen leaves near the end mended; in a splendid red morocco binding, executed for Henri II of France, the sides and back covered with a grand ornamental design in gold, with a centre-piece on the sides on which are stamped the arms, initial, and collar of the King, gilt edges, in a cloth case, £150.

Venetiis apud Lucam Antonium Juntam idibus decembribus, 1503

No less valuable as an extremely rare book than as a noble specimen of the finest development of ornamental binding which has ever existed. The pattern is unequalled for the freedom and beauty of its curves and the masterly skill of the composition. The last time a vellum copy of this Giunta Missal appeared in the market was in 1860, when it was bought at Sotheby's for the British Museum for £120. In that copy it seems that the final leaf of colophon was wanting.

Venetiis, apud Iuntas. [at end: in officina Lucæ Antonij Juntæ] (1561)

This is a magnificent specimen of Venetian binding, the pattern of the ornament being of a grand style, and the use of gold luxuriant to almost an extreme degree.

Iohannes ex uerona oriundus . . . impressit. An. M.CCCC.LXXII (1472)

FIRST EDITION. EXCESSIVELY RARE, and eagerly sought after on account of the beautiful woodcuts. It is the first with a date executed in Italy in which woodcuts are found. Mr. Beckford's copy sold for £81.

The opuscule dated 1470, Sommariva's Italian translation of the Batrachomyomachia, may be unhesitatingly rejected from its old place of honour as the first book printed at Verona. It was produced nearer to 1500 than to 1470.

37712 HIERONYMUS. Vita, miracoli, e la fine del glorioso sancto Hieronyno, sm. 4to. vellum, £3. 10*s*

(per Bartholomeum Cremonensem) 1473

This book has already been described more fully ante under Venice, p. 3652. It is inserted here because of the opinion expressed by M. Deschamps and the Italian bibliographer Melzi, that this was the second book printed at Cremona.

Lodovicus Britannicus (1535).

Jacobus Lunensis de Fivizano (1472).

37174 JUVENALIS. Iunii Iuvenalis Aquinatis Satyrici Poetæ Dignissimi Liber Incipit, sm. 4to. large copy, slightly wormed, old crimson morocco, with ornamental gilt borders, from the Sunderland library, £12. 12*s* Jacobus de Fivizano (s. a. et l. circa 1472)

A rare edition of the separate text of Juvenal. It contains 72 leaves. On the recto of the last leaf are six lines, the four first of which read as follows:—

" Octo bis satyras Iuvenalis perlege aquini :
Scripsit quas Iacobus ære notante manu
De Fiuizano : Veneta sed doctus in urbe :
Iampridem Lune patria clara tenet."

The first book printed at Fivizano. See the Geographical Supplement to Brunet.—The printer having learnt his art in Venice, and established the press in Fivizano, where he only printed this book and one other, returned to Venice and carried on his occupation there for some years.

Pierre Maufer of Rouen.

Petrus maufer normanus Rothomagēsis ciuis [s. l. et a. sed Patavii, circa 1479]

Very rare. Unknown to Hain. Peter Maufer, the printer of this volume, was a native of Rouen. Brunet mentions him as "Un typographe français dont le nom est resté l'une des gloires de la ville de Rouen sa patrie." The present volume consists of forty leaves, twenty-four lines to a page. The signatures are curiously irregular: a, 9 leaves, b 7, c 10, d 7, and e 7; but the book is perfect, although a few leaves are transposed.

Unknown Printer.

37185 ST. ANTONY OF PADUA. [*h*2 obverse:] Qui finisse el libro della vita e miracoli del glorioso sācto antonio de padoa. translatato de latino in vulgare italiano . . . [*h*2 reverse:] Queste sono le reuelatione lequale foron monstrade a sancta

Elisabeth figliola de lo Re da Ungharia de la vergine Maria, small 4to. gothic letter, with three full-page woodcuts in the elegant outline style, very fine copy in blue morocco, gold tooling, leather joints, silk linings, gilt edges, by Simier, from the Beckford library, £16. 16*s* [Without marks, but Padua, about 1485]

Exceedingly rare; being unknown to Brunet, and only quoted by Panzer on the authority of the Pinelli catalogue and Denis' Suppl. to Maittaire. The woodcuts are of Venetian artistic origin: one of them shows St. Antony preaching to the Adriatic fishes with the towers and walls of Ravenna in the background (although according to the text it was at Rimini that he performed that very surprising action). The orthography also resembles that of Venice, but the dialect of Padua is almost identical with the Venetian. The book was probably translated from the Latin of Siccus Polentonus, which had been printed at Padua in 1476.

The volume consists of 40 leaves. A curious feature of the book is the position of the signatures (a to k in fours) at the top right hand corner of the page, where the number of the pages usually appears.

(Sine loco et typographi nomine) MCCCCLXXII (1472)

37188 ——— another copy, very large, in old russia gilt, bound by Lord Harley's binders, £5. 15*s* 1472

The colophon is followed by a short epistle of the editors, Antonius Moretus and Hieronymus Alexandrinus, to Giacomo Zeno, bishop of Padua. As Antonio Moreto lived in Venice at a somewhat later date, and seems to have corrected the press there, this book has sometimes been ascribed to a Venetian press.

Jacobus Britannicus (1483–1507).

ORIGINAL EDITION of this curious and interesting early poem; and of GREAT RARITY. It commences as above without title, and contains 106 ll. Signatures were placed at the extreme lower edge, and are, in consequence, usually cut off in binding. This copy has them all.

The colophon is in sixteen lines at the end containing a rhyming history of the book written in the first person. The seventh, eighth and ninth lines are as follows:

" Mia fama rinoua per sua cortesia maestro leonardo con mirabel stampa ilqual gia naque ne lalta Basilia."

37193 LEONICENUS. Omniboni Leoniceni Rhetoris clarissimi in Marci Tullii oratorem ad Q. fratrē cōmētarium fœliciter incipit, sm. folio, FIRST EDITION, very fine large copy in old English blue morocco extra, £7. 10*s* Vicentiæ, 1476

37194 ——— the same, sm. folio, without the first leaf with the 6 lines, fine large copy in old English red morocco extra, 28*s* 1476

Rare. The type resembles that used by Leonardus Basiliensis in the Dittamundo of Fazio, in 1474. The complete volume contains 176 leaves (not 178 as Brunet says), including the first, which is blank on the obverse, and has six lines noting the contents printed on the reverse.

Vicentiæ per magistruz Leonardum de basilea, 1489

RARE, the Erotematum liber tertius, of which this is the FIRST EDITION, being especially so. Sir M. Sykes' copy, wanting the Liber Tertius, sold for £6. 10*s*.

"The impression is of extraordinary rarity. The copy of it in the Bibl Crofts, no. 103, was considered to be unique, whilst that in the Crevenna collection is described as 'very rare and almost unknown.' Yet neither of these copies possessed this curious Greek appendix [Liber Tertius]."—Dibdin.

A RARE EDITION, finely printed in Roman letter, the first page illuminated, and capitals painted in blue. It contains 145 ll. only: a-x in eights and sixes, except sheet q, which is in seven leaves, but nothing is wanting (the absent leaf was the sixth of that sheet, strange to say, and could only have been blank, as there is no hiatus in the text which runs continuously from the fifth to the seventh leaf of q). This copy wants the three separate leaves containing the Carmen Calphurnii, following after the colophon, as described by Brunet.

FIRST ISSUE OF THE FIRST EDITION, AND EXCESSIVELY RARE. This work was truly the first Collection of Voyages ever compiled. [The Portuguese book, dated 1502, and containing the travels of Marco Polo, Hieronymo di S. Stephano, and Nicolo Conti together, translated by Valentino Fernandez Aleman, might lay claim to such a distinction, but certainly not the Italian abridgment of Peter Martyr's first Decade (Libretto de tutta la Navigation) printed at Venice in 1504, and here reprinted in the Paesi.] That these copies are absolutely of the first issue, appears from the number of chapters, and from the full colophon, which ends with "Cum gratia & priuilegio p. ani. x. como nella sua Bolla appare: che p. sōa del Dominio Veneto nō ardisca īprimerlo." In some copies, this colophon ends with the word "priuilegio," from which we may conclude that they belong to a re-issue made when the ten years' privilege was nearly run out (after the date of the Itinerarium Portugall. 1508). The compiler of the work was Fracanzio di Montalboddo, or "Montalboddo Fracan" as it appears at the heading of the dedicatory epistle; and the contents of the work are as follows:—

Voyages of Cadamosto and Pedro de Cintra, in Portuguese service, 1454, 1463, their first publication (Capp. I-L).

Vasco da Gama's Voyage round the Cape, 1497-1500, its first publication (LI-LXII).

Cabral's Voyage, 1500, first publication of the narrative concerning the discovery of Brazil (LXIII-LXXXIII).

Abridgment of Peter Martyr's yet unpublished first Decade, containing voyages of Columbus, Alonso Niño, Pinzon, 1492-1500, already printed at Venice in 1504 (LXXXIV-CXIII).

Vespucci's Letter to Lorenzo di Pier Fr. de Medici, re-translated from the printed Latin of 1503 (CXIV-CXXIV).

Letters of Venetian ambassadors and merchants, dated 1501-1502, concerning the Portuguese voyages to India, and Corte Real's voyage to America—first publication (CXXV-CXXVIII)

Account of India, by Ioseph of Cranganor (the Indian Christian whom Cabral brought from India in 1501), given in 1502, first publication (CXXIX-CXLII).

As will appear from the preceding detail, the chapters are I-CXLII in this first issue of the Paesi. In the second issue, which presents the truncated colophon referred to above, another chapter (CXLIII) was added, giving a translation of King Manoel's letter to Pope Julius II concerning his conquest in India (Emanuelis Obedientia, etc. printed at Rome in 1505).—Mr. Harrisse says that the Cabral Voyage (capp. 63-83 above) was translated from King Emanuel's Letter to the King of Castile, printed in Italian at Rome and Milan in 1505; but this is simply a blunder. The letter of 1505 is a short opuscule of eight leaves, the first four being devoted to a brief record of the same events as are detailed in the 21 chapters here; but it refers to another letter (not yet discovered, and which was probably translated in the Cabral chapters of the Paesi) in which the Portuguese king states that he had already given full information.

Beneath the register on the last page is the printer's mark containing the initials R. V.

The compiler of the Grenville Catalogue, speaking of the rarity of this volume, says, "Camus, in his Memoire sur De Bry, p. 342, regrets that he has never been able to see a single copy of this Edition."

Jacobus Dusensis (1482).

Impressa nel amœna & delecteuole Citate de Como p. Magistro Gotardo da Põte Citadino Milanese: . . . 1521

A volume of great rarity. Amongst the woodcuts are exhibited some curious representations of Milan Cathedral, which Mr. J. S. Hawkins considered so important, as being the earliest engravings of Gothic architecture known. For a long time Mr. Hawkins was unable to obtain even a sight of the work, but finally procured a copy; the volume is described by him as "so scarce that I at present know of no more than two copies besides my own existing in this country, and one of these two is in the Bodleian Library." Some of the other woodcuts are most interesting, and include an ancient sundial, antique bath, the sphere, a ship moved by paddles and various motive powers, architectural instruments, etc. The Commentary is extremely valuable, not only to the mathematician and architect, but also to the painter and sculptor, as it gives rules for colouring and for studying symmetry of proportion, especially mentioning Michael Angelo and other eminent artists. The first mention of the camera obscura, usually attributed to Porta, is also found in this work. For the history of art and literature Cesarino's notices are highly important, as nearly every page has allusion to, and mention of, names of men eminent in every branch of science.

Impressum Genue per Antonium de Bellonis, 1556

This version in Latin elegiacs, with an Italian translation beneath, is by Bernardus Zimonis who signs the "ad lectorem" at end.

Early impressions from Genoese presses are so rare that even this book may be allowed a place here.

Impresso in Modena per. M. Dominico Rocociolo. 1488

An unusually fine example of Italian binding at the end of the fifteenth century. It may be Florentine rather than Modenese, but the probability is that it was done at Modena between 1490 and 1500.

37209 BELLENCINI (Bartholomei) Tractatus de Charitatiuo subsidio: et Decima beneficiorum, sm. folio, fine copy, in the original leather binding, with half vellum wrapper, £3. 10*s*

Mutine per magistrum Antoniũ Mischominum & Dominicũ Richizola socios, 1489

Rare. Contains 54 leaves, the last 8 containing the Table.

Tusculani Apud Lacum Benacensem. Alexander Paganinus. 1521

A very rare edition, printed with Paganini's singular type between Roman and Italic. It is also the most complete edition, and is the princeps of all succeeding ones. Copies like the above, in which the marginal notes are not cut into, are seldom found.

Though a few books were printed at Toscolano in the 15th century, Alessandro Paganini was the first to found a regular press there.

Impressum Tusculani apud Benacum. In edibus Alexandri Paganini. 1526

RARE. The text is printed in a peculiar semi-italic type, in the centre of the pages, surrounded by the commentaries, which are in a smaller but similar character. This type distinguishes the works of Paganini alone, and gives to all the productions of his press (especially those printed at Tusculanum, on the Lago di Garda) a considerable value in the eyes of bibliophiles.

(1480) Reggio d'Este.

Regii Lepidi. Impressus Prosperus Odoardi et Albertus Mazalis Impressores. 1481

Very rare. A very early specimen of the press at Reggio, as printing was only introduced there during the previous year. M. Deschamps in mentioning this edition omits the name of Mazali. He also says that the first book printed by him at Reggio was the Virgil of 1482. The fact is that the Catullus was printed before Mazali established his permanent press there. The present is a good copy, with the initials [illegible].

Aquila, Adam de Rotuuil Alamano, 1482

FIRST BOOK PRINTED AT AQUILA. RARE. First Edition of this translation. No more than the "Parte Prima" was published. Contains: Tabula, 1 leaf; Text, a2-z and A-L, all in tens, except I, K and L, which are in eights; L (8) is blank, and L (7) contains the Ragistro.

Eusanius de Stella, J. Picard de Hamel, Louis Masson.

Grolierii et amicorvm;" in a blue morocco case, £320. Aquile, 1493

This edition of Tuppo's Æsop, printed at Aquila, in the kingdom of Naples, is so excessively rare that no copy has ever before appeared in the market or in any bookseller's catalogue. There are probably not four copies in existence, and this—the first which has ever been offered for sale—has the additional honour of a binding which bears Grolier's well-known device.

Stāpata nella magnifica citta di Siena p Simione di Niccolo Ad instātia di Iacomo antonio Cataneo Libraro Senese, 1524

EXCEEDINGLY RARE; unknown to Panzer and Hain. The woodcut of St. Catherine on the reverse of the title bears the engraver's monogram, I. C.

There is at the end of this volume a small work of 32 pages entitled, "Descrizione della General Processione fatta in Siena Da' Fratelli di Santa Caterina da Siena, 1623."

37219 VIGERII (Marci) DECHACHORDUM CHRISTIANUM, sm. folio, with beautiful wood engravings within elegant arabesque borders by the master F. V. (Florio Vavassore, brother of the Venetian Zoan Andrea), fine large copy in green morocco extra, gilt edges, RARE, £5. Hieronymus Soncinus in Vrbe Fani impressit, 1507

An early specimen from the first press of Fano, where printing was introduced only five years before. The beautiful arabesque borders, white on black ground, are probably the work of a different artist from the designer of the figure-groups. Besides the ten large engravings occupying full pages, there is a number of smaller ones in the text.

It is customary to treat the illustrations in this volume as woodcuts, but it is equally probable that they were produced by engraving on soft metal.

(1551) Sabionetta.

37220 PENTATEUCHUS HEBRAICUS et Chaldaicus, cum quinque Megilloth et Haphtaroth, thick 18mo. BEAUTIFULLY PRINTED ON VELLUM, WITH ALL THE POINTS, red morocco, doublé with brown morocco, richly tooled in gold, leather joints, gilt gaufré edges, by J. Clarke, with the arms and crest of the Rev. T. Williams on sides, £10. 10*s* In domo Tobiæ Foa, Sabionettæ, A. M. 317 (A.D. 1557)

Not more than five other copies of this beautiful little volume appear to exist, and of those one at least is imperfect. This was sold for £14 in the Rev. T. Williams' sale.

It is a splendid example from the first press of Sabionetta, the seat of one of the most important Hebrew presses of the 16th century. As printing was only introduced there in 1551 by Tobias Foa, this is a very early specimen.

(1557) Cagliari in Sardinia.

(1609-7) Recanati Press.

engraved border to title, portrait and many curious rude engravings in text, vellum, rare, £4. Ricanati. 1607. Antonio Braida.

Almost the earliest, if not the earliest, book printed in Recanati, near Loretto. No earlier was known to the compiler of the Dictionnaire de Géographie appended to Brunet's Manuel. Falkenstein and Cotton give 1606 as the date of the introduction of printing to this town, but they do not name any book printed in that year. The volume contains: Title and leaf of Verses, 2 ll.; †—†††† in fours, except the first and last, which have only two leaves each; A-Z in fours, the last leaf being blank.

37223 LE POMPE DI MINERVA per le nobili, e virtvose Donne. Che con industriosa mano di trattener si dilettano, in far Rezze, Maglia quadra, Punti in aria, Punti tagliati, Punti à Reticello, cosi per Fregio, come per Merletti, e Rosette di varie sorti, etc., small oblong 4to. with exquisite woodcut designs of lace and embroidery, russia gilt, gilt edges, £36.

In Pistoia, per Pier' Antonio Fortunati (1642)

EXCESSIVELY RARE. Consists of: Title (1 leaf), Dedication (1 leaf), 71 plates (signs. A-F in twelves, the last leaf blank).

There is no date on the title, but the Preface bears that of "20. Agosto 1642.", so the book was presumably printed at the same time. Falkenstein and Cotton give 1643 as the date at which printing was introduced into this town, and name a volume from the same press as this as the first here printed. Brunet's continuator in the Dictionnaire de Géographie can only quote one earlier book (of 1627)—on the authority of "la bibliogr. allemande."

(1635) Catania in Sicily.

37224 GUARNERI (Giovan Battista) Le Zolle Historiche Catanée di, sm. 4to. with a folding view of the city, and plate representing two archers, fine copy, russia extra, gilt edges, by C. Smith, RARE, 36*s* In Catania Nel Palazzo dell' Illustriss. Senato. Per Giouanni Rossi, 1651

Printing was introduced into this town in 1635.

Hostiliae apud Augustinum Carattonium, typographum seminarii Veronensis. 1740

Probably one of the first books printed at Ostiglia.

Books without imprints.

37228 SALLUSTIUS. [Bellum Catilinarium et Jugurthinum], sm. folio, with the four blank leaves, fine large and clean copy, with initial letter illuminated in gold and colours, old blue morocco extra, gilt edges, £15. 15*s* sine nota, sed circa 1470

This EXCEEDINGLY RARE edition is attributed by Maittaire to the press of Adam Rot of Rome, but Hain considers this doubtful, and Brunet says:—"Maittaire a cru, mais sans fondement, que ces deux lettres [A. R. on the last leaf] designaient Adam Rot: la vérité est, qu'on ne sait encore de quel imprimeur elles sont le monogramme."

Contains 62 leaves, of which the first, 22nd, 23rd and last are blank.

This copy fetched £17 at the Sunderland Sale.

"Edition de la plus grande rareté."—Brunet.

37229 OUIDII NASONIS (P.) De Ponto libri IV, sm. folio, a small portion of the last leaf supplied in MS., red morocco extra, tooled leather joints, gilt edges, £3. 10*s* sine nota, sed circa 1470

VERY RARE. The volume contains 36 leaves, of 45 lines to a page.

Collation: A-F in sixes, except A eight leaves, and F four leaves. By accident E 3 and 4 have been wrongly bound between F 2 and 3.

s. n.

This edition of the Doctrinale of Alexander Gallus consists of 47 leaves, of 28 lines to a page, without numbers, signatures or catchwords. The type bears a resemblance to that of Vindelinus de Spira. Another edition of this work, printed at about the same time, consisting of 45 leaves, of 30 lines to a paper, without catchwords, signatures or numbers, and without date or printer's name, was sold in the Sunderland Sale for £41. This present edition seems to be undescribed by bibliographers. I find descriptions of editions with 44 leaves, and 45 leaves, but of none with 47. It begins (S)Cribere clericl'is paro doctri-nale nouellis; and ends on the reverse of leaf 47 with the simple word Finit.

The Opusculum de Bombyce of Lud. Lazarellus consists of 6 leaves, of 25 lines to a page, with the signatures a i, a ii and a iii on the first 3 leaves. According to Brunet the book is unknown to all bibliographers, and is of extreme rarity.

37231 LUCANUS. M. Annei Lucani Cordubensis Pharsaliae liber primus (libri X), sm. folio, fine large and clean copy, with initial and arms illuminated in gold and colours on the first page, and the other capitals painted in red and blue, the plain margin of one leaf mended, old red morocco, with gilt ornamental panellings, and centre ornaments, gilt edges, from the Sunderland library, £30. (sine nota, sed circa 1470-2)

A VERY RARE EDITION, apparently the second. Contains 106 leaves without marks of any kind, having 40 lines to a full page. It commences with 4 preliminary leaves, containing the life of Lucan, and extracts from Martial, Tacitus, etc.

37232 LUCANUS. M. Annei Lvcani Cordvbensis Pharsaliae liber primus (libri X), sm. folio, fine large and clean copy, old English red morocco extra, VERY RARE, £14. (sine nota, sed circa 1471)

The volume consists of 106 leaves without marks, of 40 lines to a page. It is printed in the same type as a dateless Horace (of about 1471), and as the Vita del beatissimo Hieronymo and the Plutarchi Apophthegmata in this catalogue. The e with the lengthened short stroke is the most striking letter.

The Pinelli copy, wanting the first four leaves, was sold for £17. 17*s*.

37233 HIERONYMO, Comincia la tavola sopra la VITA el TRANSITO et gli MIRACOLI del beatissimo HIERONYMO doctore excellentissimo, sm. 4to. 126 leaves, the first page of the work adorned with a contemporary ILLUMINATED BORDER, RED MOROCCO extra, leather joints, gilt edges, £5. (sine nota, sed circa 1471)

EXCESSIVELY RARE. I can only trace the existence of two other copies: one in Lord Spencer's library, and an imperfect copy on vellum in the Bibl. Impériale. At Libri's sale in 1857, the eight leaves which contain the saint's life, alone fetched 51 fr. Dibdin's description of Lord Spencer's copy agrees with the above except that he gives four leaves for the table, which is a mistake for four pages.

"Edition très rare. . . . . Les caractères sont les mêmes que ceux d'un Horace sans date, et d'un opuscule de S. Basile, imprimé en 1471."—Brunet (VI 1321.)

The work is professedly compiled from letters of St. Eusebius, the friend of Jerome, of SS. Augustine, Cyril, and others. These letters are followed by long relations of miracles.

The type is the same as that of the Plutarchi Apophthegmata (post), with the curious letter e.

37234 CICERONIS (M. Tullii) Epistularum Familiarium Libri, small folio, large copy, in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by C. Smith, EXTREMELY RARE, £8. 10*s* sine loco, 1471

The volume ends with these four lines followed by the date: Tullius ingenua præfulgens mente solebat | Has Cicero claris mittere patriciis | Marco respondent multa quos arte notarat | Eloquium priscis summo in honore fuit | 1471.

Contains 146 leaves, with 40 lines to a page.

According to Brunet the type is the same as that used by Ant. Zarot in his edition of the same work printed at Milan in 1476; but according to Hain and Dibdin, this was printed at Venice by Adam.

37235 CICERO. M. T. Ciceronis ad Quintum Fratrem In Libros De Oratore Prefatio Incipit Foeliciter, sm. folio, fine copy, old red morocco gilt, from the Sunderland library, £16. (sine nota)

A very rare edition, containing 108 leaves, without marks of any kind, having 32 lines to a full page. Dibdin attributes it to Vindelin de Spira, the type being similar to that used by him in his edition of Cicero's offices, 1470. He also considers that it was not printed later than 1472. The first page and the initials are illuminated in gold and colours.

37236 [PLUTARCHI Apophthegmata per Franciscum Philelphum translata.] Ad magnanimvm et illvstrissimvm principem Philippvm Mariam Anglvm inclytvm Mediolanensivm dvcem Francisci Philelfi praefatio in Plvtarchi Chaeronensis Apophthegmata ad Traianvm Caesarem incipit. [At end of second part:] Plutarchi Apophthegmatū laconicor. liber finit, sm. 4to. singularly fine large copy, russia extra, with the Wodhull arms in gold on sides, £3. 3*s* (sine nota, sed circa 1472)

This EXCESSIVELY RARE volume is printed in the same type as the first edition of Horace. The most remarkable letter is the e, of which the small stroke is prolonged considerably beyond the other part. The volume consists of two parts, the first with 51, and the last with 50 leaves, with 27 lines to a page.

The Mayans copy was bought by Heber for £9, though he sent a commission of £31 for it.

RARE. Consists of 69 leaves, of 23 lines to a page, without signatures, catchwords or numbers. At the beginning is an Epistle from Cardinal Franciscus de Picolhomini to the Archduke Maximilian, dated Ex urbe Kal. Jan. 1469. The volume must have been printed at Rome about 1470 or 1472.

37238 AUGUSTINI (S.) LIBER DE VANITATIBUS SECULI, de Vita Christiana, de Anima et Spiritu, de Ebrietate, ad Virgines de Sobrietate et Ebrietate, de quatuor Virtutibus Caritatis, et de Contricione Cordi(s)—7 pieces, or 3 parts in 1 vol. sm. 4to. fine copy, bds. £3. 10*s*

Finitus est liber seu tractatus beati Augustini . . . de cōtrīcone cordis . cū ceteris tractatulis eiusdem . . . (1472)

£8. 18*s* 6*d*, Sir Mark Sykes.

Laire attributes this excessively rare edition to the press of Günther Zainer; but Panzer thinks it was produced in Italy. It is too rudely printed to have appeared at Rome, but the "Cross-keys" in the paper-mark show that the volume had its origin in the Papal States. It is perhaps one of the first books printed in Bologna. On one of the fly-leaves the original owner's name, "Oth Binnde'," or Bawde', is inscribed, with the date 1473.
Contains 75 leaves, of 24 lines to a page.

A VERY RARE EDITION, printed in a small Roman letter on 178 ll., having 32 lines to a page; without marks of any kind. The recto of the first has a register, and the verso the same epistle as in V. de Spira's edition. It finishes on the verso of the 178th leaf, which has 33 lines, with the last Apophoretum "Ientacula," beneath which is the word "FINIS."

37240 (PLAUTI COMOEDIÆ VIII.) Plauti comici clariss. Ampithryo (Asmaria, Aululария, Captivi, Curculio, Casina, Cistelaria, Epidicus), sm. folio, some ancient MS. notes on the margins, otherwise a fine and large copy in old calf, with the full arms of the second Duke of Marlborough, and the motto, "Fiel pero desdichado," £14. (Sine nota)

This excessively rare edition was printed somewhere in the north of Italy about the year 1473-4. It looks even older, but as it has signatures it cannot be earlier than 1472. So far as I can learn, the vellum copy in the Paris National Library is the only other one recorded. Brunet copies Van Praet's account, and none of the other standard bibliographers have mentioned it.

37241 BOCCACCIO, FIAMMETTA. Incomincia il libro di madonna Fiammetta da lei alle innamorate mandato, sm. folio, printed in Roman letter, very large copy in old crimson morocco gilt, £36.

The year 1474 is assigned by Dibdin conjecturally to the impression of this rare volume. It was probably printed at Venice. It must be one of the first books in which signatures appeared. It was only the presence of the signatures which induced Brunet to rank this as of later date than the edition of 1472.

The signatures are a to k in eights, except a (9 leaves), h (6 leaves, not 8 as Dibdin says), and k (6 leaves). Thus the total number of leaves is 77, 35 being the full number of lines to a page.

(sine nota, sed Mediolani, circa 1471)

A very rare edition, containing 123 leaves printed in Roman letters in long lines, 33, and sometimes 35, of which go to a full page. It has no marks of any kind. The type resembles that used by Philip of Lavagnia. In this copy the Satires are bound after the Epistles, the contrary arrangement occurring most frequently.

37243 HORATII Odæ et Ars Poetica; cum Commentariis Acronis et Porphyrionis, sm. folio, large copy, old blue morocco with broad borders of ornamental gilt tooling, rough edges, from the Sunderland library, £25. (sine nota)

This edition is supposed by Dibdin and others to be the first of Horace with the commentaries of Acro and Porphyrio, and anterior to that of Milan 1474. It is printed in long lines in a semi-Roman type, without marks, a rude Greek character being used for the Greek words and quotations. This copy contains 223 ll. only; Dibdin and Brunet wrongly give 224 as the number.

37244 TERENTII Comoediæ, sm. folio, old red morocco gilt, gilt edges Sunderland copy, £8. (s. l. et nom. imp.) 1474

A rare edition, printed probably with the types of Valdarfer at Milan. This copy, wanting the 2 ll. with the Life of the Poet, contains 102 ll. only; some leaves are soiled; and the last leaf very slightly defective. Heber's copy sold for £15.

37245 ——— (Comœdiæ). Terentius apher Carthaginensis ex libris per alios correctis & ex uariis antiquis Codicibus perspectis per. A. Sabinum poetam lau. emendatior factus, sm. folio, fine large copy, the first initial illuminated, and the capitals painted red, old blue morocco, with ornamental gilt borders, from the Sunderland library, £42. (sine nota)

A very rare edition. It commences as above and finishes with the following inscription:—Terrentii Aphri Carthaginensis Comedia sexta & ultima per Angelū Sabinū Poe. lau. limatior facta finit foeliciter."—followed by a leaf containing the register. It contains 107 ll. printed in Roman letter without marks, having 32 lines to a page. Panzer considers that this edition was printed about 1474.

37246 VIRGILII Opera, sm. folio, fine large and clean copy, wanting two leaves, for which duplicates of others are inserted, old blue morocco gilt, £6. (sine nota) about 1474-5

From the Sunderland Library Sale, in which it fetched £39. This rare edition contains 233 leaves, 38 lines to a page.

37247 JUVENALIS et PERSIUS. Iunii Iuuenalis Aquinatis Satyra Prima (Satyræ)—Auli Flacci Persii satyra prima (Satyræ)—2 parts in 1 vol. sm. folio, old crimson morocco gilt, from the Sunderland library, £10. 10*s* (sine nota) about 1475

A very rare edition, printed in a neat Roman type, with signatures, 33 lines to a full page. The Juvenal has 60 ll., the Persius 11 leaves. On the recto of the last leaf of the Juvenal is the following:—"Explicit Juvenalis Aquinatis feliciter emendatum per M. M. A. S. M." These initials are supposed by Panzer to stand for Marcus Antonius Sabellicus. A large and generally clean copy, but slightly stained.

37248 LUCANVS. M. Annei. Lvcani. Cordvbensis. Pharsaliae: liber: primvs (libri x), sm. folio, old red morocco extra, from the Sunderland library, £12. (s. n.)

A RARE EDITION printed in Roman letters, probably about 1475. The volume consists of 119 leaves and a blank, signatures a-n in eights, o and p in sixes (the last leaf blank), and 4 leaves of the Life (which are here put at the end instead of the beginning). A full page contains 35 or 36 lines. The volume ends with the single word "Finis" with small woodcut ornaments on either side and below it.

37249 LANDINI (Christophori) . . . Dispvtationum Camaldvlensivm. liber primvs. de Vita contemplativa et activa. feliciter incipit . . . four parts in one volume, small folio, old calf, with Sunderland arms on sides, and crowned monogram of double L on back, £4. (sine nota)

This very rare edition is the one which Brunet describes as having 128 leaves (this has 129 and 2 blank leaves), and which had been misdescribed by Panzer, Boutourlin, and Hain, from their acquaintance with merely imperfect copies. The volume has signatures, but they are very irregular. The book was probably printed at Florence about 1475.

The first leaf contains merely the words "Libro primo de vita activa et contemplativa: libro secvndo de svmmo bono libro: II: IIII. allegorie in Virgilivm," on the reverse.

Contains 322 printed leaves, double columns, with 46 and 47 lines to a column.

Collation: Table, sign. a (11 leaves and 1 blank); Text, a-z, and A-H, in tens, except H, twelve leaves, of which the last blank.

37251 VITE DI SANCTI PADRI. Incomenciano le uite di sancti padri per diuersi eloquẽtissimi doctori uulgarizate, sm. folio, beautiful tall clean copy, with numerous painted capitals, vellum, £2. 16*s* [s. l. ed a.]

A very rare and beautifully printed edition of the Lives of the Saints, probably executed at Venice about 1478. Contains 267 leaves, printed in double columns of 46 lines each, without numbers, signatures, or catchwords. After the Lives of the Saints, is given the curious legend known in English as the Vision of Tondall, and in Spanish as "Don Tungano," while in Italian it becomes "La Visione de Tantolo." The scene is still laid in Ireland. It extends to seventeen chapters. After this comes "Il Prato Spirituale," a most curious collection of legends and tales.

37252 AENEÆ (SILVII) . . . Historia De duobus amãtibus Cũ multis epistolis amatoriis, 8vo. very large copy, with rough edges, hf. vellum, £2. 2*s* sine nota

This edition is printed in a very peculiar thin Roman letter, similar to that used at Friuli for the Platyna de Honesta Voluptate, printed by Gerard de Flandria about 1480. It consists of 34 leaves (sign. a-d in eights, except b in 10 leaves), of 25 lines to a page.

37253 SERENUS. Qvinti Sereni Sammonici Liber (de Medicina), Editio Princeps, sm. 4to. old red morocco with ornamental gilt borders and centre pieces, from the Sunderland library, £3. absque ulla nota

This most ancient edition known of this poem must have been printed about 1480-4 (Brunet says at Venice, Audiffredi guesses Rome, and Dibdin Milan). The reverse of the first leaf contains Sulpitius Verulanus' notice to the reader, and a life of Serenus.—Contains 26 leaves, in Roman letter, 25 lines to a page, without marks.

37254 VIRGILIUS. [At end :] Maronis opus cū Seruii honorati enarratiõe, thick sm. folio, old blue morocco extra, bound for Lord Sunderland, £20.

īpressū anno M.cccc.lxxxiii. die. xv. decẽbris. (1483)

An EXTREMELY RARE edition, apparently hitherto undescribed. It contains 314 leaves; signatures a-z, &, ɔ, R, aa-dd and A-C, in tens, except a, aa, cc, dd and A in eights, and B and C in sixes.

37255 SENECA. Lucii Annei Senece Cordubensis ad Lucillium epistole Feliciter Incipiunt, sm. folio, First Edition, old yellow morocco gilt, gilt edges, from the Sunderland library, £8. 8*s* (sine nota)

This edition is generally regarded as the first of these epistles, and attributed to Mentelin's press at Strassburg, circa 1469. It was, however, really printed by the man of whose books the peculiar capital R is the distinguishing feature. Contains 210 ll. in Roman letters without marks, having 35 lines to a page. Somewhat wormed, but a large and generally clean copy.

37256 (DONATI Commentarius in Terentii Comedias), sm. folio, old red morocco gilt, from the Sunderland library, £7.

(sine nota, sed circa 1470-2)

Probably the first edition of this commentary. A FINE LARGE COPY OF THIS VERY RARE EDITION, printed in Roman letter without marks, with the peculiar capital R, formerly regarded as Mentelin's. Contains 250 leaves of 35 lines to a page.

The volume ends with these two lines :—

"Qui cupit obstrusum frugem gustasse Terenti Donatum querat noscere grammaticum."

Naples.

37527 HIERONYMI (Beatissimi) Epistolæ (ex recensione Theodori Lelii), 2 vols. thick folio, the initials illuminated, one of them containing a miniature, and the capitals painted; fine copy in the original stamped sheepskin binding, from the Sunderland library, £14. Ia. Ru. (sine loco et anno; circ. A.D. 1472)

Presentation copy to the Abbey of S. Maria ad Gratias at Neustift in the Tyrol, from Eleanor of Scotland, Archduchess of Austria and Countess of Tyrol. This appears from a MS. inscription in each volume, which must have been written not later than 1479, as the Scottish princess died in 1480.

This rare edition (formerly referred to Jacobus Rubeus at Venice, and Ulrich Hahn at Rome) is now generally assigned to Sixtus Riessinger, at Naples. The type seems certainly to be the same as was used by him; but whence comes the inscription at the end, "Ia Ru"? Neither Brunet nor Graesse attempts to explain it, although they both state that this was the cause of the older assignment to Jacobus Rubeus. There is a mystery about the matter,—for if we judge from the early Tyrolian inscription (probably written about 1475), and from the fact that another copy, which passed through the market many years ago, belonged, about 1480, to a nobleman of Rovigo,—it would seem, in connexion also with the circumstance that the two volumes were reprinted at Parma in 1480—that the "Ia. Ru." edition must have been produced in North-east Italy. Thus it becomes an interesting problem for the history of early typography in Italy. The book is printed in a small type, usually called semi-gothic but really pure Roman, in double columns of 50 lines to a full page. The last page finishes as follows :—"finis secundi voluminis Epistolarum Beatissimi Hieronymi. Veritas Vincit. Ja. Ru." So fine a copy for cleanness, absence of wormholes, and general excellence of condition, it would perhaps be impossible to find again.

Brescia.

sine nota

"Edition de la plus grande rareté."—Brunet.

A most ancient and extraordinarily rare edition of this Poet. The book was described from an imperfect copy by Dibdin, who considers that it was printed at Brescia, not later than 1471, Bib. Spencer. ii, 402-10. Brunet borrows his description, without having seen a copy. It is printed in a rude irregular Roman letter without marks, commencing as above; the inscription at the end : "TERENTII. AFFRI. COMICI. POETE. E CHIRA. FELICITER. EXPLICIT. AMEN," being in small capitals. It contains 132 ll., 26 lines to a page, except the last which has only 20 besides the imprint. There is a small hole in the first leaf, 2 ll. are torn, a portion of the plain margin of the last leaf has been cut off and the leaves are very tender, having been washed with chemicals.

Mantua.

37269 BLONDI Flavii Forliviensis Roma Triumphans, sm. folio, large copy, red morocco extra, leather joints, gilt edges, RARE, £6. 6*s*
sine nota, sed circa 1472

Without date, name of printer or place, but with the same types as those used in the Dante of Mantua, printed in 1472 by Georgius and Paulus Teutonici (the Germans). The volume contains 180 leaves, with 41 lines to a page. The Sunderland copy sold for £15.

Roman letter, with the three blank leaves in the middle, a very fine large and clean copy, with painted initials, beautifully bound in green morocco, gilt edges, by Derome, £50.

In Parisior. Sorbona conditœ Ficheteœ rhetoricæ finis; . . . (Martinus Krantz, Udalricus Gering & Michael Friburger, circa 1471)

37274 ——— the same, small 4to. a wonderfully fine clean copy, even larger than the one above, with painted initials, WITH AN EXTRA CANCEL-LEAF, blue morocco, gilt edges, from the Didot collection, £60. (1471)

Of course neither of these copies has the two leaves at the beginning, containing the author's two Epistles, which are described by De Bure and Brunet as found in a copy in the Bibliothèque Nationale. The second copy, however, has a cancel of leaf 123, not found in any other. The leaf 123 of the first ends with the word "societates," the additional one in the second ends with "res."

ONE OF THE FIRST BOOKS PRINTED IN PARIS. In Panzer's list it is the fourth of the ten books produced at the Sorbonne press, but it might, with equal reason, have taken the second place.

"Un des premiers livres imprimés à Paris . . . Quant à la date de ce volume, il faut consulter un travail remarquable de M. Madden et qui sera peut-être le dernier mot sur la question de l'Origine de l'imprimerie de Paris (à la suite de ses Lettres d'un bibliographe; Ve. série; Paris, 1878, in-8)."—Catalogue-Didot.

In the same type as the Fichet printed by Krantz, Gering and Friburger at the Sorbonne, but differing from the Angelus de Gambiglionibus de Aretio which they printed afterwards at Paris in 1476. It is printed on 140 leaves, without marks of any kind; each page consisting of 32 lines.

AN EXCESSIVELY RARE Paris edition, unknown to Brunet.

Krantz, Gering, and Friburger. (Second Press 1473–78).

37276 GAMBIGLIONIBUS DE ARETIO (Angelus de). Angeli de Aretio legū doctoris tractatus de criminibus. seu de maleficiis, incipit feliciter. sm. folio, lettres gothiques, very fine large and clean copy, old red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Boyet, EXTREMELY RARE, £16. 16*s* . . *Impressusqȝ Parisius per Martinū, Udalricū, et Michaelem Anno a natiuitate dñi. 37277 PLATEA. Tractatus Restitutionū eximij doctoris fratris francisci de platea ordinis fratrum minorū Bononieñ. Incipit feliciter, small folio, the first few leaves very slightly wormed, but otherwise a fine and large copy, with the Wodhull arms painted on the first leaf, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Derome, EXTREMELY RARE, £15. . . Impressus parisius In sole aureo p. Martinū. Udalricum. et Michaelē. Anno. M.CCCC. lxxvi. quarta die mensis Januarij. (1476)

Containing 168 unnumbered leaves, instead of 170 as Panzer, Hain and Graesse give it, but apparently perfect. The leaves are numbered in a contemporary hand-writing and run straight on from 1 to 168. Mr. Wodhull, to whom this copy formerly belonged, has written in it without prevarication "Collat: & complet:". The volume is divided into two parts, of which the first is entirely without marks, but the second has signatures (a-l in tens except e and l).

37278 LEONARDUS DE UTINO. Sermones Quadragesimales de Legibus eximij sacre theologie doctoris Fratris Leonardi de Utino ordinis fratrum predicatorum, large folio, lettres gothiques, 309 leaves (303 numbered and 6 unnumbered), printed in double columns; a few leaves slightly mildewed; blue morocco extra, gilt edges (by Padeloup), £7. 10*s* . . Parisiis . . p honorabiles viros Martinum Udalricū et Michaelē Anno. xvii°. dñi nostri regis Ludouici. xi. die vero vltima mēsis octobris (1477)

The leaves are marked with Arabic numerals; this is probably the first instance of the use of such numeration in books printed in France. It has no signatures. Panzer and others have mistaken the true date of this volume. As the sixteenth year of Louis XI ended in July, 1477; consequently the October of his seventeenth year was the October of 1477.

In 1478 Gering was left alone by his two original partners and began a third phase of his business; associating with himself at first a certain George Maynyal, and afterwards Berthold Rembolt who remained his partner from about 1484 till Gering's death in 1510.

Ulrich Gering (1478-1510).

37279 MONTE ROCHERII (Guido de). Containing signatures a-t in tens, except a, b and t in twelves; the first and last leaves being blank.

37280 EYB (Albertus de). Margarita poetica de arte dictandi ac practicandi epistolas: Opus clarissimum feliciter incipit, sm. folio Roman type, russia extra, gilt edges, RARE, £7. 15*s*

Finit opus eximium Alberti de Eyb. impressumqꝫ parisius p. Magistrum Vlricum Guering. Anno M.cccc.lxxviii. die vero penultima mensis Nouembris. (1478)

One of the first books printed by Gering after his partners, Friburger and Krantz, left Paris.

The present copy has a specially English interest from the circumstance that we find records of early English ownership written on the last page. We may translate two Latin memoranda thus—

It belongs to John Austyn, merchant of the Staple (about 1490-1500).

It belongs to William Blackwell, of Edgeware, its present owner (about 1540) and an English one which seems intermediate in date (about 1520) runs thus "The price of this book is iii s." (that is, three shillings).

impressa Parisius in vico sancti iacobi in intersignio Follis viridis infra sanctum Benedictum et Predicatores . . . 1479 . . . Au souflet vert.

Printed by Pierre de Kaysere and Johann Stoll, who, having learnt the art of printing while apprentices with Krantz, Gering and Friburger, set up for themselves the first independent press of Paris—their former masters being at the time printers for the Sorbonne only.

Unknown Printer (about 1475).

Sine nota (? Paris, about 1475)

EXCESSIVELY RARE, and no less important as being perhaps the first French book printed in France. It is a grand and imposing work of typographical magnificence, presenting something of a resemblance in its arrangement to the Lübeck Rudimentum Novitiorum of 1475. But the type is far more elegant, and more akin to the Schöffer model of Maintz. The capitals are all in fine Roman letters; amongst which the Q may be remarked as having a little knob on the tail, a short distance from its end.

The work is a free French translation, every paragraph opening with a citation of the first word or two of the text. The original owner of the book (about 1480) has added in neat MS. the complete text in segments, in the broad ruled margins.

Géoffroy, Anguilbert, and Jean de Marnef (1481–1536).

One of the grandest liturgical works ever produced by any press. THIS COPY, PRINTED ON VELLUM, IS SUPPOSED TO BE UNIQUE. Weale could only mention two copies, both on paper: that in the Bibliothèque de Sainte Geneviève and an imperfect one in the Bibliothèque Mazarine.

The volume consists of: 8 unnumbered preliminary leaves; 248 (misnumbered cclxviii) leaves; and 3 unnumbered leaves after fo. lxxviii (marked v.j, v.ij, and v.iij) containing the additional Prefationes with Music. Folios 79-84 are either misnumbered or not numbered at all.

37295 [LORRIS (Guillaume de)] Le rommant de la rose imprime a Paris, sm. folio, lettres gothiques, with numerous woodcuts, very fine copy, red morocco extra, with broad dentelle borders on the sides, gilt edges, £50.

Imprime nouuellement a Paris [par Antoine Verard, vers 1490]

First edition printed by Verard of this famous book. It accords exactly with the description given by Brunet. It has, as he describes, 142 leaves, printed in two columns of 43 lines each, without pagination or catchwords, but with signatures, and the last leaf bearing on the recto a large woodcut of "Maistre Jehan de meun" in his library, with the reverse blank. Brunet does not, however, seem to have known of this particular issue, which differs from that which he describes in not having the printer's mark on the title or last leaf of text, and is therefore probably the earlier impression.

37296 SIDRACH AND BOCTHUS. LA FONTAINE DE TOUTES SCIĒCES DU PHILOZOPHE SYDRACH, sm. folio, lettres gothiques, with two very large woodcuts; fine copy in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Capé, £12. 12*s*

Imprime a paris pour Anthoine verard libraire demourāt a paris sur le pōt nostre dame . . [about 1492]

An extraordinary repertory of mediæval knowledge upon all subjects. A thorough study of this book (written in the thirteenth century) would not only enlighten modern readers with regard to the state of learning and education amongst our ancestors, far better than any other work could do; but would even supply many items of useful information to the most accomplished general scholar of the present time.

COLLATION: a six leaves (the second leaf marked a iiii) a-t in eights, except o and t which are in sixes.

nouuellement imprime a paris lan mil. iiii^{c}.iiii.xx.xviii. pour anthoine verart Demourant sur le pont nostre dame .. (1498)

This volume is usually found with the French edition of the Life of Merlin, in two volumes, without any printer's name, but evidently printed by Verard at about this time. Those two volumes, however, sometimes want the "Prophecies," which should be joined to them to complete the set.

37300 LE FEVRE (Raoul). Le recueil des histoires troiennes contenans troys liures. Au premier est contenu la genealogie de saturne et de Jupiter sō filz auecques leurs faicts et gestes. Au second est contenu des faitz et des prouesses du vaillāt hercules cōmēt il destruisit troies deux fois dessoubz le roys laomedō et loccist Au tiers est contenue la reedification de la dicte troye faicte par le roy priant et generalle destruction dicelle faicte par les gregoys auecques plusieurs aultres belles et plaisantes matieres, small folio, lettres gothiques, PRINTED ON VELLUM, with 3 full-page and 80 small Miniatures beautifully illuminated in gold and colours, all the initial letters illuminated; presentation copy to Charles VIII of France, with his arms emblazoned in 5 places; bound in red morocco extra, silk linings, gilt edges, by Lefebvre, £105.

Imprime a paris par Anthoine verard libraire demourāt sur le pont nostre dame a limage saint iehā leuāgeliste ou au palais au premier pilier ou on chante la messe du messeigneurs les presidens [circa 1498]

Before the sale of this copy only three others on vellum were known, of which two are in the National Library at Paris, and one in that of the Duc d'Aumale. This copy appears to want 17 leaves, as it only contains 158 printed leaves besides the 3 miniatures on separate leaves (which of course do not appear in the paper copies), and Brunet gives the number as 175. The first full-page miniature represents Verard presenting this volume to Charles VIII—though the author's dedication is to the "duc philippe de bourgoigne."

37301 LE ROMANT DE LA ROSE. CODICILLE & TESTAMENT DE MAISTRE IEHĀ DE MEUN . . sm. 4to. lettres gothiques, double columns, woodcuts; very fine copy in old French morocco, gilt edges, by De Rome le jeune, from the Didot collection, £60.

Nouuellement Imprime a Paris [par Jean Du Pré pour Antoine Vérard], s. a. (circ. 1498)

The title of the second part is as follows: "Le Codicille & testament de maistre Iehā de meun Auecques lepitaphe du feu roy Charles septiesme qui trespassa a Meun." Brunet in citing it, gives, instead of the last two words, "audit Meun." which is perhaps an error on his part, and not an indication of a different issue.

37302 VALERE LE GRANT (translate de latin en francoys), le premier volume, folio, lettres gothiques, PRINTED UPON VELLUM, with four large and beautifully painted MINIATURES and BORDERS, the first border containing a coat of arms, all the initials illuminated, old French red morocco, gilt edges, £50.

Icy fine le quart liure de valere le grant (Anthoine Verard, Paris) [1500]

A most beautiful example of Verard's printing on vellum. The miniatures are of exceptional excellence.

37303 (GYRON LE COURTOYS Auecques la deuise des armes de tous les cheualiers de la table ronde), small folio, FIRST EDITION, gothic letter, with woodcuts, the last leaf in exact facsimile, and the front margins of four leaves cut close, but without injuring the text, otherwise a fine copy, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Wright, £50. Imprime a paris pour Anthoine verard marchant libraire demourāt a Paris pres petit pont Deuant la rue neufue nostre Dame a lenseigne Saint iehan leuangeliste . Ou au palais au premier pillier Deuant la chappelle ou len chante la Messe De mes-seigneurs le presidens . [About 1500]

Didot's copy, with the title and another leaf in facsimile, fetched 1300 fr. plus auctioneer's commission. The Yemeniz copy, a fine one, sold for about £240. A dirty and wormed copy fetched 1500 fr. at Paris in 1876.

This copy does not bear a title printed on the obverse of the first leaf (the reverse of which contains a large woodcut), although it is certain that some, probably the later, copies were so issued. The last leaf in exact facsimile.

Mr. Utterson, to whom the copy formerly belonged, has prefixed a leaf from which the above title is taken, containing a facsimile in manuscript of the titular words as he found them in some other copy. That variations exist between copies is shown by the circumstance that Brunet remarks that folio c is marked CIIII, whereas in this copy it is printed correctly. Moreover, he mentions that nothing but a woodcut is found upon the last preliminary leaf, whilst in this copy there is, as well as that woodcut, a Prologue, occupying both pages.

This volume consists of signature ā and a-o and A-S, all in eights, except n, o and S, which are in sixes. Thus the total number of leaves is really 258 (misnumbered CCC.xxxix), and not 257 as Brunet states.

37304 [BOUCHET] (Jehan)] LES REGNARS TRAUERSANT LES PERILLEUSES VOYES DES FOLLES FIANCES DE CE MONDE composees par Sebastien brand . . (1497)—2 vols. in 1, lettres gothiques, sm. folio, in the sixteenth-century limp vellum binding, gilt edges, £30. Paris, 1497

The first work in this volume was the composition of Jean Bouchet; the name of Brant is quite fictitious. Pierre Riviere was the translator of the Nef.

37305 LUCAN SUETOINE & SALUSTE en Frācoys, folio, gothic letter, the title-page occupied by a fine woodcut initial L, the two pages following having each a large woodcut, very fine tall and clean copy with many rough leaves, the original stamped calf sides preserved, £15. 15*s*

Imprime a Paris . . (1500) Pour Anthoine Verard, marchant libraire Demourant audit Paris pres petit pont a lymage saint Jehan leuangeliste, etc. (1500)

This rare volume is not, as might be supposed from the title, a translation of the three authors, but is a history composed after their works. It is a magnificent specimen of the press of Verard.

VERY RARE. Didot had no copy of Verard's Tristan, but only the Paris reprint of 1533.

The most celebrated, and generally regarded as the most beautiful of all the Round Table Romances.

"Cette édition n'est guère moins rare que la précédente (la première), et elle est fort bien imprimée."—Brunet.

COLOPHON: Cy fine ce present liure des loups rauissans fait et compose par maistre Robert gobin . . . Imprime pour anthoine verard, s. a. (? 1503-4)

FIRST EDITION. The Loups Ravissants and the Agnelets are of course metaphorical; but this book is nevertheless of somewhat similar form to the Dialogus Creaturarum, and it contains some Æsopian fables told in verse, which are remote precursors of La Fontaine. The Dance of Death, with its quaint rhymes and quainter designs, is another interesting feature of the book. The opening poem, Je suis la Mort, is a powerfully written and remarkable composition.

37308 [JACQUES DE CESSOLE] Le Jeu des eschez moralise Nouuellement imprime a paris. Colophon: Cy finist le liure des eschez et lordre de cheualerie translate de latin en Francoys . . sm. folio, lettres gothiques, ff. 5 and 102, signatures a, 4 leaves, b-s in sixes; woodcuts, red morocco, by Trautz-Bauzonnet, from the Didot collection, £150.

. . Lan. M. v. c. &. iiii. Pour anthoine verart, 1504

First edition known of this translation, copies of which are extremely rare. It is dedicated to Anne de Bretagne, who is represented playing chess, in a large woodcut.

The Chess-treatise ends on folio 58. On the reverse of that leaf, we find Cy finist etc., and beneath it a woodcut; under which are the words "Sensuyt vng liure qui consone fort a la matiere precedente dudict Jeu des eschez. Atous Nobles: princes: cheualliers et gens de touz estatz." On folio 82 recto "Cy fine le liure de lordre de cheualerie," and a little below (by way of intitulation to a third piece "Cest vng petit trectie a lenseignement et au prouffit de tous princes et barons qui le vouldrōt entendre et garder le quel fut fōde et extraict dune fiction trouuee en escript. Et se commence comme il sensuyt."

37309 [SEYSSEL (Claude)] LA VICTOIRE DU ROY CONTRE LES VENICIENS, sm. 4to. lettres gothiques; printed on vellum; the title, the woodcuts, and the initials illuminated, illuminated borders added; fine copy in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Padeloup, £75.

. . a este acheue dimprimer . . mil cinq cēs & dix . Pour anthoine verard . . (1510)

One of the half dozen copies which Claude Seyssel caused to be printed and illuminated for great personages of Louis XII's court. His own arms are emblazoned beneath the royal escutcheon on the title; and, on the verso of the title, they appear similarly, but smaller, on the desk at which the woodcut represents him as writing. The lower blank margin of this page is mended with paper (done at the time of binding about 150 years ago), apparently to destroy an inscription which might have revealed the first ownership.

Anthoine Verard junior (1518–19).

. . Paris pour Anthoyne verard . . Mil.cccc. et . xix (1519)

VERY RARE. Fetched £21 at the Sunderland sale. The Sejour d'Honneur is the chief work of Octavien de St. Gelais, a poet of high rank but a very poor Bishop, who died in 1502 at the age of 36, worn out from the results of debauchery.—This Anthoyne Vérard was either the nephew or the grandson of the famous printer (deceased in 1513). He lived in the same house and used the same mark.

La mer des hystoires, 2 vols. thick large folio, gothic letter, xylographic titles, with very many magnificent woodcuts and woodcut grotesque borders and initials, the first volume in perfect condition, and the second equally fine except in the last leaves, which are a little wormed and stained and mended in the bottom of the lower margin, but for which these magnificent volumes are in grand condition, olive morocco, blind tooled, gilt edges, £20.

Ce present volume fust acheue ou mois de Feurier pour Vincent cōmin marchant demourant a lenseigne de la rose en la rue noeufue de Nostre dame de paris . et īprime par Maistre Pierre le Rouge libraire & Imprimeur du Roy Nostresire. Lan Mil. CCCC. iiij^xx et viij. (1488)

EXCESSIVELY RARE. One of the grandest productions of the early French press.

The first volume contains 12 preliminary unnumbered leaves, and ii clvii (257) numbered leaves; the second, ii clxxi (for 273) leaves, 8 unnumbered leaves of Table, and 28 other unnumbered leaves containing the Martirologe des sainctz.

Philippe Pigouchet (1487-1512).

LIVRES D'HEURES—see in following paragraph under Simon Vostre.

Simon Vostre (1488-1520).

37313 Heures de Rome. (On title, beneath Pigouchet's mark:) CES PRESĒTES HEURES a lusage de Rōme furēt acheuees le siziesme iour doctobre. Lan Mil. CCCC. iiii. xx. et xv. Pour Simō vostre . . . large 8vo. lettres gothiques, 74 leaves (sign. a-h in eights, i in ten;) every page decorated with a beautiful BORDER enclosing a great number of woodcuts illustrating the Sibyls, the Passion, etc.; with 18 engravings of large size, including that on the title, the anatomic Man, and the Grail; all uncoloured; fine large copy in the original stamped binding, £60. (Paris, 1495)

VERY RARE. There is less of the criblé background work in the borders than in the 1498 and later books. The flower and insect patterns in the Calendar borders give a special air of elegance to this volume. Some of the larger engravings that appear here were not used in the 1498 publications. No. 23 of Brunet's list.

37314 Horæ Sarum. (On title, beneath Pigouchet's mark:) HORE presentes ad vsum Sarum impresse fuerūt Parisius per Philippū pigouchet Anno salutis. M. CCCC. xcviii. die vero . xvi. Maii . pro Symone vostre . . . sm. 8vo. lettres gothiques, printed on vellum, 128 leaves (sign. a-q), every page decorated with beautiful borders enclosing fine small engravings and including a Dance of Death; with 13 full-page engravings, not including that on the title; the minor capitals illuminated but all the engravings and borders in pure uncoloured state; old blue morocco gilt, Firmin Didot's copy, £150. (Paris, 1498)

Some prayers in the body of the book are in English; and the contents of the book are elaborately recited also in English on the last four pages.—The office of St. Thomas of Canterbury is scratched out, by an old English owner, who also has erased the word papa wherever it occurred in the Calendar.

This is the only perfect copy on vellum known to be extant. No. 40 of Brunet's list.

37315 HORE PRESENTES AD VSUM SARUM . . another copy of the same, printed on vellum, wanting 30 leaves; old English red morocco gilt, lettered " Missal," £18. 18*s* 1498

37316 Heures de Rome. (On title, under Pigouchet's mark:) CES PRESENTES HEURES a lusaige de Rōme furēt acheuez Lan Mil. CCCC.iiii.xx. & xvii. le xxii. iour de Aoust pour Symō vostre . . . 8vo. lettres gothiques, printed on vellum, 72 leaves (sign. a-i), decorated throughout with fine engravings, 18 large and hundreds of smaller ones; with richly varied borders to every page, in which the Dance of Death is included; all uncoloured; fine copy in morocco extra, gilt edges, by C. Smith, £75. (Paris, 1498)

37317 ——— another copy, printed on vellum, extraordinarily fine, and also having the engravings uncoloured; magnificently bound by Marius-Michel in a Grolieresque style, with a mosaic of variegated moroccos on the sides, lined inside with crimson morocco; enclosed in a morocco case, £125. 1498

A superb specimen of modern artistic work in binding-decoration. The pattern is derived or imitated from a sixteenth century example.—This is one of the most splendid and sumptuous of the illustrated Livres d'Heures produced by Vostre. No. 42 of Brunet's list.

37318 [LE ROY (Francois)] LE DIALOGUE DE CONSOLATION ENTRE LAME ET RAISON. fait & compose par vng religieux de la reformatiō de lordre de Fonteurault . . . sm. 8vo. (12mo.) lettres gothiques, 160 leaves (sign. a-v in eights;), in the original stamped binding, £7. 10*s* (Simon Vostre, 1499)

With Vostre's LARGE MARK at end, his small mark on the title, and a woodcut of the entombment on the back of the title.

One of the most remarkable issues of Simon Vostre. No. 69 of Brunet's list. Height, 194 millimètres.

37320 Horæ Romanæ. (On title, beneath the mark of Simon Vostre:) HORE BEATE MARIE VIRGINIS secundū vsū romanum . . . roy. 8vo. lettres gothiques, printed on vellum, 88 leaves, signatures [illegible] and [illegible]; 2 in four leaves, and 2 in sixes, the rest in eights), 22 large miniatures and small ones, illuminated the borders black acorn knobbed and small ones, very rare has occurred, all the large designs splendidly illuminated in Miniatures; beautiful copy in green morocco extra, gilt edges. (Verard & Vostre, 2100. Paris, 1508)

[illegible] several distinct editions in the year, of varying sizes [illegible] largest [illegible] This is of the smallest size, [illegible] and the above copy measures [illegible] inches in height, being [illegible] the standard given [illegible] It is No. [illegible] Brunet's list.

37321 Heures de Paris [illegible] lettres gothiques, printed on vellum [illegible]

F, G, in fours, and H in six leaves); 25 large engravings (not including the title, the anatomic figure, and the Grail), with about 250 smaller woodcuts in the borders and a vast quantity of purely ornamental work; wholly uncoloured; magnificent copy in old velvet binding, gilt edges, £200. (Paris, 1508)

The largest and rarest issue of the year 1508; being also the finest and most sumptuous example of the Grandes Heures produced by Vostre. It is over 250 millimètres in height, and 171 in breadth. Brunet does not seem to have seen this particular issue, although it is No. 80 of his list, in which he cites Peignot's elaborate account of it in his Recherches sur les Danses des Morts. Among the peculiarities noted there, is the occurrence, in the series of Death-Dance figures, of French rhymes at foot of the subjects, which are not discovered in the other Horæ; also the comparatively large size of many of the minor woodcuts, such as those of the Sibyls. In fact the size and scope of this edition gave Vostre an opportunity of exhibiting the entire wealth of his illustrative art; and the borders are consequently richer and more elaborate than in any other. Of the large engravings, the majority are identical with those of the two previously described issues of 1508; but the number was enlarged, and there are some which appeared here for the first time.

37323 ANIANUS. Fol. 1 a: PROLOGUS IN LIBRUM ANIANI QUI COMPOTUS NUNCUPATUR incipit feliciter, sm. 4to. lettres gothiques, 41 leaves (signatures a-f in eights, except f which has nine leaves, the lower margin of b8 cut off; crimson morocco extra, gilt edges, £3.

S. n. (Paris, about 1508)

The printer was perhaps Nicholas Higman, but as the type is the same as in the preceding Horæ of 1507, the work is here set down under Vostre.

Paris, Vostre (1512)

The date is conjectured from the circumstance that the Almanac is for the years 1512-30.—Several prayers and rubrics, as well as the detailed contents at the end, are in English. This edition was unknown to Brunet. It corresponds in signatures, and in number of leaves and lines, with his No. 88; but the English prayers and calendar in the above volume, and the fact that the Dance of Death begins on the last leaf of sign. I, prove that they are quite distinct books.

37325 Horæ Sarum. (On title, beneath Vostre's mark:) HORE BEATE VIRGINIS MARIE: secundū vsum Sarum: cū illius miraculis: vnacū figuris apocalipsis: . . . impresse fuerūt Parisiis opa ac arte Nicolai Hygmā. Impensis honesti viri Symonis vostre . . royal 8vo. lettres gothiques, printed on vellum, within engraved borders which contain several series of illustrations and ornaments, including the Dance of Death, and several large engravings, full-page size, executed in the finest and most delicate style of Vostre's art-work, old red morocco extra, gilt edges, £70.

Paris, Vostre (1520)

A magnificent and excessively rare edition; one of the most beautiful examples of Vostre's Grandes Heures. A copy, wanting a couple of leaves, fetched at Paris, in 1852, 1800 frs. The book ought to consist of 120 pp., signatures a-p. The copy in the Bodleian library wants a leaf in the Calendar. In the copy above described the last cahier, P (eight leaves, containing the Rosarium beate Marie), was wanting, but has been supplied by a facsimile of the text on vellum, bound in a thin red morocco volume, as a match to the old binding—No. 111 of Brunet's list.

Paris par la veufue feu Jehan Trepperel et Jehan Jehannot, s. d. (circ. 1520)

This rare volume is entirely in verse, of varying metres; and narrates the history of the conquest of France by Henry V and the gradual reconquest by the French, from 1422 to 1463. Martial's account of the bergerelle de laage de dix huyt ans quon nommoit Jehanne la pucelle, and his relation of Talbot's hurrying from the hearing of mass to the scene of battle at Chatillon where he perished, are amongst the most interesting parts of the book.

. . Paris pour Iehan treperel . . Mil.v.c.et.xxvii (1527)

Brunet mentions two editions of this book printed in the sixteenth century, and his continuator one printed by Arnoullet at a later date than the above. The intermediate edition of 1527 does not appear to be recorded. Many of the stories related in it are most curious.

Gilles Couteau (1492-1519).

37341 GRINGORE. Les menus propos, small 4to. gothic letter, with many very fine woodcuts, without signature a (viii), and signatures e (i) and sheet r (3 leaves) in facsimile, but a fine, sound and clean copy, fastened into an old French red morocco binding, very richly tooled on back and sides, with the arms of M. de Bernage on sides, vellum fly-leaves, gilt edges, £6. 10*s*

The name of the printer and date are partially erased.

The beauty of the paintings, the value of the book as a nearly unique vellum-impression, and the bit of literary history embodied in its title, invest this volume with a singularly interesting character.

Guillaume Eustace (1493–1521) with others.

37343 MARTIAL DE PARIS, DIT D'AUVERGNE. First Edition of the Virgil of Badius.

Collation: 6 unnumbered preliminary leaves, and clxxxiiii leaves; 6 unnumbered, cccxciii (pagination jumps from 372 to 375) and 1 unnumbered; lxxii leaves. All three parts have Petit's device on the titles, and the last two have Kerver's on the last pages. The Preface to the Bucolica is dated 1500, and that to the Culex, 1501; the colophon of the latter is also dated: "ad Idus Martias post Iubileū."

Imprime a Paris pour Claude Jaumar . . . s. d. (about 1498-1500)

A treatise in verse on the Calendar; containing a memori technica for the divisions of the ecclesiastical year, illustrated by diagrams in which the hand with its joints and fingers and knuckles plays the chief part. The author's name was Anianus, and he is supposed to have lived in the fifteenth century. Between each sentence of the verses, an elaborate prose commentary is interlarded.

EXCESSIVELY RARE; there was no copy in the grand Didot collection. I bought the Double copy for 5000 fr. in 1863, and one was sold at the Chedeau auction in Paris a few years later for 4010 fr. No other copy than the present and those two has appeared in the market for over half a century.

Imprimé a Paris pour Jehan Petit Libraire iure de luniuersite de Paris demourant a la rue sainct Jaques alenseigne de la fleur de lis [1516]

A very singular work, notwithstanding its piety. One chapter is on "le sacré ventre de la Vierge," followed by a "Méditation aux cuisses." It is not therefore surprising, while he dwells on the sacré ventre, and "ces dignes et precieuses cuisses," that the author says "De ceste fontaine de vie située au jardin de delices spirituelles . . . procède un fleûve de grace qui arrose toutes les belles vertueuses herbes diceluy jardin." Another meditation is on the Virgin's dignes flancs.

The Privilege is dated from Lyons, 1525, and the Almanach is for 1524-38.

Collation: 8 unnumbered preliminary and xc leaves.

First edition of this extraordinary book. It is so rare that only two other copies on paper are known, one of which is in the library of the Baron James Rothschild, and the other in the library of a private collector in England, while on vellum no perfect copy of it is known to exist. The reason of the extreme rarity of the edition is more easily accounted for than is often the case with books which have well-nigh disappeared. It is on record that in 1520 a company of Italian comedians visited Paris, and were greatly patronised by the court, to the prejudice and injury of the French actors. This was so strongly resented by Gringoire that among the very curious engravings with which the volume is illustrated, he inserted one which, at first sight, appears to represent Christ reviled and crowned with thorns; but the author had recourse to the extraordinary expedient of revenging himself on his competitors by putting his own portrait in the place of Christ, with his hands bound, while he is surrounded by the Italian comedians who revile and mock him, and one of them reaches forward a crown of thorns to place on his head. The audacious profanity of this performance soon aroused the censures of the Sorbonne, and a decree of Parliament, dated Aug. 28, 1527, commanded that the work should be suppressed and not reprinted. The artist's mark (S within G, surmounted with a Lorraine cross) appears in the right bottom corner of this engraving. Bernard's work on Geoffroy Tory is no doubt correct in reading the mark as G(ododridus) T(orinus) S(calpsit).

One of the only two other known copies was formerly in the Didot collection, at the sale of which it was sold for £78.

37357 LANCELOT DU LAC. The annals were continued by Prosper Tyro, and in the fifteenth century carried down by Matteo and Mattia Palmieri to 1481; the later additions to 1512 may have been by Stephanus himself . . Under the date 1457 we find the following interesting recognition of Guttenberg—

"Quantum literarum studioso Germanis debeant nullo satis dicendi genere exprimi posset. Namque a Joanne Guntenberg Zumlungen equiti Maguntiae Rheni solerti ingenio librorum imprimendorum ratio 1440 inventa: hoc tempore in omnes fere orbis partes propagatur." These words were written by Mat. Palmieri before 1481.

37394 ——— the same, sm. 4to. fine copy in old calf, Sunderland arms on sides, £8. (1505)

A curious hotch-potch narrative, written in rude ungrammatical Latin, and of very doubtful authenticity. The author professes to have set out on his pilgrimage in 1489, not 1389 as stated elsewhere in this catalogue.

37395 ROMAN DE LA ROSE (LE). . . Imprime a Paris, pour honestes personnes Jehan sainct denys. et Jehan longis . . Lan mil cinq cens trente (1530)

Very rare; no other edition having been printed. Didot's copy fetched 2800 francs.

The four additional leaves, "Elucidation du St. Graal," were not inserted in this copy.

On the title Galliot Du Pré's name is associated with those of the other two publishers; and on the border the initials B A seem to indicate that Bernard Aubri had also a share in the edition.

Galliot Du Pré (1512–32) with others; and his successors.

FIRST EDITION, EXCESSIVELY RARE. The last of the woodcuts represents the seven saints of Brittany. The large woodcut of St. Yves, occupying a full page (the reverse blank), is given in facsimile from one of the only two copies which are known to have it. This woodcut is unmentioned by the bibliographers.

37399 GAGUIN (Maistre Robert) LES GRANDES CRONIQUES: excellens faitz et vertueux gestes: des tresillustres treschrestiens magnanimes et victorieux Roys de France . . . . en lan Christifere mil cinq cens et quatorze songneusement reduictes et translatees . . . en nostre vulgaire francoys . . . ensemble aussi plusieurs additiõs . . . folio, LETTRES GOTHIQUES, Printed on Vellum, with the woodcuts elaborately coloured and illuminated in the style of original miniatures, a beautiful copy, ruled throughout with red ink, in a sixteenth-century binding (repaired), calf, stamped with bold gilt ornaments on the sides and back, gilt edges, £420. Paris, Galliot du pre, 1514

A lovely book, worthy to be enshrined in a king's library. The binding was done in Paris about 1570. It is in the Lyonnese style, of mixed geometrical and arabesque pattern, with fond d'azur. On the first page of the book, the arms of the original owner are painted, with his device, and two lions for supporters. However, the distinctive emblems are effaced, and we can only see that the shield was gueules. The first word of the motto is also defective, and we can only read the remaining two, which are dargent silla.

FIRST EDITION of the French translation of the Paesi. Brunet and Harrisse have invented a strange theory concerning the chronological succession of the editions. The facts are plain. This was the original edition, produced by the legitimate publisher, and bearing the privilege, dated 1516, which gave him the monopoly. While his privilege ran, no printed edition could be issued with a date. Hence the others which exist, five or six in number, bear no honestly recorded year of impression and have no privilege. Another significant token is the fact that in the chapters of Vespucci's third voyage, there are three diagrams of constellations in the Southern hemisphere, bold woodcuts, in Galliot Dupré's edition, which were omitted through carelessness by the reprinters, notwithstanding the catchwords in the text.

37401 YSAIE LE TRISTE. Filz Tristan de leonois, iadis cheualier de la table ronde, et de la royne Izeut de Cornouaille. Ensemble les nobles prouesses de chevallerie faictes par Marc lexille filz dudit Isaye. (1522)

THE RAREST AND FINEST edition of this celebrated Romance. The Solar copy fetched 2000 francs. The Didot collection could only boast of a small 4to. reprint by Bonfons, undated (about 1570), which fetched 1650 francs at the Didot sale.

The title of the above volume bears the words "nouvellement imprimé," but there is no record of any earlier edition than this, which is equally remarkable for its rarity, and its condition as a beautiful specimen of typography. The Privilege is dated 1522.

First edition of an excessively rare Romance of Chivalry in Prose, in spite of the "nouuellement imprimé" in the colophon. The date appears at the end of the Privilege on the back of the title. This Privilege is granted to "Galiot du pre libraire iure de luniuersite de Paris," whose name is also at the foot of the title beneath that of Jacques Nyverd. Only one other copy is at present known, and that fetched about £80 at the Didot sale. M. Double's copy of an edition by the same printer in 1530 sold for 1650 francs.

(Paris, Galliot du Pré, 1526)

Three of the woodcuts in this rare book are the size of the page, two of them bearing the mark which has been attributed to Geoffroy Tory, and other artists of his time—namely, a G enclosing an S of smaller size, and supporting the Lorraine cross.

This book affords a remarkably early instance of the use of the word Lutherien in French. The history refers to that portion of the Bauernkrieg, which extended to Lorraine and Bar. The Privilege is dated January 12th, 1526.

37405 CHARTIER (Alain). Les Faictz et dictz de feu De bonne memoire Maistre Alain chartier, en son viuant Secretaire Du feu roy Charles septiesme Du nom. The embellishments and Miniatures, as well as the language of the translation, make this a veritable livre de chevalerie. The first Miniature represents the translator on his knees, presenting his work to the King of France, who sits enthroned in the midst of a splendid court. The second shows King Herod walking with his courtiers in the grounds of his palace, while ambassadors on horseback approach the gates in the background. The third depicts battles around Jerusalem between Jews and Romans. The fourth represents a battle between kings and nobles in the open field. The fifth shows various groups of noble Jews consulting together on the hills outside Jerusalem. The sixth is a tournament between two splendidly armed knights, in the background the walls and towers of the town, and groups of soldiers; a knight hanging in his armour from a turret on the left.

Extremely rare; unknown to Brunet and his continuator. The work is a sort of Vade-mecum for Confessors, and contains sundry very extraordinary instructions and examples of deadly sins.

The Lorraine cross on the border of the title-page indicates clearly the hand of Géoffroy Tory, who, as is well known, often worked for his friend Simon de Colines.

37421 ——— the same, small 4to. a fine copy but for a small wormhole in the margins of some leaves, beautifully bound in old blue morocco extra, gilt edges, by Derome, the Hamilton Palace copy, £120.

This book, which may be called the first French Collection of Voyages, has been very badly described by Mr. Harrisse. The anonymous editor dedicates the Extraict, which is a French abridgment of Peter Martyr's first three Decades made before the publication of the entire eight in 1530, to Charles, Duc d'Angouleme. The Narrations are dedicated, not to Margaret of Austria, but to Margaret of France. The first is an abridgment of the fourth Decade printed at Basil in 1521. The second and third are drawn from the second and third Cortes letters, printed in Latin at Nürnberg in 1524. Consequently the "Extraict" must be held to take precedence of Grynæus, as the Novus Orbis did not begin to embody Cortes' letters till 1555. The compiler was probably one of the distinguished scholars who surrounded the two promising children of Francis I, mentioned as receiving the dedications. The Duc d'Angouleme was then only ten years of age, the Princess Marguerite (afterwards Duchess de Berri, and wife of Emanuel Philibert of Savoy) only nine, but they were already regarded as future patrons of literature, and their education was carefully cultivated.—This rare work fetched at the Beckford-Hamilton sale £126.

A most beautiful specimen of binding, by an artist of the Eve family, done about the end of the sixteenth century.

On the sides there is an interlaced geometrical centrepiece, rounded with wreaths of foliage; and a full border of similar leaf-pattern with shield-cartouches at the corners and in the middle. The ornamentation on the back is in harmony, but the leaf-forms are a little larger. On the whole, this noble example is a work of masterly skill and taste. Its freshness is remarkable.

37441 ——— the same, sm. 4to. a still taller and much finer copy in olive morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford (218 millimètres × 150), £70. 1527

This beautiful copy is taller than the preceding but not quite so wide.

This is the book which aroused the extasies of Dr. Dibdin who declared the illustrative ornamentation to be the most beautiful he had ever seen. It is indeed a lovely example of the taste and skill of Geoffroy Tory. The description in Bernard's monograph is at fault; he perhaps had a smaller reissue before him, since he specifies the volume as an octavo with signatures a-z (therefore probably having 184 leaves, and a height of about 170 mill.).

37443 ——— another copy, still finer in condition, crimson morocco extra, gilt edges, by Lortic, from the Didot library (240 mill.), £24. 1529

Not only the artistic beauty of the designs, but also the character of the text make this book remarkable. He treats of the proper form of French speech, and satirizes pedantic and slang expressions, of which some specimens are given; as well as of provincial and Parisian methods of pronunciation. It has thus a considerable value for the study of the French speech in Francis I's time. There is also a Rondeau by Madame d'Entragues.—In both these copies, as in most others, the title leaf is slightly shorter than the rest of the book.

An excessively rare prose Romance of Chivalry. Mr. Corser's copy fetched £286, and Prince d'Essling's, which sold for 1550 francs, was resold in the Yemeniz sale for 5000 francs.

The volume contains 4 preliminary leaves (including the title) and 80 numbered leaves of text, the last misnumbered 89. Brunet says there should be 90 leaves, but he is mistaken. The numeration skips from 49 to 60, and without noticing this, one would naturally think there should be 90 leaves in all.

Evidently the same edition as the one described by Brunet, as published by Jehan Petit in the same year. The name of Galliot du Pré appears on the titles of the first three volumes beneath that of Poncet—and the mark of Jehan Petit also is on the reverse of the last leaf of vol. 3. The woodcut border of the title of vol. 4 differs from those of the other volumes, and contains the name of Jehan Petit in six different places.

The collation of this copy differs slightly from the one given by Brunet, Tom. I, pp. vi and 213, and leaf with printer's mark—Tom. II, pp. iv and 213 and leaf with printer's mark—Tom. III, pp. iv. and 172—Tom. IV, pp. ii and 80.

Paris par Estienne Groulleau, pour luy, Ian Longis, & Vincent Sertenas, 1549

Only one of the woodcuts bears Geoffroy Tory's mark; but his work is visible in most of them, and the initials are undeniably his. According to M. Didot the large engravings were the work of Jean Cousin, and the initials of Denis Janot.

M.D.xl. On les vend en la grant salle du palais par Arnoul et Charles les angeliers freres, tenans leurs bouticques aux premier et deuxiesme pilliers, deuant la chapelle de messieurs les Presidens. (1540)

This book is not only very rare, but also excessively curious, and belongs to a class of early literature now much sought after. It contains the Acts of the Apostles dramatized as a mystery, with a number of singular characters and grotesque stories added to heighten the effect. When it was played at Bourges, as the title states, it must have been divided into parts, as each representation would have occupied several days. The printer's device is a punning one : two angels tied, with the motto les anges liés.

Ensemble les cruaultes de Domicien Cesar* [composé par Maistre Loys Chocquet]. The binding was probably done about 1770, and is perhaps part of a third collection made by Girardot de Préfonds. It is a very beautiful specimen of Derome's work, and the leather is particularly bright and rich in colour.

S. n. [Parisiis, J. Bogard. 1548]

This unfinished work was never published. Jean du Tillet was the editor. Baluze had this vellum copy and three others on paper, all of them imperfect at the end, and being probably the entire survival of the uncompleted edition. The paper copy which went into the Bibliothèque Nationale bears the name of the printer and the date. According to Brunet it ends with p. 448 which looks like a mistake from his having confounded the 224 as a foliary instead of a paginary number. Brunet makes no mention of the Burgundionum Leges which may be unique here.

S. n. (Paris, 1549)

APPARENTLY UNIQUE AND UNKNOWN. It is not recorded by any of the bibliographers (barring an uncertain reference found in Fabricius) although it is decidedly the most ambitious literary work executed by Doc or Docæus Bishop of Laon, as he became a few years afterwards. The preface in this volume is by Claude Baudet one of the professors of the Abbey school of St. Denis, and he describes the author as next in rank among them to the Abbat. This preface is dated "ex ædibus Dionysianis anno salutis sexquimillesimo quadragesimo nono," i.e. 1549: and it is possible that the book may have been printed within the walls of the monastery. This unique copy has probably survived because of its being printed on vellum, and bound for some distinguished person. It is possible that all the ordinary copies, having been delivered to the boys and the young monks for daily study, were all destroyed.

There is no special mark on the binding that indicates possession by the famous Diane; but in cadres within the illuminated border of the title-page, the three crescents and the interlacing H and DD are wrought in silver upon a blue ground; and the style of the ornament is that usually adopted by her binder. This is the dedication copy to Henri II.

[End:] Cy finist ce presēt liure q. est dit la bible du viel testamēt. [Without date or place, but at Lyons, by Buyer, about 1473-4]

This abridgment of the Bible, by JULIAN MACHO and PIERRE FERGET, is THE FIRST FRENCH TRANSLATION.

The volume is printed in double columns of 31 lines, and consists of:—5 leaves of Table, followed by a blank leaf; then signatures a-z (p and q being double), three more, and aa-cc, all being in eights, except cc (10 leaves). It thus contains, besides the 5 leaves of Table, 242 unnumbered leaves, which in this copy have been correctly so numbered by a contemporary hand.

The type is the same as that used by BUYER, Lyons' first printer, in the Rodericus Sancius de Arevalo of 1477. It is probable that this translation of the Bible would be his first production.

This edition has apparently never hitherto been described by bibliographers. Brunet mentions one (in the La Vallière sale) totally different, in a type which he declares to be Buyer's also.

(Lyon, environ* 1479-80)

Unique as a perfect copy; there is however a second copy known, now in the Lyons library, which wants the last leaf. Beyond the two copies specified, there is no other extant to our present knowledge. The type is not the same as in the edition assigned to Guillaume Leroy and described by Brunet as "une des plus anciennes que, jusqu'ici, nous connaissions de ce livre"; but the woodcuts in each of the two editions are identical and from the same blocks, only a little more worn and showing a few breaks here and there in the later edition. We therefore place the impression under Leroy's name, although he may not have been the printer. The above volume exhibits them certainly in the first stage of their use.—The Gothic type is totally different in style and character from that in the following edition. One of the points to be remarked is the frequent use of the upright Gothic d instead of ꝺ.—Brunet gives a long paragraph to this edition, but he knew nothing of it except from a private letter addressed from Lyons to Van Praet, describing the imperfect copy in the Lyons library.

S. n. (Lyon Guillaume Leroy, environ 1484)

The Didot copy fetched 5500 francs.

Brunet speaks of this edition as being, in his opinion, the earliest known impression of the work. Such however it cannot be from its having the identical woodcuts of the preceding edition in a secondary state. The most remarkable feature in the Gothic type of this volume is that there is no abbreviation for et, which is always printed in full. There is no upright d amongst the characters.

The first edition of this rare anonymous Chronicle. Brunet, who gives a long account of this volume, says it is also well known under the title of "Chroniques Scandaleuses." The plates in this very rare volume are the first examples of copper-plate engraving ever produced in France. The panorama of Venice alone is a picture 64 inches in length. The view of Parens is only double-page dimension; but those of Rhodes, Candia, and Modon are also of considerable size. According to the Didot catalogue, there ought to be two other plates (Corfu and the Holy Land), but the book is hardly to be found in a complete condition, most copies having been long ago mutilated for the cabinets of print-collectors. Even the Didot copy wanted the grand view of Venice, which is the best of all the engravings.

Finit opus Dictys Cretensis . . Impssum Lugduni per Ioannem Marion. Sumptibus & expensis Romani Morin bibliopole eiusdem ciuitatis . . 1520

This mythical history, professedly translated from a Greek text disguised in Punic letters, was perhaps the work of the pseudo-translator himself, Septimius, in the fourth century. It formed the basis of the popular legend of Troy, in combination with the so-called Dares Phrygius.

[At end:] Cy finist le liure de Cuysine nouuellemẽt Imprime a Lyon par Olivier Arnoullet . . 1542

This excessively rare cookery-book has been falsely attributed to Taillevent the author of the Viandier or Liure de Taillevent grant cuysinier du Roy. Brunet could only quote the sale of two copies. Containing eight unnumbered preliminary leaves, and lxxij numbered leaves, signed a and B-K in eights.

. . Nouuellement imprimees . . Mil. cccc. xxxij. a Lyon sur le rosne par Olivier Arnoullet demourãt aupres de nostre dame de confort. (1532)

The small woodcut on the last leaf (B 6), mentioned by Brunet, is not in this copy. This collection of stories was first compiled between the years 1450 and 1460; as some think, by Antoine de la Salle (the author of Petit Jean de Saintré). The usual idea is that the work was simply a reduction to writing of the tales and anecdotes with which the Dauphin (Louis XI) and his friends beguiled their stay at the Court of Burgundy between 1456 and 1461.

37509 PTOLEMY. Claudii Ptolemæi Alexandrini Geographicæ Enarrationis libri octo. Ex Bilibaldi Pirckeymeri tralatione, sed ad Græca & prisca exemplaria à Michaële Villanouano (Serveto) iam primum recogniti, etc., folio, with 50 very large woodcut maps, tall copy, brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Petit, £12. 12*s* Lugduni ex officina Melchioris et Gasparis Trechsel fratrum, 1535

37510 ——— the same, folio, with the 50 maps coloured, in fine old blue morocco binding, gilt tooled sides, gilt edges, £16. 16*s* 1535

RARE, all the copies that could be obtained having been ordered to be burned by Calvin. It is the most famous edition in the entire series of Ptolemies, in consequence of the paragraph that caused the martyrdom of Servetus. This paragraph is alluded to by Ebert, Brunet, Harrisse, and others, but all of them make the same mistake with regard to its position in the book. It appears on the map of Palestine in the second series, and the fault lay in accusing the "Biblici libri" of "injuria aut jactantia pura;" but, of course, Servetus was not the author of the passage, having merely reprinted it from the editions of 1522 and 1525. Indeed the labours of Servetus were not very heavy; he did but reprint those editions, with a few additions, a few omissions, and a total substitution of text only in the descriptions of France, Spain, Germany, and Italy. Here, Servetus expresses freely his own opinions and prejudices, which differ extremely from those of his predecessor. With regard to Germany, he quotes "producit Hungaria boves, Bavaria sues, Franconia cepas rapas et glycerhisiam, Suevia meretrices, Boemia hereticos, Bavaria iterum fures, Helvetia carnifices bubesque Westfalia fallaces, tota denique Germania ac totus septemtrio gulones et potatores." To the identical account of Columbus which appeared in the editions of 1522 and 1525, Servetus has appended a few remarkable words concerning the absurdity of putting the claims of Americus in precedence to those of the real discoverer. This is the only early protest we meet with against the name of America being given to the New World.

Finit Tholose Anno Cristi. M.CCCC.Lxxxi. M. Johanne Parix feliciter Imprimente. (1481)

A proof of the rarity of this volume is the circumstance that Graesse names the printer Paris, and girds at Brunet for calling him Patrix. As they are both wrong, it is pretty certain neither of the bibliographers had seen the book. Jean Parix, whatever his original German name may have been, was the first typographer of Toulouse known to us by name. There were three books—one dated 1476 and the others dateless, nameless, and all by an unknown printer, printed before the first on which Parix's name appears.

Imprimez et a vendre a limprimerie a la celle, et deuãt les Cordeliers par Jacques Bouchet Imprimeur. (At end : 1530)

First and rarest edition of a peculiar book, which contains an allegory in mingled prose and verse. The noble Dame is the soul, and several personified abstractions surround and hold converse with her. A few of the headings will indicate the character of the work. "Comment la noble dame entre en la terre de jeunesse"—"Epistre envoiee par le Prince de Volupte"—"Description du palais de Volupté, comment Lame . . . . y allerent, et du recueil qui leur fut fait"—"Comment ils furent prostituez et mis au bourdeau de peche."

M. cinq cens. xxxii. sm. folio, lettres gothiques woodcut initials engraved white upon black; the marginal references slightly cut into; old calf, £8. 10*s* s. l. 1532

Described by Panzer as printed at Caen, an ascription which Brunet endeavours to explain without acquiescence in it. The last paragraph is devoted to a narration in detail of some grand engineering works carried out at Caen in 1531, and the language appears to indicate that the editor was writing in that city.

Rouen, en lostel de gaillard le bourgois Lan degrace mil. cccc.iiii.xx. & huyt le. xxiiii. iour de nouẽbre. Par iehan le bourgois . . (1488)

This begins with the Table on signatures aa i, aa ii, and (aa iii). The last of these contains on the reverse the beginning of the Prologue, which should end on (aa iv), unfortunately missing from this copy. The text is contained in signatures a–z and A–L, which are each of eight leaves, except perhaps L. This copy wants sheet m, signatures n iiii and v, and has only the second and last two leaves of sheet L. A few letters are missing from signs. i.i and ii.

The second volume was never printed at Rouen.

According to Brunet and his continuator, it would appear that seven copies of this volume were still extant; but that number ought perhaps to be reduced to two or three, as the names of seven owners do not certainly indicate an equal number of copies. In Baron Seilliere's sale (Sotheby's, March, 1887) his copy, described as probably unique, fetched a hundred guineas.

The first books that can be positively asserted to have been printed in Rouen were two editions of the "Chroniques de Normandie" issued the year before this volume.

Pierre Regnault (1499–1518).

37541 CHRONIQUES DE NORMANDIE. Brunet could only quote four copies of this extremely rare volume.

Richard Macé.

Two other undated volumes containing the Life of Merlin had been printed at Rouen by the same printers, but Brunet never saw more than the second volume.

Only two copies of the three volumes have occurred for sale: one at Sotheby's in 1853, which fetched £8, the other Utterson's, which fetched £21 in 1857.

This is the modified fifteenth century redaction of the early work Robert de Borron.

FIRST EDITION of this most celebrated work, the first book on perspective printed in France, and the first book printed at Toul. Apparently no other copy has occurred for sale by auction than this and the solitary one mentioned by Brunet.

"Viator, ce prédécesseur d'Albert Dürer et de Jean Cousin dans la géométrie appliquée au dessin, a donné des planches de perspective remarquables par leur justesse et leur naïveté. On a cru reconnaître dans plusieurs d'entre elles des monuments de Paris: Notre-dame, la Sainte-Chapelle, etc. Probablement l'imprimeur du livre est aussi le graveur des planches."—(Didot, Cat. rais., n° 762.)

VERY RARE. THIS IS THE FIRST FRENCH BIBLE PUBLISHED BY THE PROTESTANTS. It was the work of P. Robert Olivetan, who had the valuable assistance of Calvin. Copies in good condition are exceedingly rare.

The translator's name is found in an acrostic on the back of the seventh preliminary leaf, which reveals the words "Petrus Robertus Olivetanus;" and another peculiar feature of the book is the metrical colophon at the end, out of which by picking the first letter of every word, we obtain this couplet:—

A Niort. Par Thomas Portau. 1599

Thomas Portau was the prototypographer of Niort.

FIRST and EXCESSIVELY RARE EDITION, unknown to the bibliographers. In fact, the work itself was only known through its second edition, which is described carefully both by Brunet and by Ternaux, but naturally without any indication of the real authorship. In the first edition, there is a dedication to Philippe de Mornay, signed by the Huguenot Minister, Louis de le Blachiere, in which he reveals the author's name as above. In the second edition the dedication is suppressed, and a false authorship suggested by initials on the title.

37557 ———— another copy, sm. folio, old calf gilt, £5.

The watermark is a wheel with teeth or spikes issuing from its periphery; which is an almost sure test that the volume was printed at Lyons.

37558 ACTORES OCTO libros subscri | ptos continentes videlicet | Cathonis | Faceti | Theodoli | De contemptu mundi | Floreti | Alani de parabolis | Fabularum esopi | Thobiadis | sm. 4to. Gothic letter, 112 leaves, 33 and 34 lines per page, signatures a-o in eights; calf, from the Sunderland library, £3. Sine nota (1489)

The back of the title bears the preface of the editor Johannes Vincentius Metulinus, a scholar who belonged to the South of France. It is therefore probable that the first edition was printed at Lyons before the dated one of 1488; and that this is a reprint from the north of France. There is a MS. inscription on one of the pages, "Istud volumen est conventûs Celestinorum de Metis;" i.e. that the book belonged to the Celestines at Metz (about 1490).

37559 ERUDITORIUM PENITENTIALE. This seems to be from the first press of Abbeville, notwithstanding Brunet's assertion that it was printed in the Pays-Bas.

37560 AUGUSTINUS, ISIDORUS, GERSON. Incipit liber beati augustini de conflictu viciorum et machina virtutum, 14 leaves, signatures a and b, 33 lines to a full page, the last page containing merely the title De conflictu viciorũ et machina virtutum, S. n.—Incipit ysidorus de ortu et obitu prophetarũ et aplõrũ . . 20 leaves, sign. a, b, c, 35 lines per page, in a different type from that of the Augustinus; the last page containing merely the title ysidorus S. n.—[GERSON] Fol. 2: christianitati suue . . The first leaf, although not so marked, is a 2, so that a has only seven leaves; b-e have eight leaves each; f has four leaves. The number of lines to a full page is 38.

37562 MIRABILIS LIBER qui prophetias Reuelationesq; necnon res mirandas preteritas presentes & futuras: aperte demonstrat.. 108 leaves (marked in error xc) sign. a-o—Propheties. Paris, about* 1525)

An inscription on the fly-leaf, written about 1530, runs thus: "I Pepalh Vinisot evath that beko," evidently the autograph of a foreigner resident in England. The last three words mean own this book.

37563 NOUVEAU TESTAMENT. La premiere partie du nouueau testament: cōtenant ce qui sensuyt..—La seconde partie de nouueau testament: contenāt ce qui sensuyt..—2 vols. in 1, square 16mo. lettres gothiques, a woodcut border to each title, woodcut initials; calf neat, £4. 4*s* S. n. about 1525

The first volume consists of 216 numbered leaves (sign. a-O) and the second of 158 numbered and 18 unnumbered leaves (sign. aa-yy). There are 28 lines to a full page. The translation is that of Lefebvre.

37564 BOURBON (Frere Iacques, bastard de) La grande et merueilleuse, & trescruelle oppugnatiō de la noble Citie de Rhodes, prinse nagueres par Sultan Selyman, a present grand Turcq.. Reueue, & tresdiligēment corrigee, & augmentee en plusieurs lieux.. sm. folio, Roman letter, 36 leaves, a woodcut border to the title; calf neat, £6. 6*s* . mil. Cinq cens. xxvij.. (1527)

This rare volume, a highly interesting narrative of the last Siege of Rhodes, by one of the knights who fought there, is said to have been printed at Paris. On the last page but one there is a reference to an oration delivered in presence of the Pope by Frere Thomas Guichard, with the words "La dicte oraison est Imprimee en ceste ville de Paris"; from which we might conclude that the book itself was also printed in "ceste ville."

37565 EBOUFF. Rervm in Gallia gestarvm, abvsque promvlgato pacis edicto, mense Maio 1576. ad hunc diem insignis, eáque succincta narratio.. Authore Georgio Ebouff, 12mo. tall copy, calf, 10*s* Canthvrii, Ex officina Amedœi Menalcæ . 1577

A very rare tract, containing 74 pages, including the title. The imprint is, of course, spurious. Cotton was not able to identify "Canthurium," and places the real date a hundred years later. The following piece is bound up in the volume:—Apologia Gallicarvm Ecclesiarvm.. aduersus ea quæ nuper Villequerius, Regis legatus, Germaniæ.. Principibus exposuit. 1579.

Veldener*, 1483

Very few copies now survive; and this is undoubtedly the best of them. About 1481 Veldener came into possession of the original blocks of the celebrated Speculum Humanæ Salvationis; but they were in folio size with two prints on each block, b them sawn asunder so as to constitute 128 distinct engravings, which he used as illustrations of a typographical text in the above volume. The interest and importance of this Culenborch edition are substantially heightened by the fact that the last twelve woodcuts are not found in the four folio editions (which only contain 58=116) although it is evident that they are not addition by Veldener, but integral portions of the artist's work. Even Veldener was unaware himself of their existence when he prepared this edition, and some copies appear to have been issued before the acquisition of the final twelve blocks enabled him to complete his book.

In this volume, dismissing all controversial considerations, we have undoubtedly the oldest known productions of Xylography in Holland; originating either from Utrecht, or from Haarlem, before the year 1470.

(Moguntiæ, Petru Schöffer, 1492)

The author of this Chronicle of Saxony was Cord Bothe or Conrad Botho; and the language in which it is written is the old Low German of Brunswick. The woodcuts, including great numbers of supposed portraits and heraldic bearings, as well as designs of battles, towns, and castles, give a grand and imposing aspect to the volume. It begins with the Creation of the world, but ancient history is so summarily dismissed, that upon the eleventh leaf we come to the words, "So weren twee fursten der Sassen in westersassen to Engeren. De eyn het Henghest, de ander Horst" relating how these two Saxon chiefs from Engeren were called into Britain, settled there, and "se worden geheten de Engersschen lude"—that is, the English people. The Chronicle ends with the year 1489.

The type can scarcely be called identical with that employed in the Augustinus de arte predicandi, produced by Mentelin; but it is singularly like it, and the volume may almost certainly be considered to have emanated from his press.

EXCESSIVELY RARE. The Perceval or Partzifal, which is entirely the genuine work of the Minnesinger Wolfram composed about A.D. 1205, is far rarer than the Titurel which was not so popular and of which only portion is by Wolfram. The two works are, however, complementary of each other, and constitute the German Grail Romance, corresponding in scope to the Perceval and the Histoire du Graal of the Anglo-French romancists. The German text is, however, far more ancient than that of the French romances, as they were sophisticated, altered, and abridged many times before their appearance in print.

The impression of these volumes has been attributed variously to Mentelin, to Eggesteyn, and to Günther Zainer. Whoever the printer was, to him belongs the credit of having been the first man who gave a great monument of old German literature to the press, and he thus deserves to rank with the typographer of the first Dante in Italy, and with Caxton as the printer of the Morte d'Arthur in England. No other country can claim a similar honour for its earliest printers.

The Romance of Hugh Capet, the founder of the modern French monarchy. The Ander Vorred states that the matter of the narrative was extracted in Welsch from the Chronicle of St. Denis by Johann Count of Nassau and Saarbrücken, who sent it to his mother Elizabeth of Lorraine. She translated it into German; but the text was poor and defective, for which reason Conrad Heyndörffer declares that he improved and corrected it.

The colophon informs us that the book was translated from the French by Marquart von Steyn, Ritter vnd Landuogt zu Montpellicart.

The book is an extremely curious one as representing the conversation between a wise father and his two daughters whom he instructs in the practice of all womanly virtues, indicating the danger of the contrary sins by a number of stories, some of these being a little more than risqué.

Iohan Koelhoff Burger in Coellen . . Anno vursz . . (1499)

Such a copy as the present of this celebrated Chronicle will probably never be seen again. Its importance as a document relating to the History of Printing cannot be overestimated. On leaf 311 verso, under the year 1450, begins the famous chapter "Van der boychdrucker Kunst. Wann. Wae. ind, durch wen is vondē . . ." which has been so frequently quoted, and in which Koelhof relates the events which he had frequently heard his master Ulrich Zell relate. Zell came from Mentz to Cologne in 1462-3; his first dated book appeared in 1466; Koelhof started as an independent printer in 1472. It was probably therefore between 1466 and 1472, that Koelhof learned the practice and history of the art in Zell's house. There are eighty-one long lines in his narrative, but the most remarkable words in it are these, And in the year of our Lord 1450, it was then a golden year, then was it begun to print, and the first book that was printed was the Bible in Latin, and it was printed with a coarse type, such as is the type wherewith Missal books are printed now. . . Item, although the art was invented at Mentz as aforesaid, in the manner in which now it is usually practised; yet the first prefigurement thereof was found in Holland in the Donatuses which were printed there before the time . . .—But the first discoverer of printing was a citizen of Mentz, and he was born at Strassburg and he was named Jonker Johann Gudenburch. The word Junker implies gentle birth. This statement, with regard to the Art of Printing and its inventor, ought to be conclusive; as far as the use of Blockbooks is concerned, it shows that they were considered to have been Dutch and not German in their origin.

S. n. (Ulm, Ludwig Hohenwang, about 1472)

UNIQUE German prose romance, no other copy than this having yet been discovered. At the end there is bound up with this a leaf evidently issued as a broadsheet by Anton Sorg, and formerly pasted as an end leaf on the cover of the Guiscardo. It is in rhyme, in double columns, and begins thus, Der spruch sagt von dem pild der hailigen driualtigkait Zu Augspurg gedruckt . . . and ends with the words "Also spricht bruder iörg preining," which indicate the author.

UNIQUE AND (BUT FOR THIS COPY) UNKNOWN. Johannes Hildesheimensis, a Carmelite, wrote a similar legend in Latin in the fourteenth century, editions of which, and of translations into French, Dutch, and English, are still extant. But of the German version (if version it be, and not an independent work) no one suspected the existence till this unique copy turned up within the last twenty years.

Impressum Augusta vindelicorum ingenio & industria Erhardi Oglin (s. a. 1507)

EXCESSIVELY RARE. From a verse addressed to the printer at the end of the volume, we learn that this Erhardus Oglin was the first to print music in Germany by means of movable types, and that this was his first work.

The Music comprises settings of twenty-two of Horace's odes, arranged in parts for four voices. It was the earliest appearance in Germany, of music with the notes and the staff both printed. Conrad Celtis dedicated it in some verses to Jordanus, the leader of a vocal choir at Augsburg. It is said that Tritonius' proper name was Olivenbaum or Oelbaum.

. . Augspurg, durch Heyrichen Steyner . . xxix. tag Aprilis, M.D.XXXI (1531)

This is the second issue of a remarkable book, first issued two months earlier, and frequently afterwards reprinted. It therefore contains the woodcuts in their best state. The translator inserted illustrative German rhymes, couplets and quatrains, between the paragraph-sections of his version,—from which the work derives an additional interest as a contribution to original German literature.

One of the woodcuts bears Hans Burgmair's mark, and all the rest are attributed to him, except the Schwartzenberg portrait, which is of finer workmanship, and, according to Nagler, may have been from the hand of Jacob Bink. The monogram it bears seems to be a combination of I and B formed by the I lying horizontally across the waist of the B.

The use of Boccaccio's name in the title of the first work seems to be fraudulent. The book itself is no more than a free version of Annæus Florus.

The first book printed at Nurnberg; excessively rare. That the celebrated Perckheimer, who collected so fine a library in Nürnberg towards the close of the fifteenth century, had no copy of this edition, is a striking evidence of its rarity even then.

Johann Sensenschmidt was the printer by whom this volume was produced.

Daventrie in officina litteratoria Alberti pafraet . . MD.xiiij (1514)

This volume appears to be undescribed by bibliographers; it consists of 28 leaves with signatures, and contains a Latin Grammar for boys, with the Dutch phrases appended in several places to the corresponding Latin words.—The woodcut at the end is apparently from a blockbook, and represents Christ seated in clouds with four angels round him; his heart pierced by arrows and about to be pierced by another which "Caritas" is shooting from a bow. She is standing, with face averted from the weapon, on the battlements of a tower; near her "Oratio" looking upwards, clasps a vessel from which feathers arise and wing the arrow-shafts.

Antverpiæ apud Michaelem Hillenium M.D.xxiiii (1524)

FIRST EDITION of this work, dedicated to Catharine of Aragon, wife of Henry VIII. Only two copies of the work are known printed upon vellum, that in the Bodleian Library and the present copy described by Brunet, with the first four leaves on paper, but also having a facsimile of the same four leaves supplied on vellum so as to match the body of the book.

This curious volume is the first book known to have been printed at Schiedam. Campbell records an imperfect volume (Lere etc.) which according to his opinion was printed about 1490 and in a type resembling somewhat the type of the Lydwin. It would be ludicrous to reason from such a statement that any known book exists printed at Schiedam of earlier date than Brugman's work above described.

37609 BARTHOLOMEO DA LI SONNETTI [ZAMBERTO] (ISOLARIO), 4to. gothic letter, with 49 woodcut maps, very fine and large copy in the original binding of oak boards covered with stamped leather, with clasps, enclosed in a neat hf. morocco case, from the Seillière library, £31. 10*s* [sine nota, sed Venetiis, circa 1480]

"One of the rarest volumes of early Italian poetry," and at the same time, the earliest special Atlas of the Mediterranean. The first five pages are occupied by a metrical introduction. On the sixth the first sonnet begins, which is devoted to the Island of Cerigo, opposite to it is given a woodcut map, then follow the sonnets on Crete, Rhodes, etc., in due succession. The maps are simple outlines, without any names of places, and are coloured by hand. The subject of the last sonnet is Cyprus, the concluding leaf being the map of that island.

The present copy accords exactly with the description given by Brunet. It consists of fifty-six leaves, without either pagination or signatures. The author gives his name on the fifth page thus—

"Per aprobar questa opereta fata
per me batolomeo da li soneti
intendo de monstrar con veri effeti
quanto che londa egiea abia cerchatta . . ."

A copy sold in the Beckford Sale, Part I, for £29.

The first three lines are a dedication which contains an elaborate reduction of the sovereign's name to numerals. They run thus—

Al Diuo Cinque cento cinque e diece
Tre cinque a do Mil nulla tre e do un cento Nulla . .

Cinque cento=D, cinque V, diece X; tre=Z or ȝ, cinque=V, a=A, do=n or N, mil=M, nulla O, tre Z or ȝ, e E, do n or N, un=I, cento=C, nulla=O. The union of those symbols makes the name DVX ZVAN MOZENICO, i.e. the Doge who ruled from 1477 to 1485.

This rare volume is printed with the same type as that used by Aldus Manutius for the "Bembo" of 1495, it also bears the date M.IIIID in two letters included in the work. Bound up with it is a rare tract "Pomponii vita," Venetiis per Bernardinum Venetũ, 1489. This was Bp. Butler's copy.

This last piece is the Letter of Rabbi Samuel to Rabbi Isaac.

(1470) Paris.

37630 MERLIN. LE PREMIE (sic) VOLVME DE MERLIN—LE SECOND VOLVME DE MERLIN—LES PROPHECIES DE MERLIN—3 vols. in 2, sm. folio, lettres gothiques, premiere édition, numerous woodcuts; the last four leaves of Vol. II wanting, and the title of Vol. III cut out and mounted; the first two volumes bound in one old red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Boyet; the third volume in old French calf gilt with arms on sides, and the bookplate of Bourgevin de Vialart de Moligny; from the Seillière library, £30

letter, with several large woodcuts, a wonderfully large, sound and fine copy (350 × 241 millimètres), old calf, £60.

Imprime a paris pour Anthoine verard marchant libraire demourāt a Paris pres petit pont deuant la rue neufue nostre dame a lenseigne Saint iehan leuangeliste . . . (about 1504)

This was the first issue by Vérard, as appears from the absence of a title, and the absence of a leaf of prologue. Here the preliminary leaves are seven in number (the first, a blank, having been torn away); of which, six leaves (a ii—[a vii]) contain the table, and the seventh has a large woodcut on the obverse, the reverse blank.—(In the second issue, these preliminary leaves were reprinted in smaller characters. The large woodcut was placed on the reverse of folio 1, and the words of intitulation printed on the obverse; the table occupied leaves 2—7; and on the eighth leaf a prologue was added.)

37632 ——— another copy of the same issue, sm. folio (303 × 206 mill.), with the words of intitulation added in imitative handwriting on a separate leaf at the beginning, and the leaf of prologue added from a copy of the second issue; the last leaf of the book in facsimile, £45. (About 1504)

Brunet, his continuator, and the compiler of the Didot catalogue, all refer this edition to "vers 1501;" but Brunet himself shows elsewhere that Verard did not describe his house as "devant la rue neuve Notre Dame" till after September, 1503.

37633 Heures de Rome. On title beneath Verard's mark: HORE BEATE MARIE VIRGINIS SCDꝫ VSUM ROMANŪ SINE REQUIRE, sm. 4to. or 8vo. letters gothiques, 16 large engravings, not including the title and the anatomic man, every page enclosed within a woodcut border containing smaller designs, which include Dance of Death, etc., a little water-stained in upper margin, vellum, very rare, £20.

Ces presentes heures a lusage de Romme furent acheuees le. xiii. jour Doctobre. Lan Mil cinq cens et huyt. Pour Anthoine Verard libraire demourant a Paris (1508)

Verard's Horæ are much rarer than those of Vostre.

37634 SPECULUM. LE MIROIR DE LA REDEMPTION HUMAINE IMPRIME A PARIS, sm. folio, letters gothiques, double columns, 232 rude and curious woodcuts; fine copy in crimson morocco extra, gilt edges, by Lortic, from the Seillière library, £32.

Imprime a paris par Nicolas desprez . . Pour iehan petit . . (environ 1505)

This is the translation made by Julien Macho from the celebrated blockbook Speculum and was first printed at Lyons in 1478. According to Brunet the above Paris edition appeared about 1499-1500; but the assignment to "about 1505" seems more justifiable. The woodcuts are very curious; being far more numerous than those of the original work, and certainly not less primitive.

37635 [BOUGOUYNC (Symon)] LESPINETTE DU IEUNE PRINCE. Conquerant le royaulme de bonne renommee . . sm. folio, letters gothiques, 96 leaves, sign. A-Q in sixes, with numerous woodcuts, large copy in old calf, £16.

missing in the index of bishoprics; but with the very rare folding woodcut map "LA CARTE DITALIE," brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by David, with the Seillière arms on sides, £4. 4*s*

Parisius . . M.v.c.xviij. sumptib' Toussani denys . . (1518)

The map, which is a route-chart, extending from Mount St. Bernard to Sicily, and from Bosnia to Provence, is extremely curious and interesting. It measures 19¾ × 11½ inches. It seems to have been unknown to Brunet, as he never mentions it, although he gives more than a column to his description of the book. The Supplement describes it properly. One can understand that it must have been torn out of most copies for the use of travellers.

37637 SEYSSEL. LA GRANT MONARCHIE DE FRANCE cõposee par missire Claude de Seyssel lors euesque de Marseille et a present Archeuesque de Thurin . . sm. 4to. lettres gothiques, fine copy in blue morocco super extra, gilt edges, by Thibaron-Joly, from the Seillière library, £7. 10*s*

. . Paris pour Regnault chauldiere . . Mil cinq cens dixneuf . . (1519)

First edition; with a woodcut of the royal arms on the title, and a full-page woodcut of the king presiding in the council of his peers precedes the first chapter of text.

37638 BREYDENBACH. LE GRANT VOYAGE DE HIERUSALEM diuise en deux parties . . , sm. folio, lettres gothiques, numerous woodcuts, but without the two separate maps, old French marbled calf, £12. 12*s*

Paris pour Frãcois regnault . . mil cinq cens. xxii (1522)

The first part consists of Nicole Le Huen's paraphrase of Breydenbach; the second is an independent history of the Crusades and of the Saracens from A.D. 730 to 1517. The autograph of the celebrated French poet Philippes Desportes (1546-1606) appears on the title.

37639 SAINT-GRAAL. CEST LHYSTOIRE DU SAINCT GREAAL. Qui est le premier livre de la Table ronde. Lequel traicte de plusieurs matieres recreatiues. Ensemble la queste dudict sainct Greaal . . 2 vols. in 1, small folio (252 millimètres), gothic letter, the title in red and black within a woodcut border, numerous woodcuts; a beautifully preserved copy of an extremely rare book, red morocco super extra, DOUBLÉ with blue morocco, richly gilt dentelle border, gilt edges, by Chambolle-Duru with the Seillière arms on sides, £60.

Paris. par Phelippe le noir . . Mil cinq cens vingt et troys (1523)

The Yemeniz copy sold for 2000 francs; I sold another in 1872 for £120; and a third fetched 7600 francs at the Didot sale.

37641 CRETIN (Guillaume) CHÃTZ ROYAULX | oraisons, et aultres petitz traictez, faictz et | composez par feu de bonne me | moire maistre Guillaume | Cretin . . AUEC PRIUILEGE . . 12mo. 37642 CRETIN (Guillaume) Chantz royaulx, oraisons, et aultres petitz | traictez, faictz & composez par feu de bon | ne memoire . . . another copy, with a variation in the arrangement but not in the wording of the title; very large and fine copy (160½ millim.), superbly bound in red morocco extra, doublé with blue morocco richly gilt, by Thibaron Joly, from the Seillière collection, £21. 1527

The best edition of these works. The dedication is made by Francois Charbonnier to the celebrated Margaret of Navarre.

37643 PERCEVAL LE GALLOYS. Tresplaisante et Recreatiue Hystoire du Trespreulx et vaillant Cheuallier Perceual le galloys Jadis cheuallier de la Table ronde. Leql. acheua les aduētures de saict Graal . . sm. folio, lettres gothiques, double columns, having the lower border of the title in facsimile, and without the four leaves of "Elucidation;" fine copy in red morocco extra, lined inside with red morocco, dentelle borders, by Simier, from the Yemeniz library, £30.

This copy fetched at Mr. Benzon's sale 5800 francs (plus the usual commission). Another perfect copy fetched at the Double sale 4450 fr.

S. n. (Paris, 1532)

With the autograph of Jean Borromee on the verso of the last leaf. The Ordonnances occupy 8 leaves, sign. A and B; the Aultres Ordonnances, 4 leaves more, sign. C, including its separate title.

Paris, Robert Estienne, M.DXLIIII (1544)

This discourse was written because the three French commissioners (of whom Jean du Bellay was chief) were not allowed to appear at the Diet of Speyer and deliver it viva voce.

37647 GALIEN. LHystoire du preux & vaillant Cheualier Galien Rethore filz au Conte Oliuier de Vienne Per de France . . sm. 4to. lettres gothiques, with several woodcuts, title printed in red and black; red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bauzonnet, from the Seillière library, £10.

[Imprime par maistre Adam Steinschaber . . en Geneve, 1474]

The missing portions of this excessively rare book have been supplied in manuscript. According to Brunet a complete copy should contain 194 leaves, but no complete copy is now in existence, except the one in the Wolfenbüttel library.

(1483) Chambéry.

37650 [DUPIN Jean) Le livre de bonne vie qui est appelle Mandevie], sm. folio, gothic letter, 2 woodcuts, brown morocco extra, DOUBLÉ with red morocco, blind tooled, gilt edges, by Chambolle-Duru, from the Seillière library, £72.

. . Chambéry en sauoye Par . . anthoyne neyret . . mil et quatre cens Quatre vings et. v. . . (1485)

This excessively rare work (one of the first printed at Chambery) consists of 8 books, the first 7 being in prose and the 8th in verse. The first four leaves contain a woodcut frontispiece and the table of chapters. On folio v the text commences thus: "En lan de lincarnacio de iehsuscrit m. iij. c. et. xl. ans. . . . si entrepris a compiler ung liure. . . . par maniere de visio par exemples de cognoistre le monde et les condicions des hommes." The last leaf, with a woodcut, is wanting. The first page and a few others at the end have been very neatly repaired.

37651 NEUF PREUX. Colophon: Cy fine le liure intitule le triumphe des neuf preux . . . sm. folio, gothic letter, with woodcuts, printed in double columns, the first three leaves in excellent facsimile, old blue morocco extra, gilt edges, by Padeloup, with the Seillière arms stamped on the sides, £36.

. . imprime en la ville dabbeuille par Pierre gerard . . mil. quatre cēs quatre vingtz & sept (1487)

FIRST EDITION of this famous Romance of Chivalry, and the third book printed at Abbeville, a most rare and precious volume. The present copy, formally of the Gaignat and Prince d'Essling collections, is, with the exception mentioned above, a sound and fine copy. The Didot copy was bought by me at a cost of about £180, and I have since sold it.

. . Valēcia: por Jorge costilla Mil. D. xxvi. (1526)

Collation: woodcut title, Epistola and Tabla, 9 leaves (of 10—the last being absent); Comiençan las epistolas, a-z in eights; two other sheets in eights; A-L in eights; M and N, 6 leaves each.

The translation was made by Juan de Molina, judging from the dedication and a notice to the reader.

This edition is so rare that not any copy of it has occurred for sale apparently this century. The elder Salvá had an imperfect copy of an edition of Valencia, 1520, but evidently never saw one of the above.

s. n. (? Zaragoza, Gorge Coci, about 1505)

The book and the author are both totally unknown to the bibliographers, and the former is consequently perhaps unique. The woodcuts are of the most simple and archaic style, coarse and ugly, but striking. The first represents the body in a coffin, the soul like a child is flying away, the angel with outstretched wings hovers over them, and bears a scroll on which are the letters A V H. According to the 36th octave, the scroll is the sentence of damnation. The poem consists of a dialogue between the body and the soul. The last stanza runs thus:—

Rognemos a dios por su piedad
Aquel que tomo por nos carne humana
E en la cruz con gran humildad
Por nos otros murio con voluntad sana
Que quiera guardar la gente christiana
Del falso enemigo e de su saeta
E a vos e a mi Anton Lopez de Meta
Nos lleve a la gloria que es muy sobirana.

Acabanse los quatro libros . . . Fueron emprimidos en la muy noble, y muy leal ciudad de Caragoça: por George Coci Aleman . . . mil y quinientos y ocho años (1508)

Few books possess such a title as this, to rank among the costly rarities of bibliophily. It is the unique copy, in splendid condition, of the long lost and long sought-for, first edition of the Amadis—a work, which besides its own literary merit, has also the grand distinction of having influenced and tinctured the minds of writers and readers throughout Spain, France, Italy, and England for nearly two centuries. Till Tross discovered it at Ferrara and sold it to Baron Seillière, no one knew of any edition older than that printed at Rome in 1519, which, for many reasons, was decidedly not the princeps. An edition, of Sevilla, 1511, was frequently cited with doubt, on the faith of an entry made by Ferdinand Columbus in his catalogue early in the sixteenth century; but no one had ever seen it, and the correctness of the description was suspected. One may conceive therefore the sensation of surprise and delight with which the bibliophiles heard of Baron Seillière's treasure trove, dated Zaragoza, 1508.—Neither the first French Lancelot, nor the first English Mort Arthur, nor the first Valencian Tirant to Blanch, can compete in rarity with the first Spanish Amadis, a book that is equally with them a great central monument of old romance.

The editor or renovator, Garci-Ordoñez de Montalvo, according to later editions, is in the rubricated heading of the princeps, described as Garcirodriguez de Montalvo, and his prologue makes the usual statement that he simply corrected the corrupted text of the three books of Amadis, that he had had the good fortune to get hold of the original fourth book and the original Sergas de Esplandian (i.e. the fifth book or first continuation), and that he translated the latter two so as to add them to the former three. He did not, however, print the Sergas until it appeared as a separate book in 1510. The judgment of critics is divided as to whether he was himself the author both of Book IV and of the Sergas, or only of the latter. With regard to the original three books, and their origin, the following recital of the case as it stands may be useful.

The usual and generally accepted belief is that a Portuguese or Galician knight, Vasco de Lobeira, wrote the Amadis (I-III) in the latter part of the thirteenth century; and the earliest statement to that effect is made by Gomez Eannes de Azurara (about 1440-50), who speaks with some contempt of Lobeira as having fabricated his idle history in the reign of King Ferdinand (i.e. 1367-85). This agrees with the statement made by others that Loveira died in 1403-4, which is probably correct. [But there is a further assertion made by several persons, that he wrote the Amadis for the Infante Alfonso of Portugal, who is mentioned in Lib. I, cap. 40, of the romance, and that the Infante was born in 1370; from which they conclude that the book, Portuguese or Galician, was not written earlier than 1386. All this is absurd, as there was no such Infante, and the mention in Lib. I, cap. 40 is plainly made by Montalvo himself. Four Dom Alfonsos were Infantes of Portugal between 1290 and 1490. The first, who became King Alfonso IV in 1325, is too early for Loveira; the second, who was the son of Joao I, and died of the plague in 1400, had only reached his eleventh or twelfth year, and was therefore too young to suit the theory; the third was Infante only for the first six years of his life and then came to the throne as Alfonso V; the fourth, a son of Joao II, was born in 1475 and died from accident in 1491.] The residue of conjecture may be taken to be that Loveyra's Amadis was written about 1380-90.

The Spanish critics point out that the existence of a popular Amadis romance is indicated by Pero Lopez de Ayala (about 1370) and by Pero Ferrus (in or after 1379), and that consequently it must have had considerable circulation before that time. It is thus insinuated that Loveyra could not have been the author. The stanza of Ferrus even goes so far as to specify that his Amadis was in three books, just as Montalvo says in the printed Amadis. Of course it is possible that Loveyra may have written as early as 1360, but even then, it hardly seems that the work would have had time to become popularly known in Spain.

Garcirodriguez de Montalvo does not profess to have translated but only to have amended the three books of Amadis, but he would hardly consider himself as doing translator's work if he were simply Castilianising a Galician or a Valencian text.

The reference in Lib. I, cap. 40, to the alteration in the story commanded by the Infante Alfonso of Portugal probably refers to the young Alfonso who came to marry Ysabel of Spain (daughter of Ferdinand and Isabella) in 1490, to whom he may have presented the MS. of his first book, and for whom he may have made some change in the incidents, rejected when he re-wrote the romance as we now have it, after 1491.

On fol. 91: Fue imprimido el presente libro: llamado Cancionero: por Jorge Coci: en çaragoça . . mill & quinientos & deziseys años. (1516)

EXCESSIVELY RARE. Juan del Enzina lived from 1468-9 to 1534. These works, of which the dramatic compositions that occupy the last section are considered the most valuable, belong to the most important class of early Spanish literature. The fame of the poet was always high, and his writings were well known in printed selections and in MSS., but the editions printed in his own time had disappeared so utterly when Antonio compiled the Bibliotheca that he treated Enzina as a poet who had never been printed.

Collation: Title, 1 leaf; table, 7 leaves; A-P in eights (except N which has ten leaves) or folios i-cxxii.

The Invocacion on folio 114 forms an acrostic from which the author's name is derived:—

Imprimido en casa del muy virtuoso varon Bartholome de Nagera y a sus propias costas: en la . . . ciudad de Caragoça . . . 1548

This is only about half the wook, but even as it is, it may be unique. No bibliographer seems to have known it. The compiler was Pedro de la Vega, as appears from a colophon printed in red on the last leaf. Although the book is imperfect, it has considerable value even as a collection of Spanish woodcuts.

37673 YCIAR (Juan de) Recopilacion subtilissima: intitulada Orthographia practica, por la qual se enseña a escreuir perfectamente . . . hecho por Iuã de Yciar . . . cortado por Iuan de Vingles, sm. 4to. First Edition, woodcut portrait and beautiful examples of Calligraphy and Ornament engraved on wood, three leaves missing, vellum, £20. Caragoça, B. de Nagera, 1548

So excessively rare that it was unknown, even by hearsay, to Salvá, who, when citing at second hand the edition of 1550, said that that was probably the first edition of the work. COLLATION: A 2 leaves; B-I in eight leaves each. The missing leaves are G 1, G 5, G 7, and there is a slight defect in D 5. Signature H ends with the seventh leaf, which is the last of the Calligraphic specimens, and was followed by a blank leaf.

. . Caragoça, en casa de Pedro Bernuz . . mil y quinientos y cinquenta (1550)

An exquisite volume, inside and outside. Besides being one of the most beautiful books ever produced in the department of ornamental art applied to calligraphy, it is also perhaps the very rarest when perfect. The calligrapher, Juan de Yciar, of Biscay, was ably seconded and assisted by the engraver, Jean de Vingles, a Frenchman; and their united labour achieved a masterpiece of fine decoration. Vingles' initials and mark occur in several places, and his full name appears in the first woodcut border of the second edition; but his name is not given on the title page of any but the first edition. There is little difference in rarity between the two editions, but the second is superior as containing additions and improvements. The following is a collation of the second edition.—Title, with engraved intitulation (it is letterpress in the first edition) and engraved borders; dedication, 3 leaves, the author's portrait occupying the reverse of the third leaf; text, 8 leaves of letterpress framed within woodcut borders; Siguense las Tablas, letterpress intitulation within fine woodcut designs (not in first edition); 16 pp. of engraved examples; the seventeenth page "Practica del Alphabeto cancilleresco" intitulation within border; 11 pp. of specimens; "Trata de letras antiguas," 2 pp. of text within borders; 14 pp. of specimens; 2 pp. letterpress "Trata de letra Aragonesa" within borders; 12 pp. of specimens; 1 page of text "Trata . . de las Cifras"; 3 pp. of Ciphers; 2 pp. of letterpress "Trata de la Letra Gotica"; 9 pp. of specimens; "Trata de . . cosas necessarias a un escriptor" 3 pp. of letterpress; 19 pp. of specimens; 4 pp. letterpress "de la Letra gruessa"; 10 pp. of specimens; 18 pp. of letterpress, within woodcut borders; 1 leaf with colophon and printer's mark.—The engraved borders to the letterpress are all added in this edition; as well, also, as several of the engraved pages, which bear date 1550. The letterpress also is augmented in this edition, but on the other hand a few of the recipes for varnish, etc. are omitted. The inscription round the auther's portrait shows that he was born in 1523.

37675 YCIAR. Another copy of the same second edition, sm. 4to. twelve leaves missing, hf. cf. £4. Caragoça, Pedro Bernuz, 1550

COLLATION: A 6 leaves, B to L in eights; the missing leaves in this copy being B 7, 8, C 1, F 7, 8, G 5, I 1-6. Four other leaves are defective.

37677 ——— another copy, Editio Princeps, with a variation of the title: Primera y segunda parte de la historia general de las Indias con todo el descubrimiento y cosas notables que han acaecido dende que se ganaron asta el año de 1551. Con la con*quista* de Mexico y de la nueva España . En Caragoça . 1553.

2 vols. in 1, sm. folio, gothic letter, double columns, with the double Map, large and PERFECT copy in old gilt calf, with the book-plate "Soi de Francisco Carter," EXTREMELY RARE, £75. 1552-53

Collation: title, one leaf; a los leientes, 1 leaf; a-z and A-G in fours, with a map of the two Hemispheres on two leaves; Conquista de Mexico, a-z and A-M in fours;—all printed in double columns.

The only variation between the above two copies is in the preliminary leaves of the first part; merely differences of intitulation and arrangement which indicate a different time of issue. The calf copy is evidently the earlier as there is a woodcut border to the letterpress on the back of the title, and the heading of the dedication to the Emperor is in red. The map is so little touched by the cutter that we have still the inscription at the bottom, "Estrecho de Magallanes," which has been cut away in the morocco copy.

The first page here bears the words, arranged like a title, "Fue impressa la presente obra en la muy insigne ciudad de Caragoça, en casa de Pedro Bernuz . . mil y quinientos y cinquenta y quatro" with the mark of Jorge Coci beneath it. This looks as though a regular title-page to the Historia were absent, and as if the present first leaf was really only the original final leaf of that part transferred from the end to the beginning. The second part has a regular title, beneath the imperial arms, "Cronica de la nueua españa con la conquista de Mexico . . . En Caragoça, 1554"; and at the end "Fue impresa la presente historia de Indias y conquista de Mexico . . en casa de Augustin Millan . mil y quinientos y cinquenta y quatro."—There was no map in this edition.

separate titles to each book, printed in red and black with a woodcut on each; two or three leaves skilfully repaired and a few letters restored, otherwise a very fine sound copy; red morocco super extra, gilt and marbled edges, by Belz-Niedrée, Seillière arms on sides, £50. Caragoça, en casa de Miguel de Guesa, 1562

UNIQUE; from the Sapienza library at Rome. It contains the 3 books of the 1st part, and the collation is as follows: 1st book, title and prologue, 4 leaves, pp. 1-203; 2nd book, pp. 1-216, including title-page; 3rd book, pp. 1-218, including title-page. Brunet gives the following note concerning this volume, "Cette edition fort rare que cite Antonio, à l'article Didacus Ortunez et qui nous avait paru apocryphe, existe bien à Rome dans la bibliothèque de la Sapienza."

On the last page appears the following notice: Aqvi se acaba la primera parte del libro intitvlado Espeio de Principes y Cavalleros. La segvnda parte esta ya tradvcida la qval no tardara de salir a lvz."—From this we may infer that the second part was really printed some time before the edition of 1580, the first hitherto known. The above unique volume offers a parallel case. If the Sapienza copy had not been discovered, no one would have believed in the existence of one of earlier date than 1580.

This is the romance which became so great a favourite in England under the name of the Mirror of Knighthood. In France it was known as Le Chevalier du Soleil.

Salvá states that the first edition of 1550, and this edition of 1564 are both particularly rare beyond all other editions of this book. The 40 Cantos are not, as the title would imply, original compositions by Alonso de Fuentes, whose work is simply the prose Glosses upon the poems. He evidently did not know who the original author was, but considered them to be contemporary imitations of old Spanish ballads, which a certain distinguished personage had sent to him to publish with a commentary. In the preface by Fuentes, he has preserved and inserted a genuine old ballad said to be from the pen of Alfonso the Wise himself.

COLLATION: A 4 leaves, B 10 leaves; C-G eight leaves each; H 4 leaves. In this copy B 1 is missing (which corresponds to C 1 in the 1550 edition) for which a duplicate of D 4 is inserted. At the end there are added, from the 1550 edition, 14 leaves, chiefly of text, concerning the materials to be used in writing.

"SUMAMENTE RARO."—Salvá.

The three or four editions in Spanish of this celebrated romance are far rarer than any of the original Latin or of the Italian version. The Spanish translator's name is not known.

The woodcut on the title does not properly belong to the work, but is from the edition of Celestina printed by Cromberger in 1502, and bears the initials, Lu., Me., and Ca. (Lucretia, Calisto, and Melibea).

Sevilla, por Jacobo crōberger . . año . . de mil y quinientos y diez y nueue . (1519)

THE FIRST BOOK PRINTED IN SPAIN AND IN SPANISH RELATING TO AMERICA.

The name of the Bachiller Enciso is frequently met with in the earliest annals of the New World as being an important actor in the extension of Spanish conquest and discovery. His book, in both of its editions, but especially in this first one, is very rare, as even a single circumstance is sufficient to prove, viz.: that Dr. Court had no copy in his library.

On the page which occupies the reverse of h 4, he records the curious conversation with two chiefs of Cenu, in which, when he informed them that the Pope had bestowed all those regions upon the King of Spain, they replied that the Pope must have been drunk and that the King was an idiot.

37687 VARTHEMA. ITINERARIO DEL VENERABLE VARON MICER LUIS PATRICIO ROMANO: enel qual cuēta mucha parte de la ethiopia Egipto: y entrābas Arabias: Siria y la India. Buelto de latin en romance por Christoval de arcos clerigo. Nunca hasta aqui impresso en lengua castellana, sm. folio, gothic letter, a leaf or two mended and a few letters supplied; dark green morocco extra, gilt edges, by Leighton, £42. Sevilla, Jacobo Crōberger, 1520

FIRST and VERY RARE EDITION of this translation. The work in Italian was originally published at Rome in 1510, and the Latin version at Milan in 1511. It is from the Latin that the above translation was made. This copy cost Dr. Burnell over £50 (i.e. £48 plus the cost of binding).

The translator says, regarding critics, that if they find fault with the statements of the author "a mi no se imputa que el acierte en lo que dize o no. El que no le creyere vaya y vealo, o mande lo medir, como dixo el otro, y descansara."

37688 MENA. Las. ccc. del famosissimo poeta Juā de mena: cō otras. xxiiii. coplas y su glosa y la coronacion del mesmo poeta: et otras cartas: et çoplas et cāciōes. sm. folio, 104 numbered and 22 unnumbered leaves cropped and mended, hf. morocco, £1. 16*s*

Only two other copies of this Quarta Relacion are known; of the Carta Tercera there are probably not half-a-dozen extant.

37690 TORRE (Alphonso de la) VISIŌ DELECTABLE DE LA PHILOSOPHIA & ARTES LIBERALES: METAPHISICA: Y PHILOSOPHIA MORAL, sm. folio, gothic letter, with numerous woodcuts, morocco extra, gilt edges, £12. Es impsso en . . . Seuilla por Jacobo cróberger alemā et Juan Cromberger . . . M.d.xxvj (1526)

Collation: 80 leaves, including title, or sign. a-k in eights.

"On the last leaf is a very remarkable statement respecting the invention of printing. It goes on to say that printing was first practised at Mainz, and was the invention of a citizen of that place named 'Pedro Fuest,' who made known his discovery in the year 1425. But afterwards, in the year 1431, a quarrel arose between two archbishops; and one of them, having arranged with certain of the citizens to open the gate on the night of SS. Simon and Jude, he entered the city with his people; and so great a massacre ensued, that the kennels ran with blood. Among the slain was this celebrated man 'Pedro Fuest.'"

. . [Juan Cronberger] Seuilla . Año de. M.d.xxxij . . (1532)

An exposition of the sacraments and the Creed; with a treatise on the formation of manners and the general social education of youth which is very curious and of real historical interest. The author, who is described as "de buena memoria," and to whom the title of "comensal del Papa" is given, had been killed at the sack of Rome in 1527.

A certain American interest attaches to the volume from the fact that it belonged in 1575 to the Monastery "de Sant Francesco de Mexico," and bears the signature of "Fr. Michael Navarro, commiss. generalis" at that date.

37694 SUBIDA DEL MŌTE SION: por la via contemplatiua. Cōtiene el conocimiēto nro: y el seguimiēto de xpo . . Copilado en vn conuento de frayles menores, sm. 4to. gothic letter, title in red and black within woodcut border, many fine woodcuts

. . . Seuilla enla empreta de Juan Cromberger el postrero dia del mes de Setiembre. Año de mil y quinientos y treynta y cinco Años (1535)

FIRST EDITION, EXCESSIVELY RARE. The title is in red with a very elegant woodcut border in black.

37696 HERNANDEZ DE OVIEDO Y VALDES. Historia general de las Indias, etc. as above, Sevilla, J. Cromberger, 1535—Siguese una carta missiva con que el cronista . . . embio este volumen—Libro XX de la segunda parte de la general historia de las Indias, escripta por el Capitan Gonçalo Fernandez de Oviedo y Valdes . . Valladolid, por Frãcisco Fernandez de Cordova. En este año de . M.D.Lvii.—2 vols. in 1, sm. folio, woodcuts of escutcheons, etc. on titles, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by BEDFORD, £65. 1535-57

Very rare first edition of all that was originally published (the edition printed by the Spanish Academy a few years ago being the only complete impression of Oviedo's work). The Carta missiva which occupies two leaves at the end of the first part, and was printed at the same time, bears the autograph signature of the author, in this form—"Rmo. & illmo. Señor las manos de V. S. Rma. besa Go. Fernandez de Oujedo." The twentieth book (which is the first of part II), published separately at Valladolid in 1557 was not finished in consequence of the author's death. It is excessively rare.

Sevilla, Juan Varela, 1520

Collation: Title and table, 4 leaves unnumbered, and 192 numbered leaves.

Not quoted by Salvá or Brunet; but described in the Supplement to the Manuel, on the authority of Harrisse (Bibl. Amer. Additions) with the following note: "Ces Bulles du pape Leon X ont une certaine importance; au f. 82, le chapitre intitulé Destierro para las Yndias est particulièrement intéressant. Le vol. est fort rare." The chapter in question gives a list of privileges granted to criminals who consented to dwell in the New World. Harrisse derived his information from a copy in a private library in Seville. I am unable to trace the sale of any copy.

37706 PADILLA (Juan de). LOS DOZE TRIUPHOS de los doze Apostoles: fechos por el cartuxano: pfesso en scã Maria d'las cueuas en seuilla, sm. folio, woodcuts on front and back of title, hf. bd. very fine copy, £40.

Contains 160 leaves printed in double columns, all, except the title, numbered.

The Miro copy fetched 1800 francs (£72) plus the auctioneer's fee. I sold a copy in 1884 for £95. The earliest edition in the Salvá library is that of 1534.

Juan de Leon.

37709 FUENTES (Alonso de) Summa de philosophia natural, en la qual assi mismo se tracta de Astrvlvgia y Astronomia, & otras sciencias. En estilo nũca visto, nueuamẽte sacada . . sm. 4to. printed in alternate Gothic and Roman letter, the title within a woodcut border; fine copy in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Hardy-Mennil, with the Seillière arms on the sides, £10.

. . Seuilla . . En casa de Juã de Leõ . . 1547

In this curious book, the whole domain of science as then known is reviewed in a dialogue between a Spanish gentleman and an Italian traveller. It is all in blank verse, the Italian using the metre of his native style, although his language is Castilian; while the Spaniard uses a long hexametrical metre. The Italian mode is printed as verse and in Roman character; the Spanish as prose in Gothic letters.

37710 CASAS (Bartolome de las). TRATADOS VARIOS, 9 parts in 1 vol. sm. 4to. Original Editions in Gothic letter, Spanish morocco binding, £32. Sevilla, 1552-53

37711 ——— the same, 9 parts in 1 vol. sm. 4to. in red morocco super extra, elegantly tooled in the Grolier style, gilt edges, by Pratt, £30. 1552

EXCESSIVELY RARE. These nine tracts were written between 1541, when the worthy Bishop with the Emperor was getting up the celebrated Leyes de las Indies of 1543, and 1550, when he was going into battle with Sepulveda, to prove that the conquest of the Indies was tyrannical, unjust and iniquitous. From the day of publication these tracts have maintained their historical importance, interest, and rarity.

37719 TOMICH, HISTORIAS etc., small folio, a very fine copy in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, £55. 1534

VERY RARE. There was no copy either in the Salvá or in the Miro collection. This Chronicle was written in the time of Juana la Loca, and embraces a period of nearly a thousand years from the time of the Goths to 1516. The first few pages relate to the prehistoric times when the descendants of Japhet peopled Spain, and from Spain peopled Hibernia, which to-day is called Anglaterra on maps; the name receiving its first change when Brutus, the first Consul of Rome, subjugated it, and entitled it Britannia. Hercules and the Greeks conquered Spain; when the magnificent baron Hercules, and his successor Hispan, were dead, then there rose a great multitude of knights called Goths. From this point the tale becomes more familiar. It is one of the scarcest books of its kind: in fact I am unable to trace any copy as having occurred for sale, except these two, and an imperfect one which was in the hands of the elder Salvá sixty years ago.

37725 VIÇYANA (MARTIN DE) CHRONYCA DE LA INCLYTA Y CORONADA CIUDAD DE VALENCIA y de su reyno: en el qual son contenidas todas las familias o linages militares de la ciudad y reyno, por estilo moderno y muy verdadero (LIBRO SEGUNDO, TERCERO Y QUARTO), 3 vols. sm. folio, the second defective and partly in MS. numerous woodcuts, vellum, EXCESSIVELY RARE, from the Sunderland library, £40.
(Part III) Valencia . . Joan Navarro . . . 1564—(Part IV) Barcelona . . Pablo Cortey, 1566

Collation: "SEGUNDA PARTE. Libro segundo de la Chronyca," etc, with large woodcut shield of the Borjas on title, folios i-xxxx (ending abruptly), and folios xi-l (three of them defective, and a few others mended). The rest of the volume is supplied in 16 leaves of MS., the Coats of Arms being neatly drawn. TERCERA PARTE, 4 prel. leaves, including title, and 178 numbered leaves, title and last leaf a little mended, otherwise very good copy. QUARTA PARTE (Libro quarto de la Cronica, etc.), 2 prel. leaves, incl. title, 244 numbered leaves, and 6 leaves of table; good copy. The third and fourth parts are complete.

These three parts of Viçyana's Chronicle of Valencia are hardly ever found together. The SECOND PART is of EXTRAORDINARY RARITY; while the first part does not appear to exist either in print or manuscript.

Salvá quotes the following from Ximeno: "Viciana ingenuously speaks the clear and naked truth, and this commendable honesty caused such a rigid persecution of his books that it was attempted to destroy them entirely, and, as we are told, a great number of copies of them were burnt. It is unquestionable that they may be classed among the very scarcest books in the world. It is with difficulty we can find a single printed copy of any of them. . . . I have seen in print the third and fourth part, and about half of the second, but have never been able to find the first."

EXTREMELY RARE, and the earliest edition which has paesed through my hands.

No copy of any earlier edition is known, although the book is supposed to have been printed in 1499, in 1500, and in 1501. Salvá omits to say that the unique copy usually described as of the first date, has a forged colophon. The fact that the second one was printed is only proved by the colophon of an edition of 1513. Of the existence of the third (1501) there is no demonstrable certainty. A Celestina in the Seillière collection was described as of that date, but the last leaf was found not to be genuine. It may have been a facsimile from some genuine copy, but cannot rank as evidence. In 1502 there were three editions, one of Seville, another of Salamanca (both described by Brunet and Dibdin), and this one of Toledo, which has been described for the first time, in my catalogue.

Remon de Petras.

37727 FERNANDEZ DE OVIEDO Y VALDES (Gonçalo). Ouiedo de la natural hystoria de las Indias . . sm. folio, title in beautiful facsimile, fine large copy in vellum, from the Sunderland library, VERY RARE, £60.

Por industria de maestre Remõ de petras: e se acabo enla cibdad de Toledo a xv. dias del mes de Hebrero. de. M. D. xxvi. años (1526)

"Ce premier ouvrage du fécond écrivain n'a rien de commun avec la Historia general y natural de las Indias de 1535; c'est un résumé destiné à donner au roi d'Espagne un aperçu des choses du Nouveau-Monde, décrivant les rites, mœurs, coutumes et cérémonies des naturels."—Brunet, Suppl.

It was the first general review of the new American empire of Spain, discussing the almost unlimited prospect of grandeur opened by the recent discoveries of Mexico, the Pacific, and the passage through Magellan's Straits; and the policy which should be adopted by the monarchy. The book was probably suppressed in Spain itself for prudential reasons; which would account for its signal rarity.

Collation: title, 1 leaf; table, 2 leaves; dedication to the Bishop of Cordova, 1 leaf; the work a to I in sixes, or folios I-LXVI.

With a singularly fine woodcut printer's mark at the end, a monogram within elegant borders and small woodcut figures.

Edicion Principe of one of the great Spanish historical classics of the fifteenth century, that is, Generaciones, semblanças, y obras de los ecelentes reyes de España Don Enrique el tercero y Don Juan el segundo y de los venerables prelados y notables cavalleros que en los tiempos destos reyes fueron. This is the original Memoirs of his own time by Hernan Perez de Guzman, and begins on the reverse of folio xlix. The first part of the book is his condensed adaptation of the narrative contained in the still unpublished Mare Historiarum of Guido Colonna.

Brunet only mentions the edition of 1531 of this Spanish Chronicle, and even that he had never seen. There was no copy of either in the Mi[illegible] collection.

Collation: A-S in eights; between G and H two unnumbered leaves, being the beginning of the second part.

A doubly remarkable volume, each of its parts taking a primary rank in the Annals of the New World. The Relacion (here printed for the second time, but of the first edition of which in 1542 only one copy is now extant) describes the wanderings of Cabeça de Vaca with the luckless survivors of the expedition that had set out in 1527 for the conquest of Florida (by which was meant all the region afterwards known as Florida and Louisiana). It is the record of the first journey made by Europeans through the United States. Cabeza de Vaca and a few others who survived the shipwreck of the expedition, were seized by the Indians on the Mississippi coast and held in slavery for four years, but escaped and made their way inland across Texas to Sonora, or the

to the inmost shore of the Gulf of California. Thence he and his three companions traversed the country southwards, and succeeded in reaching Mexico once more. On his return to Spain in 1537, having failed to get the governorship of Florida, which had been given to Soto, he obtained that of the River Plate in 1540. He arrived in Uruguay in 1541, and proceeded to Asuncion, the capital of Paraguay, where Spanish authority was now seated, the site of Buenos Ayres having been abandoned. His work thenceforward was the exploration of the regions around the Paraguay and Parana, the conciliation of the Indian tribes, and the discovery of the route towards Peru. He was however made prisoner by mutineers, and sent back to Spain in 1545. His secretary Pedro Hernandez wrote this narrative (which is the first printed account of the Plata region), to which is appended a Relacion made in 1545 by Hernando de Ribera, whom Cabeza de Vaca had sent on a journey of exploration northwards up the River Paraguay.

37772 ———— the same, sm. folio, perfect, a very large and fine copy in Spanish calf, £7. 10*s* 1602

The date of this volume carries it properly out of the category of early books which, by a rough division equally applicable to Spanish and to English literature, might be said to include all that were printed in the fifteenth and most of those that were printed in the sixteenth century. But as a very rare volume, belonging to a series of romances distinctive of the sixteenth century, its appearance here may be excused.

Granada, Hugo de Mena, 1588

This is the only copy known of a book which has never been described and of which only a vague mention has been made by Brunet and others on the faith of a scanty statement in Antonio's Bibliotheca Hispana. Juan de Mendaño "estudiante natural de Salamanca" is nowhere else recorded in the lists of Spanish writers. He may have been merely the editor, although it is possible that some of the romances in the parte primera have emanated from his pen.

The contents of this precious volume are as follows.—Part 1: Don Juan of Austria and the Sultan. three romances corresponding to three which are in Anonimos No. 818 of Gallardo; Coronacion de Carlos V. Como el Rey Francisco fue preso, Como el Emperador hizo retirar al Turco de sobre Viena, Armada de Tunez; Muerte de los Luteranos. 1572. en Francia, Saco de Roma 1527. First and excessively rare edition of the publication known among historians as the "Nuevas Leyes," which have, says Mr. Harrisse, been the cause of so much mischief. Rich calls the volume "the first collection of printed laws relating to the New World;" and Ternaux, "le premier recueil qui ait été publié." It is not, however, a collection or Recopilacion, but Ordinances of Charles V, issued especially to ensure the better treatment of the Aborigines, and for limiting the partition of lands among the conquistadores.

Part I, title and prologue, 4 leaves unnumbered, and 320 numbered leaves; part II, 141 numbered leaves, including title.

A magnificent copy of this rare volume, from the Sapienza library at Rome. There was no copy in the Salvá collection, and Brunet gives a very meagre account of this edition.

The title as partly given above recites the royal privilege ordering that the printed copy signed by Juan de Prado should be equal in authority to the MS. original. This copy has the autograph signature at end "del bachiller iohã dprado." On the back is a memorandum concerning the publication of the book, all in the autograph of "Castañeda" a royal Jues at Toro, 4 April, 1505; which shows that the work was actually printed at Toro, not at Salamanca.

Coimbra, Joa. de Barreyra, 1552-61

With AUTOGRAPH OF THE AUTHOR, "FERNÃO LOPEZ DE CASTANHEDA," at the end of the first and fifth books.

Collation: Book I, title, 1 leaf; prologue, 1 leaf; A-M 6 in eights, the last leaf blank. Book II, title, 1 leaf; prologue, 1 leaf; table, 2 leaves; A-P in eights. Book III, title, 1 leaf; prologue, 1 leaf; A-T in eights and V six leaves. Books IV and V, title and table, 2 leaves; prologue, 1 leaf; "Ad invictissimum . . . . Regẽ," 1 leaf; A-N in eights, and O 4 leaves. Book VI, title, 1 leaf; Privilege, 1 leaf; A-N 4 in eights. Book VII, title, 1 leaf; prologue, 1 leaf; A-L 6 in eights. Book VIII, title, 1 leaf; prologue, 1 leaf; A-S 6 in eights.

The second, third, and eighth books are printed in Roman letter, the others in Gothic, and there are woodcuts in the second book.

It is an event of extremely rare occurrence when the whole eight books of the original Castanheda are thus found together. Even odd volumes fetch long prices. Only one copy of the eight parts is described as having passed through the market—which belonged to Colbert, Fleurieu, and Heber, in succession, and that was deficient of several leaves in various parts. The present copy is perfect with the small exception of the two leaves specified above.

On reverse of title an engraved shield: Fue impresso . . . por Juanes de Junta e Antonio de Salamanca libreros ambos parientes, en la Ciudad de Sevilla año . . de mille e quinientos veinte y cinco años (1525)

The volume consists of 116 leaves, including title, the last four being the Table; all, except the title, numbered. It was printed in Rome.

A copy was printed by Juan Cromberger in 1547, that being the only one which has appeared in the markets since Heber's. This edition was unknown to Gallardo; nor is there any copy in the Salvá collection. Both Salvá and Brunet merely cite it from Heber's catalogue.

37815 PALMERIN DE OLIVA. Palmerin de Oliua & sus grandes hechos en armas. Gothic letter, woodcut title-page; elaborately bound in red morocco super extra, inside borders of morocco, richly tooled in a pattern of the time of Henry IV. by Chambolle-Duru and Marius Michel, gilt edges, the Seillière arms in gilt on the covers, in a case. £25.

Empremido en Venetia, por Gregorio de Gregorios. M.D.XXVI. (1526)

Magnificent copy of this rare edition, from the Sapieza library at Rome, in perfect preservation. There was no copy in the Salvá collection; only one is mentioned by Gallardo, and only an imperfect one by Brunet.

37816 VALDES (Juan de.) Dialogo de Mercurio y Caron: en que allende de muchas cosas graciosas y de buena doctrina: se cuenta lo que ha acaescido en la guerra desde año de mill y Quinientos y veynte y vno hasta los desafios delos Reyes de Francia & Inglaterra hechos al Emperador en el año de MDXXVII. 23 leaves (A-F in eights, and K 2 leaves, but the second leaf of K quite blank.—Dialogo: en que particularmente se tratan las cosas acaescidas en Roma: el año de M.D.XXVII. 34 leaves (a-e in eights, and i ten leaves.—2 parts in 1, sm. 4to. gothic letter, very fine copies in the original limp vellum. £30.

S. n. (? Venice or Naples about 1535)

These extremely rare pieces were probably printed in Venice. Although printed anonymously, since Valdes was known to be a follower of the new learning, and owed his safety to the favour with which he was regarded by the Emperor, the book must was destroyed wherever recognised. Peter Martyr Vermigli and Bernardo Ochino were induced by Valdes to desert the Church of Rome: and through them we may trace his influence on the course of English Reform.

37817 [VENERI TRIBUNAL. Libro nuouo Sopra certissimi valentissimi) Tribunal de Veneri. gothic letter. Imp. wanting the four preliminary leaves, including the title; red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Chambolle-Duru, from the Seillière library. £2 10s

. . Venetia . . M.D.XXXVII. per Aurelio genuti Venetiano . . (1537)

Apparently only one other copy known, and of the two Brunet seems to make two different editions, through the mistake of some one who wrote Valencia for Venetia. The book is a curious example of romance allegorical prose narrative interspersed with verses.

37823 ——— another copy, as described below, in old calf, £6. 10*s* 1573

"This is as rare as the Romancero of 1614, and is a book of great value there being no modern reprint of it."—J. W. B.

The last of the above copies is peculiar in having passed through the hands of Inquisitors for correction. It has two stamps of the Holy Office impressed on the title, and another upon the last leaf at foot of an autograph attestation, dated 1595, by Fray Pedro de Aguirre, in which he certifies having corrected the volume. The result of his correction was that folios 172, 173, and half of 174, were cut away, and have only been replaced in MS. by a seventeenth century hand.

The edition of 1573 contains several pieces which are not in that of 1557, so that it is indispensable even in collections where the latter is found.

Tryckt i Vpsala. 15(40-40-)41

EXCESSIVELY RARE, especially in such condition ; this being probably the best copy that exists outside the Royal Library in Stockholm.

This is a Lutheran version made by Olaus and Laurentius Petri.

Collation : A to X, Aa to cc, AA-NN, Aaa to Zzz, AAa to PPp (end of Old Testament), A to Ee, all in sixes, except X (4), cc (8), Zzz (8), PPp (5), and in New Testament Ee (3). X4 contains on one side a fine woodcut of Pharaoh's dream, the reverse blank. There are also "Jacob's Ladder," "Christ on the Cross," "Job and his Friends," "The Deluge," an exceedingly fine engraving of "Joshua," and many other remarkable woodcuts and scroll initial letters in the book, including a woodcut map of Asia, Africa, and Europe. These woodcuts, one of which is signed M. B., appear to be imitated from Lucas Cranach and others.

Prentad a Holum, Aaz Jone Jons Syne MDLXXXIIII. (1584)

The exodus of the last dozen years has brought a few copies of the first Icelandic Bible into the market, but all, or almost all, in bad state and imperfect. There are probably not two others in existence which can compete with the above in size, soundness, and preservation.

37829 ———— another copy, thick small folio, having some leaves clumsily mended, a few headlines cut into, and some margins worn, but the book virtually perfect, old stamped leather binding, £10.

1584

A fine copy of this book is a singular rarity. The work is admirable and precious for many reasons. The translator was Gudbrand Thorlaksson, Bishop of Holum in Iceland, the book was printed at his own private press, the woodcut decorations and capitals were cut by himself, and the result was a work not only rivalling technically the contemporary productions of Germany, but also taking high rank as a classic in the language it was written in.

Collation: 6 preliminary unnumbered leaves, leaves i-ccxcv; 4 prel. unnumbered leaves, leaves i-cxcii (leaves 87 and 88 are paged ixxvii and lxxxviii, lxxxix and xc, and there are no leaves 89 and 90); 1 prel. leaf (title), leaves i-cxxiii, and 1 unnumbered leaf.

(Praze) MDLIII (1553)

An excessively rare book, remarkable as a volume of woodcuts by an unknown master, and also as an old Bohemian text. It was published by Syxt Ottersdorf and Jan Kosorsky, who sign the preface, from an old MS. which had long been admired among the Czechs; the book having been in fact a popular mediæval romance. It professes to have been written originally in Arabic by a Doctor Frigonius of Jerusalem, and translated into Latin at the request of (Gui) de Valence, Bishop of Tripoli, in the thirteenth century; and thence rendered into Czech.—It is probable that no original will now be found to justify these statements; but the name by which the book seems to have been usually known, "Solfernus," is apparently Arabic, and a phrase designating Adam (Salaf-en-nâs=Ancestor of the Human Race).

37846 ZUMARRAGA. DOCTRINA CRISTIANA: mas cierta y v̄dadera p̄a gẽte sin erudiciõ y letras: en q̄ se cõtiene el catecismo o informaciõ p̄a indios cõ todo lo principal y necessario q̄ el xp̄iano deue saber y obrar, 8vo. black letter, some leaves stained, the Title and last leaf in facsimile, half morocco, £36.

A gloria de Jesu christo y desu bendita madre: aqui se acaba lo añedido al catheczismo por doctrina mas facil para los indios menos entendidos y mas rudos, y negros. El qual fue impresso en la muy leal y gran ciudad de Mexico por mandado d'l reuerendissimo señor dõ fray Juan çumarraga: primer obispo d' Mexico. . . . Acabose d'imprimir ẽ fin d'l año d' mil y quiniẽtos y quarenta y seys años (1546)

VERY RARE; one of the earliest specimens of Mexican typography. The title contains a woodcut of a bishop preaching, over the text, and surrounded by a border. The signatures of the Doctrina are a-i in eights and k which has only 4 ll. (making 76 ll.). It finishes on verso of k4 with Laus Deo A gloria y alabãça de dios nr̃o señor y de su bendita madre fue impressa esta doctrina catholica en mexico por mãdado del reuerẽdissimo señor don fray Juñ çumarraga: primero obispo dela misma ciudad: p̄a vtilidad comun. Especial delos indios: porque por ella sean cathetisados los q̄ se ouierẽ de baptisar: y ensenados los baptizados. Then follows the Prologo on l, which commences as follows:—"Prologo, Proemio alos amados hermanos lectores xp̄ianos enel suplemãto o adiciones del cathecismo que quiere desir enseñamiento del christiano." The signatures run from l to n in eights (thus forming 24 ll.); n 8 is occupied by the colophon to the whole book which we reprint above.

This edition is, most probably, the one described by Harrisse (in his Additions to the Bib. Vet. Amer. pp. 131-2) from the copy in the Biblioteca Provincial of Toledo (wanting the Prologo and final colophon), which he places under the year 1540. It will be seen on comparing the present with his description that the first colophon on the reverse of k 4 agrees word for word with that given by him; the number of leaves is the same, and so also is the number of chapters into which the work is divided, but the title is totally different. There can be no doubt that the title in the present copy is the right one, as the text commences on its verso and the last word is divided and continued correctly on the next page. It seems therefore to follow, if Harrisse has copied the title of the copy in the Provincial Library of Toledo correctly, either that two different titles were issued with the same book, or that an earlier edition without the Prologo and second colophon was issued with a title as given by him. The title and second colophon of the present edition are correctly given by Harrisse (Bib. Amer. Vetust. p. 419), though his collation (60 unnumbered leaves) is incorrect, but it is evident that the copy he there describes had not the Prologo.

I sold the Ramirez copy in 1880 for £65. Andrade copy 485 thal.

EXCESSIVELY RARE. Folios ccxcv (including title, which is within a woodcut border) irregularly numbered; then begins "De la Vida d'l bueno S. Eustachio," folios 1-25. There was no copy in the Maximilian (Fischer), Brasseur de Bourbourg, or Andrade Libraries. So far as we know, no other copy of this valuable work has appeared for sale in England.

37850 GILBERTI. Grammatica [Latina] Maturini tractatvs omnivm ferè que Grammatices studiosis tradi solēt à fratro Maturino Gilberto minorita ex doctissimis collectus autoribus, 3 leaves in facsimile (80, 141 and 168), EXTREMELY RARE, *Mexici . The simplified grammar, which follows the more ample grammar of 1559, is a totally different work from the latter, and apparently quite unknown to bibliographers. Its date is assumed from the use in the preface of the word "nuper," in reference to the 1559 book.

The fragment consists of: 1 unnumbered leaf (headed "Rudimenta, sive de octo partibus orationis"), leaves 9-31 and 34-130.

Explicit Manuale secundum vsuꝫ alme Ecclesie Mexicane: . . Impressum in preclara vrbe Mexicana, in edibus Johānis Pauli impressoris. Anno domini . 1560.

EXTREMELY RARE. This copy is imperfect, beginning only on b1 (fo. 9), and consequently wanting the first 8 leaves (including the title); the last two leaves are slightly defective. The book is printed in red and black Gothic letter, with woodcuts and musical notes. The pagination is irregular; but this copy is quite complete from fos. 9 to 173, on the back of which last begins the Tabula (3 pages), which in turn is followed by the Colophon (1 page), and the Licenses, etc. (7 pages). Here apparently the book ends.

This edition is not mentioned by Leclerc, Graesse, or Brunet; though the continuator of the latter mentions the Maximilian copy (wanting the first 17 leaves) which is the only one, besides the present, of which I find any record,—for the copy mentioned in the Bibl. Americana as known to Icazbalceta and Mr. Harrisse was most probably one of these two.

37853 ——— the same, sm. folio, title supplied in pen-and-ink facsimile, with an "Indice Cronologico" in MS. added, hf. red morocco, £30. ib. 1563

This is the EXTREMELY RARE Body of Laws relating to the Indies, known as PUGA'S CEDULARIO (being collected by Vasco de Puga, Oydor of the Royal Audience of the Indies), and is the first attempt at a "Recopilacion" or Collection. Father Fischer's copy, which was wormed and wanted the title, sold in 1869 for £23. All the copies hitherto known have the same defect, even that in the British Museum; and so far as I know the first one above described is the only quite perfect copy.

Cost Heber £31. 10*s* in 1832.

37856 ——— the same, 2 parts in 1 vol. small folio, a very fine large copy, almost uncut, vellum, the Ramirez copy, £36. 1571

The last is unquestionably the best copy that has occurred for sale in England. At the end are four leaves of MS. in a modern hand, entitled "Nombres Mexicanos recogidos y agregados al Diccionario de Molina por Fausto, Chimalpopoca Galicia."

"Cette seconde édition, fort augmentée, a passé longtemps pour le premier livre imprimé en Amérique; c'est encore un ouvrage très-précieux et de grande valeur; et c'est aujourd'hui le seul livre à l'aide duquel on puisse étudier avec fruit la langue nahuatl ou mexicaine."—Brunet, Suppl.

EXCESSIVELY RARE, perfect or imperfect. The value of this book as a monument of philology is universally recognized; it is the first printed grammar of the Aztec tongue. I have recently sold a copy, with the title in facsimile, for £40, and a perfect one for £52. 10*s*.

37869 ——— the same, small 4to. a very fine, large and clean copy, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £35. 1669

VERY RARE. The author says that the greater part of his material consisted of the manuscript journals of his uncle, Mr. William Bradford (the second Governor of the Colony), written between 1620 and 1646. He had also had the use of Edward Winslow's papers. It is this which gives its chief value to the work, which remains a storehouse of important facts, and of minute details, in the history of New England.

37872 HUBBARD (W.) A Narrative of the Troubles with the Indians in New-England, from the first planting thereof in the year 1607, to this present year 1677. But chiefly of the late Troubles in the two last years, 1675 and 1676. To which is added a Discourse about the Warre with the Pequods in the year 1637 . . . sm. 4to. WITH THE ORIGINAL FOLDING MAP, fine copy in old calf, from the Jersey library, £70. Boston, John Foster, 1677

EXCESSIVELY RARE: The chief test of the original map, as distinguished from the London reproduction, is that the range of "White Hills" is properly so named on it, while in the latter it was misinscribed "Wine Hills."—In the present instance, we have the book entirely in its original condition and binding, with Hubbard's sermon intituled "The Happiness of a People in the Wisdome of their Rulers . . . Boston, John Foster, 1676" bound-in.

37876 MARYLAND AND DELAWARE. BREVIATE (John Penn, Thomas Penn, and Richard Penn, Plaintiffs; Charles Calvert Lord Baltimore Defendant) for the Plaintiffs, upon a Bill to compell a specifick execution of Articles of Agreement for settling the boundarys of the Province of Pennsylvania, the three Lower Countys, and the Province of Maryland, roy. folio, 5 leaves and 116 pp. printed in small type 115 lines per page, three of the preliminary leaves containing two large maps of the territories in question; bd. £12. (Philadelphia, 1742)

In the mass of documentary and oral evidence printed and carefully digested here, we find a complete history of the States of Delaware, Maryland, and New Jersey, from 1584 to 1730, more exhaustive and precise than could elsewhere be obtained. But the volume is of excessive rarity, as probably no more than ten copies were printed for the use of the Chancery suit; and indeed we only know at present of the existence of one other copy. The larger map, which is on a scale of an inch for every seven and a-half miles, was a new and special feature of the proceedings, and infinitely superior to anything of the kind then known.

37877 M. T. CICERO'S CATO MAJOR, or his Discourse of Old-Age: with Explanatory Notes (Translated by Mr. Logan of Philadelphia), 8vo. Franklin's original edition, a little stained, half bound, £4. 10*s* Philadelphia: Printed and Sold by B. Franklin, MDCCXLIV. (1744)

In the Printer's Address to the Reader, Benjamin Franklin expresses a hope that this translation might be "a happy omen that Philadelphia shall become the seat of the American Muses."

Collation: viii pages (including title), and 159 pages.

(1693) New York.

Printed by William Bradford in New-York, 1715

EXCESSIVELY RARE. There was no copy in the Brinley collection, notwithstanding its special richness in books of this kind. As a rare work of American interest, and as a liturgical curiosity, this volume is one which must awaken considerable interest.

The second, or Indian, title begins: "Ne Orhoengene neoni Yogaraskhagh Yondereanayendaghkwa . . ."

Collation: Two titles (English and Indian), numbered pages 1-40, 1-21, and 41-115.

Constantinople, printed by Abraham Gabai Chaf Nabat, 1663

The first English book printed in Turkey and a volume of great curiosity. The first product of the press in Turkey is usually stated to be the Loghat-i Van-Kuli printed by Ibrahim Efendi in 1728.

The following notice will be interesting to the collector of typographical curiosities:

THE PRINTER TO THE READER.

COURTEOUS READER.

If in peruſing theſe followving Capitulations you find ſome fevv letters miſplaced, or the letter vv not ſo neatly formed, as vvere to bee vvished, attribute the fault neither to the Printer nor Correctour; for the preſſe at at Conſtantinople being but ſildome employed, is not furniſhed with the varietie of thoſe letters, vvhich are only proper to northern languages, amongst vvhich the vv is of ſpeciall use: to ſupply which defect, I haue beene forced to imitate that letter as vvell as I could beyond my ovvne art & profeſſion.

And if any other letters are let ſlip, it vvas in time of the Correctours urgent auocation to other employments vvhich permitted him not to bee so accurate, & attentiue hereunto as hee desired. And so hoping you vvill pardon, vvhat slight errours you may possibly meet vvith herein I remaine.

11. ENGLAND.

I. English Printers of the Fifteenth Century (Bruges, London, Oxford, St. Albans).

William Caxton (1474, 1477-91).

No. 1	type.	1472-74	5 books, probably all printed at Cologne.
2		1474-78	20 books, three of which were printed at Bruges, the other seventeen in England.
2*		1478-81	9 books.
3		1478-84	3 books existing in fragments only, besides the headings of works in other types.
4		1480-84	12 books.
4*		1483-85	18 books.
6		1489-91	8 books.

Caxton conceived the idea of reproducing his books by printing in 1471, in which year he was at Cologne, probably for the purpose of learning the new art. In the absence of direct evidence concerning his career in 1471-75, we must proceed by inference; and an impartial review of existing typographical monuments will lead us to believe that Veldener, Caxton, and Colard Mansion all learned and worked together in one printing-house at Cologne. Whether the master-printer was Zell, Ther Hoernen, Koelhof, Goetz, or any other, we know not, but Wynkyn de Worde's direct statement shows that Caxton's first typographical labour was the production of an edition of Glanvil's De Proprietatibus, apparently issued from Goetz's press and printed at Caxton's expense. After a certain period of practical study, Veldener started on his own account at Louvain in 1473, Caxton at Bruges in 1474, and Colard Mansion at the same place in 1475 or 1476. All three made use of types of similar kind, imitating the French and Burgundian writing of the time, and abandoning the German-Gothic models of Mentz and Cologne. The non-appearance of Mansion as an independent printer before 1475-76, and the curious fact that the first five books published by Caxton (in No. 1 type) were never used again, leads to the further conclusion that Caxton and Mansion produced those five works in partnership at Cologne, between 1472 and 1474, at a press which was entirely surrendered (type and all) before their return to Bruges. There a new fount of letters was made from Mansion's models, and Caxton prepared to transfer his establishment to London. He effected this purpose in 1476, after testing the new types by printing his "Dernieres Choses" at Bruges. Then his career in England began (in 1476) and lasted till his death in 1491; while Mansion's press in Bruges only lasted from 1476 to 1484.

Sine nota [? Brugis, circ. 1474-75]

(No. 2 type; Blades, No. 6.)

Only one other copy known, which is in the British Museum, and has one leaf in facsimile reproduced from this copy. The original MS. signatures are still visible in the copy above described, and the collation may be given as follows: a, b, c, d, in sheets of eight leaves each (the first leaf of a was a blank); e in ten leaves; f, g, h, i, in eight leaves each. The leaves supplied in facsimile are i 2 and i 7, out of a complete sequence of 72 (or, counting the blanks at beginning and end, 74).

This book is in the identical type used by Caxton in the first eighteen or nineteen books which he printed in England in 1477-78, but is in irregular lines like the few which were produced by him on the continent in 1474 and 1475, and although not, like these, in the so-called type No. 1, it is, like these, marked with the pin-holes by which the press-man kept the paper straight. None of Caxton's books printed in England show those marks. As the type of the QUATRE DERRENIERES CHOSES does not appear in any book produced on the continent after Caxton left Bruges for England in 1475-76, the book can only have been printed some time in or before 1475, at the press at which Caxton first exercised the art of Typography. We may conclude, until our knowledge is enlarged by some future discovery, that it was produced at Bruges in 1474-75.

The relation which Mr. Blades has discovered between Caxton and Colard Mansion is plausible, but not wholly satisfactory. After all, it cannot be gainsaid that there is no book certainly known to have been produced by the latter printer which is in any of the Caxton types, although he used some types of similar style; and it cannot be clearly shown that Colard Mansion printed anything before 1475. The early history of Caxton's typographical labours is still a mystery, and the present volume is one of its most precious documents, being really the first book that we can with certainty assign to Caxton as a printer. The first five books which he published are in a peculiar type never reproduced in any of the books bearing his name as printer; and amongst them is included the first edition of his Game of Chess. That this book was not printed by him, we have a proof in Caxton's own statement (in the preface to the second edition printed at Westminster) that he did do set in imprint the copies depeshed and sold at Brudgys. The phrase is not I did set but I did do set, equivalent to je fis imprimer, and therefore implies that Caxton was not himself the printer. The words depeshed and sold must mean sent (expédie) for sale to Bruges. Whence? He was working at the completion of his Recuyell at Cologne in 1471. On the other hand the Recuyell which was published after 1471 (? in 1472) and which is one of these five books, is stated by Caxton himself to have been ordained in prent by him at his great dispense in practising and learning. Again, neither in the primum opus of Colard Mansion (printed in 1471 according to Mr. Blades, and 1475 according to Van Praet, Bernard, Deschamps, etc.), nor in any other of his impressions do we find types corresponding to the character of the so-called Caxton's No. 1. The difficulties suggested here can only be obviated by a conjecture that the five books in No. 1 type were printed at Cologne for Caxton at a press established by himself, and worked for him, perhaps, by Colard Mansion, while they were both learning the practical art of Typography between 1471 and 1474; and that the Quatre Derrenieres Choses was the first book printed (with a fresh set of types) at Bruges on Caxton's return, by himself.

(No. 4 type; Blades, No. 42.)

Only two other perfect copies are known; one in the British Museum, the other in the Holford library. Of imperfect copies only eight are known; five of them in public libraries, the other three belonging to Lord Spencer, Lord Pembroke, Lord Dysart. The above is the best of the three perfect copies, and one of the very few examples of Caxton's press which have come down to the present time in their pristine condition.

37902 GOWER (John) . . CONFESSIO AMANTIS: that is to say in Englyshe the confessyon of the louer maad and compyled by Iohan Gower . . . sm. folio, the first leaf of the table in facsimile, otherwise perfect; a very fine and sound copy in russia extra, broad leather joints, tooled, from the Perkins library, £380.

(No. 4 and 4* type; Blades, No. 50.)

This volume is one of the rarest and most intrinsically valuable of Caxton's publications. It is the Editio Princeps of a great poem by one of the earliest English poets.

There are five perfect and twelve imperfect copies (some very defective) now extant. Of the five perfect copies, one is in the British Museum, one (Lord Jersey's) in America, one in the library of the Duke of Devonshire, and the fourth in Lord Spencer's. Where the fifth (Lord Selsey's) has gone to I cannot learn.

Lord Selsey's copy fetched, in 1872, £670; Lord Jersey's, in 1875, £810.

37903 GOWER'S CONFESSIO AMANTIS, sm. folio,—another copy of Caxton's edition, wanting five leaves in the body of the book, which are supplied in MS. and having the table in facsimile, calf, from the Way collection, a bargain, £50. (1483)

This was bought by Mr. Gregory Lewis Way at Topham Beauclerk's sale in 1782.

37904 LYDGATE (John). At end: Here endeth the book of the LYF OF OUR LADY made by dan John lydgate monke of bury at thynstaunce of the moste crysten kynge, kyng harry the fyfth . . . sm. folio, fine copy in russia antique, gilt and goffered edges, in red morocco case, £1000. Enpryntyd by Wyllyam Caxton (1484)

(No. 4* type; Blades, No. 60.)

Only seven other copies are known, of which five are imperfect. The two perfect copies are, one in the British Museum, one in the Bodleian (stained and scribbled over). The above (formerly Lord Devon's) is consequently the only perfect copy that is still purchasable, and as it is not only perfect, but has also the blank leaf of signature m, must be considered one of the most precious examples of the Caxton press. Of the five imperfect copies Lord Spencer and three public libraries lay claim to four, and the fifth, which was Mr. Corser's, has disappeared at present. This poem by Lydgate is a monumental work in English literature.

37905 DICTES AND SAYINGS OF THE PHILOSOPHERS. On leaf ℨ iij: Lere endeth the book named the dictes or sayngis of the philosophres enprynted, by me Wyllm Caxton at Westmestre the yere of our lord . (No. 6 type; Blades, No. 83.)

Of the six known copies (besides this) only one perfect and one imperfect are to be found outside the public libraries. Caxton's large device occupies the front of the first leaf.

97906 MIRROR OF THE WORLD. Folio I 6: . . Thus fynysshith the book called thymage or myrrour of the world . . Folio I 7: whiche book I began to translate the second day of Ianyuer the yere of our lord, M.CCCC.lxxx. And fynysshyd the viii day of Marche the same yere . . sm. folio, with numerous woodcuts; perfect and fine copy in blue morocco extra, gilt edges, by Roger Payne, with the Blandford crest on the sides, £350. Caxton me fieri fecit (about 1490)

(No. 6 type; Blades, No. 84.)

This second edition is rarer than the first (printed in 1481). Four perfect copies are in public libraries; four others in the Devonshire, Spencer, Huth, and Lenox libraries. There are three imperfect copies, one of them in a public library. The present copy belonged to Dr. Richard Farmer in the last century, and has his autograph. It was last in the possession of Mr. Fuller Russell.

The Tite copy sold for £455.

. . Westmestre the xx day of May, The yere of our lord MCCCClxxxxiii . . . By me wyllyam Caxton (1493)

(In Caxton's type No. 4* recast; with headings in Wynkyn de Worde's first type.)

Only nine other copies are known, of which but one (the Spencer copy) is perfect.

The "By me Wyllyam Caxton" simply indicates that Wynkyn de Worde reproduced the exact letter of the original edition of 1484.

The leaves supplied in MS. are the first and fourth preliminary, folios 140, 141, 425-428; and the last leaf, 429, is the one supplied in facsimile.

Thomas Pownall, of Hampshire, owned this book about 1750. His engraved book-plate is in it, with a motto from St. Luke, "Videte et cavete ab avaritia," to which an amusing English parallel is appended: "The wicked borroweth and payeth not again."

37909 THE GOLDEN LEGEND, a reproduction from a copy in the Manchester Free Library, with an introduction by Alfred Aspland, folio, cloth, £2. 10*s* Holbein Society (1484)-1878

Facsimile of an imperfect copy of Caxton's first edition with its woodcuts; a similar facsimile of part of a Dutch Passionael (Antwerp, 1505) being added at the end.

Oxford, 1468 [1478]

No. i in the Caxton Exhibition list of Rood's eleven books.

This is one of eleven copies known of the famous Oxford book with the printed date Mcccclxviii (1468), six of which are locked up in public libraries (Bodleian, All Souls' College, Oxford University archives, British Museum, Cambridge University library, and the Bibliothèque Nationale at Paris), the others being in Lord Spencer's, the Earl of Pembroke's and Sir Henry Dryden's, and one which went to the West Indies about ten years ago. No library in America yet possesses this precious volume, the printer of which disputes with Caxton the honour of introducing printing into England. It was to account for the date as printed in this book that Rich. Atkyns in his Origin and Growth of Printing (Lond. 1664) introduced a forged story about Corsellis. S. W. Singer in his Account of the book printed at Oxford in Mccccl.xviii . . . in which is examined its claim to be considered the first book printed in England (Lond. 1812), strenuously maintained the genuineness of the date, though he subsequently altered his opinion. Modern bibliographers such as Mr. Blades (Antiquary, No. 13, Jan. 1881) and the late Mr. Henry Bradshaw, have in general pronounced that the true date is 1479, but the subject is not yet exhausted, and a very high degree of interest must always be attached to a book so full of typographical problems. Almost throughout the Q is reversed (Ꝙ), as in ornamental manuscript Q's, H was mistaken for P, some of the printed pages have even right hand edges, some not, while the use of signatures has to many seemed decisive in favour of the later date. A bibliographical reputation may still be built up on a close study of this and the succeeding book, and no such opportunity as the present for securing the two has ever presented itself.

The work, although bearing the name of Hieronymus, was really written by Rufinus.

37913 AEGIDIUS ROMANUS. No. iii in the Caxton Exhibition list of Rood's eleven books.

EDITIO PRINCEPS, and the only separate edition ever issued.

Of this extremely rare production of the first Oxford press only two other copies are known to exist, both in Oxford, one at the Bodleian, the other at Oriel College. Probably no copy has ever occurred for sale, or will again occur. Unfortunately the blank leaf at the beginning (a1) has been torn off, loosening thereby the eighth leaf (a8) which is also lost: but with this copy will be given a perfect facsimile of the missing leaf in photolithography from one of the perfect copies. The greater part of the last leaf (c8, blank) is also wanting. The colophon exhibits the only printing in red ink to be found in the early Oxford Press, with the curiously ungrammatical errors noted above. The type is identical with that of the preceding book, and has remarkable resemblances to that of Ter Hoernen at Cologne. On the first leaf is "Codex A. Hilton, pret. xx^{d}" in a hand of the XVth century.

[Oxford, printed by Theodoric Rood of Cologne], 1482

No. viii in the Caxton Exhibition list of Rood's eleven books.

One of ten copies known to exist, all in England, eight of them in public libraries (Bodleian, All Souls', Corpus at Oxford, the University library and Trinity College in Cambridge, the British Museum, Lambeth and Westminster Chapter libraries, in London), the other being in Lord Spencer's library at Althorp: no copy has been recorded as existent outside England. The work is a commentary on the Lamentations of Jeremiah. The ornamental border on the second leaf which completely fills the wide margins of the text is composed of birds, flowers and leaves, and is identical with the one used to decorate the Alexander ab Ales., Oxf. 1481, fol., pronounced by Mr. Bradshaw to be the earliest engraved border found in English printing. As in all known copies of either work the outer edges of the border are slightly cut into. A curious error has been made by the original binder of the volume: he read the signature Hiij as Lj, and bound in H3 and H6 (one sheet) in the place of L1 and L8 (the latter being properly a blank leaf: so that L1 and a blank leaf are wanting, but two printed leaves occur in their place. The two types used in this volume are entirely different from those of the preceding articles, one being a large special one used only in the Ales, Lattebury and Phalaris (1485) and generally reserved for head-lines.

 The three Oxford books will be sold together for £300, or separately as above.

37915 [ANWYKYLL (John)] [Compendium totius Grammatices cui accedunt Vulgaria quedam abs TERENTIO in Anglicā linguam traducta], sm. 4to. gothic letter, wanting sheets a-e and i; blue morocco extra, gilt edges, from the Condover Hall library, £120. (Oxford, Theodore Rood, 1483)

There is a copy in the Cambridge University library, apparently very imperfect; the British Museum library contains the Vulgaria Terentii only which forms sheets n-q in this volume. No other is known. This therefore is an article of the most signal value and rarity. It is No. x in the list of Rood's eleven books specified in the Caxton Exhibition catalogue.

Collation of this copy: f, 8 leaves; g, 8 leaves; h, 6 leaves;

k, 6 leaves; l-q in eights, Every page is printed on; and there are two types used, the larger for the Latin, the smaller for the English.

(1480) St. Albans.

37916 ST. ALBANS' CHRONICLE. [Colophon:] Here ende the Chroniclis of englōde with the frute of timis, Small folio, with a woodcut representation of London; fifteen leaves in facsimile and leaves 2-7 of table deficient, bound in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £300.

Sanctus Albanus [no date, but about 1484]

No perfect copy of this excessively rare book is known to be in existence. Of the half-dozen recorded copies, all are more or less defective; that in the Grenville library being the only one which has ever been completed even by the aid of facsimiles.

The woodcut marked "London" on reverse of C iv (but which is in reality only a picture of the Tower of London) is the first engraved representation of the city which has become the capital of the world.

There are few books so rare as those which were printed by the anonymous Schoolmaster of St. Albans, whose impressions were far more limited than those of his contemporary Caxton. He issued, according to Mr. Blades, only eight volumes, and worked from 1480 to 1486.

The St. Albans' Chronicle contains the Brute Chronicle as current in the Middle Ages, from the story of Geoffrey of Monmouth and others; but the text is more ample than that in the so-called "Caxton's Chronicle."

It is a curious thing, hitherto unknown, that folios D4 and D5 (in the second series of signatures) were reprinted by the Schoolmaster. They contain an account of the rival papacies of Rome and Avignon, beginning with the following words:—

"And here began the xxii strifte in the chirch. And it wos more wors than euer was ony other befor, for it wos so sotil that the wisest men that wer and the best conciencied colde not discerne with whom it was best to say and hold."

Since the reprinted leaves contain no alteration of the text, as one might have expected, it is probable that those leaves were destroyed in several copies at the very time of issue by order of some scrupulous ecclesiastic, and that the printer was authorized to reproduce them without change by the wiser Abbot of St. Albans, William of Wallingford. Any one who wishes to compare his copy with another may be informed that the obverse of D4 ends with This in one edition and with This bone- in the other.

37918 ——— another copy, wanting 70 leaves and having five leaves in facsimile; blue morocco extra, a bargain, £50 1484

This copy exhibits the peculiarity referred to above.

37919 THE BOOK OF ST. ALBANS. (Colophon:) . . . Bokys of Haukyng and Huntyng with other plesuris dyuerse as in the boke apperis and also of Cootarmuris a nobull werke. M.CCCC. lxxxvi., small folio, printed in black and red, with numerous woodcuts of Armorial bearings printed in colours, leaves f3 and f8 in the second series of signatures in facsimile, and the corners of two other leaves similarly made up, otherwise a good sound and perfect copy in brown morocco, gilt edges, in a red morocco case, £735.

Sanctus Albanus (1486)

☞ The first printed English Armorial (second European).
☞ The first printed book on Field Sports and Heraldry.
☞ The first book with engravings printed in colours.
☞ The first printed book containing English popular rhymes.
☞ One of the rarest books of the early English press.

This is a better and larger (11 inches) copy than that of Lord Devon (10½ inches) which was so unpleasantly washed having previously been in very soiled condition, that portions of the impression had faded almost out of sight. This copy has also some original blank leaves which are not in that.

The second part is a rhymed treatise on Hunting written for the instruction of the Bairns of St. Julian's school at St. Albans, and addressed to them as from the Dame or school mistress. The author did not intend it, as many persons have imagined, for scions of the aristocracy, but for simple foresters who aided in the chase. This is evident from the nature of many of the instructions. Such a work we can have little difficulty in believing to be the original composition of the mysterious "schoolmaster of St. Albans," personifying in a supposititious authoress the affiliated establishment called the Domus Juliani.

As for the use of the word Barnes or bairns, for children, it occurs frequently in old English books and MSS., and the "schoolmaster" seems from his dialect and spelling to have belonged to Northumberland or Yorkshire.

The special treatise on hunting, which closes with the Explicit above referred to, is followed by a collection of names and properties of beasts of the chase set forth in rhymed and proverbial sentences, such as "A grehounde shulde be heded like a snake and necked like a drake," etc. "Well travelid women nor well travelid hors wer neuer goode."

"Fer from thy kynnysmen kest thee,
Wrath not thy neighborys next thee,
In a goode corne cuntre threste thee,
And sitte downe Robyn and rest thee."

"Who thet byldys his hous all of salowes
And prickyth a blynde hors ouer the falowys
And suffrith his wyfe to seche mony halowys
God send hym the blysse of everlastyng galowis."

The general type resembles Caxton's very much, but is nevertheless quite distinct. That which appears in the headings is larger, and is identical with Caxton's No. 3 type. There is perhaps no need to suppose that Caxton sold this fount of type in 1484, since we find it in Wynkin de Worde's possession many years later. Caxton and the St. Albans man might easily have obtained it independently from a Flemish type-founder. The water-marks in the paper are the same as in the paper used by Caxton, with the exception of the crowned shield, which, as it appears on a thickly printed page, is not very easy to trace, but is evidently a different figure from the shield of France which appears in some of Caxton's paper.

It is interesting from the Shakespearian collector's point of view that we find in the Book of St. Albans a representation of the Lucy Coat of Arms, as borne by Geoffrey or Galfrid de Lucy (in Henry III's time).

37920 THE BOKE OF SAINT ALBANS by Dame Juliana Berners, containing treatises on Hawking, Hunting and Cote Armour, printed at Saint Albans by the Schoolmaster-Printer in 1486, reproduced in facsimile with introduction by W. (Without mark, but by W. de Machlinia, about 1484)

This is the epitome of the Brut Chronicle and contains the story of King Arthur and Merlin.

Only one perfect copy is known, that at Althorp, and not more than five imperfect copies besides this.

Specimens of the press of William of Mechelen, and of Julian Notary, are amongst the very rarest of early English books.

Collation of present copy: a-z, &, and aa-cc, all in eights; wanting signatures a 1, m 4 and 5, o 1, p 1, s 1, t 8, v 1 and 8, x 1 and 4 and 6 and 8, z 8, bb 1, and all after cc 2.

The Sunderland copy wanting one leaf fetched £226.

One of the rarest productions of Wynkin de Worde's press. It was translated by Andrew Chertsey from an anonymous French original (the first edition of which was printed in Rouen in 1496) which seems to have been chiefly drawn from the Sermones de Sanctis et Promptuarium Exemplorum of the Discipulus (J. Herolt). The marvellous stories contained in this volume are not surpassed in any work of fiction: some of them are very interesting as well as little known.

37936 ——— another copy, also very fine and large, in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford; from Lord Crawford's library, £100. 1527

On the last page of Lord Crawford's copy there are two signatures of Elizabethan owners. One is "Cost Rob. Ryvell vi s." The other is a little longer—"This booke was bought by me Houmfraye Whitlocke at the feste of Sayt Myckelle Arck Anggell 1574 and cost me redye mounye x s. strlinge. God grauntt be grace to ffollowe thear god insampell."

Impressa Londini per Winandum de Worde. Anno dñi. M.CCCCC.XXX. (1530)

The book itself is a curious one, deserving of study and consideration for its specimens of old English familiar and conversational language, which contain remarks upon almost every subject. We have ceased to admire it for its correct Latinity so highly thought of in the author's time. He was a native of Salisbury, a Fellow of New College, Oxford, and Master of Eton in the year 1485. After he had resigned this post and retired into private life, being then an old man, his friend William Attwater, Bishop of Lincoln, persuaded him to publish the lessons he had used during his mastership. The sentences of which the book consists are given in both Latin and English, the latter being the original, and frequently allude to events of his own time. As a couple of examples—"It is an almesdede to help the chevalry of Rhodes agaynst the Turkes."—"They of Turnay have yielde them up to the kynge."

37939 THE FRUYTE OF REDEMPCYON. Small 4to. black letter, with a large woodcut on the title, several in the text, and Wynkyn de Worde's device at the end, a good sound copy, half blue morocco, £20. Imprynted at London . . by Wynkyn de Worde. In the yere of our lorde . M.CCCCC.xxxij. (1532)

EXTREMELY RARE. On the last page the author begs the reader to "praye for the Anker of Londdon Wall wretched Symon, that . . hath compyled this mater in englysshe for our goostly comforte that vnderstande no latyn." Then, after the words "Deo gratias," there follows:—"Here endeth the treatyse . . whiche . . I Rycharde [Fitz-James] vnworthy bysshop of London haue studyously redde & ouerseen. . ." These prayers would seem to have equally humbled both author and editor. Collation: A-F in fours.

Richard Pinson (1492-1531).

37940 (CHAUCER'S CANTERBURY TALES), sm. folio, black letter, woodcuts, wanting signature a and four other leaves (q4, hh7, D7, Gl), some leaves mended (b 1 and c 4 being slightly defective), very large copy, with Pynson's device on last leaf, oak boards, covered with stamped leather, rebacked, £65. (R. Pynson, about 1492)

A very fine specimen of typography and paper manufacture. It is interesting as the first production of Pynson's Press, and for its rarity, that at Althorp being the only perfect copy known. Heber's copy sold for £60. 18*s*, and Stevens's for £51, both imperfect.

37941 (DIVES AND PAUPER), small folio, the work commencing on a ii, very fine copy, perfect except for a vi in List of Contents which is a facsimile, a few other leaves most skilfully mended, brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, EXTREMELY RARE, £105.

Here endith a compendiouse treetise dyalogue. of Diues & paup. that is to say. the riche & the pore fructuously tretying vpon the x. cōmaūdmentes, fynisshed the v. day of Iuyl. the yere of oure lord god. M.CCCC.lxxxxiii. Emprentyd by me Richarde Pynson at the temple barre. of london. Deo gracias. (1493)

This was the first book printed by Pynson with a date. According to Lowndes, it had been supposed that the book should contain a final leaf with Pynson's device, but he also mentions that the fact had been expressly denied. I have seen it stated that a copy is known having a final leaf of that sort, but the notion of its existence is believed to have originated in the words of Ames (fully transcribed by Dibdin), which I cite as follows: "The copy before me has only seven [leaves in the last sheet]; probably the eighth had his device or . . . had the cut on the title-page repeated." That in Lord Spencer's library has not any such leaf; and besides his copy, only three others are known. This copy appears to be that which was sold for £50 in Wilks's sale in 1847, and for the same sum in Stevens's in 1857.

The author of this curious work was Henry Parker, of Doncaster, a Carmelite. He preached against the pomp of the priesthood, and reproved the prelates for their wealth and their modes of living, which he contrasted with the utter poverty of Christ. He was compelled to do public penance and ask pardon for his scandalous statements; but the winged words had gone forth, and Pynson printed them in 1493 with the title of "Dives and Pauper."

The book is full of curious and suggestive matter, historical allusions, and racy proverbial phrases. The style of the Dialogue appears in the following specimens:

"Dives. Thou art the more fole. But it is a comon proverbe A foles bolte is sone shotte. Abyde and aunswere, and I wol ley an hundryd pounde that I shalle preve thee by gode argumentes that he is but a fole whiche wyl nat bisye him to be riche."

"It felle late in this londe that a Scott appelyd an Englissh man of high tresone, whāne he shudd fighte bifore a Juge in their cause, the Juge as the maner is, putt them bothe to their othe. Whāne the Scott shulde swere he said to the Juge, Lorde I came nat hyder to swere, I came to fight, for my chalenge was to fight, and therto I am redy, but swere wol I nat for I made no chalenge to swere."

Collation: Table, a-b in sixes (the first leaf having been blank); and a-v and A-I in eights (the first and last leaves having been blank).

37942 (SALLUST'S War against Jugurtha translated from the Latin by Alexander Barclay), small folio, black letter, woodcuts, wanting the title, with an additional first sheet (except A i) inserted from Pynson's other edition, in the original stamped calf cover, £16.

Thus endeth the famous cronycle of the war whiche the romayns had agyanst Iugurth vsurper of the kyngdome of Numidy: which cronycle is cōpyled in laten by the renowned romayn Salust. And translated into englysshe by syr Alexander Barclay preest: at commaundement of the right hye and mighty prince, Thomas duke of Northfolke. And imprented at London by Richarde Pynson printer vnto the kynges noble grace: with priuylege vnto hym graunted by our sayd soueravne lorde the kynge. [No date.]

EXTREMELY RARE. The first edition of Sallust in English. Collation: 8 preliminary unnumbered leaves (including the title which is wanting from this copy), and folios primo-lxxxvi.

37943 (PETRONYLLA), small 4to. black letter, olive morocco extra, gilt edges, from Horne Tooke's library, £40.

Empryntyd by Rychard Pynson: [No date, but about 1496.]

This copy and Mr. Huth's are the only two extant. This poetical tract consists of only four unnumbered leaves, of which the first contains nothing but Pynson's device. The second leaf begins with the following stanza:

"The parfite lyfe to put in remembraunce
Of a virgyn moost gracious and entere
Which in all vertu had souereyn suffysaunce
Callyd Petronylla petyrs doughter dere.
Benygne of porte humble of face and chere
All other maydyns excelled in fairenesse
And as hir legende pleynly doth vs lere
Though she were fayre more commẽdyd for mekenes."

37944 NATURA BREVIUM, in Law-French and in alphabetical arrangement, sm. folio, fine copy in the original stamped binding, £7.

(Rouen, about 1500)

The first two leaves contain the table which occupies pp. 2, 3, 4. On the fourth page, in a London type, evidently added when the stock was received from Rouen, are the words, "Per me. R. pynson." On the reverse of the last page we find the printer's mark of Guillaume le Tailleur of Rouen.

37945 HENRY VIII. Assertio Septem Sacramentorum aduersus Martin. Lutherũ, ædita ab inuictissimo Angliæ et Franciæ rege, et do. Hyberniæ Henrico eius nominis octauo. Small 8vo. FIRST EDITION, the title within a woodcut border, old calf, £10. 10*s*

Apud inclytam urbem Londinum in ædibus Pynsonianis. An. M.D.XXI . . (1521)

The celebrated treatise against Luther for which the King was dubbed "Defender of the Faith" by the Pope.

Collation: a-v in fours, the last two leaves of v being blank.

37946 TUNSTAL (Bishop). DE ARTE SVPPVTANDI libri qvattvor Cvtheberti Tonstalli. Small 4to. singularly large copy, with numerous uncut leaves, olive morocco extra, gilt edges, by Riviere, £28. Impress. Londini in aedibvs Richardi Pynsoni. Anno verbi incarnati. M.D.XXII . . (1552)

The first book on Arithmetic printed in England. Most copies have not the additional leaf of Errata which is found in this copy, and which seems to have been printed for Bishop Tunstal, after the publication of the book. That leaf has besides a distinct value as containing the Register for collation of the book. An extra leaf of paper precedes it, with further errata in MS., which is stated to be in the handwriting of the bishop himself, and which would therefore prove that this was his own copy.

In the preliminary epistle to Sir Thomas More, Tunstal gives a curious account of the origin of this work. It seems that in his dealings with certain goldsmiths, or silversmiths, he suspected that the accounts were fraudulently prepared, and therefore he made a special study of the forgotten science of his boyhood—arithmetic—in order to be able to check the figures. The result of his labours was a book for his own use, which, on being appointed Bishop of London, he thought no longer necessary to his new station, but probably worthy of being printed for the use of others.

Collation: A-T, TV, V-Z, and a, ab, b-z and &—all in fours except T, TV, V and ab, which are in sixes; and then the single leaf of Errata.

37947 FROISSART. Here begynneth the first volum of sir Johan Froyssart: of the cronycles of Englande, Fraunce, Spayne, Portyngale, Scotlande, Bretayne, Flaũders: and other places adioynynge. Trāslated . . . . by Johan Bourchier knight lorde Berners . . . 2 vols. folio, black letter, title and ¶ vi in the first volume in facsimile, and the margins of a few leaves restored, fine copy, russia extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £60.

Imprinted at London in Fletestrete by Richarde Pynson. printer to the kynges noble grace . . M.D.xxiii . . [(Vol. II:) . . M.D.xxv . .].

Copies having both volumes of Pynson's printing are extremely rare.

37948 PILGRIMAGE OF PERFECTION. Here begynneth a deuout treatyse in Englysshe, called the Pylgrimage of perfection: very pfitable for all christen people to rede: and in especiall, to all relygious psons moche necessary. 3 Books in 1 vol., thick small 4to. black letter, FIRST EDITION, woodcuts, a fine copy, WITH THE AUTOGRAPHS OF HENRY VIII, THE DUKE OF SOMERSET (LORD PROTECTOR), and QUEEN MARY, the second, third and fourth leaves of the "Table of the Seventh Day" in duplicate, brown morocco extra, blind tooling, gilt edges, by Bedford, £230. Thus endeth the seuenth and last day of the pylgrimage of perfection. Imprinted at London in Fletestrete, besyde saynt Dunstans churche, by Richarde Pynson . . 1526

William Bonde is supposed to be the author of this curious work.

The last leaf bears the autographs of Henry VIII and the Duke of Somerset; the latter has written above his name "from my Royale Maistere." Mary's autograph is on the first leaf of the Table to the Third Book, thus—"+ Marye the quene + ave Maria +."

Collation: First and Second Book, 12 preliminary unnumbered leaves, and Cix leaves (there are two numbers lxxvi); Table of the Third Book, 6 unnumbered leaves; Table of the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Days, 10 unnumbered leaves; Table of the Seventh and Last Day, 4 unnumbered leaves; Declaration of the Tree of Vice, 8 unnumbered leaves; First, Second and Third Days of the Third Book, C leaves; Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Seventh Days of the Third Book, Cxc leaves (there is no Clvi); and last leaf with printer's mark.

37949 LYDGATE. HERE BEGYNNETH THE BOKE OF IOHAN BOCHAS, DISCRYUING THE FALL OF PRĪCES, PRINCESSES, AND OTHER NOBLES: Translated into Englysshe by Iohñ Lydgate . . . small folio, black letter, woodcuts, a small piece on the last leaf in facsimile, but a fine copy, morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, EXTREMELY RARE, £50. . . Imprinted at London in flete strete by Richarde Pynson . . M.CCCCC.xxvii. (1527)

A charming volume, equally desirable as a book of great rarity, as a production of one of England's earliest printers, as a specimen of ancient wood engraving in this country, and as containing the text of an old English poem.

On folio A ii, in the prologue of the translator, there is the following stanza :—

My maister Chaucer with his fressh commedies
Is deed alas ! chefe poete of Bretayne
That somtyme made full pitous tragedies
The fall of princes he did also complayne
As he that was of makyng soverayne Whom all this lande of right ought preferre
Sithe of our language he was the lode sterre.

The judgment of Lydgate concerning Chaucer, and the words in which he expresses it, are noteworthy. He calls him "of making sovereign," i.e. the King of Poetry; showing thus that the original sense of the word poet was not then forgotten.

Collation: a, A-X, and AA-PP, in sixes except the last which is in eight leaves. The leaves are numbered, but irregularly.

37950 (STATUTA ANTIQUA). [At end:] Etsi hic libellus, in quo vetusta decreta (que vulgo appellant antiqua statuta) continentur, bis vel ter excusus est . . narrow 12mo. (agenda form), black letter, russia neat, by Mrs. Weir, with Wodhull arms, £7. 10*s*

Londini in ædibus Richardi Pynsoni . . excus . Anno domini Millesimo quingentesimo uicesimo septimo . . (1527)

This is usually placed under the heading of MAGNA CARTA because that document is at the beginning of the book and occupies the first seven leaves.

Collation: Calendar, 6 unnumbered leaves; cliiij leaves; and 8 unnumbered leaves of Table (including the last leaf with colophon).

37951 PALSGRAVE. Lesclarcissement de la Langue Francoyse, compose par maistre Iehan Palsgraue . . . thick small folio, black letter, FIRST EDITION, a remarkably fine large and clean copy, with some uncut leaves, but wanting the last leaf of sheet k which only however contained Pynson's device, old calf, £28.

. . The imprintyng fynysshed by Iohan Haukyns . . M.CCCCC. and xxx. (1530)

EXTREMELY RARE. The First French Grammar and Dictionary.

Hibbert's copy was sold for £30. 9*s*, and Heber's for £25.

Pinson's device shows that the work was produced at his press, notwithstanding the name of Hawkins, who was presumably his assistant and intending successor.

Julian Notary (1498-1528).

37952 THE GOLDEN LEGENDE, 2 parts in 1, small folio, gothic letter, with woodcuts; fine large copy, but wanting 3½ leaves in the second part (folios 41, 42, half of 111, and the last leaf); splendidly bound in morocco super extra, gilt edges, tooled in the antique style, by Hayday, £125.

. . Tempellbaar . . a . Thousande . CCCCC.iii. . . By me Julyan Notary [1503]

This copy belonged to Herbert and bears his autograph. The description given by him is reprinted by Dibdin in the Typog. Ant. without alteration, as the latter had not been able to find a copy to refer to.

37953 THE GOLDEN LEGEND, a very large and absolutely perfect copy, in old calf, £225. Julyan Notary, 1503

One of the rarest books in the world. There exist only some four or five copies, and almost all of them are imperfect. That in the British Museum is very defective.

37954 (CRONYCLE OF ENGLONDE.) Small folio, black letter, woodcuts, wanting the second preliminary leaf, folios vi and ix-x, and all after & i. (probably 5 leaves), the top margins with a few letters of four leaves torn away, old calf, £35.

[Back of Folio Cxxviii:] Here endeth this present Cronycle of Englonde with the fruyte of tymes . compyled in A booke . And also newely Enprynted in the yere of our lorde god . M.CCCCC. & xv. by me Iulyan Notary dwellynge in powlys chyrche yarde besyde ỹ weste dore by my lordes palyes (1515)

VERY RARE. The Roxburghe copy was sold for £28. 7*s*, and resold in the White Knights' Sale for £56. 14*s*.

Collation: 4 preliminary leaves (the first and last pages containing nothing but woodcuts); sheets a-v in sixes, and x in eight leaves (this is the body of the text, and folioed, but too irregularly to serve any purpose); ". . a lytell treatyse the whyche treateth of the descripcion of this lōde whiche of olde thyme was named Albyon . .," sheets y and z in sixes, and & (? 6 leaves).

—— together 8 vols. in 1, 12mo. old calf, lettered "Miscellanees," EXCESSIVELY RARE, £66. 1569-71

An excessively rare collection of tracts of great importance for the history of Elizabeth. The first five are all attributed to Norton by Ant. à Wood, and, so far as I know, there is no collection of them elsewhere, except in Mr. Huth's library. The last two were reprinted in the Harleian Miscellany.

37988 NORTON (Thomas):

To the Quenes Maiesties poore deceiued Subiectes, etc., by Thomas Norton 1569

1569-72

On the last page of Buchanan's "Ane detectiovn of the duinges of Marie Quene of Scottes" there are four sentences, the third of which is a direct incitement to the murder of that unfortunate lady:—"Quhile your Quenis enemy liueth, hir dangir cõtinueth. Desperate necessitie wyll dare the vttermost. O cruell mercie."

37989 [BUCHANAN (G.)] De Maria Scotorum Regina, totáque eius contra Regem coniuratione, fœdo cum Bothuelio adulterio, nefaria in maritum crudelitate & rabie, horrendo insuper & deterrimo eiusdem parricidio: plena, & tragica planè Historia. 16mo. a fine copy, old calf, £12.

[Sine nota, sed Londini per Jo. Day impressa, circa 1572]

VERY RARE. A LARGE and CLEAN COPY of this ORIGINAL EDITION. Besides the 122 pages mentioned by Lowndes, this copy has two unpaged leaves at the end, containing two satires in Latin on the Queen, signed respectively "G. M." and "P. R. Scotus": the signatures are A-Q in fours.

37990 MONTANO. De heylighe Spaensche inquisitie, met haer loosheyt, valscheyt ende arghelisten ontdect, wtgestelt ende int licht gebracht. . . Imprinted at London in Foster Lane by Iohn Wallye. Anno. M.D.LIIII. (1554)

"A most curious and interesting little volume, and of the highest degree of rarity. Having been specially intended for the instruction of children in good manners, few copies are likely to have survived. Elaborate instructions are given for practices and customs of the most curious kind; one instruction is how to blow one's nose with the fingers. As to saluting one another, the author says, 'Some make curtesye with both knees bowed (as yrishmen), and on contrarywise some do it with vpright body, some with body stoupyng. Some there be that judge the curtesy of women. Some lykewyse with upright body make curtesy, first bow the right kne, and after the lyft, whiche among englyshmen is laudable enough. The frensh men do bowe the right kne with a lytle pleasant returne of the body.'"

Collation: A-C in eights, and D in four leaves.

Wyllyam Coplande (1557)

38001 —— —— another copy, the large woodcut on the title mounted, and the few words of intitulation supplied in facsimile; a few leaves mended; a fine and virtually perfect copy in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, from Lord Crawford's library, £70. 1557

An excessively rare edition of one of the most popular of the Romances of Chivalry; unknown to Ames and Herbert. Lowndes cites only Dent's copy, and Utterson's (imperfect), and Dr. Dibdin expressly stated "A third copy is not at present known." In fact, there do not seem to be half-a-dozen copies in existence. Dent's copy was again in the market at the Perkins sale, at which it fetched the sum of £120, and was bought for Mr. Huth.

From the wording of Caxton's prologue, it would appear that Sir Thomas Mallory had condensed several French books into one English work. Caxton himself apparently thought so; but a MS. (now in the Huth library) was discovered a few years back, which seemed to be the French original from which the Morte d'Arthur was translated into English. In the Huth catalogue it is described as of the thirteenth century, but it may not have been quite so early.

The name Mort Arthur is misapplied by the English story-tellers; it properly belongs to the fourth part of the great Romance, but is used by them to cover the whole cycle of Arthurian fiction.

Hugh Singleton (1548–88).

38002 AN EXHORTACION to the carienge of Chrystes crosse, wyth a true and brefe confutacion of false and papisticall doctryne . . . 16mo. black letter, limp vellum, £3. 16*s* [without marks]

Dibdin's Ames assigns this extremely rare little tract to Hugh Singleton's press. It would appear to have been printed about the year 1553. Some attribute the authorship to Miles Coverdale.

Collation: pages (1)-153 (including the Title), and 3 pages of Table.

Robert Stoughton (1548–51).

38003 TYNDALE. A Briefe declaration of the sacraments, expressing the fyrst oryginall how they came vp, ād were institute with the true and mooste syncere meaning and vnderstandyng of the same . . Abraham Veale 1548–86).

38005 MORE. A frutefull pleasaunt, & wittie worke, of the beste state of a publique weale, and of the newe yle, called Vtopia: written in Latine, by . . Syr Thomas More knyght, and translated into Englishe by Raphe Robynson, . . and nowe by him at this seconde edition newlie perused and corrected . . 16mo. black letter, THE SECOND AND BEST EDITION, a very nice copy, green morocco extra, gilt edges, £6. 6*s*

Imprinted at London, by Abraham Vele, dwellinge in Pauls churchyarde, at the signe of the Lambe [1556]

RARE. Collation: A-S in eights, the first nine unnumbered and the rest irregularly folioed.

38006 ——— the same, 16mo. black letter, a fine copy, calf, £4. 4*s* 1556

This copy bears the following dated colophon on the last leaf, but in all other respects is identical with that above: "Imprinted at Londō in Paules Churche yarde, at the sygne of the Lambe, by Abraham Veale. M.D.L.VI."

Robert Crowley (1549–51).

38007 [LANGLAND (William of).] The Vision of Pierce Plowman, now fyrste imprynted . . . small 4to. black letter, PRINTED ON VELLUM, wanting sheet I (4 leaves), with contemporary autographs of Jane and William Fitzwyllyam, vellum, £10. 10*s*

Imprinted at London by Roberte Crowley, dwellyng in Elye rentes in Holburne. The yere of our Lord. M.D.L. . . (1550)

FIRST EDITION. Only two other copies printed on vellum are known—Earl Spencer's, and the Grenville copy in the British Museum. It is a singular thing, however, that Dibdin does not describe the Spencer copy in his Althorpe Catalogue, although he had already spoken of it as existing when he printed his edition of Ames.

Collation of a perfect copy: 2 preliminary unnumbered leaves (including the Title), and folios i-cxvii.

Imprinted at London by Roberte Crowley . . M.D.L. . . (1550)

VERY RARE. Earlier in the same year the first impression of this famous work of William Langland had appeared. Both editions are very rare; it being highly probable that when Queen Mary came to the throne, and the printer took refuge in Germany, many copies were destroyed by the Roman Catholic party, Collation: 8 preliminary unnumbered leaves, and folios i-cxvii.

Thomas Marsh (1549–89).

38009 (THOMAS, Wylliam.) The Historye of Italye. A booke exceding profitable to be red because it intreateth of the astate of many and dyuers common weales, how they haue bene, and now be gouerned . . small 4to. black letter, title within woodcut border, calf, £2. 10*s*

Anno. 1563. Imprinted at London . . by Thomas Marshe.

Second Edition, but with a Second Part not before published. The Epistle is signed William Baldwin.

Collation: 4 preliminary leaves, and sheets A-Cc, all in eights except A, O-V and Cc, which are in fours. The leaves are numbered, but most irregularly.

Imprinted at London . . by Thomas Marsh. 1581

RARE. Collation: 3 preliminary unnumbered leaves (including the Title), and folios 1-217 (numbers 64 and 65 occurring twice).

38013 MIROUR FOR MAGISTRATES (THE), wherein may bee seene, by examples passed in this Realme . . Newly imprinted, and with the addition of diuers Tragedies enlarged . . [Edited by William Baldwin and John Higgins]. At London in Fleete streete, by Henry Marsh, being the assigne of Thomas Marsh. 1587 . . —The Seconde parte of the Mirrour for Magistrates . . Imprinted by Richard Webster . . 1578.—2 vols. in 1, small 4to. black letter, russia, £20. 1587-78

These two parts form the first united edition of all the pieces (excepting only the two added by Niccols in 1610). The work includes tales in verse on episodes in the traditional history of Britain and England. The poets who contributed to this celebrated compilation were William Baldwin, Thomas Blennerhasset, George Ferrers, John Higgins, Thomas Phaer, Thomas Sackville (Lord Buckhurst and Earl of Dorset); and something of Skelton, Churchyard, and others is also found in it.

"This being the best printed by either of the original editors, may be characterized, and has now been adopted, as the standard edition."—Haslewood.

Stephen Myerdman (1550-52).

Londini per Stephanum Myerdmannum. An. 1552

Though the cover is somewhat damaged by time it remains a good specimen of English artistic binding, and shows that the taste for fine patterns of interlaced ornament on the outside of books was not confined to the Continent. This book is a very rare one, a great number of the copies having been destroyed at Queen Mary's accession in the year following its publication.

Collation: 28 preliminary unnumbered leaves (including the title), 141 numbered leaves, and "Consensio in Re Sacramentaria" of 11 numbered leaves (including the separate title).

William Riddel (1552-54).

Londini. Ex officina Gulielmi Riddel. Anno. M.D.LII. (1552)

Rare. The author spells his name in the English fashion at the foot of the "Peroration to the Englyshe reader," on the face of the last leaf.

Collation: 4 preliminary leaves, sheets A-Mm in sixes, and Nn in four leaves.

Richard Tottill (1553-97).

38016 ELIZABETH. The Qvenes maiesties passage through the citie of London to westminster the daye before her coronacion. Anno. 1558. Cum priuilegio. Small 4to. black letter, the title within a woodcut border in which there is Grafton's device; a fine copy, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £60.

Imprinted at London in fletestrete within Temple lane, at the signe. of the hand and starre, by Richard Tottill, the xxiii. day of Ianuary. (1558)

EXCESSIVELY RARE ORIGINAL EDITION. There are several pieces of English and Latin poetry interspersed through the text, being the addresses made to the young Queen by children personifying various abstractions. The pageant took place on Saturday the 18th of January 1558-59, and on the following Thursday this book was in print.

Collation: A-E in fours.

Excvsvm Londini, in aedibvs Roberti Cali. . . 1553 . .

The printing of this scarce work, dedicated to the Princess Mary, afterwards Queen, was commenced at Louvain in 1550, but the sheets were destroyed before publication, and the book was only effectively printed in London on the accession of Queen Mary. Its author was made Bishop of Winchester.

Collation: 6 preliminary unnumbered leaves, 102 numbered leaves (76 and 77 being omitted, but 101 and 102 repeated), and 2 unnumbered leaves of Table.

38018 STANDISH. A discourse wherein is debated whether it be expedient that the scripture should be in English for al men to reade that wyll . . ([At end:] Made and composed by Iohn Standish doctour in diuinitie.) 16mo. black letter, old calf, £2. 10*s*

Imprinted at London by Robert Caly, within the precinct of the late dissolued house of the graye Freers, nowe conuerted to an hospital, called Christes hospitall . . M.D.L.V. (1555)

RARE. The title announces this to be a second, enlarged and corrected edition. Collation: A-M in eights, except the last which has only four leaves.

38019 VINCENT OF LERINS. The waie home to Christ and truth leadinge from Antichrist and errour, made and set furth in the Latine tongue, by that famous and great clearke Vincent . . . Jhon Kingston, 1563

38022 HITCHCOK. A Pollitique Platt for the honour of the Prince, the greate profite of the publique state, relief of the poore, preseruation of the riche, reformation of Roges and Idle persones, and the wealthe of thousandes that knowes not howe to liue. Written for an Newyeres gift to Englande, and the inhabitantes thereof: by Robert Hitchcok late of Cauersfielde in the Countie of Buckyngham Gentleman. Small 4to. black letter, with folding table and two curious folding woodcuts, blue morocco extra, gilt edges, £10. 10*s* Imprinted at London, by Ihon Kyngston . . 1580

The author's panacea for all England's troubles is fishing. The large table shows a scheme for reviving the fishing trade in every English port; the first woodcut represents large foreign vessels fishing in English waters to the detriment of our fishermen, who are forced to use only small boats and keep near shore; and the second gives a picture of the port of Bordeaux with our merchants buying and shipping wines for Hull, Newcastle, London, and Bristol. The book contains a considerable amount of interesting information on the former trade of England.

Collation: * (4 leaves),  (2 leaves), a (4 leaves), b (the folding table), c to f in fours, and the two cuts described above.

Henry Sutton (1553–65).

38023 PHILPOT. The Examination of the constant Martyr of Christ, Iohn Philpot, Archdeacon of Winchester, at sundry seasons, in the tyme of his sore imprisonment, conuented and baited, as in these particular tragedies folowynge, it maye (not only to the christen instruction, but also to the mery recreation of the indifferent reader) moste manifestly appeare . . . 16mo. black letter, a wormhole in the margin, old calf, £4. 4*s* [Without marks]

VERY RARE. The book was reprinted by Henry Sutton in 1559, with his name; so that this edition would appear to have been also printed by him, during the previous reign, probably about 1557 or 1558. The title is a curiosity. "Not only to the christen instruction, but also to the mery recreation of the indifferent reader" are the "particular tragedies" of "the constant Martyr of Christ," John Philpot herein recounted. The author was before all things determined to sell his book.

Collation: A-O in eights.

Thomas Powell (1556–62).

38024 HEYWOOD. The Spider and the Flie. A Parable of the Spider and the Flie, made by Iohn Heywood. With many woodcuts; the margin of one leaf mended. Imprinted at London in Flete strete by Tho. Powell. Anno. 1556.—Iohn Heywoodes woorkes. A dialogue conteyning the number of the effectuall prouerbes in the Englishe tounge, compact in a matter concernynge two maner of maryages. Wherevnto are now newly added a syxt hundred of Epigrams by the sayde Iohn Heywood. Londini . . 1562. [At end:] Imprinted at London in Fleetestrete by Thomas Powell . . —2 vols. in 1, small 4to. black letter, fine copies, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Roger Payne, with the Roxburghe crest on sides, £36. 1556-52

Both pieces are EXTREMELY RARE. Mr. Way's copy of the former was sold for £53.

Collation: The Spider and the Flie, A-C and A-z in fours, Aa (14 leaves), Bb (6), Cc (8), Dd (12), Ee (16), Ff (16), Gg (8), and Hh-Ss in fours. The Woorkes, A-Dd in fours, and Ee (1 leaf).

John Wolfe (1560–1601).

38025 LELAND. A Learned and True Assertion of the original, Life, Actes, and death of . . Arthure, King of great Brittaine . . . Collected and written of late yeares in latin, by . . Iohn Leyland. Newly translated into English by Richard Robinson . . small 4to. black letter, fine copy, red morocco extra, £8. 8*s*

London Imprinted by Iohn Wolfe, dwelling in Distaffe Lane, ouer against the Signe of the Castelle. 1582

In its connection with Old English poetry, and with the legend of King Arthur, this volume has of recent years acquired great interest and value in the eyes of the collector. The poetical element is in the numerous pieces of verse which occur throughout the text. The Assertio was the first book ever written to put forward a clear and professedly historical exposition of the Arthurian legend. Hearne was unable to meet with any copy of this original edition of Robinson's translation, although the works of Leland were objects of his perpetual study and research.

Sold years ago in Mr. Bindley's sale for £17. 6*s* 6*d*.

Collation: 8 preliminary unnumbered leaves, and leaves 1-39.

John Kynge (1560–61).

38026 LUPSET. Tho. Lupsets workes, 12mo. black letter, title within woodcut border; blue morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, from Lord Crawford's library, £5. 5*s* Anno domini. M.D.LX . .
At end: Imprynted at London . . by Ihon kynge [1560]

Owen Rogers (1561–66).

38027 LANGLAND (William of). The vision of Pierce Plowman, newlye imprynted after the authours olde copy, with a brefe summary of the principall matters set before euery part called Passus. Wherevnto is also annexed the Crede of Pierce Plowman, neuer imprinted with the booke before. 2 parts in 1 vol. small 4to. black letter, the margins of the title mended, with a few MS. notes in an Elizabethan handwriting near the end, calf, £18. 18*s*
Imprynted at London, by Owen Rogers, dwellyng neare vnto great saint Bartelmewes gate, at the sygne of the spred Egle: The yere of our Lorde God, a thousand, fyue hundred, thre score and one. (1561)
VERY RARE when perfect, as this is. Most copies lack the "Crede."
Collation: *, a-II and A-D, in fours (the last leaf having been blank), except * and II which are each in twos. The "Crede" has a separate title and colophon, but no date.

Richard Watkins (1561–98)

38028 PETTIE. A petite Pallace of Pettie his pleasure: Contaynyng many pretie Hystories by him set foorth in comely colours, and most delightfully discoursed . . . small 4to. black letter, FIRST EDITION, the first three leaves in facsimile, and a few letters missing from a leaf or two, green morocco extra, gilt edges, £10. 10*s* [At end:] Printed at London, by R. W. [About 1576]
EXCESSIVELY RARE; only two other copies being recorded, one of which is in the Grenville library. There are two other undated editions printed in or soon after 1576, to which some persons attribute anteriority; but that is very questionable. The first story (Sinorix and Camma) has supplied Lord Tennyson with the plot of his "Cup."
Collation: 4 preliminary unnumbered leaves, and pages 1-224.

38029 PETTIE. Petite Pallace of Pettie his Pleasure, conteyning many pretie Histories, by him set foorth in comely colours, and most delightfully discoursed, sm. 4to. black letter, portions of G1 and G4 defective, head lines cut into, half morocco, very rare, £4.
R. W. (1598)

Henry Denham (1565–87).

38030 PAINTER. The Palace of Pleasure Beautified, adorned and well furnished, with Pleasaunt Histories and excellent Nouelles, selected out of diuers good and commendable Authors. By William Painter . . . FIRST EDITION, the last two leaves reprinted and the leaf of imprint wanting. 1566. Imprinted at London, by Henry Denham, for Richard Tottell and William Iones.—The Collation of Whitgift: 6, (pages (1)-246, and 21 leaves.

Thomas Vautrollier (1566–1605).

38037 [KNOX (John).] THE HISTORIE OF THE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND, 12mo. FIRST EDITION, fine copy, with autograph of "D. Uxbridge, November 14th, 1677," in vellum, from the Hamilton Palace library, £30. (Vautrollier, 1584)

The excessive rarity of this first edition is too well known to require any comment. Being unable to get the work printed in Scotland it was confided to Vautrollier in London, who had set up sheets B to M m (pages 17 to 560) when by order of the Archbishop of Canterbury the entire impression was seized and destroyed, with the exception of the very few copies sent away previously as the sheets were finished.

John Charlewood (1567–92).

Written in French by Alexander Siluayn, and Englished by L. P., small 4to. russia extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £6. 6*s* London Printed by Adam Islip. 1596

RARE. The story, on pages 400 to 406, "of a Jew who would for his debt haue a pound of the flesh of a Christian," probably suggested to Shakespeare the plot of his "Merchant of Venice;" but in it, in spite of the Author's bias, the Jew shows a much more amiable character than his Christian opponent, and moreover has much the best of the argument with him. The translator's full name, Lazarus Piot, appears at the end of the Preface.

Collation: 3 preliminary unnumbered leaves (including the Title), and pages 1-436 (pages 175-6 and 248-9 are repeated).

Crawford library, £300.

Prynted in the yeare of oure Lorde M.D.XXXV. and fynished the fourth daye of October (1535)

First English Bible. The immeasurable superiority of Tyndale over Coverdale does nowise invalidate the claim of this work to stand as one of the most important and remarkable books in the English language. It has been recently proved that this Bible was produced by a certain co-operation between Coverdale and Jacob van Meteren of Antwerp. Mr. Henry Stevens, who was the first to announce this discovery, assumed rather absurdly that Meteren translated and Coverdale only corrected the book, and asserted with more show of reason that it was printed at Antwerp. M. Moens has since discovered a legal document sworn to by Emmanuel van Meteren (son of Jacob) in his old age, in which it is apparently demonstrated that Jacob van Meteren printed the book in Paris for Edward Whitchurch.—Now, as this statement evidently refers to the Bible of 1537, we must set it down as the error of an old man's memory. As for the assignment of the impression to Antwerp, it is, to say the least, improbable that the book was printed there, independently of the striking evidences of German typography presented in every feature of the book. It is difficult to abandon the conclusion that the conjectures of former time were nearer to the truth than the apparently exact testimony of our own days.

38066 1536 Tyndale, the Mole edition. [The Newe Testament yet once agyne corrected by Willyam Tindale], sm. 4to. gothic letter, with woodcuts; wanting the title, three preliminary leaves, first leaf of Matthew, and leaf 202; on the whole a fine and large copy in old English rough calf, £25. (Antwerp) 1536

No. 11, Lea-Wilson; 782 Caxton Exhibition.

With the bookplate of "the Right Honble. the Earl of Berkshire Lord Marshall of England 1720."

38067 1536 Tyndale, the Engraver's mark edition. (The Newe Testament yet once agayne corrected by Willyam Tyndale), sm. 4to. gothic letter, woodcuts; wanting the first four and the last nine leaves; calf, £20. (Antwerp) 1536

No copy in the British Museum. No. 12 Lea Wilson, 780 Caxton Exhibition.

This is the edition in which the mark on the stone at the foot of St. Paul, in the large cut preceding the Epistles, is composed of the letters A. B. K. (while in two other nearly identical editions we find the same space blank in one, containing the figure of a mole in the other).

All three editions were printed at Antwerp, but by different printers.

38068 1537 Mathew. (Bible in which are contayned the Olde and Newe Testament translated into English by Thomas Mathew), folio, gothic letter, First Edition, woodcuts; wanting twenty-six leaves, £25. (London, Grafton and Whitchurch, 1537) supplemented from Coverdale, revised by John Rogers, and published under the assumed name of Thomas Matthew. It is supposed to have been printed abroad (? Paris) for Grafton and Whitchurch.

38069 ——— another copy, having four leaves slightly mended, but PERFECT, purple morocco extra, gilt edges, £150. 1537

No. 4 of Lea Wilson, 792 Caxton Exhib. Tyndale's version of the Bible.

38070 1538 Coverdale. THE NEW TESTAMENT of oure Sauyour Iesu Christ. Faythfully translated, & lately corrected: wyth . . . many necessary annotacions . . . sm. two. gothic letter, numerous woodcuts; five leaves in facsimile; a very large and sound copy in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Zaehnsdorf. £50.

. . Antwerpe by Matthew Crom . . M.D.xxxviii (1538)

38070* ——— another copy, two leaves in facsimile and 2 leaves wanting; in a sixteenth century English binding. £25. 1538

No. 77 Caxton Exhibition. Lea Wilson had no copy. This is one of the most remarkable of the early editions, as well as one of the rarest; only these two and one other having appeared at auction during the last fifty years or more. It is described in the British Museum catalogue as Tyndale's version, and by the compiler of the Caxton Exhibition Catalogue as Coverdale's—a confusion which is pardonable, as it really seems that Coverdale made no independent translation of the New Testament, but simply adopted Tyndale's, making a few verbal changes occasionally. This edition has Tyndale's prologues and Coverdale's summaries. Besides these, it has short Glosses or Annotations at the end of the chapters, which appeared for the first time in this edition. The engravings are the same (for the most part) as appeared later in the same year in an edition of the Flemish Bible printed at Antwerp by Hanszen van Liesvelt. (It is curious that, in Liesvelt's book, all the large initial P's are decorated with a shield bearing the arms of England reversed.)

38071 1538 Coverdale. SEARCHE THE SCRIPTURE. THE NEWE TESTAMENT, Faythfully translated, and lately correcte, by MILES COVERDALE. With . . . many necessary Annotacyons after the chapters, declarynge sondry harde places conteyned in the texts, 18mo. gothic letter, printed in black and red, with woodcuts, original calf, £55.

[London] Prynted in the yeare of oure Lorde. M.CCCCC.XXXVIII (1538) Set forth wyth the Kynges Licence

With Tyndale's Prologues, Coverdale's summaries, and the Glosses of the Antwerp edition. Only three other copies are known like this, in public libraries;—that is, perfect, but with the apparent lack of one leaf at the end. There is really nothing wanting; the book ends with signature Nn 4, on which the Table of Lessons for Saints' Days closes properly with St. Katherine. Besides the three copies referred to there are two others, both in the British Museum, very imperfect. Those five copies are all that have been recorded.

38072 1538 Coverdale. THE NEWE TESTAMENT both Latine and Englyshe ech correspondente to the other after the vulgare texte, communely called S. Ieromes. Faythfully translated by Myles Couerdale. Anno. M.CCCCC.XXXVIII . . sm. 4to. printed in double columns, Roman and gothic letter; two of the preliminary leaves and the last six leaves of Apocalypse in facsimile; old English red morocco gilt, gilt edges, £28.

Southwarke by James Nicolson. Set forth wyth the Kynges moost gracious licence (1538)

The title is supplied from Nicholson's first edition of 1538, as may be observed from the use of Coverdale's name as above given; but the body of the book is of his second edition of that year, in which the printer substituted the pseudonym "Johan Hollybush" on the title (Lea Wilson, Nos. 13, 14).

The title, the dedication to the King, and the Preface to the Reader occupy the first four preliminary leaves (of which the third and fourth are in fascimile); the calendar is contained on the last two preliminary leaves: th text consists of folios 1-342 (the last marked in error 341), of which 337-342 are in facsimile. The Table to find the Epistles, 2 leaves, is usually found at the end; it is here transposed to the beginning of the book among the preliminary leaves, so as to make these amount to eight leaves, instead of six, in this copy.

38073 1539 Taverner. THE MOST SACRED BIBLE, Whiche is the holy scripture, conteyning the old and new testament, translated into English, and newly recognised with great diligence after most faythful exemplars, by RICHARD TAVERNER, small folio, Gothic letter; four leaves at the beginning and six at the end in facsimile; old calf, rebacked, £15.

John Byddell, for Thomas Barthlet . . M.D.XXXIX (1539)

(Lea Wilson, No. 5.) Lord Crawford's copy fetched £51, and was sold with all faults.

"This recognition consisted of some alterations of the text from Matthew's Bible, and a change in many of the marginal notes."—Cotton.

This edition was patronised by Thomas Cromwell and allowed to be publicly read in churches; from which fact we may presume that it was ready for publication before the "Great" Bible of 1539.

CONTENTS: 16 preliminary leaves, including title (not fifteen as Lowndes and others have stated); folios I-CCXXX; title-leaf "The Boke of the Prophets;" folios II-XCI; title-leaf to the Apocrypha; folios I-LXXV; title-leaf of New Testament; folios II-CI; title of Epistles three leaves. The facsimile leaves are the first four preliminaries, folios 99-101 of the N. T., and 2-3 of the table of epistles.

38074 Cranmer's Great Bible. THE BYBLE IN ENGLYSH, that is to saye the content of all the holy scrypture, both of the olde and newe Testament with a Prologe thereinto, made by the reuerende father in God, Thomas archebyshop of Cantorbury. This is the Byble appoynted to the vse of y^e^ churches, Prynted by Edwarde Whitchurch, Cum priuilegio ad imprimendum solum. Ffinished the .xxviii. daye of Maye. Anno Domini, M.D.XLI. 4 vols. in 1, stout largo folio, gothic letter, with woodcuts, old calf, Lord Hampton's copy with his bookplate, £50. 1541

The six preliminary leaves between the general title and the text were those which were issued in July, 1540, and the last leaf of the book is from the edition of April, 1539. Otherwise the book is a genuine and unmixed copy of the Great Cranmer Bible, of May, 1541; and is therefore a volume of the most desirable character. (Lea Wilson, No. 9.)

38075 ——— THE BYBLE IN ENGLYSHE of the largest and greatest volume, auctorysed and apoynted by the commaundemente of oure moost redoubted Prynce, and soueraygne Lorde Kynge Henry the .viii. . . . Ouersene and perused at the cōmaundemēt of the kynges hyghnes, by . . . Cuthbert bysshop of Duresme, and Nicolas bisshop of Rochester . . 5 parts in 1 vol. large folio, gothic letter, with woodcuts; a few leaves slightly cropped in the top margin, otherwise a fine copy in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford; a splendid volume, from Lord Crawford's library, £70. . . Edwarde Whitchurch . . 1541

(Lea Wilson, No. 12.) (Colophon: November, 1541)

Many years must elapse before such another copy of the "Great Bible" can be seen in the market.

38076 ——— [THE BYBLE IN ENGLYSHE], stout large folio, gothic letter, wanting twenty-nine leaves, old calf, £25.

(Grafton or Whitchurch, December, 1541)

The missing leaves are the six preliminary, the title to Esdras, and folios 8,

33-35, 86-103 of the New Testament. The copy is a large and sound one. (Lea Wilson, No. 10.)

The work is Cranmer's recension of Matthew's Bible of 1537.

38077 FRY (Francis) Description of the Great Bible, 1539, and the six Editions of Cranmer's Bible, 1540 and 1541, printed by Grafton and Whitchurch; also of the Editions, in large folio, of the Authorised Version of the Holy Scriptures printed in 1611, 1613, 1617, 1634, 1640, illustrated with titles, and with passages from the editions, the genealogies and maps, copied in facsimile; also with an identification of every leaf of the first seven, and of many leaves of the other editions, on 51 plates, together WITH AN ORIGINAL LEAF OF EACH OF THE EDITIONS described, folio, half morocco, uncut, £5. 1865

38078 1549 Tyndale. THE NEWE TESTAMENT in Englyshe and in Latin of Erasmus Translation. Novvm Testamentvm Anglice et Latine . . sm. 4to. printed in parallel texts, Gothic and Roman letter; title-leaf in facsimile; old English blue morocco, bound about 1650, £28.

. . Imprynted by Wyllyam Powell . . The yere of our Lorde. M.CCCCC.xlix . . God save the Kynge (1549)

(Lea Wilson, No. 22.)

At the end of the Testament follow "the Epistles taken out of the Olde Testament, which are red in the Churche after the use of Salysbury upon certayne days of the yeare." A worse copy, also with facsimile title, sold for £35 in Mr. Dunn Gardner's sale.

38079 1549 Matthew. THE BIBLE, whych is all the holy Scripture, by THOMAS MATTHEWE . . sm. folio, gothic letter, russia, gilt edges, RARE, £8. 10*s*

. . M.D.XLIX . . Thomas Raynalde and William Hyll . . (1549)

One of the rarest of the Bibles printed in the eventful year 1549, in which no less than five different editions were published. This copy wants the first title, and seven other leaves of preliminary matter, and the last leaf with the imprint. Two leaves of the Table are in facsimile. The description given by Lewis (pp. 109-11) evidently shows that he had only been able to find an imperfect copy. 1836, Priced by Thorpe, £21; Pickering's copy fetched £31. For a complete collation, see Lea Wilson's Catalogue, No. 14.

38080 1549 Matthew by Beck. THE BYBLE that is to say all the holy Scripture; in whych are cõtayned the Olde and New Testamente . . . small folio, gothic letter, numerous cuts, good sound copy in old calf, from Lord Hampton's library, EXTREMELY RARE, when perfect as in this instance, £42.

. . Jhon Daye . . and William Seres . . xvii. day of August. M.D.XLIX (1549)

38081 ——— another copy, folio, the Title to the Old Testament and the last leaf of Index in facsimile, brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Rivière, £24. 1549

Matthew's Bible revised by Edmund Becke; with Tyndale's prologues.

Dr. Adam Clarke's copy of this edition was sold for £31. 10*s*. Gardner's copy fetched, in 1854, £40. Priced. Thorpe, 1847, £52. 10*s*.

This is the "Bug Bible" as some persons like facetiously to style it, the phrase "bugges by night" being used in Psalm 91, verse 5 (instead of "terror by night" as in the authorised version), but the fact is that no single edition of the English Bible was peculiar in that respect. The phrase re-appears over and over again from the time of Tyndale and Coverdale onwards.

38082 Cranmer. THE BYBLE in Englishe, that is, the olde and new Testament, after the translacion appoynted to bee read in the Churches; 4 vols. in 1, sm. folio, gothic letter; title and last leaf mended; a fine and perfect copy in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £65.

. . Edwarde Whitchurche. The .xxix. day of December . . M.D.XLIX . . (1549)

The British Museum copy is imperfect. When perfect this book is no less rare than the edition of Raynalde and Hill.

38083 ——— THE BIBLE IN ENGLISHE, that is to saye. The content of al the holy scripture, both of the olde, and nevve Testament, accordinge to the translacion that is appointed to be rede in the Churches . . stout sm. 4to. gothic letter, title and a few leaves mended, headlines slightly cut into; a perfect copy in brown morocco, gilt edges, £10.

Prynted by Edvvard vvhytchurche. Cum priuilegio ad imprimendum solum. M.D.L. (1550)

This volume is even rarer than the folio of the preceding year.

38084 1550 Coverdale. THE WHOLE BYBLE. that is the holy scripture of the Olde and Newe testament faythfully translated into Englyshe by Myles Couerdale and newly ouersene and correcte. M.D.L. . . . Prynted for Andrewe Hester . dwellynge in Paules churchyard . . . Set forth with the Kynges mooste gracious licence, stout sm. 4to. gothic letter; margins slightly cut into, title and last leaf in facsimile, and second leaf inlaid; an engraved portrait of Edward VI by Simon de Passe, and an autograph letter of Lord Ashburnham concerning the Sussex sale, loosely inserted; brown morocco, blind-tooled, gilt edges, with an extra limp morocco cover, £25. [Zürich, Christoph Froschouer, 1550]

The book was printed in Zürich for Coverdale, but the whole edition sent to Hester in London who added the title and preliminary leaves. Most copies of the second Coverdale are imperfect. Some hints of a curious family history are contained in memoranda written on two leaves. The first is—"This byble cost my aunt Avise Danby aboue twenty pounds Hilliery Hamock brot in hir Debt." The second, by the same hand, is—"What is the reason that my sonn is gone to Jemeca. I say, Disobedience. What is the reason that all vilifie me and put me in prison put me out of the church. I being only meditating in my mind in the church in my seat 28th decer. an carried me out by forse 1686. inocents day . . "

38085 1550 Tyndale. THE NEW TESTAMENT in Englishe after the greeke translation annexed wyth the translation of Erasmus in Latin. Whereunto is added a Kalendar . . . wyth the Epistles taken out of the olde testamēt both in Latin and Englyshe . . . Excusum Londini in officina Thomæ Gaultier pro I. C. Pridie Kalendas Decembris anno Domini. M.D.L. sm. 8vo. the Latin and English printed side by side in Roman and Gothic letter; fine copy in blue morocco extra, gilt edges, £14. 1550

This rare and daintily printed volume is said to have been set forth by Sir John Cheke, whom the initials on the title-page are said to indicate, as well as those of the curious preface, "J. C. vnto the Christen reder,"—in which he points out not only the religious but also the linguistic profit to be derived from the edition.

38086 1552 Tyndale. THE NEWE TESTAMENT . . . Faythfully translated out of the Greke [by William Tyndale], small 4to.

Gothic letter, and a number of woodcuts throughout the text (including the curious figure of the Devil with a wooden leg), the title, leaf Rrii, and the last leaf in facsimile, the margins slightly cut into; blue morocco, gilt edges, £15.

London, Rycharde Jugge [1552]

38087 1553 Cranmer. THE BYBLE in Englyshe according to the translation of the Great Byble Anno MDLIII, sm. 4to. in an extremely minute Gothic letter; title-page supplied in MS. and the entire New Testament wanting; in green morocco, gilt edges; with Lord Leigh's bookplate, £5. (London, Richard Grafton, 1553)

This is not only a rare book but is also a curiosity of typography. It is arranged in double columns, with 62 lines of Gothic type per column, although the height of the page of type is under 6¼ inches.

38088 1560 Genevan. THE BIBLE and Holy Scriptvres conteyned in the Olde and Newe Testament. Translated according to the Ebrue and Greke, and conferred With the best translations in diuers langages . . . 2 vols. in 1, stout sm. 4to. Roman letter, first edition of the "Breeches Bible," with woodcut maps; headings cut into; blue morocco extra, gilt edges, £21.

Geneva. Printed by Rovland Hall, M.D.LX. (1560)

A remarkable volume as being the first edition of that "Breeches" Bible which became the most popular of all English books during the second half of the sixteenth and the first quarter of the seventeenth century. The exiles at Geneva produced it by collaboration, under the influence of Calvin and John Knox; and it became the Bible of the Puritans in England and of the Covenanters in Scotland.

Sir William Tite's copy fetched £27. The present copy has the Metrical Psalter printed for the Company of Stationers in 1655 bound up at the end.

38089 1571 Anglo-Saxon. GOSPELS OF THE FOWER EVANGELISTES in the vulgar toung of the Saxons (with the English translation revised from the Bishops Bible added, EDITED BY JOHN FOXE), sm. 4to. Editio Princeps of the Anglo-Saxon Scriptures, published at the expense of Archbishop Matthew Parker, with the dedication to Queen Elizabeth, signature and writing of William Lambard, Feb. 1570 on the title-page; sound copy in calf, from the Sunderland library, £40. 1571

William Lambarde here writes his name Lamwurhte. He was the Kentish antiquary and friend of Dean Nowell.

38090 ——— another copy, sm. 4to. a leaf mended, purple morocco extra, gilt edges, £25.

38091 ——— another copy, bound up in one volume with Lisle's Divers ancient Monuments and Testimony of Antiquity 1638, old calf, with several MS. notes by Thomas Baker, the Socius Ejectus of St. John's College, £30. 1571

John Day cut the types for this book, and therefore deserves to rank with the great inventors of the preceding century. It was the first time that Anglo-Saxon characters appeared in print.

This important volume is wrongly described by Lowndes as dedicated to Archbishop Parker instead of Queen Elizabeth. In the XVIIth century the rarity of copies was so great, that a former owner of Earl Spencer's copy, in a MS. note, records "I was twenty yeares looking for to buy one of these bookes."

38092 1576 Genevan. THE NEVV TESTAMENT of ovr Lord Iesvs Christ translated ovt of Greeke by Theod. Beza: Whereunto are adioyned brief Summaries . . by the said Theod. Beza: And also short expositions . . Englished by L. Tomson . . 12mo. maroon morocco extra, gilt edges, £10.

London by Christopher Barkar . . 1576 . .

In this copy, as in perhaps all others, the leaf of "A Perfecte Supputation of the years from Adam to Christ" is missing at the end. It is supposed that it was forgotten by the printer of this First Edition of Tomson. The mention of Beza's name as translator on the title simply means that his Latin translation of the Greek had been used as a basis by the exiled English translators in Geneva.

Pickering's copy, precisely like this, but wormed, fetched £16. 16*s*.

38093 1579 Scottish. THE BIBLE AND HOLY SCRIPTVRES conteined in the Olde and Newe Testament. Translated according to the Ebrue & Greke, & conferred with the best translations in diuers languages . . . Edinbrvgh Be Alexander Arbuthnot . . 1579—THE NEWE TESTAMENT . . Edinbvrgh . . . Thomas Bassandyne, M.D.LXXVI. (1576)—2 vols. in one, small folio, Roman letter, title in facsimile, the preliminary leaves and some leaves of table at end wanting; some leaves of text torn and defective; a much used copy in the original binding, £10. 1576-79

The first Bible printed in Scotland, and also the first authorised Scottish Bible. The text is that of the Genevan version. It is no less difficult to find a perfect copy of the Scottish Bible than of Cranmer's Great Bible of 1541; and it is more difficult to discover a copy in good condition of this book than of most others.

Lord Crawford's copy, title soiled and mended, fetched £31.

38094 ——— THE BIBLE that is, the Holy Scriptvres contained in the Olde and New Testament . . With most profitable annotations . . . 2 vols. in 1, folio, Roman letter, wanting the Scripture Genealogies and the map, and also wanting two leaves in Deuteronomy; a very fine clean and large copy in old calf, £5.

Edinburgh . . Andro Hart . . 1610

38095 ——— the same, quite perfect, with the 20 leaves containing Scripture Genealogies and the map; ruled throughout with red lines; fine copy in a seventeenth century binding of black morocco, elaborately blind-tooled, from Lord Crawford's library, £20. 1610

The second Scottish Bible; containing the Genevan version of the Old Testament as in the 1579 edition; and Laurence Tomson's recension of the Genevan New Testament.

This was the handsomest, finest, and most highly prized edition of the Genevan Bible.

38096 YORK MISSAL. Missale ad vsum ecclesie Eboracen. tam in cātu q̄' in litera recognitū . . . prosisq; ac varijs additamentis locupletatum . . . smallest 4to. gothic letter, printed in black and red, in double columns, with the Music; two large and rude full-page woodcuts in the Canon, with smaller woodcuts elsewhere, the title within an elegant woodcut border; slightly cut in headline, otherwise a good copy, perfect, in purple morocco, leather joints, gilt edges, by Hayday, £150.

. . sumptibus Frācisci Regnault, parisijs . . M.cccc.xxxij. (1533)

38097 ——— another copy, having the first two and the last two leaves partly made up in facsimile; a fine large and sound copy in red morocco extra, by Zaehnsdorf, £100. 1533

Collation A, a-m, in eights; n, 4 leaves; o-z in eights, q eight leaves, 2 ten leaves—altogether 206 leaves, not numbered.

There are only five editions of the York Missal, all excessively rare; the known number of copies of each that has survived being respectively one, six, seven, four, seven. Thus there are only 25 volumes to which the title of York Missal belongs (1509, 1516, 1517, 1530, 1533), and of that aggregate number, no less than eleven are imperfect.

There is no copy in the British Museum of this edition.

38098 YORK AND SARUM [Psalterium et Hymni ad vsum Sarum et Eboracen.], 2 parts in 1 vol. small 4to. gothic letter, printed in red and black, in long lines, with Music; wanting the general title, 2 leaves in sign. n, and some leaves at end of the Hymns; good copy in old calf neat (bound about 1700), lettered Diurnale Sarisburiense, £15. 15*s* (? Paris, Byrckman, 1516)

This excessively rare volume, although so small in size, is in a Missal-type; even the Calendar, in which the characters are smaller, is of larger type than the body of most of the Breviaries.

Collation of the volume as it stands: Calendar, 7 leaves, beginning +ii; Psalter "In dnica ad matu . j . noct. . ," signatures a-s in eights, and t four leaves. The folios are numbered from the first page of the Psalter i-cxlviij (folios ib and b, missing here), the Tabula Psalmorum, with the references given in large Arabic numerals occupies part of 146 verso, both pages of 147, and the first page of 148, on the back of which is a picture of David and Bathsheba.—The Hymns begin immediately in succession, with folio j and a new set of signatures. The heading on the first page is "Dnica. j . aductus. Sequūtur hymni per totum annum . . ad vsum Sarum et Eboracen." This part goes on to folio xxxij which is the last leaf of signature B, but leaves 28 and 29 (the two middle leaves of the last signature) are missing. The last line on folio 32 is "tamen desinit esse ceca" in the service of the Assumption.

On leaf 133 among the Te rogamus prayers which follow the Litany the following words are written, "Vt regi nostro Philippo et reginæ nostræ Mariæ . . . principib' pacem et veram concordiam atq3 victoriam donare digneris."

This is the only copy recorded at present of a book equally remarkable for its beauty and its liturgical importance. It consists of the following parts:—Calendar, 9 leaves (the first was probably blank); signatures a-ʒ, A-K, in tens, except ſ and D which have eight leaves each, and K which has nine (the last leaf, probably a blank, being absent). The first leaf of sheet A is wanting.

(rebacked) of boards covered with stamped leather, £100.

(Westminster, Julian Notary and Jean Barbier for Wynkyn de Worde, 1498)

The first Sarum Missal printed in England, and also the first book printed by Julian Notary. Only three other copies are known: one in the University Library of Cambridge, one in the Duke of Sutherland's collection, and one in the British Museum which wants 19 leaves. The above may consequently be considered the only copy now or henceforward attainable of an English liturgical book of the highest importance.

It is customary to quote the English portions of the Marriage service from the old Sarum Missals; and as they were in this volume printed for the first time in England, their citation here will not be uninteresting—

"I. N. take the. N. to my weddid wyfe. to. haue and to hold. fro this day for ward for bettir for wors. for richer for porer. In syknes an In helth. till deth vs depart. is (sic) holy chirch wyl it ordeyn ād ther to I plycht the mi trougth." "I. N. take the. "Wyth thys ryng. y. the wed and wyth my body y the honowr' and wyth all my gold y the endowe."

Collation: +, 10 leaves; a-m in eight leaves each; n, 6 leaves; o-s, t-v, u, x, y, z, in eights; (a 6 leaves, ꝑ 8 leaves, r' 6 leaves; A-Y in eights. That is, 10 unnumbered leaves at the beginning, and 282 leaves incorrectly numbered 1-286. The red lines, or staff, for the Music are printed, but the notation is not added.

38102 SARUM MISSAL. Title: Missale ad vsum insignis & preclare ecclesie Sarum . .) Colophon, printed in red: In laudē sctissime trinatatis totiusqz militie celestis ad honorē & decorē sācte ecclesie Sarū anglicane / eiusqz deuotissmi cleri: hoc missale diuinor' officior' vigilanti studio emendatū & reuisum. Impressum Londoñ per Richardum Pynson: cōmorant. in fletestrete signo sancti Georgii. Anno dni. M. cccc. iiii. decimo kalendas Ianuarii: felici numine explicitum est. Pinson's mark printed in black beneath it. Folio, two leaves in the Canon on vellum, Gothic letter, printed in red and black in double columns, a magnificent work of typography, but wanting twenty-seven leaves, £30

(Pinson, 23 December, 1504.)

Only four other copies appear to be known. One in Emanuel College, Cambridge, and another in Winchester Cathedral Library, seem to be perfect. The British Museum copy wants 23 leaves; Lord Spencer's is made perfect by three facsimiles.

Collation of the perfect book: Sign. + 7 leaves; A 8 leaves; B-G in eights; H, I, 6 leaves each; K, L, M, N, in eights; O 10 leaves; P, Q, R, S, T, in eights; U and X in sixes; a 4 leaves; b, c, in eights; D, e, f, in sixes; + 4 leaves. Or by numeration: preliminaries, 7 leaves; missal, 162 leaves (numbered 1-152); Commune Sanctorum, 38 leaves (1-38); Cantele Misse and Table, 4 leaves. Of the complete number of 211 leaves, the above copy lacks the seven preliminaries, also signature A, folios 69, 70, 73, 74, 77, 84, 87-90 of the body of the book, and folios 1, 4, of the Commune.—The music is printed, as well the red staff-lines as the black notation.

This is an interesting copy, which derives some local value from the additions made on the margins of the offices of St. Chad and St. Werburgh, in a handwriting of about 1510-20. The same hand has left some notes on folio 76, which I transcribe here :—

On ye xvi day of ye monyth of October in ye h . . . lorde god M. vc xxx. the grytt byelle of sīnt Warb. (?) was halōt in ye honor of IHC.

On ye ii day of monyth of februare in ye here (sic) of . . M. vc xxxiii ye swthe of thy velvyt' . . boght ye iere xxxiii of sīnt Warb.'

On ye xv day of monyth of December in ye here (sic) of . . M. vc xxxvii. v bellys of All Sīnts . . . wer hynggyt vp in ye nwe stepull.

38103 SARUM MISSAL.

issale Secundū vsum insignis ecclesie Sar', sm. folio gothic letter, printed in black and red, in double columns, a fine large woodcut on the title, representing St. George and the Dragon, the Princess, her parents praying on the battlements of a castle, and the royal arms of England; four large woodcuts and borders, one on the first page of each section; one leaf of the Canon on vellum, containing on its reverse a full page illuminated engraving of God the Father seated in glory and crowned with a tiara; three leaves wanting; bound in brown morocco, gilt edges, £50.

Anno . . quingentesimo octauo supra millesimum. die vero xxvij. mensis maij arte et industria Magistri Martini morin impressoris Rothomagi . . Impensa vero Iohannis richardi mercatoris: hoc egregium opus sacri missalis ad vsum famose ac percelebris ecclesie Sar' . . (Rouen, 27 May 1508)

EXCESSIVELY RARE, IF NOT UNIQUE. Mr. Weale describes the book after Mr. Maskell, but as he gives only 251 leaves to it while this (admittedly wanting three leaves) has 253, the copy those two bibliographers refer to must have been more defective than this (if it had really any distinct existence). There is a quarto edition of the same year (7 August, 1508) in the British Museum, but this magnificent folio edition with its grand title-page is nowhere else recorded than in the uncertain data of Mr. Weale and Mr. Maskell.

COLLATION: Title, Calendar, Benedictio Salis et aquæ, 8 unnumbered leaves; text, 236 leaves (erroneously numbered 1-245, 239); Accentuarium, 12 unnumbered leaves. In this complete number of 256 leaves, folios 87, 89, and 90 are missing. The collation by signatures is as follows: a, A-X, a-i, A, B, in eights, except R, L, A, B which are in six leaves each. The three missing leaves are in signature fR.

38104 SARUM MISSAL. Missale ad vsū ac cōsuetudinē Sarū, sm. folio, gothic letter, printed in red and black, double columns, with the Music; numerous woodcuts large and small, including the large Crucifixion which is printed on one of the two vellum leaves in the Canon; perfect, fine copy in old russia gilt, £90.

. . in alma Parisiorum academia, opera vvolffgangi Hopylii, impensis vero Francisci byrckman . . . 1514 28 Nouembris

Five copies are recorded; namely in the British Museum (imperfect), in the Bodleian, two at Cambridge, and one in the Ashburnham collection.

COLLATION: title and other preliminaries, 8 leaves; text, folios 1-86, 89-170, being signatures a to y, in eights, except l, b, r, y, which are in sixes; Proprium Sanctorum, signatures A to Ee in eights and Ff in ten leaves; Commune Sanctorum, folios 1-64, being signatures A to H in eights.

(Parisiis, per Iohannem Kerbriant alias Huguelin, et Iohannem Adam, 1516)

Only three other copies are recorded: in the B. M., at Oscott, and in the University Library of Cambridge. Of those three the Museum copy is imperfect.—The above copy wants all the preliminary leaves; folios 1-10, 107, 108, 113, 114, of the Temporale, fol. 72 of the Proprium, and fol. 1, 60, 61, 64 of the Commune Sanctorum; altogether 27 leaves.

. . Parisius per Nicolaum higman Almanū . . impēsis vero . . Frācisci regnault . . et Francisci Byrckman . . millesimo quingentesimo decimo nono . . (1519)

Only four other copies are recorded; all in public libraries, and one of them imperfect. There is no copy in the British Museum.

Collation: +, a-r, A-H, in eights;—that is, 8 preliminary leaves unnumbered, Temporale, fols. 1-168 numbered; Proprium Sanctorum 1-80 numbered; Commune Sanctorum, fols. 1-64 numbered. Altogether 320 leaves.

(Antwerpie, labore Christophori Ruremundensis, sumptibus Francisci Byrckman, 28 Mar. 1527)

Four imperfect and four perfect copies are recorded; thus distributed:—The four perfect copies are in the libraries of Bodley, Cambridge, Paris, and Douai; there are four imperfect copies in public institutions in London, two of them being in the British Museum.

COLLATION: (8 preliminary leaves wanting;) Temporale, 138 leaves numbered; Ordinarium, 18 leaves unnumbered; Proprium Sanctorum, 72 leaves numbered; Commune, 60 leaves numbered; Accentuarium, folios 61-72 (of which 67-72 are wanting).

38108 SARUM MISSAL. Missale ad vsum ecclesie Sarisburiēsis . . 4to. (or small folio) gothic letter, printed in red and black, in double columns, with the Music and numerous woodcuts; four leaves in the Canon printed on vellum, with a large engraving of the Crucifixion; wormed, and having the margins of a few leaves mended; brown morocco antique, gilt edges, £16.

Parisiis Per Franciscum Regnault. M.D.xxix. (1529)

Seven perfect copies and one imperfect are recorded by Mr. Weale.—This is an exact reprint of the edition of 1519 above described, and corresponds entirely with it, in its arrangement, division, number of leaves, and woodcuts. The one collation serves for both.

38109 SARUM MISSAL. Missale ad vsum insignis ac preclare ecclesie Sar' . . sm. 4to. gothic letter, printed in red and black, in double columns, with numerous woodcuts; four leaves in the Canon printed on vellum, with a large Crucifixion on one page; a perfect and good copy in old calf, £24.

. . Parisiis sūptib' Francisci regnault . . Millesimo quingētesimo trigesimotertio. Die vero. xxvij. May. (1533)

Only one other perfect copy is known, which is in the University Library of Cambridge. Two imperfect copies are recorded, both in the British Museum. COLLATION: 8 preliminary leaves unnumbered; Temporale and Ordinarium, 140 numbered leaves; Proprium Sanctorum, 62 numbered leaves; Commune, 52 numbered leaves.

On the first leaf of the Calendar, the original owner has inscribed the following memorandum—"Be yt remēbrāce yt petur Werburton: boy of Iohn Werbūt[on] esquier: was borne ye twentyent dey of Ianwari: in ye fowre & threy[tieth] zere of ye regne of Kynge Hēri ye viij." This was the record by Sir John Warburton of Arley in Cheshire, of the birth in 1543 of his first child Peter, who afterwards became Sir Peter Warburton, Judge of the Common Pleas, in 1601.

38110 SARUM MISSAL. Missale ad vsum Sarū incipit feliciter. Et primo . . . sm. 4to. gothic letter, printed in black and red, in double columns, with woodcuts; wanting the 8 preliminary leaves and folios xlix-lxiv in the Temporale; calf, £7. 10*s*

. . Ex officina Richardi hamillonis. typographi . . . Venale habetur Rothomagi, in edibus honesti viri Roberti valentini . . M.D.liiii. (1554)

This is the rarer of the two editions issued by Valentin in 1554; as Mr. Weale mentions four copies of the other one (which has 312 leaves) and only two of this (which he computes at 264 leaves).

38111 SARUM MISSAL. Missale ad vsum insignis ecclesie sarisburiensis nunc recens typis elegantioribus exaratum, historijs nouis, varijs ac proprijs insignitum . . folio, gothic letter, printed in red and black, in double columns, with the Music, and a great number of very fine woodcuts, including two superb full-page designs of the Crucifixion and God the Father which are printed on the two leaves of vellum in the Canon; fine copy in blue morocco extra, gilt edges, £50.

Colophon: . . Parisijs typis Ioannis Amazeur typographi, pro Guillelmo Merlin . . On title: Parisijs Apud Guillelmum Merlin . . 1555

38112 MISSALE ad vsum insignis ecclesie Sarisburiensis . . sm. folio, with the two vellum leaves; a larger and finer copy in the old oak-boards re-covered with calf, with brass clasps and corners; the original stamped sides preserved and inlaid, showing the Tudor ornamentation, the fleurs-de-lis, the portcullis, and the letters H. R. £60. 1555

38113 ———— the same, with the two vellum leaves, a very large and very fine copy in dark crimson morocco extra, gilt edges, £65. 1555

38114 ———— another copy, wanting the two initial leaves of the Canon (t 4 and t 5), calf neat, £15. 1555

This is probably, as it was intended to be, the grandest, most sumptuous, and most artistic edition of the Sarum Missal. It is comparatively not rare, but perfect copies are very scarce. The two copies in the British Museum are both imperfect.

COLLATION: Title, Calendar, Benedictio, 8 unnumbered leaves; Temporale, 140 numbered leaves; Ordinarium Misse, 18 leaves (of which the first four are numbered 141-144, the other fourteen are unnumbered); Proprium Sanctorum 72, and Commune 62 leaves, both numbered; Accentuarium, 12 leaves unnumbered. The signatures +, a-b, A-Z, A-K (in eights, except b, H, I, K, which are each of six leaves), altogether 312 leaves.

38115 SARUM MISSAL. Missale ad vsum ecclesie Sarisburiensis. 1555. sm. 4to. gothic letter, printed in red and black, in double columns, with Music, a woodcut of the tree of Jesse on the title, and a woodcut of the Crucifixion at the beginning of the Canon; the last leaf slightly mended and written on; brown morocco antique, gilt edges, by Bedford, £32. Lōdini impressum. Per. Iohannem Kyngstō et Henricum Sutton typographos (1556)

38116 ———— the same, a fine copy in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £42. 1556

COLLATION: 8 unnumbered leaves; folios I-Clxxvi, i-Cxxxv; and final leaf with colophon. By signatures: +, A-Z, a-r, in eights = 320 leaves in all.

Most of the copies of this edition were destroyed early in Queen Elizabeth's reign.

On title: . . . I. D. Londini, . . M.D.lvij (1557)

38118 ———— the same, sm. folio, Mr. Maskell's copy, containing his pencil marks and notes of collation with other texts; bevelled calf antique, gilt edges, from the Maskell and Dickinson libraries successively, £63. 1557

COLLATION: Title and preliminaries, 10 unnumbered leaves; text, folios 1-90, 8 unnumbered leaves, folios 101-244; Extracta e Compote, 1 leaf; altogether 253 leaves, not 256 as Mr. Weale computes it. His mistake arose from miscounting the preliminary leaves as 14 instead of 10. He is also in error in giving the words "apud I. Day," there being absolutely no indication of the printer except in the initials engraved on the columns supporting the royal arms on the title.

This was the last edition of the Sarum Missal. One year after its publication a new order of things began with Queen Elizabeth. John Day probably withheld his name intentionally from the colophon.

38119 MISSALE PARVVM pro sacerdotibvs in Anglia, Scotia, & Ibernia itinerantibus. Ordo etiam Baptizandi, aliaque Sacramenta ministrandi . . Ex Pontificali, & Rituali Romano . . extractus, sm. 4to. Roman letter, printed in double columns, the title in red and black, in the contemporary English limp vellum wrapper, £6. 6*s* Anno M.DC.XXVI [Antwerp, 1626]

COLLATION: 4 preliminary leaves; Missal, 271 numbered pages; Ordo Baptizandi, etc., 48 numbered pages, including title; Missa de sancto angelo custode etc. 16 numbered pages.

This small volume, if it had a tongue, could probably tell a very curious history of its successive owners, and of their perils and escapes during the seventeenth century.

The book is not in the British Museum catalogue and is unmentioned by Mr. Weale.—The text is that of an abridged Roman Missal, but it was intended to represent the old Sarum book, and is therefore placed here.

38120 SARUM BREVIARY. Portiforium seu Breuiarium ad insignis Sarisburiēsis ecclesie vsum . . . Pars estiualis, 3 parts in 1 vol. sm. folio, gothic letter, printed in red and black, in double columns, with a large woodcut on each of the three titles, and smaller woodcuts in the text; the office of St. Thomas Becket and that of the Visitation, as well as the word "papa" here and there scored through in ink; three leaves (+ 2, I 3 and rr 7) torn out; fine copy in the original boards covered with stamped leather, £100.

Colophon: Pars estiualis tam de tēpore q̄' de sanctis portifarii ad vsum insignis ecclesie Sarum . . . Antwerpie . . per Christophorum Endouiēsem. Impēsis . . Francisci Bryckman . . M.cccc.xxv. On each of the titles: 1525

Collation of the complete volume: + Calendar, etc.; Temporale, a-g; Psalterium, etc. a-p; Proprium Sanctorum, aa-oo; all in eights, except + which is ten and the first g which is four leaves.

There is no copy of this edition in the British Museum. The Museum catalogue describes an edition of 1526-26 printed by Ruremund at Antwerp, apparently like this, but it is very imperfect.

Within the cover of this volume is pasted a copy of a PLENARY INDULGENCE TO ENGLISH CATHOLICS, dated LONDINI, anno 1526, printed in gothic letter on a single sheet in oblong form, 7 in. high and 10 in. in breadth, probably an UNIQUE BROADSIDE. It seems at least to vary in some particulars from the one in the British Museum, as the following particulars will show. There are altogether 38 lines; it begins thus, Frater wilhelmus inter sacre theologie doctores minimus prior prouin|cialis ordīs fratrū Eremitarum scti Augustini in Anglia . . . Line 33 . . . .

Datū in conuentu nro Londini. Anno . . . M.D.xxvi . . . Line 34: Forma absolutionis . . —Line 38: F. W. Wedyral prouincialis ut supra.—This signature seems to have been stamped on after the printing of the text.

In the under cover, there is a long autograph letter in English, signed "Yor. true bedman Jō Borobryg, chaplen of the Hospitall," evidently written from Rome; and requesting interest with "my Lord Cardinallis Grace" (probably Cardinal Wolsey). He mentions that there be "xxii galis & ii gret shyppes of the French kyng lyght in harborough at Civita Vecchia." It is addressed to the King's Secretary, the well-known Dr. Richard Pace. Fetched £231 at the Sunderland sale.

38121 SARUM BREVIARY. Portiforiū seu Breuiarium ad vsum ecclesie Sarisburiēsis . . . Pars Estiualis, 3 parts in 1 vol. sm. folio (4to.), gothic letter, printed in red and black, in double columns, with woodcuts; slightly wormed towards the end but on the whole a fine copy in calf neat, gilt edges, £50.

. . in alma vniuersitāte Parisieñ. impressa p. Franciscū regnault. Anno domini Millesimo quingentesimo trigesimo quinto . . (1535)

COLLATION: a, AA-FF; Psalterum etc. a-p; Proprium Sanctorum, aa-oo; all in eights, except FF and p, which are six leaves each.

This rare volume is quite perfect. There is no copy in the British Museum, although that institution possesses three copies of the Pars Hiemalis printed by Regnault in the same year (one perfect, two imperfect).

38122 SARUM BREVIARY. Portiforium seu Breuiariū ad vsum ecclesie Sarisburiensis . . Pars Estiualis, 3 parts in 1, 12mo. gothic letter, finely printed in red and black, in double columns; fine copy in the original calf binding, with the bookplate of Lord Ranelagh, £5. . . Parisiis per Magdalenam Boursette viduam Francisci Regnault . . 1555

COLLATION: +, a-t, A-G, AA-PP; all in eights, except t which is four leaves.

38123 SARUM BREVIARY. Portiforiū seu Breuiarium ad vsum ecclesie Sarisburiensis castigatum . . Pars Hiemalis—Portiforiū . . Pars Estiualis—6 parts in 2 vols. sm. 4to. gothic letter, printed in red and black in double columns; the title of the Estivalis and a few other leaves mended; purple morocco extra, gilt edges, £60. On titles: Londini. 1555. Colophon: . . in alma vniuersitate. Parisieñ impressa p Franciscū regnault. Anno domini Millesimo quingentesimo trigesimo quinto . . (1535)

The name of the original owner, Leonardus Slopæus (Leonard Slopes, about 1555) appears on the title-page of the Hiemalis, and his MS. notes and additions fill the Calendar of that part.

COLLATION: Estivalis: Title, Calendar, etc.; Temporale A-C; Psalterium, etc. a-f; Proprium de Sanctis, A-G; all in eights, except C which is ten leaves, and f which is four.—Hiemalis: Title, Calendar, etc.; Temporale A-D, 2 D, 3 D, E, F; Psalter, a-f; Proprium Sanctorum, aa-qq;—all in eights except f which is in four and qq seven leaves.

The copy in the Museum is similarly mixed. The London printer must have bought "the remainder" of the printed stock from François Regnault's widow.

38124 ———— Pars Estiualis of the same edition, 3 parts in 1 vol. sm.

4to. having the title mounted, wanting sheet p (eight leaves) in the Ordinarium, and having leaf nn i supplied in MS., but on the whole a fine and sound copy in old calf neat, £10. 1555-35

38125 SARUM BREVIARY. Portiforium seu Breuiarium, ad insignis Sarisburiensis, ecclesie vsum . . Pars Estiualis, sm. 4to. gothic letter, printed in red and black, in double columns; a small hole in the first four leaves and part of the bottom margin of title cut off; a very fine and perfect copy in the original stamped leather covers, £40. Londini. 1555

COLLATION: +, a-g, A-JJ; all in eights, except + which is ten, g in four, and JJ in six leaves.

With the signature of Willm. Boteler (about 1590) on the back of the title.

38126 ——— Calendarium et Psalterium ejusdem Breviarii, sm. 4to. fine copy in the original binding mended, £10. (1555)

This is perhaps part of the Hiemalis of the preceding edition, as although the preliminary leaves are identical with those in the above; yet there are some variations in the press-work of the text which show that it cannot belong to the same Estivalis.—COLLATION, + nine leaves, beginning with + ii; a-o in eights; p 4 leaves. It was evidently originally issued thus, without title.

38127 ——— Portiforium seu Breuiarium . . Pars Estiualis, 3 parts in 1 vol. sm. 4to. gothic letter, printed in red and black, in double columns; with a small hole torn in two leaves, but otherwise a fine, large, and perfect copy in old russia gilt, £30.

Impress. Londini. per Ioannem Kyngston, & Henricum Sutton, typographos. 1556

Collation: + 10 leaves; Temporale, a-t in eights (except t which is six leaves); Psalms, etc. a-p in eights (except p which is four leaves); Proprium de sanctis, Aa-Oo in eights (except Oo which has six leaves). Only the second section has the folios numbered (116 leaves).

38128 SARUM PROCESSIONAL. Processionale ad vsum ecclesie Sarisburiēsis . M.d.xxx. sm. 4to. gothic letter, printed in red and black in long lines, with the Music throughout and some woodcuts; having a few leaves slightly wormed but altogether a very fine copy in brown morocco antique, gilt edges, with the stamped sides of the original calf binding preserved as an inside lining, £100.

Impressum Parisijs in edib' Frācisci regnault (1530)

EXCESSIVELY RARE. There is no copy in the British Museum; and no other copy than this has ever appeared in the market. There is said to be one in the Bodleian and another in Cambridge, but the fact is uncertain.

COLLATION: 174 numbered folios, with signatures a-x in eights, and y in six leaves.

The designs on the original stamped covers are very elegant and one of them bears the initials P. T.

38129 SARUM PROCESSIONAL. Processionale ad vsus insignis ecclie Sar' obseruandos accōmodū presertim in ijs que in habendis processionibus, ad cerimoniarū splendorē faciūt imprimis opportunū . . 1544, sm. 4to. gothic letter, printed in red and black, with the Music, calf neat, £50.

Explicit Processionale . . nuper in officina Vidue Christophori Ruremundensis . . impensis honesti viri Iohannis Raynes (1544)

38130 ——— the same, sm. 4to. a very fine and very large copy in blue morocco extra, gilt edges (by Roger Payne), £80. 1544

COLLATION : 216 leaves, numbered, with signatures a-B in eights.—Two other copies are recorded, one in the Bodleian, one in the British Museum.

38131 SARUM PROCESSIONAL. Processionale ad vsum insignis ecclie Sar' . . sm. 4to. gothic letter, printed in red and black, with all the Music; in the original stamped leather, £30. Lond. 1554

COLLATION : a-A in eights, B 3 leaves ; that is, 193 leaves numbered, and 2 leaves unnumbered.

On the fly-leaf at the beginning, which is portion of a printed leaf, five names are written thus (in handwriting contemporary with the book) :

An Stybyn
Uxor Fenton
Alys Fewler
John Hede
Margere Inchebolde wth Fyrmyn

38132 SARUM PROCESSIONAL. Processionale ad vsum insignis ecclesie Sarisbu . . . small 4to. gothic letter, printed in red and black, with the Music, the last leaf torn, and the inner bottom margin of some leaves wormed; old calf, £20. Lond. 1555 . T. R.

Printed by Thomas Raynald, as the letters T. R. on the title indicate.

COLLATION : a, 8 leaves ; b, 9 leaves (a leaf marked b vii having been printed and inserted after the sheet was finished, so as to get in the full service for the feast of Thomas a Becket) ; c-s, eight leaves each, t, 7 leaves.

There is a copy in the British Museum, but no reference is made in the Museum catalogue to the peculiarity of the extra leaf b vii, from which we may assume that it is wanting there. The office of St. Thomas the Martyr is not found in any of the preceding Processionals except this one and Regnault's edition of 1530.

38133 SARUM PROCESSIONAL. Processionale ad vsum insignis ac preclare ecclesie Sar' nouiter ac rursus castigatum . . sm. 4to. gothic letter, printed in red and black, with the Music; brown morocco, gilt edges, perfect, from Mr. Hartley's collection, £21.

M.D.lv. Venale habetur Rothomagi apud Robertum valentinū . . At end: . . Rothomagi impressum in officina Ricardi hamilionis īpensis Roberti valētini . . Millesimo ccccclv . . (1555)

COLLATION : a-t in eights, b in ten leaves. The signatures n-q are misarranged, and a couple of leaves are shorter than the rest ; but the book is quite perfect,

The service for St. Thomas Becket's day is given in short.

38134 ——— Processionale . . sm. 4to. a reprint of the preceding volume, agreeing with it in every respect; slightly wormed and having three leaves in facsimile; calf neat, gilt edges, £10.

. . Millesimo ccccc.lvij . . (1557)

There is no copy of either of these editions in the British Museum.

38135 SARUM PROCESSIONAL. Processionale ad vsum insignis ac preclare Ecclesie Sar' pluribus quibus scatebat mendis : iam

recens quam vigilantissime repurgatum, sm. 4to. woodcuts, gothic letter, printed in black and red, with the Music, hf. calf, fine copy, £40. Antuerpie apud Melchiorem Endouianū . . M.D.lviij (1558)

The last edition of the Sarum Processionale. It is excessively rare; only two copies being recorded, both at Oxford (New College and Bodleian).

COLLATION: a-ł in eights, and (1 four leaves.

38136 SARUM MANUAL. Manuale ad vsum insignis eccl'ie Saru' cū multis additionibus ad ecclesie cultum spectantibus, sm. folio, gothic letter, printed in red and black, with the Music and woodcuts; red morocco extra, gilt edges, £120.

Impensis Francisci byrckman in alma Parisiorū academia impressum . 1515

EXCESSIVELY RARE. There is no copy in the British Museum, and I cannot trace the existence of more than two copies besides this, both of them imperfect.

COLLATION: 135 numbered leaves, with signatures a-r in eights. Besides the usual forms in the Marriage service, etc. there are twelve full pages entirely in English giving the entire Major Excommunication at large in all its singular details.

On the fly-leaf there is an inscription, "Hic liber est Mri Iohīs Broke ex do . . mri Edmey," written about 1550. Below it "Rycherd Comtton" and "John Beye est bonus homo," by another hand. Some notes written on the margins of the text seem to be by John Brooke.

38137 SARUM MANUAL. Manuale ad vsū ecclesie Sarisburiensis. Iam recens impressum: ab erratis et mendis emunctissime vindicatum pro Iacobo Cousin. Anno.M.cccc.xxxvij. sm 4to. gothic letter, printed in red and black, with the Music and two woodcuts; the last two leaves wanting; fine copy in old English red morocco, gilt edges, with an inscription in gold on the sides "Humphry Primatt D.D." £50. (Rouen, Jaques Cousin, 1537)

In this edition, the Major Excommunication (all in English) occupies sixteen pages.

The binding was done for Dr. Primatt about 1760. He was a man of note in his time.

Collation: a-p in eights. This copy ends with p7 in the "modus separandi leprosos," and it is evident from the edition of 1515 above and that of 1543 below, that three pages are wanting. Thus the numbered leaves would end with 177, instead of 175 as in this copy, and there would be a leaf of text beyond sign. p8. There is no copy in the British Museum or elsewhere, so far as I know, with which it might be compared.

. . Antwerpie in officina Vidue Christophori Ruremundensis . . M.CCCCC.XLIII. Mense Ianua . (1543)

The mense Janua, at the end of the colophon, explains the variation in date between the first and the last pages.—COLLATION: a-Z in eights, or 200 numbered leaves. The long Excommunication form was omitted in this edition.

A duplicate of sheet r is superfluously inserted in the above copy.

There is no copy in the British Museum: there are only two recorded besides this, namely one in the Bodleian and one in St. Cuthbert's College.

38139 SARUM MANUAL. Manuale ad vsum per celebris ecclesie Sarisburiensis . . sm. 4to. gothic letter, printed in red and black, with the Music, and woodcut of the Crucifixion; a few leaves at end slightly wormed; a large and sound copy in brown morocco antique, gilt edges, by Hayday, £25. Londini, 1554

COLLATION: a-r in eight, or 168 leaves (unnumbered). The long English Excommunication was omitted in this edition. There is a MS. note on the title: "Wryttn by me Wyllm Chattares" in a contemporary hand.

38140 SARUM MANUAL. Sacra institvtio baptizandi: matrimonivm celebrandi: infirmos vngendi: mortvos sepeliendi: ac alii nonnvlli ritvs ecclesiastici: iuxta vsum insignis Ecclesiæ Sarisburiensis, sm. 4to. Roman letter, printed in red and black, olive morocco, gilt edges, £15.

—3 vols. in 1, 8vo. gothic letter, printed in black and red, with woodcuts; panelled calf, £50. 1538

The body of the Prymer is entirely in English; the Latin original appears in smaller type on the margins. The Exposition is similarly printed; and has no distinct title-leaf. The Epistles and Gospels has a distinct title, and is printed in double columns. The collation is as follows:—a-l in eights, (1 four leaves (altogether 188 numbered leaves); a-g in eights, h 4 leaves (60 unnumbered leaves); A-Q in eights, R 7 leaves (67 numbered and 4 unnumbered leaves). All the three works issued from the one press and were evidently intended to be published together.

I can only trace one copy of this edition as having been sold; which was just thirty years ago. It wanted the Epistles and Gospels.

38143 SARUM PRIMER. The prymer in Englysh and latyn, after the vse of Sarum . . with the exposicyon vpon the Psalme called Miserere . . with the Epystels and Gospels . . sm. 4to. gothic letter, printed in black and red, with woodcuts; wanting three leaves, and a little wormed near the end; purple morocco extra, gilt edges, by Mackenzie, Mr. Maskell's copy, £25.

At end of Primer: London . . by Thomas Petyt . M.D.XLiij. (1543)

COLLATION: A (? 4 leaves); B-O in eights, P four leaves; A-D in eights, E six leaves; A-F in eights, G seven leaves.—Of the four preliminary leaves, the title is in facsimile and leaves 2 and 4 are wanting; in the Primer, leaf Piii is wanting.

According to Mr. Maskell, this edition of the Sarum Primer was for its fulness preferable to most others.—On leaf P6, in the "Verses of St. Bernard," there is a curious error, "Lord, thou hast broken my bones" (for bonds).

There is no copy in the British Museum. The Bodleian library has one; and I have traced three others, which were all imperfect.

38144 SARUM PRIMER. The Primer in Latin and Englishe (after the vse of Sarum) . . . Whereunto is added a playne and godly treatise concerning the Masse . . sm. 4to. gothic letter, printed in red and black with woodcuts; perfect and fine copy in the original binding which is stamped in gold with the initials of the first possessor of the book, uncut, £60.

Imprinted at London, by Iohn Waylande . . M.D.L.V. (1555)

COLLATION: preliminaries, 5 leaves; Godly prayers, etc. *, ¶, (), ·|·, in fours; Matyns, etc. A-P, Pb, in fours; P three leaves; Q R, a-l, (1, Aa-Dd in fours; Plaine and godly treatise, R-Z in fours.

There are two copies in the British Museum; one of them very imperfect, the other supposed to be perfect but apparently wanting one of the preliminary leaves (20 instead of 21 as above). This is one of the most important editions of the Sarum Primer. As in the preceding instance, the body of the Prymer is in English and the Latin original in smaller type in the margins.

38145 SARUM PRIMER. This prymer of Sarysbury vse is set out a long without ony serchyng, vvith many prayers, (1 goodly pyctures in the matyns of our lady. Elizabeth and having her arms transferred on a label from the original binding to the front cover of this volume, £48.

(Rouen, 1555)

There is some writing of the Elizabethan period in the book which might, possibly, be the Queen's own. The inscription on the last page is "Frons mulieris meretricis facta est tibi," which would be a curiously significant phrase for Queen Elizabeth to write.—The book belonged to Bishop White Kennett early in the last century and has his "Wh. K." on the title-page. The present binding is of Herbert's time, and the Queen's arms were evidently then shaved off the original cover so as to be mounted like a label on this.

COLLATION: Primer, A-Y in eights. Pystels and Gospels: A-Z in eights (Z eight leaves wanting), &K 4 leaves. The greater part of the Prymer is in Latin only, but the headings and many of the prayers are in English. "The maner to lyue wel" is the first piece which follows the Calendar. It is Compyled by maystre Iohan quentin . . Translated out of Frenche . . by Robert Copland," and occupies 7 pages.—The Pystells, etc. are entirely in English.

There are two copies of the Primer in the British Museum, both of them imperfect.

COLLATION: *, ¶, +, A-K, in eights; altogether 160 leaves in the Primer.—The Pistles and Gospels contain A-K in fours, and L 2 leaves.

The second copy above described has the signature of Wyllyam Smythe (about 1580-90) several times on the back of the title, with these words—

Couitus taketh and Pou'ty wepyth repeated at the end, with other scribblings, including

COLLATION: A-Y, Aa-Dd, in eights. The catchword on A 8 is "The Passyon," and refers to "The Passiō of our lord" on leaf B 5; although the first words on B i are "The beginning of the holye Gospel of S. Iohn."

COR- | RECTED AND AMENDED, smallest 4to. gothic letter, leaf S 1 mended, leaf S 4 and the leaf of Table at end wanting, old russia, £7. (about 1540)

There are thirty lines in a full page: the signatures are A to X in fours, except X, in which there were probably only two leaves, or perhaps three. The present copy ends with leaf X 1, on the bottom of the reverse of which are the words ". . . here after foloweth the | Table of this present booke." Leaf X 1 is marked lxxxii in the foliation, instead of lxxxi, by a mistake which begins on leaf T 1, which bears lxxiiii instead of lxxiii. (It may have begun on the missing leaf S 4, which ought to have borne the numeral lxxii.)

The title as given above appears at the heading of the text on A 1: the Epistles and Gospels were usually printed thus without separate title-pages, so as to be annexed to one or other contemporary edition of the Primer.

Besides this copy, I can only find record of one other, formerly Mr. Maskell's, and now in the B. M., imperfect.

COLLATION: Title and Calendar, 7 leaves; The Passion-Lessons followed by the Pater-noster, Creed, etc. 9 leaves; Matyns of our Lady, etc. 88 unnumbered leaves; Pystels and Gospels of the Sondayes, etc. 80 numbered leaves. —Or by signatures: +, ∗, A-L, A-M, in eights=altogether 184 leaves.

Amongst the preliminary leaves on the reverse of ∗ iiij, we find "An order and forme of byddynge of the bedes by the kynges commaundementes" which begins with these words: "Ye shall praye for the whole Congregacyon of Chrystes Church, and specially for thys churche of Englande, wherin fyrst I commende to youre deuout prayers the kynges most excellent maiestye, supreme head immediately under God of the spyritualtie and temporalitie of the same churche, and for the prosperite of the noble Prynce Edward hys sonne."—The last chapter in the section "of workes" has this heading: "The bysshoppe of Rome with hys adherentes destroyers of all estates."

John Hilsey, Bishop of Rochester (1535-38), was the compiler of this Primer, at the request of Thomas Cromwell; and it was first printed by Wayland in 1539. This edition by Grafton and Whitchurch, who had become the recognized servants of Cromwell and Cranmer, was modified from the original form, and was probably the first appearance of the book with a kind of authorizing sanction. Cromwell's disgrace and execution took place not long after the publication of the little volume, and may have contributed to heighten its rarity. Hilsey's name does not appear in the book.

38152 KING HENRY'S PRIMER. The copy in the British Museum is imperfect. COLLATION OF THIS

COPY: A, eight leaves (there ought to be ten); A-R in eights, S 1 leaf (instead of two, or four?)

This is the Latin part separately issued of the King's Authorized Primer, which was printed in English and Latin by Grafton in 1545. It is of excessive rarity.

Collation: A-Z, a-v, in fours, t six leaves. This is the first edition of a celebrated book which has a place here as containing some of the fundamental forms of Henry VIII's new liturgy (the Creed, the Seven Sacraments, the Ten Commandments, the Paternoster, the Ave Maria), with the King's authoritative exposition upon them, published for general acceptance as the doctrine of the English Church.

[At end:] Mense Iunij M.D.xlix. (1549)

Edward the Fifth's first Common Prayer. In any shape or sort the book is a very uncommon one; but when the copy is perfect, large, and healthy, like this one, it is indeed a rarity which many of the richest booklovers might covet in vain. The royal order printed on the last page regarding the price of the book commands that "No maner of persone shall sell the present Booke vnbounde aboue the price of two shillynges and two pence. And bounde in Forell for iis. xd. and not aboue. And the same bounde in Shepes Lether for iiis iiid and not aboue. Imprinted at London in Poules churcheyarde, at the signe of the Brasen serpent, by Reynold Wolfe. Cum priuilegio ad imprimendum solum. Anno Domini .M.D.L. (1550)

EXCESSIVELY RARE; only two other copies apparently being known. Before 1850 the Maskell-Lathbury copy was considered unique, till this one and that in the British Museum were discovered.—The work is an arrangement of the Gospel lessons of the year in two parts (Sundays and festivals) with an exposition on each. The exposition was written by Antonius Corvinus in Latin; and was translated and adapted to the new service of the English Church by some one whose name we cannot learn. He was not Taverner, a similar work by whom had been for several years in circulation, compiled before the reformation of the liturgy.

COLLATION: 4 preliminary leaves; a, b, 4 leaves each; c-x in eights; y six leaves; A-P in eights, Q six leaves.

38157 EDWARD VI'S SECOND COMMON PRAYER. THE BOKE OF COMMON PRAIER, AND ADMINISTRACION OF THE SACRAMENTES, AND OTHER RITES AND CEREMONIES IN THE CHURCHE OF ENGLANDE—THE FORME and maner of makyng, and consecrating Bishoppes, Priestes, and Deacons. Anno a salutifero Virginis partu . 1552—2 parts in 1 volume, sm. folio, gothic letter; the corners of two leaves in the calendar torn off, and one leaf (fol. 102) *supplied in MS.; a fine sound copy in old calf, rebacked with green morocco bearing the monogram GD, and having the bookplate of the Rev. At end: Richardvs Graftonus, typographus Regius excudebat. Mense Augusti. Anno Domini . 1552 . . .

COLLATION: Common Prayer, a, b, in eights; A-G in sixes; X, 8 leaves; Forme of makyng Bishoppes, Aa, Bb, in sixes; Cc, five leaves.

In this edition, which was prompted by Calvin and the Genevan reformers, some transpositions were made, the word "Mass" was expunged, the word "priest" in several instances changed to "minister," the sign of the Cross omitted, the words "Mattens and Evensong" altered to "Morning and Evening Prayer," portions of the service which were chanted in the 1549 book are here directed to be spoken, all the Introits were expunged, the Ash-Wednesday service and St. Mary Magdalen's office omitted, the Baptismal and Marriage services modified, the Burial service much altered; and a commination against sinners added, as well as the Form for consecrating Bishops.

This copy contains on the title-page the autograph of Simon Bovnde, in whose hand also are some MS. alterations in the book, evidently made in 1553 for the purpose of fitting the volume to become QUEEN MARY'S COMMON PRAYER. This is extremely curious.

38158 QUEEN ELIZABETH'S COMMON PRAYER. THE BOOKE OF | COMMON PRAYER, and ad | ministration of the | Sacramentes, | and other rites and | ceremonies in the | Churche of | Englande, title printed in red and black within woodcut border, the first leaf of the Kalendar wanting; Londini in officina Richardi Iugge (about 1571)—THE PSALTER or Psalmes of Dauid,

The Common Prayer is apparently identical with an undated edition which has been assigned to the year 1561, and of which only one copy is recorded. The Metrical Psalms is of an undescribed edition, and the prose Psalter is of very great rarity.

Queen Elizabeth's Common Prayer underwent but little modification from Edward VI's second book. The changes are specified in the preface. One of the variations was the omission in the Litany of "the tyranny of the Bishop of Rome and all his detestable enormities."

38159 QUEEN ELIZABETH'S COMMON PRAYER. LIBER PRECVM PVBLICARVM, sev Ministerij Ecclesiasticæ administrationis Sacramentorum aliorvmqve rituum, & cæremoniarum, in Ecclesia Anglicana, sm. 8vo. (12mo.), Roman letter, fine copy in blue morocco extra, gilt edges, £3. 3*s*

The name of the original owner of the 1563 piece was "John Kettylwood," and is inscribed at the beginning and end of that part.

. . . London by Iohn Day . . 1565

EXTREMELY RARE. The title and date as given above are found in the Tenor and Contra-tenor parts. The Bassus and Medius are dated 1560, and bear the following title: "CERTAINE NOTES set forthe in foure and three parts to be song at the morning Communion and euening praier . . & vnto them added diuers godly praiers & Psalmes." The name of "W.

Goetling" (about 1750) is inscribed on all four parts. The imperfection in the tenor part dates back almost to the time of publication. There is a note on the last printed leaf, "The Tenor wanteth one hoole leafe," written about 1570-80, and two ruled leaves of contemporary blank paper inserted in succession.

38162 METRICAL PSALMS. THE WHOLE BOOKE OF PSALMES, collected into Englishe Meter by THOMAS STERNHOLD, JOHN HOPKINS and others . . . with apt Notes to sing them withall . . sm. folio, black letter, with the Music, very fine copy in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £32. Iohn Daye, 1567

A rare and fine book, produced uniformly with the Church Service above, and probably the first appearance of the complete Metrical Psalter in an édition de luxe. The translation had only appeared in detached parts, the second part or residue having been printed for the first time in 1562 or 1563. Those earlier issues are of smaller size, and the entire Psalter of Sternhold and Hopkins, totus teres atque rotundus, in a complete collective edition, with the supplementary hymns and prayers, is scarcely to be had of earlier date than this noble volume of 1567.

38163 HOMILIES. CERTAINE SERMONS appointed by the Queenes Maiestie, to be declared and read, by all Parsons, Vicars, and Curates, euery Sunday and Holy day in their Churches . . . One of the earliest books printed at Ipswich. The colophon is on the front of leaf 248. Collation: 12 preliminary unnumbered leaves, and 255 numbered leaves.

(1554) Dutch Press (near London?).

Ghedruckt buyten Londen, door Collinus Volckwinner. Anno, 1554

The imprint indicates the place of printing as buyten Londen, that is, outside of London.

The book must be of excessive rarity; even the printer's name and his existence in England being unknown to the bibliographers.

(1548) Worcester.

38169 VERON (John). The godly saiyngs of the old auncient faithful fathers, vpon the Sacrament of the bodye and bloude of Chryste. Newlye compyled and translated oute of Latin intoo English. 38172 THE KNIGHTLY TALE of Golagrus and Gawane, and other Ancient Poems. Printed at Edinburgh by W. Chepman and A. Myllar in the Year M.D. viij. Reprinted M.Dccc. xxvij. [Edited by David Laing], 4to. PRINTED ON VELLUM, black letter, hf. blue morocco neat, uncut, £72. 1508 (1827)

One of the four copies in this state, and one of the five perfect copies. Seventy-six copies were rescued from destruction by fire (four of them printed on vellum), all of which except five were damaged by fire, and partially inlaid.

The following poems are included:—The Goldyn Targe; The Flyting of Dunbar and Kennedy; The Tua Mariit Wemen and the Wedo; The Ballad of Lord Barnard Stewart; The Traitie of Orpheus King; Ane Buke of Gud Counsale; The Maying or Disport of Chaucer; Sir Eglamour of Arteas; a Gest of Robyn Hode; and The Porteous of Noblenes.

The colophon of the first piece runs thus: "Heir endis the Knightly tale of golagros, and gawane in the fourth gait of Edinburgh be Walter chepman and Androw Millar the viii day of apile the yhere of god. M.CCCCC. and viii. yheris [1508]."

This copy has an extra title to the tale of "The Tua Mariit Wemen," which bears the words "The thre Wantoun Wyffis." It also has two extra leaves in "The Gest of Robyn Hode."

38173 BOECE (Hector). HEIR BEGINNIS THE HYSTORY AND CRONIKLIS OF SCOTLAND. ([On reverse of thirty-sixth preliminary leaf:] Heir efter followis the history and croniklis of Scotland compilit and newly correckit be the reuerend and noble clerke maister Hector Boece channon of Aberdene. Translatit laitly be maister Johne Bellenden Archedene of Murray, channon of Ros . . . And imprentit in Edinburgh be Thomas Dauidson dwellyng fornens the frere wynd), sm. folio, black letter, with woodcuts, a large circular woodcut of the Crucifixion at the end, at the bottom of which appears the autograph of Alexander Drummond, the owner about the middle of the seventeenth century, the title and the top line of the last leaf in facsimile, otherwise PERFECT, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by BEDFORD, £75.

. . Imprentit in Edinburgh, be me Thomas Davidson, prenter to the kyngis nobyll grace . . . (1536)

38174 ——— the same, small folio, the Dedication copy of King James V, with his autograph J. R. on the title; printed on Vellum, and bound for the King, in calf, re-backed, richly ornamented with gold tooling, and bearing impressed in letters of gold on obverse of cover IACOBVS QVINTVS, and on reverse REX SCOTORVM, with head of Dido, brass corners and clasps, gilt edges, £1000. (1536)

As a memorial of the gallant father of Mary Queen of Scots, as a rare book printed on vellum, as the editio princeps of a monumental work in Scottish literature, and as an example of Scottish bookbinding in 1536, this volume is one of extraordinary interest.

From the Hamilton Palace Library.

38175 LAUDER. Ane Compendious And breue Tractate, Concernyng ye Office and dewtie of Kyngis, Spirituall Pastoris, and temporall Iugis Laitlie Compylit be William Lauder. For the faithfull Instructioun of Kyngis, and Prencis. Small 4to. black letter, with 2 woodcuts, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £80. [On last page but one:] And Imprentit, In the zeir of God Ane M.V.C.LVI. (1556)

An excessively rare poem, addressed by "the maker to all Catholyke Kyngis and Prencis." Only one other copy is known,—that in the Britwell library, which is the identical copy recorded by Lowndes as having fetched £25. 10*s*. This one, formerly Leckie's and more recently Laing's, furnished the text of the Early English Text Society's reprint. John Scot is supposed to have printed it at Edinburgh; but for the same reason which impelled him to conceal his name in the St. Andrew's edition of Lyndsay's Dialogue he also withheld it here. The two books are in exactly the same type, and have the same woodcut tail-pieces and initial letters. The two woodcuts are curious early specimens of Scottish engraving. The first is a standing figure of a crowned King in armour, on the title, the other on the last page represents Christ sitting in judgment on the last day, with the words "Respice finem."

Collation: (A)-C in fours.

38176 ACTIS AND CONSTITUTIOUNIS OF THE REALME OF SCOTLAND maid in Parliamentis haldin be the rycht excellent, hie and mychtie Princeis Kingis James I, II, III, IV, V, and in tyme of Marie now Quene of Scottis, black letter, title as usual cut close, Edinburgh, R. Lekpreuik, 1566—ACTIS OF JAMES VI, black letter, 3 vols. ib. J. Ros, 1575-79, 4 vols. in 1, sm. folio, fine copy in old calf, £10. 1566-79

COLLATION: 14 preliminary leaves, and 185 numbered leaves; Actis of the Parliament of James the Sext, Edinburgh, xvth December, 1567, 24 numbered leaves—Actis of the Parliament at Striviling, xxviiith August, 1571, 16 leaves—Actis of the Parliament haldin at Striviling, 25th July, 1578, 23 leaves; Table, 3 leaves—Aue Proclamation for publishing the Actis, 1 leaf —Colophon, 1 leaf.

This edition of James the Sixth's Acts, by Ross, is twelve years later than Lekprevik's, and includes the Acts passed in the interval.

38177 KNOX. A Sermon preached by Iohn Knox Minister of Christ Iesus in the Publique audience of the Church of Edenbrough, within the Realme of Scotland, vpon Sonday, the 19. of August. 1565. For the which the said Iohn Knox was inhibite preaching for a season, 12mo. Roman letter, limp vellum, very rare, £12. 12*s*

Imprinted Anno. 1566

Described in the British Museum Catalogue as having been printed probably at Edinburgh.

38178 [BUCHANAN (G.).] Histoire de Marie royne d'Escosse, tovchant la conjuration faicte contre le Roy, & l'adultere commis auec le Comte de Bothvvel, histoire vrayement tragique, traduicte de Latin en François, 12mo. red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Padeloup, £10. A Edimbovrg, Par Thomas Vvaltem, 1572

RARE. The imprint is false, the book having been probably printed in London. Brunet states that this translation was made by Camuz, a French Huguenot.

Collation: leaves (1)-88, including the Title.

Edimbvrgi, Ex Typographia Iacobi Iamæi. 1574

The autograph of "Thomas Summasterus" on the title-page. An anagram, of bitter Huguenot flavour, is written on the fly-leaf:—

Catherina de Medicis Regina mater
Dira Medea regnat in me, Circe, Thais.

The authorship of these Dialogues is undecided, though it is usually assigned to Beza.

38180 [SOUTHWELL (Robert).] Saint Peters Complaint. With other Poëms. Small 4to. maroon morocco extra, gilt edges, £15. 15*s*

Edinbvrgh Printed by Robert Walde-graue Printer to the Kings Majestie . . . [No date, but about 1600]

EXTREMELY RARE. This copy was valued at £21 in the Bibliotheca Anglo-Poetica.

Collation: pages 1-63, including the Title. The pagination jumps from 32 to 41.

38181 JAMES I. FIRST EDITION, fine copy, the original sheepskin binding, £12. 12*s*

VERY RARE.

The two following pieces are bound up in the same volume:—

DÆMONOLOGIE, in forme of a dialogve . . written by . . Iames . . King of England, Scotland . . (&c.) London, Printed by Arnold Hatfield for Robert Wald-graue, 1603;

REGIS ORATIO, habita in postremo regni ordinvm conventv, Westmonasterii, Die ix. Nouemb. Anno M.D.C.V. . . Adiuncta est Series detectæ nuper Coniurationis [The Gunpowder Plot], cum aliquot consciorum confessionibus qui custodia continentur. Londini Excudebat Robertus Barker . . 1606.

Collations: Poeticall Exercises (including The Lepanto and La Lepanthe, which though they have separate titles are in the same alphabet of signatures), A in eight leaves, and B-P in fours, except M which is in five, and P which has only one. The additional leaf in sheet M is marked M, and contains a "Sonet" by his Majesty, signed "I.R.S."; it is usually wanting.—Dæmonologie, 4 preliminary leaves, and pages 1-80 (the last misnumbered 64).—Regis Oratio, A-L in fours.

BIBLE of 1610—see ante Bibles.

38182 MONTGOMERY (Alexander). The Flyting betwixt Montgomery and Polwart. In verse. Small 4to. with the inscription "Presented to my good Friend Mr. David Laing by George Nicol" on the title-page, green morocco extra, gilt edges, £52. 10*s*

Edinburgh, Printed by the Heires of Andro Hart, 1629

EXCESSIVELY RARE. The earliest edition known, although one dated 1621 (probably by an error) is mentioned in the Harleian Catalogue. This singular composition must have been written before 1584, as some verses are quoted from it in that year by James VI in his Essayes of a Prentise in the Divine Art of Poesie. Montgomery's invectives are equally distinguished by their virulence and ingenuity, and those of his antagonist, Sir Patrick Hume of Polwarth, can scarcely be considered as inferior. Many of the terms which they employ are highly offensive to delicate ears.

Collation: A-C in fours, and D (1 leaf).

(1552) St. Andrews.

38183 HAMILTON (Bishop John). The Catechisme, That is to say, ane cõmone and catholik instructioun of the christin people in materis of our catholik faith and religioun, quhilk na gud christin man or woman suld misknaw: set furth be ye maist reuerend father in God Iohne Aschbischop (sic) of sanct Androus Legatnait and primat of ye kirk of Scotland, in his prouincial counsale haldin at Edinburgh the xxvi. day of Ianuarie, the zeir of our Lord 1551 . . small 4to. black letter, some leaves mended, olive morocco extra, gilt edges, Dr. Laing's copy, £148.

Prentit at sanct Androus, be the command and expēsis of the maist reuerend father in God, Iohne Archbischop of sanct Androus, and primat of ye hail kirk of Scotland, the xxix. day of August, the zeir of our Lord M.D.lii. (1552)

THE FIRST BOOK PRINTED AT ST. ANDREW'S, AND EXCESSIVELY RARE. There are only three or four copies in existence. It would not, however, have been surprising if all had perished under the destructive rage of the triumphant party of Reform. Religious animosities burned as fiercely in Scotland as in any other country of the age. The Archbishop was taken prisoner by his enemies in 1571, and immediately hanged.

Collation: 13 preliminary unnumbered leaves (including the Title), and folios i-ccvii. Numbers lxiii and lxviii are left out of the numeration, but cxxi and cxxii occur twice. There are, too, other mistakes which, however, correct themselves, so that the numeration becomes right in the end.

38184 [LYNDSAY (Sir David) Ane Dialog betuix Experience and ane Courtiour], smallest 4to. imperfect, bd. £5.

[St. Andrews, John Scot, about 1554]

Only two other copies seem to be known at the present time. One is in Mr. Christie-Millar's library, and the other fetched £121 at David Laing's first sale. There is perhaps another in the Bodleian collection.

EXTREMELY RARE.

Patrick Cockburn was a Professor at St. Andrew's, while John Knox was there, but remained loyal to the old faith; although indeed there is hardly anything in this little volume, beyond a few ambiguous references to recent events in the dedication to the Queen Regent (Marie de Guise), and the fact of such dedication, to show to which side he belonged. He must have fled to France not long after the publication of the Pia Meditatio, as he died in Paris in 1559, having previously held a professorship at the University there.

So far as can be ascertained, this was the second book printed at St. Andrew's, unless the dateless Dialogue of Sir David Lyndsay followed Archbishop Hamilton's Catechism.

[Printed at Antwerp by John of Doesborch, about 1500]

This copy contains sheets a-d in sixes; I am unable to discover how many leaves should follow, since, apparently, no other copy is known. Mr. Hazlitt describes this in his last volume of Collections and Notes as having come from Heber's library.

38196 [ARNOLD'S (Richard) Chronicle, or the Customs of London.] Small folio, black letter, FIRST EDITION, a very large copy, a few leaves inlaid and slightly wormed, wanting the first four preliminary leaves, folios cxii and cxiv-cxviii, or ten leaves, calf, £7. 10*s*

[Without marks, but printed at Antwerp, by John of Doesborch, 1503]

This is the first edition of this very curious chronicle or Medley relating to the Manners, Customs, Laws, etc. of the City of London. It is much sought after by collectors of old poetry, as it contains THE FIRST EDITION of the beautiful old ballad of the Nut-Brown Maid. Warton observes of this work that it is perhaps the most heterogeneous and multifarious miscellany that ever existed.

38197 (LYNDEWODE, Guillelmus.) Prouinciale seu Cōstitutiones Anglie: cū summarijs, atqȝ iustis annotationibus, politissimis caracteribus, summaqȝ accuratione rursum reuise, atqȝ impresse. Imprinted at N. with Licence. M.D.XCIIII. (1594)

EXCESSIVELY RARE in this condition, having been so rigorously suppressed that it was made high treason even to possess a copy. Doleman, whose name Robert Parsons, Cardinal Allen and Sir F. Englefield, the real authors, appropriated, was hung, drawn, and quartered, though in no manner connected with the book.

It is very seldom that a copy containing the original folding table has appeared in the market, that being usually deficient altogether, or supplied by the reprint.

Collation: 9 preliminary leaves, the folding table, pages 1-220, 2 leaves of preface to second part, and pages 1-267.

VERY RARE. The two pieces are evidently issued from one press. In each the name of "Wyllyam Tyndale, otherwyse called Wyllyam Hychyns" appears on the first page of the text.

Collations: The Obedyence, folios (i) -Cxxxiii including the Title (number 63 being omitted), and 6 leaves of Table; The parable, 4 preliminary leaves, folios i-lii, and 4 leaves of Table.

Notwithstanding the imprint, the book was printed in London sometime near the year 1540. In the British Museum catalogue it will be found described as of "? 1550"; but I have had a copy bearing a London signature written in 1543.

38207 [FRITH (John).] A pistle to the Christen reader. The Revelation of Antichrist. Antithesis, wherin are compared to geder Christes actes and oure holye father the Popes. 16mo. black letter, the title within a woodcut border, a fine copy, blue morocco extra, gilt edges, by C. Hering, £8.

At Malborow in the lande of Hesse, The .xij. day of Iulye, Anno. M.CCCCC.xxix. by me Hans luft. (1529)

EXTREMELY RARE. It is one of the first books in English against the Pope, and one of the first condemned in 1530. The Epistle bears the name of "Richarde Brightwell," which stands for John Frith.

Collation: A-N in eights, the last leaf having been blank.

Imprentit at Paris the first of April. 1581

EXCEEDINGLY RARE. The first part is preceded by an epistle to Mary, and the second by one to James VI of Scotland.

Collation: A-T in eights (including the Title). The leaves of the first part are numbered from 1 to 116, but those of the second are unnumbered.

38210 BURNE. The Dispvtation concerning the controversit headdis of Religion, haldin in the Realme of Scotland, the zeir of God ane thousand, fyue hundreth fourscoir zeiris. Betuix. The prætendit

Ministeris of the deformed Kirk in Scotland. And, Nicol Burne . . . 12mo. calf, EXTREMELY RARE, the Laing copy, £28.
Imprented at Parise the first day of October. 1581

The author describes himself on the title as "Professor of philosophie in S. Leonardis college, in the Citie of Sanctandrois, brocht vp from his tender eage in the peruersit sect of the Caluinistis, and nou be ane special grace of God, ane membre of the halie and Catholik kirk."

The libidinous translation of T. Beza de sua in Candidam et Audebertum Benevolentia (folios 103-4)—so daintily Catulline in its Latin form, but so hideous in the plain Scottish rhymes—is often torn out; and the metrical Admonition, unknown to Lowndes, is so rare that it has been sold separately at high prices, and probably not more than three or four copies are extant.

This book is a curious source of information concerning the private lives of the Reformers, and must not be neglected by students of the history of the sixteenth century.

Collation: 8 preliminary leaves (including the Title), leaves 1-190 (the numeration skipping from 66 to 77), 3 leaves with Table and Colophon, "Ane Admonition to the Antichristian Ministers In the Deformit Kirk of Scotland (in verse) . . . 1581" 7 leaves (including the separate Title).

Small 4to. black letter, with numerous curious woodcuts, a few leaves at the end very slightly wormed, otherwise a fine large copy, old English red morocco extra, gilt edges, £63. [Without marks]

EXCESSIVELY RARE; the first English edition. According to Lowndes, it is supposed to have been "printed, if not translated, by John Rastell." The compiler of the Huth Catalogue, however, says, "It was probably printed at Paris," and later than 1520, to which date the British Museum Catalogue assigns it. Hazlitt suggests Thelman Kerver of Paris as the printer.

Collation: ✻, A-X, and AA-TT, in fours (the last leaf containing only two woodcuts).

38222 HENRY VIII. A supplycacion te our moste soueraigne lorde Kynge Henry the eyght, Kynge of England of Fraunce and of Irelande, & moste erneste defender of Christes gospell, supreme heade vnder God here in erthe, next & immedyately of his churches of Englande and Irelande . . 16mo. black letter, a fine copy, blue morocco extra, gilt edges, £12. 12*s* green morocco super extra, leather joints, gilt edges, £10. 10*s*

[Without marks, but 1575]

EXTREMELY RARE. This "Letter" is addressed to "Master Humfrey Martin Mercer," and signed at the end, "Par me R. L. Gent Mercer; and on page 44 the author calls himself "Laneham." It is a contemporary account by an eye-witness of the entertainment of Queen Elizabeth at Kenliworth Castle by the Earl of Leicester in 1575, and has the greater interest from being written in the Warwickshire dialect. On page 34 a certain Captain Cox is introduced as a man of "great oversight . . in matters of storie;" and then follows a long and interesting list of the romantic and humorous pieces in his repertory.

Collation: Title, and pages 1-87 (number 55 being omitted).

38224 [NICHOLAS (Henry).] Evangelivm regni. A Ioyfull Message of the Kingdom, published by the holie Spirit of the Loue of Iesu Christ . . . MR. WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE'S COMEDIES, HISTORIES, AND TRAGEDIES. Published according to the True Originall copies. 1623.

Almost all books printed in England or in English during the first century of the existence of the press in this country—or, to speak more precisely, between 1477 and 1577*—may be regarded as comprehensible in the present section of the* Monumenta Typographica. But, although precluded by its date from incorporation in the body of the class, there is one other book which may fittingly serve to close this chapter of English Monuments of the Press. Its printers were not particular as to the fineness of the type or the goodness of the paper, or the correctness of the press-work; but I am nevertheless proud to record here my possession of a matchless copy of

THE FIRST FOLIO SHAKSPEARE, 1623; GENUINE, SOUND, FINE, AND VERY LARGE (13⅛ inches in height), BOUND IN RED MOROCCO super extra, in the Veneto-English style of Queen Elizabeth's time, BY BEDFORD; which I will not sell for less than £1200.

This copy, equal in size and in every other respect to the famous Daniel copy, is the only first-rate first folio which has been seen since the Daniel sale twenty-three years ago. There are perhaps not four such copies in existence; and there is therefore no possibility of measuring their value by a reference to even the highest prices paid for ordinarily good copies.

BH, sm. folio, gothic letter, fine large copy in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Lortic, from Lord Crawford's library, £21.

Fol. 2*a*, line-34-35: Iohanni mentelin incole argētenēsi impressorie artis mgro [before 1466, ? 1464-65]

This book, with its statement, in the preface, of the printer's name is a key to the identification of several of the earliest Strassburg books. This is the earlier of Mentelin's two issues, both of them being anterior, as Mr. Madden has proved, to the edition published by Fust at Mentz, which we know must have appeared before 1466. The probability is that 1464 is the true date.

38230 BIDPAY'S FABLES. DIRECTORIUM HUMANE VITE ALIAS PARABOLE ANTIQUORŪ SAPIENTŪ, sm. folio, gothic letter, 82 leaves, with 119 rude woodcuts, fine copy in red morocco gilt, gilt and marbled edges, by Duru, from Lord Crawford's library, £36.

Sine nota (Strassburg, Johann Pryss, about 1484-85)

FIRST EDITION of a book of world-wide renown. The Book of Sendebar, Kalila and Dimna, the Hitopadesa, the Panchatantra, and the Directorium, or Pilpay's Fables, are all of identical character and substance. The actual Indian (?) original is probably no longer in existence, but is represented by the two Sanscrit works above mentioned. A Pahlavi version existed in the sixth century after Christ, and a Syriac and an Arabic version were derived from it not long afterwards. From Syriac it was rabbinized into literary Hebrew; and in the thirteenth century John of Capua, a converted Jew, translated the Hebrew Sendebar into the Latin Directorium.

The headings of the pages are in Roman numerals, according to the criterion which Brunet gives for determining the first edition.

Argentine, Joannes Schott, 1513

The most remarkable of the early Ptolemies in its geographical importance. It contains two maps which were here printed for the first time, and which may undoubtedly be held to represent the cartographical labours of Amerigo Vespucci. One of them is the Hydrographia (or "Hydrographie Portugaise" as it is often called), which forms the first of the supplementary maps; the other is the Tabula Terre nove, which is the second of that series, and which might be thought to contain the New-World portion of the Hydrographia engraved on a larger scale and more detailed, but it is really quite a different map. Only one map is alluded to in the address Ad Lectorem which precedes those supplementary maps, and it is said to have been presented to the editors more than six years earlier, by René Duke of Lorraine, when they had commenced to work on the publication of Ptolemy. This fixes the real date of the work as 1507, although it was not completed for publication till 1513.

38232 VESPUCCI. De ora antarctica per regem Portugallie pridem inuenta, sm. 4to. gothic letter, six leaves, with two separate woodcuts on the title-page, and three diagrams of which two represent constellations of the Southern heavens; fine copy in limp vellum, £36. Impressum Argentine per Mathiam hupfuff. M.v.c v.

This edition of Vespucci's letter to Lorenzo di Pietro de Medici was published by Ringmann Philesius, and in his dedicatory epistle to Jacobus Brunus he refers to the astronomical discoveries it relates, and says—"Libellum ipsum Alberici casu nobis peroblatum in transcursu, et singula ferme ad Ptolomeum (cuius tabulas ut nosti non versamus nunc indiligenter) comparavimus." This was written on the 1st of August, 1505, and proves two things: firstly that Vespucci's Quattro Viaggi had not yet reached Philesius, and secondly that the Ptolemy Atlas was already in contemplation, eight years before its appearance.

S. n. (Typis Ulrici Zell, Coloniæ, circa 1471)

This copy is so large that the original MS. signatures are still visible. Only two other copies are known; one is imperfect, in the Laurentian Library at Florence, the other perfect in Lord Spencer's library. Dr. Dibdin misdescribes the latter copy as having been printed by Fust and Schöffer.—Zell's edition was the first in which the text was divided into verses.

Sine nota (Cologne about 1472)

This is one of the books which will never cease to arouse curiosity and interest until we have finally penetrated the secret of Caxton's connexion with the press of Cologne in 1472-74.

s. n. (Strassburg, Johann Mentelin, 1468)

An extremely interesting volume, printed certainly before the close of the sixties. Mentelin's edition of the De Civitate Dei is known to have been printed before 1468, and this would probably have been its immediate successor. It bears an inscription on the fly-leaf recording the presentation to the Carthusian monastery at Buchshaim near Biberach, by Hilprand Brandenburger a member of the order.

38240 CLAUDII PTOLEMAEI Geographicæ Enarrationis libri octo Bilibaldo Pirckeymhero interprete, (acc.) annotationes J. de Regio Monte in errores commissos a Jacobo Angelo in translatione sua, folio, curious initials with borders, 50 large woodcut maps, Henry VIII's copy and a fine specimen of the binding used for his library, £63. Argentoragi (sic) J. Grieninger, 1525

A large dispersion of Henry VIII's books took place at his death. This volume fell into the hands of James Cruise of Fotheringay, who in 1556 presented it to Sir Walter Mildmay, as appears from a Greek inscription in the handwriting of the latter. It afterwards descended to Mildmay Earl of Westmorland in Charles II's time, who has written the following inscriptions on the fly-leaf—

Solus Deus protector meus. W.
Cur mundus militet
Vana sub gloria
Cuius prosperitas
Est transitoria.

s. n. (Coloniæ, Ulr. Zell, circ. 1467)

FIRST EDITION; EXCESSIVELY RARE. The date is proved by the fact that this book is in the identical letters used in Zell's dated Augustine of 1467, and so fresh and new in impression as to represent the very earliest use of the type. For the size of the margins, the whiteness and freshness of the paper, the clearness and brilliancy of the printing,—this is perhaps the finest Zell book that has ever passed through my hands.

Coloniæ in ædibus Eucharij Ceruicorni . . M.D.XXIII mense Ianuario (1523)

This is believed to be the earliest edition of this valuable tract, in which the discoveries of Ferdinand MAGELLAN and the earliest circumnavigation of the globe were announced. Charles V was at Valladolid when the news reached him of the arrival at Seville of the eighteen survivors of the 265 men who had formed the crews of the five ships which left Spain three years before. The King commanded them to come to him at Valladolid, and an account of their adventures was taken down by his secretary, Maximilianus Transylvanus, and also by Pietro Martire d'Anghiera. The former addressed his account to his father, the Cardinal Archbishop of Salzburg, and had it printed at Cologne, whence he had recently returned with the Emperor. Another edition appeared at Rome, but most bibliographers consider that it was later than this.

. . Hie endet der psalter . . zu Basel durch Michel Furter . . . M.cccc. vnd. iij. iar (1503)

The Latin text is in large Gothic characters occupying the body of the book; the German translation is in smaller German Gothic on the margins.

38246 ALBERTINUS. Opvscvlvm de Mirabilibvs novae et veteris vrbis Romae editvm a Francisco Albertino Floren. sm. 4to. Roman type, a large woodcut of the Virgin on the back of the title, bds. 20*s* In inclyta Basilacorvm vrbe. M.D.XIX (1519)

Remarkable for the beauty of the types which gave the book an appearance of having been completely engraved. Thomas Wolff was the printer. The celebrated reference to Vespucci as the discoverer of new islands and new stars is on the last page but one. The words "ut in eius libello graphice apparet in quo descripsit sydera & nouas insulas, ut etiam apparet in epistola eius . . ad Laurentium," plainly indicate the existence of two Vespucci books printed before 1510 (the first date of Albertini's work).

Vol. I (8) ff. + 335 ff. + (1) f. Vol. II. 253 ff. + (1) f. An admirable specimen of typography, and the first collective edition containing the Rhetorica and Poetica, which had appeared before in the "Rhetores Græci" of Aldus. This copy on large thick paper, absolutely uncut, in the original vellum wrappers, belonged to the poet FR. REDI, with his autograph.

. . Augspurg von Anthoni Sorg . . M.CCCC vnd in dem . LXXXIII. Iare (1483)

A book of unusual note for its striking woodcuts representing the procession and ceremonies of the Council of Constanz; for the escutcheons which entitle it to rank as the first printed Armorial; and for the vivid account which the writer gives of the scene of Huss's martyrdom. Reichenthal was told to ask the heresiarch to make his confession before death.

. . . Anthonius Sorg zu Augspurg . . . M.CCCC. vnd in dem Sechszvndsibentzigisten Jare (1476)

This excessively rare edition was printed on St. Laurence's eve (9th August) 1476; Richel's Basel edition on St. Gilgen's eve in the same year. It is difficult to say which should have the priority as we cannot be sure whether Gilgen is Julian, Kilian, or Gilles.

Dr. Kloss added a lettering-piece on the back "Munsingers Menschenspiegel." The date 1621, and the initials F. G. C. P. I. are stamped on the side of the binding.

A very rare and valuable book, printed almost simultaneously with the first edition which had been completed at Brünn on the 20th March, just eighteen days before this. On the first blank page of the above copy, in boards, some inscriptions are written—"Emptus est liber anno dni etc. 1491, et attinet monasterio in Tegernsee sancti Quirini" etc.

Ex officina Ioannis de Regiomōte habitantis in Nuremberga oppido Germanie celebratissimo [1472]

One of the rarest volumes of classical poetry in existence; and also one of the most elegant books in Roman characters that the early presa of Germany produced. The press of the astronomer Regiomontanus was probably a private one, and not a professional typographer's instrument. The book looks more like an Italian than a German edition; and the type, apparently never used again, seems to have been cut in imitation of Schweynheim and Pannartz's productions.

38262 MARCO POLO. Folio 2: Hie hebt sich an das puch des edelñ Ritters vñ landtfarers Marcho polo. In dem er schreibt die grossen wunderlichen ding dieser welt. Sunderlichen von den grossen künigen vnd keysern die da herschen in den selbigen landen | und von irem volck vnd seiner gewonheit da selbs, sm. folio, gothic letter, with the very rare full-length woodcut portrait, and initial letters in colours, fine copy in green morocco extra, gilt edges, by Duru, £70.

Disz hat gedruckt Fricz Creuszner zu Nurmberg Nach cristi gepurdt Tausent vierhundert vñ im siben vñ sibenczigtē iar (1477)

This excessively rare edition consists of 58 leaves, with 34 lines to a full page. Only three other copies are known,—British Museum, Imperial Library Vienna, and Lord Spencer's,—and of these Lord Spencer's alone has the portrait.

Editio Princeps of Marco Polo's Travels; and a book of extreme rarity.

38263 NUREMBERG CHRONICLE. Fol. 1: Registrum huius operis libri cronicarum cū figuris et ymagibus ab inicio mūdi. Colophon on folio 266: Completo in famosissima Nurembergensi vrbi Operi de hystorijs etatum mundi. ac descriptione vrbium felix imponitur finis. In this copy there is an inscription, dated 1520, which appears at beginning and end. The second form is the fuller, and runs thus—

Hunc librum imposuit Episcopus Adolfus princeps ad Anhalt per manus magistri bartholomei Gamper de Adorff anno 1520 in festo Sancti Johannis patroni huius ecclesiæ.—For the binding alone, Bedford charged £15 twenty years ago.

VERY RARE, being undescribed by the bibliographers. It was evidently one of the fruits of an attempt to bring about the use of the Roman liturgy in the vernacular; but the movement was speedily checked.

A volume of excessive rarity and of great historical value. It was the second book printed at Brünn, the first having been a liturgical work that appeared two years earlier. The typographical splendour of the above Chronicle, the grand and striking woodcuts that embellish it, were intended probably to make it a fitting associate for the famous MSS. of Matthias Corvinus' library.

Chalchographatum primiciali hac pressura, Friburgi p Ioannē Schottu Argen . . . M.CCCCC.III. (1503) knowledge in all branches of science at the close of the fifteenth century. An undated edition is usually called the first and referred to Heidelberg in 1496; but erroneously. Schott, who was a Strassburg printer, established a bye-press at Freiburg (where Reisch was Prior of the Carthusian monastery) evidently to print this work for the first time primitiali hac pressura.—The map is very rare, and is of the old Ptolemæan kind, but it has the degrees of both latitude and longitude marked. A long-lined inscription beneath the unfinished continent of Africa consists of the following words:—"Hic non terra sed mare est in quo mire magnitudinis Insule sed Ptolemeo fuerūt incognite." This indicates a knowledge of the American discoveries, although they are not more explicitly defined.

38287 BOTVID (Johann) Agenda Ecclesiastica in Castris Sveticis . . sm. 4to. purple morocco extra, gilt edges, by Riviere, £4. 4*s*
Sedini, literis Georgii Goetschii, Anno 1631

A curious little official manual of 20 pp., printed only for the use of the army chaplains in the camp of Gustavus Adolphus, and consequently of excessive rarity. Its plain straightforward simplicity and business-like recapitulation of the relations between the chaplains and the soldiers, afford an apt illustration of the discipline and the concentrated power of the Swedish army. The writer died four years afterwards as Bishop of Linköping.

Without imprint; or with various imprints.

38288 ΛΙΤΑΝΕΙΑ Germanorvm, 12mo. Roman letter, 8 leaves, purple morocco extra, gilt edges, £7. 7*s* S. n. (? Worms, 1521)

This extremely curious piece is a parody on the Litany of the Roman service, and was issued before Luther went to the Diet of Worms. One of the supplications is "Ut Martinum Lutherum Christianæ fidei columnam indejicibilem brevi Wormaciam venturum ab omni veneno . . custodire . . digneris." The word venturum is tolerable evidence that the Litany was printed at Worms. It is extremely free and caustic at the expense of the legates, the Pope, the Emperor's confessor, and other champions of the Roman cause.

"This edition, which, as I shall presently show, is the editio princeps, was printed by Stephan Plannck at Rome in 1493."—R. H. Major, in the preface to the Select Letters of Columbus. Mr. Major's masterly analysis of the bibliographical minutiæ of the first four Latin editions of Columbus' letter may be considered to have disposed of all the questions, and to have demonstrated that the above is absolutely the first edition. There are only some four or five copies besides this in existence. The last one sold fetched 7500 fr. at a sale in Paris in 1884; since then a copy, probably of a different edition, has been sold in Germany for over £350.

Romæ p Euchariũ Silber alias Franck . . . M.cccc.xciii (1493)

Fetched £10. 10*s* at the Sunderland sale. A rare account of the solemnities on the occasion of Alexander VI's accession to the Papal Throne. On folio 18-19, after a reference to the conquest of Granada, there is a distinct allusion to Columbus' first expedition—"Nec dum finis fiet Hispaniarum regibus. Omnis Affrica sub tributo dominabuntur (sic) Christo duce a mari usque ad mare. Dabit illis dominis possessionem terminos terræ" (sic).

Spira premens: artis gloria prima sue,

small folio, Editio Princeps, fine copy in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, from Lord Crawford's library, exceedingly rare, £60. (Venice, 1470)

The first book printed by Windelin of Speyer.

38316 LIVII Historiarum Romanarum decades I. et IV. 2 vols. folio, Printed on Vellum, contemporary oaken binding, covered with stamped leather, in two red morocco cases, £800. Venet. VINDELIN DE SPIRA, 1470

THE FIRST PAGE OF EACH VOLUME IS EXQUISITELY ILLUMINATED IN THE CHOICEST ITALIAN STYLE, with designs consisting of garlands and scroll work and ornamental vases with entwined handles in green on a rich gold ground; the initial to Book I being a full-length figure of an Armed Warrior in camaieu bleu, in a floreate letter of crimson on a golden ground; in the centre of the right hand margin is a highly finished miniature PORTRAIT of a Venetian noble of military rank; and on the lower margin the DONATO Arms upheld by two cupids. The first initial to Book IV consists of two full-length figures of angels holding grotesques, in pale blue on a golden ground; having on the right hand margin a highly finished miniature of another Venetian Commander, and on the lower margin the same Arms supported by cupids on a gold and crimson ground. Besides these the vols. have 22 FINELY PAINTED AND ILLUMINATED INITIALS. Unfortunately these two volumes comprise only decades I. and IV. (the second which contained dec. III. is missing). The volume containing decade I. commences with four added leaves of Epitomes of the 10 books WRITTEN IN LETTERS OF BLUE AND GOLD: followed by the text which has 146 ll.; the volume containing decade IV. commences with 3 ll. of Epitomæ (lib. xxxi-xl) written in blue and gold; then comes the text which occupies 109 ll.; the last two ll. containing the well-known lines of the printer; followed by the Epistle of the Bishop of Aleria to Pope Paul II, and the epitome of the 14 decades, which occupy 23 ll.; and besides these the volumes have 6 blank ll. The head titles are written throughout in red, and the margins have notes in the same hand.

The wonderful finish of the illuminations in these volumes shows that they are the production of an Artist of the very first rank, dating from about the years 1480-90, and as the Miniaturist Francesco dai Libri (the father of the famous Girolamo) was then painting at Venice, we may venture to assign this noble work of art to his hand. The house of Donato was then flourishing in wealth and power at Venice, to which it furnished a Doge in 1545 (Francesco, whose portrait was painted by Paolo Veronese).

The Livy of Vindelin de Spira, on vellum, is of an EXTREME DEGREE OF RARITY, probably not more than three copies being known.

38317 EUSEBIUS. Fol. 1: [E]VSEBIVM Pamphili de euangelica præparatione latinum ex græco beatissime pater iussu tuo

effeci . . . folio, Roman letter, printed on vellum, with a fine illuminated border of interlaced work on the first page, in the lower part of which there is painted in grisaille a fine bust of Eusebius; bound in old Italian red morocco, gold tooling, gilt edges, from the Syston and Crawford libraries, £52. 10*s*

. . Ienson ueneta Nicolaus in urbe . . M.CCCC.LXX. (1470)

The first book printed by Jenson at Venice; and also the first edition of the work. Only two other copies printed on vellum are known; one in the Bibliothèque Nationale, the other at Padua. All the chapter headings are written in red ink in a character so nearly identical to that of the type-letters that we do not hesitate to assign them to the hand of Jenson himself. The similar heading on the first page runs as follows:—"Ad sanctissimum PPM Nicolaū V georgii trapezuntii in traductione eusebii præfatio." In this book appeared for the first time Cornazano's epigram on the book and the printer, in which he declares that the typographer's skilful hand had bestowed immortality on the Doge (under whom his work was accomplished), on the author (whose labour he had set in print), and on Christ (whose honour he had increased). It is from this epigram that I have picked out the words of imprint.

Venetiis, Nicolavs Ienson, 1471

38319 ——— the same, old English crimson morocco, from the Sunderland and Crawford libraries, £48. 1471

This copy has an illuminated border to the first page, with flowers, birds, and insects painted on a dull gold ground, in imitation of the Flemish manner. At the end 22 leaves are inserted, containing Raymund Marlianus' index to Cæsar, taken out of the Milan edition of 1477.

38320 CICERONIS ORATIONES, Editio Princeps, folio, Roman letter; without the preliminary leaf of Tabula; in a fifteenth century limp vellum wrapper, £16.

. . Christophorus. Valdarfer . . Venetum perfecit in urbe . . M.CCCC.LXXI. LODO. CARBO (1471)

An interesting copy which belonged in 1490-93 to a Willelmus Panntzs in a religious house in Hungary or Austria. In 1490 he marks the death of Matthias Corvinus with a couple of epitaphs on the fly-leaf, the advance of Maximilian and the capture of Stuhlweissenburg, at which "idem (i.e. Maximilian) fuit personaliter et etiam ego Wilhelmus Panntzs, presens." In 1493 he was in Vienna, and states that Maximilian had started to attack the Turks. In the same year he records several thefts which had taken place hic in domo, and his discovery of the thief "Petrus Prantsteter de Otting," who was "tandem suspensus justo judice."

(Venice, 1476)

A very rare Bible, of which there was no copy at the Caxton Exhibition, and which is unmentioned by Brunet in his paragraph on the 1476 Latin Bibles. But an elaborate description and collation are given in the Supplement to Brunet. No copy but this appears to have ever been in the market.

The colophon in both the preceding editions is immediately followed by an epigram addressed thus—"Calphurnius. Antonio Pasqualino de Sancto Germano Campaniæ . S."—An autograph inscription appears on the last page "Antonii Seripandi ex Iani Parrhasii testamento," and there is another inscription on the first page "Ex bibliotheca Sti. Ioannis ad Carbonetum. Neap." These inscriptions belong to the early part of the sixteenth century.

Inserted at the beginning is a fine large copper-plate portrait serving evidently as the bookplate of some distinguished bible-collector. It is a Dutch or German engraving, about 1690.

I sold the Sunderland copy of the Mallermi Bible of 1481 for £35.

38327 CONTARINI (Ambrogio) Fol. 1: Questo e el viazo de misier Ambrosio contarin ambasador de la illustrissima signoria de Venesia al signor Vxuncassam Re de Persia . . sm. 4to. Roman letter, olive morocco extra, joints, gilt edges, from Lord Crawford's library, £20.

Impressum Venetiis per Hānibalem Fosium parmensem anno . . Mccccl xxxvii . . (1487)

First Edition. This narrative covers the years 1473-76, during which the ambassador went to Persia, and, after some stay there, made his return through Muscovy and Poland. Besides a valuable relation of Persian matters, it is one of the earliest accounts of the Russian people.

38328 [KETHAM (Joannes)] Incomincia el dignissimo Fasiculo de Medicina in Volgare el quale tracta de tute le infirmitate del corpo Humano & de la Anotomia de quello: & multi altri Tractati composti p diuersi Excellentissimi Doctori . . . sm. folio, Roman letter, 1 diagram, and 9 outline woodcuts, the full size of the pages, giving figures of men and a woman, doctors, and surgical operations, all on a grand scale, and probably engraved after Andrea Mantegna's designs; crimson morocco extra, gilt edges, by Masson-Debonnelle, £21.

Qui finisce el Fasciculo de medicina Vulgarizato per Sabastiano Manilio Romano E stāpito per Zuane & Gregorio di Gregorii . Nel . M.cccclxxxxiii . . . in Venexia (1493)

The first page contains a picture of the physician "Petrvs de Montagnana" lecturing to his scholars, and his name being printed in large letters above his head has sometimes caused the leaf to be taken as a title-leaf, and that as the name of the author; while he was really only one of the authors fasciculated by Ketham.

The woodcuts are the grandest works of their kind produced in Venice before the Poliphilo. The last one, which represents a scene of dissection, with ten figures, is coloured, the colouring having been put on at the same time as the printing, by some mechanical process.

38329 VITA DI SANCTI PADRI VULGARE HISTORIADA, sm. folio, stained, and leaf 135 wanting; but containing some hundreds of very fine small woodcuts by the master who designed the Poliphilo cuts; bd. £4.

. . Venetia per Gioanne di cho deca da parma Ad instantia di Luchantonio di Giunta . . . M.CCCCLXXXXIII . . (1493)

One of these cuts has a large Gothic ℑ, a great many have the Roman initial b, and several have the letter i or j, sometimes Roman and sometimes Gothic. It is believed that these, like ia and b of the Poliphilo, refer to the famous artist, Iacopo de Barbari, of whom Dürer spoke in terms of the highest eulogy.

38330 PTOLEMY, Xylographic Title: Epytoma Ioānis De mōte regio In almagestū ptolomei. Colophon: Explicit Magne Compositionis Astronomicon Epitoma Iohannis de Regio monte . . . sm. folio, gothic letter, numerous diagrams, with beautiful woodcut initials, and one page with an exquisite arabesque border; the first and last leaves mounted; green morocco extra, gilt edges, £7. 10*s*

. . Opera quoqȝ ꝛ arte Iohannis hāman de Landoia: dictus hertzog . . . In hemispherio Veneto: Anno salutis . 1496 . . .

The artistic decoration of this volume is very fine, the arabesque border, the woodcut initials, and the printer's mark being engraved in white on black ground, evidently by the same hand which designed the illustrations in the Sarum Missal printed by Herzog in 1494.

Venetiis Per Io. Baptistam Sessa . . M.CCCCXCIX (1499)

With the printer's mark at the end, and his device of the Cat and Mouse, with I. B. S. on the title. This is one of the earliest appearances of that well-known design.

Venetiis . . Albertinus de Lissona . . Mccccciii (1503)

This edition is remarkable as the first in which Columbus' Voyage is described—a page and a half are given to it.

38333 EUCLID. Euclidis megarēsis philosophi platonicj Mathematicaruȝ disciplinarū Ianitoris: Habent in hoc volumine quicūqȝ ad mathematicā substantiā aspirāt: elemētorum libros. xiii. cū expositione Theonis . . Venetiis . . in edibus Ioannis Tacuini . . M.D.V. . . (1505)

The first translation of Euclid from the Greek. Portion of this volume had already appeared in Venice in 1502. The translator was the author of the curious Isolario.

38334 SAVONAROLA. Fratris hierōymi Ferriarensis (sic). Expositiones In psalmos. Qui regis israel Miserere mei deus In te domine speraui Item. Regule quedam . . Oratio vel psalmus Diligam te domine, 12mo. gothic letter, elegant woodcut on title and woodcut initials; vellum, £3. 3*s*

Opera di Giouāniandrea Vauassore ditto Vadagnino: Stampata nouamēte nella inclita citta di Vinegia Laus Deo. [circa 1510]

Contains: A to G, in eights, and H (7 leaves, of which the last contains on the reverse a woodcut of the Virgin and Child).

38336 BIBLE (the first Rabbinical) ARBA VASHARIM: Khummash im targum . . the complete Hebrew Bible, with targums and commentaries, edited by Felix Pratensis, Hebrew and Chaldee; 4 vols. in 1, large folio, First Edition of the Hebrew Bible with the Rabbinical apparatus; fine copy bound in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, from Lord Crawford's library, £30.

Venezia, Daniel Bomberg, 278 (1518)

EXTREMELY RARE. On the back of the title there is a Latin dedication from the editor to Leo X, and beneath the colophon there is a Papal licence for ten years (from 1515) also in Latin. Otherwise the entire book is in Hebrew, Chaldee, or Rabbinical Hebrew. The editor was a Jew of great age who had only become a Christian and a monk during the progress of this edition through the press.

38337 BIBLE (the second Rabbinical) edited by Jacob ben Khaiim, 4 vols. folio, with the MASORAS and some additional commentaries added beyond the contents of the first edition, vellum, £10.

Venezia, Bomberg (1525-26)

VERY RARE. This is the parent edition of all succeeding Rabbinical Bibles and contains the first printed text of the Masora.

38338 DEUTSCH RÖMISCH BREVIER. Fol. 1: in der eer der aller hailigistē . . ; verso: . . Hie hebt sich an das deutsch römisch Breuier. sm. stout 4to. printed in black and red Gothic letter, with numerous large and small woodcuts and borders; a very fine copy of a splendid volume, in the original stamped calf, £16. 16*s*

Venedig durch den erberē meister Gregoriū de gregoriis . . dausēt. v. hūdert vn. xviii. iar . . (1518)

This book is very rare. The impression consisted of 400 copies printed at the expense of Prince Christophoro Frangipanni, and one of the pictures contains portraits of himself and his wife. Some of the woodcuts bear the signature of ia.

38339 PANTHEUS (Joannes Augustinus) Voarchadumia contra Alchimiam: Ars distincta ab Archimia, & Sophia . . sm. 4to. title printed in yellow, blue, and red, within woodcut border coloured yellow, woodcut view of Venice occupying pp. 4 and 5, and various full page woodcuts in the text; fine copy in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by David, £7. 7*s* Venetiis. M.D.XXX (1530)

A valuable scientific work on gold-refining, written by an antagonist of Alchemy.

38340 CELESTINA. Tragicomedia de Calisto et Melibea novamente tradotta De lingua Castigliana, 12mo. Italic letter, woodcuts, bd. 10*s* (Venezia) Marchio Sessa. M.D.XXXI . . (1531)

Including some original matter at the beginning and end, by the translator, Alfonso Ordoñez.

38341 IL PETRARCHA con l'Espositione d'Alessandro Vellvtello . . sm. 8vo. Italic letter, with a map of Vaucluse; third and best edition, fine copy in old Venetian black morocco, covered with gold tooling, gilt gaufré edges and strings, £12. 12*s*

Venegia . . Bernardino de Vidali Mille cinquecento trenta due (1532)

Vellutello's commentary received its final form in this edition, which consequently became the parent of many others.

38342 PALMERIN. Libro del famoso cauallero Palmerin de Oliua ꝛ de sus grādes hechos nueuamēte restampado y corregido: cō

Composto per Gioanuentura Rosetti prouisionato ne lo Arsena . . In Venetia per Francesco Rampazetto. M.D.XL (1540)

A very curious book, which has still a good deal of its technical value.

38345 SPAGNA. Libro volgare intitulato la Spagna nel quale se tratta gli gran fatti, & le mirabil battaglie qual fece il magnanimo Re Carlo . . 12mo. in small Gothic type, in double columns, with many small woodcuts, one large woodcut of very superior design; French red morocco extra, gilt edges, RARE, £3. 3*s*

38346 [PAGAN (Matio)] GIARDINETTO NOVO DI PVNTI TAGLIATI Et gropposi, per exercitio & ornamento delle Donne, sm. 4to. 44 pages entirely occupied by elegant lace designs; citron morocco extra, gilt edges, by Trautz-Bauzonnet, £24.

S. n. (Venice, about 1550)

EXCESSIVELY RARE. The 23 leaves (title and 22) of which this volume is composed have only one signature A, which is marked from AII to AXII.

38347 SIEGE OF MALTA. Βιβλίον περιέχον τῆς Μάλτας πολιορκίαν . . sm. 4to. a Romaic poem on the famous siege, with 20 very pretty woodcuts of scenes of battle, etc., red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £20. Ενετίησι παρὰ χριστοφόρῳτῳ Ζανέτῳ. ϛφοά (1571)

In the ballad metre of Macaulay's lays. The author's name does not appear.

This is the first part complete; the second, consisting of 26 leaves (including two of Table), was printed in the following year, and contains the treatise "De litteris græcis, &c.," and the other small pieces enumerated on the title.

38349 (LASCARIS, &c.). Another copy, with the Second Part, 2 parts in 1 vol. small 4to. without the two extremely rare leaves of Errata at the end, a very fine large clean copy, olive morocco extra, gilt edges, £10. [Last page of second part:] Valete . Venetiis . M.CCCC.LXXXXV. octavo Martii . . . (1494-5)

VERY RARE. The first book printed by Aldus with a date, if not the first of all his productions (though the dateless Musæus and Galeomyomachia dispute priority with it); and one of the rarest volumes of the Aldine series.

38350 HORATIVS. Fol. 1 b: Aldvs Romanvs Marino Sannvto patpitio Veneto Leonardi filio . . S. Folio 2 a: Qvinti Horatii Flacci Carminvm liber primvs . . . sm. 8vo. (12mo.), fine copy, ruled, in smooth red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Trautz-Bauzonnet, £36.

38351 ——— the same, a large copy, with painted initials, but having a couple of leaves slightly mended; blue morocco extra, gilt edges, with the Aldine anchor on the sides, by Charles Lewis, £20. 1501

First Aldine edition of Horace, and second book printed in Italic letters. This and the Virgil of the same year will always remain the most generally desirable volumes of the Aldine collection.

38352 NONNUS. Νόννου ποιητοῦ Πανοπολίτου Μεταβολὴ τοῦ κατὰ Ἰωάννην ἁγίου εναγγελίου, sm. 4to. very fine and very large copy in the original limp vellum, £12. 12*s*

S. n. [Venetiis, Aldus Manutius, 1501]

This was intended to form portion of the Poetæ Christiani, but it is extraordinarily rare and is found in very few copies. It is a Greek metrical version of St. John's Gospel; and is, therefore, the first portion of Scripture ever printed in the Greek language.

38353 MARTIALIS. On reverse of title: Plinivs ivnior Cornelio Prisco S. Fol. 2: M. V. Martialis Epigrammata . . 12mo. fine copy in olive morocco, with the full gilt sides of the original Venetian binding let in, £10. Venetiis in aedibvs Aldi . . M.DI (1501)

Romae ex Typographia Apostolica Vaticana [per Paulum Manutium] M.D.XC (1590)

EXCESSIVELY RARE. This is the famous edition intended to be the authorized text of the Vulgate, but so full of errors that it was immediately suppressed by Gregory XIV, after a first attempt to utilize it by pasting down small printed slips over the erroneous passages. All the accessible copies were destroyed before 1592 when Clement VIII brought out his substitutive edition. The discrepancies between the two editions have formed the subject of several attacks by Protestant writers.

Printed by Ulrich Scinzenzeler. At the end of the Defensorium eight leaves are added containing "Consilium editum p. Antoniū corsetum de Sicilia sup. monte pietatis." These treatises are meant to show that the labourer is worthy of his hire and that the pious pawnbrokers were entitled to charge a just interest.

38366 APICIUS. Title: Appicivs Culinarius (with a woodcut beneath), small 4to. Roman letter, Editio Princeps (with date); olive morocco extra, gilt edges, UNCUT, from the Syston and Crawford libraries, £10. 10*s*

Impressum Mediolani per magistrum Guilermum Signerre Rothomagensem Anno dñi . Mcccclxxxxvii. die. xx mensis Ianuarii. (1498)

Instead of the title as above given, "Apicius in Re Quoquinaria" is the intitulation which Brunet cites and which appeared on a copy formerly in my possession. The woodcut on the title represents a winged angel standing and gazing at the spectator, holding up a shield or medal which bears "I H S" in the centre, and "Iohanes. de. Legniano" round the edges. At the bottom corners is a sort of monogram

Milano . . Gioan Antonio da Castiglione . . M.D.XXXVIII (1538)

Most of the woodcuts are very rude. One of them represents the Laocoon group.

The work is a poem in ottava rima. One of the stanzas begins
Felice Italia che saria, se fosse
Contenta d'un Signor ——.

The Hebrew Bible complete, in large and elegant square characters; with only a single preliminary leaf in Rabbinical letter.

SO RARE that only some three or four copies are known altogether; and this is the only perfect one with 433 printed leaves (224 and 209). The Duke of Sussex's copy, apparently consisting of 431 leaves, fetched £135; Dr. Williams', 431 leaves, £49. 10*s*; the Bodleian copy and that which De Rossi had contain only 424 leaves; the British Museum has 430 leaves and admittedly wants the first leaf of Key to the Haphtaroth, etc.—Although five copies appear to be specified in this list, they are probably reducible to two. —The first leaf of Genesis and the first leaf of Joshua have a broad arabesque woodcut border containing figures, which is remarkable in itself for the history of decorative design.

38371 [BERGOMENSIS (JACOBUS PHILIPPUS)] DE PLURIMIS CLARIS SCELETIS (sic) q3 MULIERIBUS. Opus prope diuinum nouissime congestum, sm. folio, illustrated with 175 remarkably fine woodcuts, two of which, the full size of the page, are exquisite specimens of elaborate Italian design, two or three leaves mended, gilt edges, VERY RARE, £20. *Ferrarie īpressuz. One of the most beautiful of the illustrated books of the 15th century. Copies in good condition are of extremely rare occurrence. The Didot copy sold for £60.

38372 ALBERTI (Leonis Bapiste) DE RE AEDIFICATORIA, sm. folio, FIRST EDITION, very large copy in oak boards, with clasp, £5. 5*s*
. . Florentiæ accuratissime impressum opera Magistri Nicolai Laurentii Alamani: Anno salutis Millesimo octuagesimo quinto . . . (sic, for 1485)

The first edition of a famous work,—which in itself alone is sufficient testimony of the grandeur of Florence in the time of the magnificent Lorenzo. The dedication of the book is from Poliziano to "Laurentio Medici patrono suo"—Alberti being then dead.

38373 DANTE. Fol. 1: CONVIVIO DI DANTE ALIGHIERI FIORENTINO, sm. 4to. Roman letter, First Edition, fine copy in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Capé, £12. 12*s*

. . Firenze per ser Francesco bonaccorsi Nel anno mille quattrocento nouanta . . (1490)

One of the most intrinsically valuable of Dante's minor works; written in vigorous Italian prose, of which it is the first classical monument.

38374 THIBALDEO. Fol. 1: Sonetto in laude del Tibaldeo . . . Opere del Thibaldeo da Ferrara, sm. 4to. Roman letter, the first page enclosed within an arabesque woodcut border, white on black in the elegant Florentine manner; blue morocco extra, gilt edges, by Thibaron-Joly, £3. 3*s*

Impresso in Firēze apetitione di ser Piero pacini da pescia. With the printer's woodcut-mark below. (About 1495)

38375 SAVONAROLA. Some copies have the words "nella inclita citta di Firenze" before the date in the colophon.

(1472) Mantua.

38381 HAGGADAH SHEL PESAKH: LITURGY FOR THE PASSOVER SERVICE, printed for the use of German and Italian Jews in Hebrew Characters, folio, with a profusion of pictorial woodcuts and many elegant woodcut borders; in olive morocco super extra, gilt edges, VERY RARE, £50. Mantua, 328 (1568)

No copy has ever been seen before for sale in the London market. The instructions in the margin are in the German language, although in Hebrew characters. In one of the woodcuts is depicted the massacre of the Jewish children in order to prepare a bath of children's blood for Pharaoh, for whom this had been prescribed as a cure for the leprosy under which he suffered.

Collation: 36 leaves.

First Polyglott in which each language is printed in its proper characters. This edition is remarkable for a note on Psalm XIX, giving a sketch of the Life of Columbus and the Discovery of America.

(1478) Lucca.

38396 BANDELLO (M.) PRIMA, SECONDA ET TERZA PARTE DE LE NOVELLE, 3 vols. sm. 4to. Lucca per il Busdrago M.D.LIIII. (1554)—QUARTA PARTE, sm. 8vo. Lione, Alessandro Marsili M.D.LXXIII (1573)—together 4 vols. olive morocco extra, gilt edges, by Charles Lewis, from the Earl of Crawford's library, £35.
1554-72

One of the very rare books of which it is most difficult to obtain a complete copy. The obscene taste of Bandello, combined with his elegant style of language, has been no doubt the chief cause of making his Novels so scarce.

(1479) Saluzzo.

38397 VIVALDUS. Fol. 1 a: OPUS REGALE In quo ȯtinent' infrascripta opuscula . Epistola Consolatoria . . . Folio 1 b: Fratris Andree de Soncino . . Epla in libros Fratris Io. Ludo. Viualdi de monte regali . . sm. folio, Gothic letter, three grand woodcuts with borders, each occupying a full page, executed in the Florentine style, very fine copy in brown morocco extra, gold tooling, gilt marbled edges, by David, very scarce, £14.

. . per Magistrū Iacobū de Circhis de sācto Damiano Asten. Dioc: Et Sixtū de Somaschis Papiēseꝫ socios . . Salutijs . . Mccccxvij . . (1507)

It is curious, in view of the extreme rarity of this book at the present time, that a thousand copies were printed, as it is stated in the colophon. There had been a previous edition in 1503, but it cannot have contained the Epistola consolatoria for the death of Louis Marquis of Saluzzo, in 1504, or the beautiful portrait of that prince, a large bust, white on black, which is the first of the three woodcuts.

38418 MANDEVILLE (CHEVALIER JEHAN DE) ITINERAIRE DE JHERUSALEM, small folio, black letter, woodcuts, wanting 10 leaves, old gilt russia, EXCESSIVELY RARE, £15.

[At end:] Cy finist ce tresplaisant liure nomme Mandeuille parlant moult autentiquement du pays et terre doultre mer. [Lyons ?, about 1480]

This edition consists of sheets a-l (all in eights, except the last which is in nine leaves), or of 89 leaves (including the first with only the woodcut)—a full page being in 33 lines. The missing leaves are:—a 4, b 2 and 7, h 4, 5 and 6, k 1 and 6, and l 1 and 2. On the recto of folio 1 is a large woodcut of a youth bearing a lance, having on a scroll above "Johannes de Montevilla" and on the inner and upper margin of a ii is a woodcut of arabesque design. The work commences on a ii with woodcut capital C, the title following thus—"Ce liure est apelle mandeuille & fut fait/ e compose par messiere iehan de man/ deuille cheualier natif dangleterre de/ la ville de sainct alein Et parle de la ter/ re de promissiõ cest assauoir de iherusa/ lem et de pluseurs autres isles de mer &/ les diuerses e estranges choses qui sõt/ esdictez isles/."

The edition appears to be unknown to bibliographers. From the length of the lines and the appearance of the type it seems to have been printed about, if not before, 1480, and in Lyons.

38419 (FIER A BRAS, Roman de Chevalerie en Prose), small folio, gothic letter, with woodcuts; a few letters missing from signatures o 3-5, but a splendid copy, clean and large, with several uncut leaves; red morocco super-extra, gilt marbled edges, by Trautz-Bauzonnet, £84.

[At end:] Cy finist Fierabras imprime a lyon par maistre guillaume le roy le . xx . iour de ianuier. M.CCCC. lxxxvi. (1486)

EXTREMELY RARE. This copy sold for 900 francs in Prince d'Essling's sale, and for 650 francs in Martin's, but was resold in the Yemeniz for 2950 francs.

Collation: a-p, all in eights, except the last two, which are in sixes. The first leaf is blank, and the last contains nothing but a woodcut on the face.

38420 (BREYDENBACH, Voyage a Jerusalem), traduit par frère Nicole le Huen, small folio, lettres gothiques, WITH ALL THE 7 SEPARATE FOLDING LEAVES OF COPPER-PLATE ENGRAVINGS WHICH REPRESENT VIEWS OF TOWNS; a magnificent copy, very large and clean, in chocolate morocco extra, leather joints, gilt edges, by C. Lewis, EXTREMELY RARE, £120.

[At end:] Des sainctes peregrinations de iherusalem et des auirons & des lieux prochains. Du mont de synay & la glorieuse katherine: Cest ouuraige et petit liure contenãt du tout la description ainsi que dieu a voulu le dõner a cõgnoistre. Imprime a Lyon par hõnestes hõmes Michelet topie de pymont; & Iaques heremberck dalemaigne . . Mille . cccc. quattrevĩgtz & huictz . . (1488)

The plates in this extremely rare volume are the first examples of copper-plate engraving ever produced in France. The book is hardly ever to be found in a complete condition, most copies having been long ago mutilated for the cabinets of print-collectors. Even the Didot copy wanted the grand view of Venice, which is the best of all the engravings. The Duke of Roxburghe's sold for £84.

In the collation already given (No. 37483) it should have been stated that the first leaf was a blank, and the last the one with the large woodcuts of animals.

38421 VALENTIN ET ORSON (Roman de Chevalerie en Prose). Small folio, gothic letter, with woodcuts; a very fine copy, in brown morocco super-extra, gilt marbled edges, by Bauzonnet-Trautz, £80.

[At end:] Cy finist lystoire des deux vaillans cheualiers Valentin et Orson filz de lempereur de grece Imprime a lyon le penultime iour du mois de may par Jaques maillet Lan mil quatre cens quatre vingtz et neuf. (1489)

FIRST EDITION: of extraordinary rarity. This copy sold for 2050 francs in the Yemeniz sale, where it was described as made perfect by facsimiles by Gobert; but it has since been completed from a genuine copy, for, beyond a few letters, there is not a facsimile in the volume.

Collation: a-r, in eights. The first leaf contains nothing but a woodcut on the back.

38422 (LE FEVRE, RAOUL.) Le recueil des hystoires troyēnes cōtenant troys liures. . . Small folio, gothic letter, a few leaves neatly mended, purple morocco super-extra, gilt marbled edges, by Bauzonnet-Trautz, £16. 16*s*

[At end:] Imprime a Lyon le dixiesme iour doctobre Lan mil quatre cens quattre vings et dix. Michel topie & Iaques herēberck. (1490)

EXTREMELY RARE. This copy sold for 1510 francs in the Yemeniz sale.

Collation: a-m (including a sheet ff), and A-R; all in eights, except c-f, k-l, L-N and P-Q, which are in sixes. The last leaf of R was blank; and the last of m contains a full-page woodcut only.

38423 LES QUATRE FILz AYMON. Small folio, gothic letter; with woodcuts; the 22nd leaf (signature d ii) supplied in MS., red morocco extra, gilt-marbled edges, by Padeloup, £52. 10*s*

[At end:] Cy finist lhystoire du noble & vaillant cheualier regnault de montauban. Imprimee a lyon le. xx. iour du moys dapuril, lan mil quatre cens nonante trois. (1493)

First Edition with a date, and extremely rare—said to be UNIQUE. From the La Valliere, Renard, Solar and Chedeau Collections.

"Belle édition, infiniment précieuse."—Brunet, Suppl.

Collation: a-x, all in sixes, except a, m, v, and x, which are in eights. The last leaf was blank.

[Back of leaf CLII:] Finis Narragonicæ nauis . . . impressum (sic) (Iugduni) per iacobum zachoni de romano Anno domini. M.CCCC.LXXXViii . . . (pro 1498)

The date 1488 is evidently wrong, as the Epistola of Locher is dated 1497.

Collation: Leaves I-CLII, and 3 leaves of Index, etc.

38425 (LULLIUS.) Practica cōpiendiosa artis Raymūdi Lul. Explanatio compēdiosaqȝ applicatio artis . . Raymundi Lull. ad oēs

EXCESSIVELY RARE. These nine tracts were written between 1541, when the worthy Bishop with the Emperor was getting up the celebrated Leyes de las Indias of 1543, and 1550, when he was going into battle with Sepulveda, to prove that the conquest of the Indies was tyrannical, unjust and iniquitous. From the day of publication these tracts have maintained their historical importance, interest, and rarity.

For a list of the contents see page 3867.

(1480) Toledo.

Colophon : El carro de febo dspues d' auer dado mill & qniẽtas dos bueltas ẽ rueda . . . . fue de Salamaca impsso acabado (1502)

EXTREMELY RARE.

No copy of any earlier edition is known, although the book is supposed to have been printed in 1499, in 1500, and in 1501. Salvá omits to say that the unique copy usually described as of the first date, has a forged colophon. Of the existence of the third there is no valid evidence. (The copy in the Seillière sale to which the catalogue ascribed the date of 1501 had the colophonleaf refait. There was no certainty that it was really of that date.) The fact that the second one was printed is only proved by the colophon of an edition of 1513. But in 1502 there were three editions, one of Seville, another of Toledo, and this of Salamanca.

A to H in eights and I six leaves.

This very curious copy was purchased by Mr. Heber in the Mayans sale for £4. It contains valuable corrections and additions obtained by the collation of the MSS. in the Charter-House at Seville. See MS. note by D. Juan de Torres y Alarcon at end of Prologue. At the end are added a curious decapitated portrait and four leaves, in black letter, headed Don Alvaro de Luna condestable de Castilla y Maestre de Santiago, printed at Milan, 1546, illustrating Cap. cccı of the Chronica.

Coimbra, Joa. da Barreyra, 1552-61

With autograph of the author "FERNÃO LOPEZ DE CASTANHEDA at the end of the first and fifth books.

This is the only complete copy which has occurred for sale in modern times except Lord Crawford's.—See next article.

38459 LOPEZ DE CASTANHEDA, another copy, complete, 8 books in 5 vols. sm. folio, old mottled calf gilt, with the author's autograph on blank page at end of Book V, from the Earl of Crawford's library, £100. 1552-61

This was the only copy of the eight books which had passed through the market, before the Sunderland sale, having belonged, in a very imperfect state, to Colbert, Fleurieu and Heber, in succession. In 1835 it passed into the possession of the late Earl of Crawford (then Lord Lindsay, about twenty years of age), by whom it was completed.

First Edition of the Bohemian Version made for the Moravians, and privately printed by Baron John de Zerotjen at Kralitz, near his Castle of Namust in Moravia. It is excessively rare, because after the expulsion of Frederic V it was rigidly suppressed by the Jesuits, and nearly all the copies destroyed. The copy belonging to the Duke of Sussex sold for £46.

Collation: Vol. I, 4 leaves, leaves 1-324, and 6 leaves; Vol. II, ll. (1)-441, and 1 l.; Vol. III, ll. Apud filios Gio: Francisci Turresani Venetiis mense Martio .MDLXI. (1561)

This excessively rare edition, which forms one of the Aldine Series, was never seen by Renouard, who, in his Annales des Alde, erroneously mentions it on the authority of inexact bibliographers as a Liber Precum sive Liturgia Mozarabica. It is fully described by Brunet, Vol. I, col. 1236, from this copy, which formerly belonged to Klaproth. Only one other copy of this precious work is known, namely, that which sold for £41 in Mr. Heber's sale, and was resold in Bishop Butler's for £33. 12*s*.

Complete copies of the five parts are very rarely found united.

The first volume of the Bible is printed on paper of excessively coarse texture and bad colour, which was evidently manufactured in India. The missionaries seem to have procured from Europe the paper used for the continuation of the work.

FINAL SUPPLEMENT OF MANUSCRIPTS.

38521 BOETHIUS. DOMINO PATRI SIMACHO BOETIUS (DE ARITHMETICA; cum Glossis), MS. on vellum, written by an English hand, the body of the text in Caroline minuscules, the glosses in a similar but very minute character, the headings in Rustic capitals About A.D. 1000

(V)ICTRUVII DE ARCHITECTURA liber primus (libri novem), MS. on vellum, written by an English hand, with rubrications, in the clear bold semi-Gothic character of the twelfth century, imperfect at end . About A.D. 1150

—— the two works bound in 1 vol. sm. folio, still in the thick wooden boards in which it was bound in the fourteenth century, in a modern red morocco case, £48. A.D. 1000-1150

At the beginning and end there are, bound in, several leaves of legal documents in a crabbed style of abbreviation, written about 1320.—This volume belonged in the sixteenth century to a man whom we cannot identify from his scribblings on the blank leaves, but one of his inscriptions "Andreas Pearne est meus summus amicus" refers to a distinguished personage, Andrew Pearn, Dean of Ely, one of the chief translators of the Bishops' Bible.

38522 ORIGENES. Incip' pfatio Rufini in expositione originis sup eplam pauli ad Romanos translata ab eodē de greco in latinum . . sm. folio, MS. on vellum in semi-Caroline minuscules, with 10 painted initials formed by interlacements of green, yellow, red, blue, and white, some of them containing figures of Chimeras; French red morocco extra, gilt edges, £30. About A.D. 1100

This was apparently executed in Normandy or somewhere in North-east France in a monastery where the traditions of Irish or Anglo-Saxon art-decoration still survived. In the numerous dotted edge lines that appear in the initials or on the figures within them, we observe this particularly. The figure of St. Paul (with others) in the first initial U is strikingly like the earlier Anglo-Saxon work.

38523 MISSALE AD USUM SARUM, sm. folio, MS. on vellum; an imperfect but very interesting codex, historically connected with the Fitzalans Earls of Arundel and the Lords Burnell; in a stamped binding of the fifteenth century, £25. About A.D. 1160

At the side of the Memento for the Dead there is an entry on the margin "Edwardus Burnell,"—that is, Edward, Lord Burnell, of Shropshire, who died in 1316. Under his name, there is also a prayer for the souls of Richard Earl of Arundel (who died 1375) and his wife. Lord Burnel had been son-in-law to the grandfather of Earl Richard. These memoranda were written at the time of their respective deaths.

The MS. belonged to Richard Wossold of Wick (or Wyke), in Yorkshire, about the year 1500.

38524 PSALTERIUM, cum Calendario ad usum Eboracensem, square folio, illuminated MS. on vellum, with 92 pictures of scenes from the Bible and the lives of the Saints; old rough calf, in a red morocco case, £800.

Executed probably at Mendham Priory about 1170

Called the Huntingfield Psalter, because of two entries in the Calendar of the death of Sir Roger of Huntingfield (about 1337) and of Lucy of Huntingfield (about the same time). Mendham Priory was founded and endowed by successive members of this family, but the last Sir Roger died in 1337, and after the death of his son William, the large Huntingfield lordships in Norfolk, Suffolk, Essex, Cambridge, and Lincolnshire, passed into other hands.

This grand volume is a treasury of early English art such as can no longer now be found (with this single exception) out of the great public libraries. After the six leaves of Calendar (of markedly York character) 17 leaves follow containing nothing but pictures, two on each page, within light green, red, and blue architectonic borders. These sixty-eight miniatures begin with the creation, and end with the life of Christ, and are painted with remarkable care and finish on a partly gold ground. Three further leaves of illustrations contain twenty-four pictures (four per page) a little later in date and very much inferior in artistic quality. These represent scenes of saints' lives, and are chiefly interesting because they give a picture of Thomas a Beckett's martyrdom, which had evidently taken place between the date of the original miniatures and that of the 24 additional ones which have a plain gold line border. Next follows a leaf blank on the recto, and on the verso containing an immense B of interlacing work within a border studded with rounds and ovals, like jewels. This is by the same hand as did the first 68 pictures. Within the B is the genealogical tree of Jesse with its usual figures; the rounds and ovals contain various figures. Opposite to the B page is another containing the 14 lines which follow Beatus vir qui in gold capitals on alternating blue and flesh-coloured grounds. All the initials throughout the Psalter enclose grotesque or other figures or ornament of Anglo-Saxon type.

38525 HYMNS AND PRAYERS TO SAINTS, apparently for use with the MENAIA of the Greek Church, stout 4to. Greek MS. on vellum, not quite perfect; bound in velvet, £21.

About A.D. 1180

This is a very rare kind of Greek liturgical manuscript, belonging to the same class as the Evangelistaria and the Lectionaria, but of decidedly greater interest, and (unlike them) hardly ever met with. This must have come from a church of great importance.

As for the writing, the words run on usually without any division, except at the close of sentences, etc. The breathings have already taken the rounded form; but the letter-shapes are still antique.

38526 PSALTERIUM, cum Calendario ad usum Sarum, Canticis, Symbolo "Quicumque vult," precibus et Litania, sm. 4to. illuminated MS. on vellum, with 12 large initial letters each occupying nearly an entire page, and executed in a most elaborate and magnificent style of English art, combining the Celtic interlacement with the later development of Anglo-French decoration, each letter carried out in a border of curious work, in which we see the early stage of the decoration that blossomed into ivy-leaves at a later date; with a great number of minor illuminated capitals; bound in blue morocco, £100.

Clare Priory, about A.D. 1250

With the escutcheons, on the first page of the text, of Gilbert de Clare Earl of Gloucester; of his wife Joan of Acre, the daughter of King Edward I; of John Earl of Warren and Surrey;—all three of whom were benefactors of Clare Priory. Those escutcheons were painted in the book, evidently in or immediately after the year 1294, when Gilbert de Clare married the Princess Joan. There is also at the bottom of the same page another shield, or, a cross, sable; which seems to have been used by a branch of the Gifford family; and in the Calendar, opposite the 7th of March, we see an entry of the death of John Gifford, "militis," in 1348.

On page 1 of the Calendar, there is an autograph "Roberti Hare, 1561." He was an early Norwich book-collector. Near this name is the relic of an older one, the principal part of which is cut away, leaving only the words "nere Kastan."—The Calendar is of marked Sarum character.

38527 MARTYROLOGIUM USUARDI CUM CALENDARIIS. Domino piissimo regũ Karolo. Ysuardus indignus sacerdos . . sm. folio, fine MS. on vellum; bound in calf, blind-tooled, £12.

Written in Arles or Avignon, about A.D. 1230

The first of the two Kalendars prefixed to Usuardus in this volume is of the ordinary South-French character, with special reference to Benedictine or Cistercian use. It wants the first leaf (January and February); and the last leaf of the text of Usuardus is missing at the end. The second Calendar is complete, and is of special local interest, having been written in some convent of nuns in Avignon or Arles belonging to the Cistercian order. The names of saints, bishops, and private members of the order which are crowded into this calendar make it very interesting, as the entries in it were made down to 1600, and some of them betray the linguistic peculiarities of Provence.

38528 PSALTERIUM cum Calendario, Symbolo S. Athanasii, et Litania; in fine succedunt Horæ B.V.M. etc. sm. folio, splendid illuminated Manuscript on vellum, ornamented with 2 full-page miniatures (1 David playing the harp and slaying Goliath, clad in Norman chain armour with triangular shield bearing a dragon, 2 Assassination of Saint Thomas a Becket, the knights in Norman chain armour), and with 327 initial letters (7 historiated with mintatures representing the Passion of Christ) richly illuminated in gold and colours; maroon morocco extra, with 10 gilt bosses and 4 clasps, £63. About A.D. 1280

A very curious volume of Dutch or North German origin. In the Calendar, opposite the 18th of March, there is an additional entry "O(bitus) dni Lamberti Tolneere anno lvi." This refers to the year 1356.

38529 MISSALE PLENARIUM AD USUM SARUM, stout folio, illuminated MS. on vellum, with numerous figured borders, and a considerable number of initials enclosing fine Miniatures; wanting the calendar, the first leaf, and a leaf or two at the end; bound in calf, blind tooled, £200. About A.D. 1300

An English volume of the most valuable kind. All the tractus, gradualia, responsoria, etc. are given at large, with the full music of each. It is very seldom indeed that a Sarum Missal older than 1450 is met with; and it only requires an easy comparison between one of the usual kind and this magnificent liturgical MS. to see what is the difference in kind between them, and how important is a book of this sort for obtaining an exact idea of the complete ceremonial of the mass in the time of Edward I.

38530 ROMAN DES SEPT SAGES, OU DE SINTIPAS, de MARQUES de ROME, et de LORIN, sm. folio, MS. on vellum, with 8 small Miniatures enclosed within initial letters; brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Belz-Niedrée, £52. 10*s* About A.D. 1300

Excessively rare even in MSS. of any age whatever, but of such an age as the present, this volume is a priceless treasury of romance. The scribe, to judge from the character of the writing and some of the spelling, was a Flemish resident in Paris who had been in Italy; but the language is a true monument of old French literature, all the more valuable as we know that it contains a better text than has been printed of the Sept Sages, and that the Marquis and the Lorin (which stand to the Sept Sages in the same relation as the Tristan and the Meliadus to the Lancelot) have never been printed.

A long description, with collations, in the autograph of Paulin Paris is inserted loosely in the volume, from which it may be seen how highly this MS. was prized by so competent an authority. Unfortunately it is not quite complete, but the Sept Sages portion lacks only the first and the last leaf.

38531 THE RED BOOK OF THORNEY. Cartularium et Registrum Cœnobii Thorneyensis, stout folio, MS. on vellum, 467 leaves; in the old black morocco binding with which it was covered about 1630 by Mildmay Earl of Westmoreland, £250.

Thorney Abbey, Cambridgeshire, about 1320

The only codex of a highly important series of historical documents, a description and summary of which are given in eighteen columns of the first edition of Dugdale's Monasticon.

Although the series of charters begins with one of King Edgar in A.D. 973, and we find a few entries made as late as 1530; the great body of the MS. was compiled by order of the Abbot William Clopton and his successor Reginald between 1310 and 1325. Another large portion was added, as well as the chronological register at the beginning, in the year 1465 when "captus erat Henricus quondam rex." Amongst the nine divisions in which the various documents are arranged, we find the following headings:—Cartæ et Scripta de Terris, Tenementis ac Redditibus in the counties of Huntingdon, Cambridge, Northampton, Rutland, Warwick, Lincoln, Bedford, and Middlesex; Compositiones et Fines; Privilegia Papalia et Episcopalia; and Gesta Abbatum.

As one of the historical muniments of England in the Middle Ages, it would be difficult to overrate the value and importance of the Red Book of Thorney. It is to be hoped that it will find a permanent home in company with Domesday book and such other records of its kind as still survive. The extracts made by Dugdale and Tanner are the only portions which have ever been published.

38532 MEDITATIONS, PRIERES, ET POÉSIES, 12mo. (sm. 8vo.), MS. on vellum, red morocco extra, gilt edges, with a morocco wrapper and a case, £12. About 1320

Written by a Picard or Flemish hand, and containing paraphrases from St. Augustin, expositions on the pater noster, the creed, etc., prayers and hymns, in three divisions. Péché is represented by pekiet, richesse by rikaiche. One of the headings runs thus—Chi apries sensieut li prologes de le pater noster en rommant.

38533 CISTERCIENSIS ORDINIS PRIVILEGIA. Incipiūt puilegia libtates immunitates et indulgētie nobis a sede aplica ɔcesse q st sub cōpendio in decem caplis ɔphense . . sm. 4to. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, with miniature of St. Bernard praying to the Virgin and Child, illuminated in gold and colours; calf gilt, £7. 10*s* About A.D. 1350

38534 ONSER VROUWĒ GETIDE (Hours of the Virgin, according to the use of Utrecht), 16mo. illuminated MS. on vellum, with 40 Miniatures, twenty of which have borders, finely drawn and richly coloured; red morocco, lettered on the back "Missale Saxonicum," £31. 10*s* Bruges, about 1395-1400

In this exquisite little volume the paintings are very remarkable for the colouring, rich, harmonious, and Italian in taste, combined with fine and delicate Flemish drawing. In the border-work there are occasionally some grotesque figures also of Italian style. Margaret van Eyck might have been the author of these pictures.

38535 PSALTERIUM, cum canticis, litania, et hymnis, sm. folio, illuminated MS. on vellum, with 9 Miniatures and 8 borders in the loveliest style of French art; also a great number of ornamental illuminated capitals; calf, from the library of the Earl of Westmoreland, £85. About A.D. 1395-1400

This is a volume of exquisite taste, illuminated probably at Tours. It has no longer the original calendar, but a Calendar of Sarum character was prefixed to it about 1450, at the time when the book was carried to England. In the large picture of King David, the Psalmist's robes are covered with the initial M frequently repeated—which may suggest the name of Jacques de Bourbon Comte de la Marche.

38536 (BREVIARIUM AD USUM TOLOSANUM?) PROPRIUM SANCTORUM, ET PSALTERIUM (cum Symbolo, Litania, et precibus) per anni circulum, small 4to. magnificently illuminated MS. on 357 leaves of the finest abortive vellum; with 30 Miniatures of unrivalled beauty and delicacy; an ivy-leaf border to every page, and nearly 2000 illuminated capitals; bound in velvet, with gold clasps studded with gems; in a brown morocco case, lettered "Missale, Festivitates Sanctorum," from the Seillière library, £500. About 1395-1400

I have in my possession a chef-d'œuvre of the Flemish school, of marvellous loveliness (see No. 35696); I have an Italian Psalter of ravishing beauty (35758); and in this volume I have such a triumph of French artistic genius as must remain unparalleled outside of public Museums. There is not a blemish on its sparkling surface from beginning to end; and the finished perfection of the painting is such that the miniatures, lovely as they are to the naked eye, are still lovelier and more delicate when examined through a glass.

This volume cost the Baron de Seillière twenty thousand francs.

The office of St. Saturninus and the fine Miniature of that saint lead me to conclude that the use is that of Toulouse.

38537 PSALTERIUM, Symbolum S. Athanasii, Litania et Orationes, cum Calendario in Usum Sarum, sm. 4to. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written by an English Scribe, richly ornamented with floreated borders, initial letters (the first historiated with David playing on the harp), executed in gold and colours, having on fly-leaves arms of Wigmore, Mytton, and others emblazoned in gold, silver and colours; with the autographs of Richard Wygmor, 1535, and of his son Thomas, 1565; in the original oak boards in an olive morocco case, lettered, "THE WIGMORE PSALTER, CIRC. 1440," £28. Northamptonshire, about 1430

38538 HORE BEATE MARIE VIRGINIS, Officia Sanctorum, Psalterium S. Jeronimi, etc. cum Calendario ad usum Sarum, small 4to.

Illuminated Manuscript on Vellum, by an English Scribe; containing 24 large Miniatures, and as many illuminated borders and initials facing them, and 20 small Miniatures, with a large contemporary print of St. Antony impressed on a leaf of vellum at the beginning, just over a dozen manuscript lines of "Oracio beati Antonii;" old English half binding, in a morocco case, £60. circa A.D. 1440

Probably written at Exeter or somewhere in that direction, to judge from the spelling of St. Swithin's name with Z instead of S.—Some additions made about 1500 include offices of SS Ninian and Armagil which indicate a Breton or Welsh connection.

One of the Miniatures represents the murder of Thomas à Beckett at the altar, and precedes the full office of that saint. The Woodcut or metal-print prefixed, with its few lines of MS. text, is the only example of such an illustration ever found in an old English MS. The design shows St. Antony, with staff and bell in hand, and the hog behind him springing on his hind feet, with the fire shooting up from the ground in front of and against the saint's mantle.

Some English inscriptions and additions are found on the blank spaces.

38539 THE WORCESTER MISSAL. MISSALE AD USUM SARUM, cum Calendario, small folio, illuminated MS. on vellum, written in red and black, with the Music; ornamented with flowered borders and richly painted initials, and many hundreds of gilt capitals, £80. Worcester, about A.D. 1450

A highly interesting volume which belonged to the cathedral church of Worcester in Henry VIII's time, and was presented by Prior William More in 1521 to the church of Bromsgrove. This is indicated by a note in red ink on the last page, in Latin, written in that year; which is followed by a translation of the same note into English by an Elizabethan hand.

38540 MARTIAL. Fol. 1: M. VAL. MARTIALIS Epigrammaton liber primvs incipit felicit' . . 8vo. fine MS. on vellum, with 14 illuminated initials formed of interlacing branches of red, white, blue, and gold; old calf, £36. ? Naples, about 1450

Codices of Martial are extremely rare; indeed there are few classical writers who are not more frequently met with in manuscript form than he. Only some of the great public libraries can boast of possessing one. There are apparently about three or four leaves missing at the end of the fourteenth book, but from some memoranda at the end we can see that it is now in the same state as it was in, when those notes were written in the sixteenth century.

38541 HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS, ad usum Sarum, sm. 4to. Manuscript on Vellum, finely written within elegant floreated borders and ornamented with 9 bordered miniatures, exquisitely illuminated in gold and colours, red velvet, gilt edges, £36. About 1460

Opposite the Calendar which the binder has misplaced, are the following lines:

God give them grace their lives to mend,
Which cease not God and man to offend.

Every page is decorated with a border of foliage and flowers sparkling all over with buds and leaves of gold. The Calendar (misplaced and defective as it is) and the Litany show us that the use is that of Sarum; and the book was therefore evidently destined for England, although apparently written in France.

38542 NATURE DE TOUTES CHOSES, ENSEIGNEMENT DE LA PHYSIQUE, ET LIVRE D'HYPOCRATE, sm. folio, Manuscript on Vellum, ornamented with 151 Miniatures, richly illuminated in gold and colours, representing the Creation, Surgical Operations, numerous Plants, Preparation of Beverages, Beasts, Birds, etc. oak boards covered in stamped leather, with 10 brass bosses and clasps, £100. About A.D. 1460

A highly valuable and apparently unknown work, which was compiled by some French doctor of the fifteenth century as a treatise on the conservation of health, but which passes almost all forms of scientific knowledge under review. It includes a complete Flora and Fauna, an exposition of the practical uses of plants and herbs, on the making of wines, etc.

and on Physiognomy, in four parts; and ends with the Lettre d'Hippocrate à Cesar. The pictures are extremely valuable as they are actual and faithful representations done for scientific and practical purposes; not mere fancy illustrations.

I cannot trace the existence of any other MS. of this work. It may be unique. The first words of the text are—"Dieu qui par sa grant puissance tout le monde estably qui premierement fist le ciel."

38543 GUILLEVILLE (Guillaume de) LES TROIS PELERINAGES: de la Vie humaine, de l'Ame et de Jesus Christ. Fol. 1: Cy commance le romans de lumain voiaige de vie humaine qui est expose sus le romans de la rose . . folio, grand MS. on vellum, 200 leaves, finely written in double columns, and adorned with 173 charming Miniatures splendidly executed, the gold and colours being wonderfully fresh and well preserved; bound in crimson plush, £80. About 1465

There are marks where some miniatures were cut out, and a few leaves are also missing, but this is still one of the most magnificent Romance MSS. of the middle ages. From the style of the writing, and the sumptuous splendour of the miniatures, one might suppose that this volume had formerly belonged to the library of Louis de Gruthuyse or perhaps to that of Charles the Bold himself.

38544 MISSALE FRATRUM MINORUM SECUNDUM CONSUETUDINEM ROMANÆ CURIÆ, cum Calendario, folio, MAGNIFICENT MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, with 3 exquisitely beautiful illuminations the size of the page, and 30 small miniatures, richly illuminated in gold and colours by an Italian artist; blue morocco super extra, gilt edges, by C. Lewis, with Arms of P. A. Hanrott in gold on sides, £100.

Henricus Haring, Almanus, in conventu Montoni, 1469

This splendid Manuscript has on the last leaf the name of the scribe and date of execution, in a colophon which shows that the work was executed at the Neapolitan convent of Montonio or Montorio. The decoration is grand but has a somewhat more sombre look than the work of the North. The Crucifixion is a striking picture including altogether six figures one of which is St. Francis with stigmatized feet kneeling to the crucified Saviour.—Although the scribe was a German, his calligraphy is a perfect example of Italian Gothic.

38548 BOCCACCIO. Cy commence le prologue du liure Iehan bocace des cas des nobles homes et femmes trâslate de latin en francois par laurens du premierfait, stout folio, manuscript on paper, the first page beautifully ornamented with a border and a very large and fine Miniature; numerous capitals throughout the book illuminated in gold and colours; oak boards, covered with old green velvet, edges gilt and goffered, £31. 10s About 1470

38546 HORÆ BEATÆ VIRGINIS MARIÆ, cum variis officiis et Calendario, sm. 8vo. illuminated manuscript on vellum, 229 leaves, with 84 Miniatures (thirty-four large and fifty small) and a large number of splendid borders, in which designs of flowers, birds, insects, fishes, shells, death's heads, grotesques, are painted upon back grounds of pale gold or deep colours; a magnificent example of Flemish art at its best period, bound in red velvet with gilt metal clasps and ornaments, £84. ? Ghent, about 1490

One of the pictures in this charming volume contains a distinct view of a church which seems to be the Cathedral of Ghent. If this surmise be correct, we might follow it up by ascribing the exquisite miniatures in this volume to the hand of Gheraerd Horenbout. Whoever the artist was, his work is of superb and striking character, notwithstanding a certain heaviness in the more decorative portions, as in the border illustrations.

38547 CARTA DE FORAL dado a villa da Vidiguerra per Dom. Manuel Rey de Portugal, sm. folio, MANUSCRIPT UPON VELLUM, written upon 17 leaves in a gothic hand, with an illuminated head-piece to the first page containing the arms of Portugal supported by two Globes; in the original binding of oak boards covered with stamped leather with corner bosses and centre piece in brass, of the arms of Portugal and the Globes, in relief, preserved in a morocco case, £15. Lixboa, 1512

With the King's autograph signature consisting only of the words "El Rey." This is an interesting memorial of the King for whom Brazil was discovered and who took such an enlightened interest in the extension of geographical research. It is in very fine preservation.

38548 BRADLEY (John W.) A Dictionary of Miniaturists, Illuminators, Calligraphers, and Copyists, with references to their works and notices of their patrons, from the establishment of Christianity to the eighteenth century, 3 vols. 8vo. hf. red morocco, uncut, £2. 2*s* Bernard Quaritch, 1887

38549 ——— the same, 3 vols. roy. 8vo. LARGE PAPER, hf. bd. £3. 3*s* 1887

Vol. I is now out; Vols. II, III will soon be ready.—A good book by a competent man on a little known but interesting subject.

38550 RIAÑO (Juan F.) Critical and Bibliographical Notes on early Spanish Music, 8vo. with numerous facsimiles from the MSS. of the XV-XVI Century, giving ornamental initials, palæographical examples, miniatures, and specimens of written music, hf. Roxburghe, 21*s* Bernard Quaritch, 1887

38551 ——— the same, LARGE PAPER, roy. 8vo. hf. Roxburghe, 31*s* 6*d* 1887

38552 KH'ANDAMIR. KHULASAT-UL-AKHBAR: a General History of Islam, beginning with Adam and the Prophets, and ending with an account of Herat at the close of the fifteenth century, 8vo. the historian's autograph MS. 978 pp. neatly and boldly written in a clear Nastalik hand; old Persian black morocco, repaired, £6. 10*s* Finished . . in the year 905 . . and I am the author of it, the fakir Ghiyas-ud-din bin Humam-ud-din, surnamed Kh'andamir . . (A.D. 1499)

A manuscript of very great value, which has passed through the hands of several distinguished Persian collectors, and which was lately brought from Tehran.

THE END.
